Please brief me on the final result of the AMCLEVE/ 15 case ?? Was Sam eventually satisfied and is all now calm ??

Thank you,

Harry -

There was no problem with Sam on this case. At Hqs instructions JMWAVE terminated AMCLEVE-15 and the FBI ~~[illegible]~~ (or rather the Justice Dept.) planned to use A-15 to collect evidence against a Miami gambler. However the Dept. of Justice cancelled this plan [illegible] [illegible] leaving A-15 a free body.

Since then A-15 became involved with KICKSALT-1&2, which has caused a minor stir. I am holding the file until all the dust settles.

SUBJECT
TYPIC/Operational
Termination of AMCLEVE/15

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
Action Required: See para 7

Reference: JMWAVE-8156, 11 July 1967

1. As reported in reference, AMCLEVE/15 was terminated effective 11 July 1967. AMCLEVE/15 was terminated because he resigned from his position as a military coordinator/member of RECE (Cuban Representation in Exile), a Miami based Cuban exile organization, in early June 1967 and he thus lost access to his target, as AMCLEVE/15 had been reporting on the activities of RECE since 1 August 1966. In addition, JMWAVE does not have a current need or any operational interest in RECE, and the AMOT organization has the capability to penetrate and report on RECE if and when the need should arise. After AMCLEVE/15 resigned from RECE, he was a candidate for employment in the AMOT organization; however, because of his involvement with Frank "Lefty" ROSENTHAL and for other security reasons it was decided that the AMOT organization should not hire him.

2. AMCLEVE/15 began his employment with WOFACT in April 1965 and initially served as an instructor in the Maritime Training Branch of JMWAVE. He was also active in reporting on exile activities. On 1 August 1966, AMCLEVE/15 was transferred to the CI Branch where he was used to report on the activities of RECE until his resignation in early June 1967.

3. Since AMCLEVE/15 was amicably terminated, JMWAVE does not envision any problems at this time. AMCLEVE/15 plans to seek employment in Caracas, Venezuela, through an old friend who resides there.

4. On 21 July 1967 AMCLEVE/15 was given a termination bonus of $650.00, which is equivalent to two months salary, minus FICA and federal income tax. He was paid $549.60 net.

TYPIC/AMSAFE
Request for HQ Intercession to Facilitate Entry of Identity A

AR: See Paragraph below

1. Identity A, who is the mother of AMICE/31, a Station asset, has been twice denied permission to enter the United States as a refugee from Cuba. The local ODURGE office has stated that Identity A has been placed on a denied admissions list because of information supplied by ODACID.

2. According to AMICE/31, Identity A applied for admission to the United States with her daughters, Identities B and C. Identities B and C received the necessary authorization on 24 February 1966 from the Swiss Embassy and arrived in the United States by air on 28 February.

3. Identity A was the wife of Identity D, a member of the Cuban Communist Party for some twenty years, at the time of her first application to leave Cuba. Identity D died in October of 1965 and according to AMICE/31 lost his Communist Party membership card about a year prior to his death. According to AMICE/31, Identity A has never joined or been a member of the Communist Party although there is a possibility that her husband may have placed her name on the membership lists. AMICE/31 also stated that she has long been a practicing Catholic and that she is very anti-Communist. Sent as separate cover attachments are two statements from the Bishop of Cienfuegos and the Assistant Bishop of Havana testifying to her good character and to her standing as a practicing Catholic.

Attachments:

2. Letters, USC

Distribution:
3 - WH/C w/atts USC

4. It is requested that Headquarters contact the appropriate ODACID and ODURGE officials for the purpose of removing Identity A's name from the denied admissions list since her close connection with a member of the Cuban Communist Party, which presumably was the basis of the derogatory information, is no longer a fact.

CIA

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. To process the Operational Approval, full information (completed PRQ Parts I and II) must be submitted as soon as possible and not later than six (6) months from this date. An Operational Approval will follow when all investigation is completed and upon the receipt of satisfactory PRQ Parts I and II. Cancellation must be requested if use of Subject by interested Divisions ceases.

Querido Amigo:

Paso a contestar tu atenta nota de fecha 2 del actual.- Rapidamente, trataré de darte un panorama de lo que ocurre aquí y de algunas ideas para la FLAT.- Para mejor información tuya, te acompaño además un informe sobre la situación interna de la CGT Argentina y algunos problemas que nos afectan muy agudamente a los trabajadores de esta parte de Latinoamerica.-

1.- La huelga general de los obreros del puerto lleva ya al día de la fecha - 53 días de duración.- A pesar de la solidaridad que han recibido de muchos gremios y de todas las fuerzas populares, la situación de estos compañeros es muy dura.- Los motivos de la huelga los encontrarás en el informe adjunto.-

La ITF ha "recomendado" el boycott internacional en apoyo de los portuarios argentinos.- La medida es justa, pero ha resultado bastante limitada ya que no todos los sindicatos adheridos a la ITF lo han puesto en práctica, además en algunos lugares se aplicó mal, pues se boycoteaba a los barcos argentinos, pero no a los de otros banderas que venían con mercaderías de Argentina; esto no es eficaz y se presta a maniobras turbias.- YO ESCRIBI A LA CLASC y a la CISC pidiendo un apoyo decidido a los portuarios argentinos, pero aun no hemos recibido aquí la documentación sobre las medidas que hayan adoptada nuestras centrales internacionales.-

2.- Otro conflicto sumamente grave, es el que enfrentamos en este momento los ferroviarios.- El gobierno ha sancionado por ley un nuevo reglamento de trabajo que nos retrotrae a 50 años atrás en muchos aspectos; además el plan oficial prevé la reducción de los 25 talleras con 51 líneas de producción que existen, a solamente 19 talleros con 31 líneas de producción. Esto significa DESOCUPACION y además, perjudica al sistema ferroviario y al país.-

Es necesario presionar a la Federación Internacional de Sindicatos Cristianos del Transporte de la CISC, y a las organizaciones de base de la FLAT, para que se pronuncien tambien en este grave conflicto, crucial para el movimiento obrero argentino, YA QUE LA UNION FERROVIARIA ES EL SINDICATO MAS PODEROSO DE LA ARGENTINA.-

3.- La CCT Argentina se ha lanzado ya a un enfrentamiento abierto contra el gobierno militar de Onganía. El proximo miercoles 14 habra un paro general de 24 horas, como protesta contra el escandaloso aumento del costo de vida, contra el "arbitraje obligatorio" y en apoyo de los gremios en conflicto.-

4.- En el aspecto interno de la FLAT, te diré que como secretario general, me he visto totalmente frenado por la falta de recursos, ya que ni para imprimir papel membretado tengo dinero.-

A pesar de esta dificultad, he tratado de hacer algunas tareas mínimas: enviar información a la CLASC y a la CISC sobre los problemas del transporte que existen en Argentina, y mantener un mínimo de cohesión y de organización del grupo de sindicalistas cristianos del transporte que actúan en mi pais.-

Lo que estoy necesitando, son las direcciones de las organizaciones afiliadas a la FLAT. En Panama no las tomé, porque se nos había prometido una lista completa de nombres y direcciones de todos los participantes del Congreso de CLASC; pero esto nunca llego.

5.- Estoy completamente de acuerdo contigo, en la necesidad de presionar al Buró y al Comité Ejecutivo de CLASC, para que pongan en marcha las FEDERACIONES PROFESIONALES.- Tambien deberán solucionar tu situación (es necesario que vengas a Latinoamerica), proveer de algunos recursos mínimos a la FLAT, y CONCRETAR DEFINITIVAMENTE EL CURSO-CONGRESO DEL TRANSPORTE.-

Siempre a tus órdenes, te saluda fraternalmente,

Juan Carlos Loureiro

1. AMICE-31 had only the following to add concerning Raimundo ONGARO and his activities: After ONGARO had made his violent speech on television in Santo Domingo he was cornered by the Cuban (exile) delegation the members of which were incensed by his allegations concerning Cuban exiles and his misinformation about the Castro regime. According to AMICE-31 their arguments prevailed and ONGARO in the end was quite apologetic and admitted to them (AMICE-31 thought sincerely) that he had been in error. As proof of the sincerity of ONGARO's change of mind on the Cuban question AMICE-31 pointed to the fact that, on behalf of the Cuban delegation, ONGARO approached Juan Luis GALLO Estevez, the intransigent Uruguayan whose negative vote (the only one) doomed the Cuban-sponsored resolution on political prisoners to defeat, and tried to get him to go along with the majority.

2. AMICE-31 called ONGARO basically "un buen muchacho" and non-Communist. He reported that ONGARO was a strong peronista and a "good, practicing Catholic". He added this latter description with some wonderment because he had always placed "good, practicing Catholics" automatically in the pro-U.S., anti-Castro camp.

Proposed Travel of AMICE-31

ACTION REQUIRED REFERENCES

AR: FYI

REF: UFGA-25587 dated 25 July 1966

Headquarters has considered the invitations received by AMICE-31 and has reached the following conclusions on his proposed travel:

A. There seems no useful purpose to be served by covering AMICE-31's personal expenses for the trip described in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the referenced dispatch as WOFACT has good coverage from other sources.

B. Headquarters has no interest in AMICE-31's attendance at the meeting described in paragraph 3 but also no objections to his accepting the invitation if Station JMWAVE deems it advisable or considers this will be of value in any of the Station's own operations.

1. Attached is AMICE-31's report on the meeting of the Eighth Continental Council of the Confederacion Latinoamericana de Sindicatos Cristianos (CLASC, Latin American Confederation of Christian Trade Unions), held in Medellin, Colombia, from 5 to 14 January 1966.

2. Since the Station has not received copies of any disseminations that may have been made from information cabled during the meeting at Medellin, no attempt has been made to prepare portions of AMICE-31's report for dissemination. If any of the report is disseminated at Headquarters, the Station would appreciate receiving copies, along with copies of any reports that may already have been disseminated on the meeting at Medellin, and any future disseminations on the CLASC.

PICO'S TRIP TO MEDELLIN

After reading Pico's report and talking to him twice I reached following conclusions :

I ACHIEVEMENTS of Pico

1. Achieved with the cooperation of Edgar Maduro to soften the anti-US line in the Declaration of Principles and elimination of US name which was ~~xx~~ replaced by "imperialisms".

2. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Together with the Venezuelan delegates drafted the motion condemning the Tricontinental Conference. and participated actively in drumming up the support for this motion.

3. Pushed thru the motion condemning Castro's regime.

4. Excercised a strong anti-communist and anti-Castro influence among the delegates.

II PICO'S IMPRESSIONS OF THE MEDELLIN MEETING

1. Pico came back favorably impressed by strongly anti-communist stand of the delegates. He says that even if Maspero would try to cooperate with the commies the rank and file will not let him to do so.

2. Pico noted only three rabid anti-US delegates : Miguel Cardoso(Accion Sindical Uruguaya), Diogenes Gutierrez(Federacion Istmeña de Trabajadores Cristianos -Panama) and Heliodoro Agudelo Rivera(Accion Sindical Antioqueña) .

3. Pico informs that Henry Molina(Sec.Gen.of Confederacion Autonoma de Sindicatos Cristianos CASC-D.R.) even if highly critical of US intervention in D.R. is an outspoken communist and he recommends him as a material for recruitment.

4. Molina spoke very favorably of Conrado Rodriguez who during his stay in D.R. as FORDC delegate made an excellent impression and became good friend of CASC .

5. It is evident from the briefing instructions received from HQ and cables received from "our man in Medellin" that a strong opposition to CLASC HQ stand (or Maspero's) to the new funding proposal by CISC and ISI was expected. Pico says that he could not discover such opposition and that three national unions which already applied for direct funding according to the instructions received from CISC quickly withrew their application. Pico also did not note any "betrayal" on the part of Federacion Campesina.

Thus I see two possibilities : a) the opposition to CLASC HQ stand that all funding should go thru HQ was exaggerated b) Pico is considered as close friend to Maspero and was not trusted by the opposition.

According to Pico the feeling was quite unanimous the the funding should go thru CLASC HQ and the CISC attempt of direct funding was resented as an effort to undermine CLASC Executive Committee.

ATT 1 TO UFGA 24874 31 MAR 201-[illegible]

6. It looks that our friend who talked to Pico in Medellin and Bogota was disgusted because Pico was satisfied with the results of the meeting. Pico's satisfaction stemmed from the strong anti-Castro stand the Council adopted and it is obvious that the fuming problem so important to us could not ~~x~~ upset him.

7. Pico reports that there is a good chance that Dagoberto Gonzalez(Sec.Gen.of Trabajadores Copeyanos) will be elected as CLASC president at the next CLASC Congress. According to him Jose Goldsack will become Treasurer and present treasurer Alfredo di Pacce will head a new CLASC office dedicated to raise funds from the LA affiliates.
Pico cousiders Gonzalez as a staunch anti-communist and better disposed toward I than Maspero. He thinks that flanked by Gonzalez and Gold sack, Maspero will not have so much to say and his power will be limited. Gonzalez is apparently a much more forceful personality than Goldsack, who doesn't have enough guts to oppose Maspero.

8. Pico believes that Maspero is less aggressive and anti-US as he used to be. He thinks that the pressure from CISC and ISI plus a strong anti-communist posture pf the affiliates accounts for this.

In the cables received from our Colombia office there is a strong criticism of Pico as a sort of Maspero's stooge. After discussiong this topic several times with Pico I think that his opinion of Maspero ~~XXXXXX~~ is :

Maspero is a forceful, dynamic and well ~~prepared~~ educated leader. As an Argentine and ex-peronista he has more drive and is a better organizer than the others in CLASC. Besides he offers CLASC a promise of bringing CTG into an alliance with them, a feat which only he can accomplish. For Pico's taste Maspero is too demagogic and he doesn't like his anti-US and soft of commies attitude, however, Pico claims that Maspero lately is much more aware of commie danger. As Maspero is without doubt the most powerful single individual in CLASC and as Pico positi is weak(his Federation is not created yet and he has to be confirmed as Secretar General) he sees no use of bucking Maspere especially as no organized and strong opposition exists. Pico,however, would see with sympathy Maspero power restricte or it will not bother him al all to see Maspero removed completely. But as long as he exists Pico believes that for his personal good and in order to be able to push strong anti-Castro stand(in which he is mainly interested) he has to work and live with Maspero.

This position impresses me as a sensible one.

III MISC. REMARKS

1. There is some inconsistence in the cables we received. In one of them Romano Tschumi, CLASC Executive Secretary for the Dutch Antilles and President of CEDEU is described as " widely considered insignificant and unipresive element". In another cable this same Tschumie is quoted as a source (direct source not via Pico as Pico said that he didn't know about campesinos sold out) and as a new CLASC Asst Secretary General(Pico also claims that he doesn't know about it even if he was criticised for before ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ getting his info from such a lousy source as Tschumie).

[illegible] Jan.1964.

2. Pico reports that in Caracas he met Carl Norden from ISI Bonn office in CLASC office. Carlos Moris(vice-director of Instituto de Estudios Sociales d Caribe), Mariano Benitez(Centro Documentacion -Caracas) Santiago Tortosa(Sec Gen of CODESA), Ezequiel Borges(CIS) were also present. Norden reported that the US Embassy in Bonn informed them on Sunday Jan.16th in the morning about all important toxpics discussed, resolutions etc adopted in Medellin. While impressed by the fast work and correct reporting ~~mx~~ Norden expressed his curiosity as to how it was possible that the embassy in Bonn was so fast informed (NOTE : I am surprised even more that a blubber-mouth like Norden was informed about such report!). The general consensus of the present was that CIA must have few men infiltrated among the delegates.....

3. According to the new by-laws Pico's Transport Federation(in formation) will hav 3 votes during the next Congress, equal to other L.A. Federations and national delegations. Threfore it is important for us that we continue to work with Pico,

4. Pico should also go to the CLASC meeting in Guatemala in March when the Central American Confederation will be created. CLASC also wants to create Central American Transport Federation and there where Pico's presence is requested.

5. I asked Pico if his CLASC friends don't resent the fact that he works for FORDC. He said that this problem was solved once for ever. CLASC executives know that only two principal currents exists among the Cuban exiled labor : the batistian and the revolutionaries. The Batistianos are the Mujalistas of CTC aided by ORIT and CLASC is against the Mujalistas. They are in favor of the revolutionaries an they are in FORDC, which is the only really active exile labor organizations. CLASC leaders know that FORDC is being supported by the US government , but they accept it as a necessity and understand that it is inevitable as neither the batistianos or the communists will support it and CLASC has no funds to do so.

SUMMING UP

By no means I consider that Pico is an ideal agent. He ~~might~~ may be influenced or awed by Maspero. He also is sometimes impulsive and puts his foot in the mouth. On the other hand he is : young, agressive, better educated than average Cuban labor leade: He is accepted in CLASC, his organization ORT is a ~~fxxx~~ member and he will be the head of the Latin American Transport Federation which will give him following advantages : a) voice and 3 votes at CLASC meetings b) can influence CLASC decision: c) will bring strong anti-Castro and anti-communist influence d) will soften up anti-US outbursts e) will report to us, even if we have to take his reliability wit a grain of salt.

NOTE : I forget to call your attention to the curious little item in Pico's repo:

He advises that the Copeyanos gained the control of the Sindicato Portuario in Puerto Cabello wrestling it away from Correa after it was found that 200,000 bolivares were missing from the treasury. Pico also reports that there are widespread rumors that Correa is living it up at the expense of the boycott and that he is blackmailing Spanish, Japanese and British embassies getting hard cash for not boycotting the ships......

1. Identity A, who is the mother of AMICE/31, a Station asset, has been twice denied permission to enter the United States as a refugee from Cuba. The local ODURGE office has stated that Identity A has been placed on a denied admissions list because of information supplied by ODACID.

2. According to AMICE/31, Identity A applied for admission to the United States with her daughters, Identities B and C. Identities B and C received the necessary authorization on 24 February 1966 from the Swiss Embassy and arrived in the United States by air on 28 February.

3. Identity A was the wife of Identity D, a member of the Cuban Communist Party for some twenty years, at the time of her first application to leave Cuba. Identity D died in October of 1965 and according to AMICE/31 lost his Communist Party membership card about a year prior to his death. According to AMICE/31, Identity A has never joined or been a member of the Communist Party although there is a possibility that her husband may have placed her name on the membership lists. AMICE/31 also stated that she has long been a practicing Catholic and that she is very anti-Communist. Sent as separate cover attachments are two statements from the Bishop of Cienfuegos and the Assistant Bishop of Havana testifying to her good character and to her standing as a practicing Catholic.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Contact Report on Meeting with AMRUNG-1 201-280613

1. On 5 November at 1130 hours, AMRUNG-1 and WINDECKER were met at the Washington Airport by undersigned. They were then taken by taxi to the Mayflower Hotel, where a room had been reserved ... for their use. After having lunch at the hotel, the party adjourned to the room, where AMRUNG-1 was given a short briefing on Francisco Castell, the W/T operator who was scheduled to meet AMRUNG-1 at 1400 hours. 03

2. At 1400 hours, the undersigned went to the lobby of the hotel where Francisco was waiting with Ray Garcia, his escort officer. Garcia was instructed to bring Francisco up to the room. It was agreed in advance of this that all principals would with draw from the room to give AMRUNG-1 an opportunity to talk with Francisco alone. However, it was suggested that Garcia return a half hour before the interview was terminated to clear up any points as to the nature of Francisco's training, or any aspects that AMRUNG-1 might wish to clarify. The interview with Francisco was terminated about 1510 hours, as AMRUNG-1 stated he would be pleased to have Francisco assigned to him. All indications were that a happy rapport was established between the principals and a complete understanding was reached as to the future role of Francisco as the W/T operator for the AMYUM group in Cuba.

3. At approximately 1535 hours, Andy Rogers put in his appearance at the room and was introduced to AMRUNG-1 as Mr. Rodrick. Prior to this meeting, AMRUNG-1 was told that Mr. Rodrick was the coordinator for operations and would like to discuss some of the more specific aspects with him, prior to his return to Cuba. Cecil Cartwright, who had escorted AMRUNG-1 to Washington, asked to sit in on this meeting along with Peters and Rogers, as he felt that WASH should be fully informed on whatever operational matters were discussed with AMRUNG-1 for more effective future coordination between Headquarters and WASH. Rogers indicated no objections to this and stated he was glad to have him sit in at this meeting.

4. In substance, Rogers covered most of the highlights dealing with previous attempts to supply the AMYUM group with arms and ammo, and air-maritime operations currently being planned. In this connection, AMRUNG-1 was highly pleased to learn that a 4,000 pound shipment had been successfully infiltrated to his group during his absence and again urged that more such shipments should be stepped up in the future. 03 Rogers then briefly discussed the SINNFA operation and asked AMRUNG-1 if he didn't think this area for the DZ was already "blown" due to the number of people who already knew of this operation. (This includes 5 other people besides AMYUM-1 and AMRUNG-1.) AMRUNG-1 stated he was not sure, but would investigate this upon his return. However, he felt that this was an excellent DZ site and should be utilized for any subsequent airdrop scheduled in the Pinar del Rio province. 03 Rogers informed AMRUNG-1 that his overlays on various LZ's and DZ's had been received and were being reviewed by the operations people. He complimented AMRUNG-1 on the excellent work of his cartographer and expressed the view that these DZ areas would be put to good use. Finally, he assured AMRUNG-1 that no stone is being left unturned to provide his group with the necessary materiel support which is critically needed and that this support will be stepped up as our infiltration capabilities are increased both by air and sea. In parting, he cautioned AMRUNG-1 not to take any unnecessary chances when he resumed operational activities in Cuba, since his leadership in the AMYUM group was vital to our overall interests. The meeting was terminated about 1720 hours as Rogers and Peters took their departure. 03

5. Some of the more significant highlights of the conversations which took place between AMRUNG-1 and the undersigned prior to his meetings with the W/T operator (Francisco) and Rogers are noted herewith: 03

a. Security: Castro has taken stringent action in tightening up his internal security against counter-revolutionary forces inside Cuba. The militia are being used to search houses for concealed weapons (usually by a block system), and anyone failing to produce proper identification is removed for questioning by the DIER. Hence, AMRUNG-1 and his organization are largely confining their activities to the daylight hours from 0700 to 2000 hours. He considers night operations - particularly on the streets of Havana - as highly dangerous inasmuch as the DIER (security organs) are constantly on the alert to stop individuals on the street to check their identification documents.

b. Documentation of Agents in Cuba: AMRUNG-1 suggested using an identification card issued by the Havana University for their students. He had a sample copy in his possession, which he claims was readily accepted by Castro security forces as being valid. Similarly, a driver's license properly authenicated along with a health certificate were considered to be good "cover" documents for agents operating in the Havana area. A supply of blank identification cards will be turned over to the Station by AMRUNG-1 for transmittal to headquarters for any subsequent documentation of agents who can be passed off as students at the Havana University. (He suggested preparing one for his W/T operator (Francisco).

c. Operational Expenditures: Queried on this aspect, AMRUNG-1 stated his organization would need a minimum of 50 to 60,000 pesos a month to cover their overall operational expenses. These funds are being used for safehouse maintenance, travel expenses, purchase of vehicles and gasoline, allocation of funds to various subdivisions of the AMYUM organization located in various provinces of Cuba, and purchase of food and support of various agents whose families may be in dire need of food and medical supplies.

d. W/T operators: To date, both AMPANIC-14 and AMGLEN-1 have not met the requirements for effective communication with us on AMYUM operations. However, AMRUNG-1 feels that AMPANIC-14 has not been compromised or turned by the DIER and once he gets over his nervous state, it is possible he can still be used. Similarly, although AMGLEN-1 is considered to be a good W/T operator, AMRUNG-1 feels his usefulness to him has been considerably negated by the nature of his assignment at the Naval base and his recent restrictions to this base by orders of the Castro regime. In short, AMRUNG-1 feels communication is the weakest link in his current operations and that direct communications with the Embassy is growing increasingly hazardous, due to the fact that Embassy personnel are under close surveillance by the Castro security forces. For this reason he feels that Francisco will fill a serious void in this respect, once he is infiltrated into the AMYUM organization in Cuba.

e. Support for other anti-Castro groups in Cuba: AMRUNG-1 stated that all materiel support should be funneled directly to his organization for distribution to other anti-Castro groups in Cuba. In his view this would serve as a control factor in unifying the overall effort of the various splinter groups seeking such support in Cuba and would also enhance the prestige of the MRR as the spearhead for the FRENTE. He then went on to add that he was fully aware of our efforts to support other groups in Cuba, which he assumed we were operating with on a unilateral basis. (i.e., he sited Nino Diaz in Oriente). AMRUNG-1 felt this was a serious mistake, as this unilateral support would affect the leadership and direction now being provided by the MRR throughout Cuba. The undersigned told AMRUNG-1 that he agreed on the desirability of a coordinated effort on the part of all counter-revolutionary groups seeking to overthrow Castro using the FRENTE as the rallying center. However, the question of support being directed through one channel namely: his organization in Cuba, was neither feasible nor practical. The fact that Castro had tightened up security throughout the various provinces of Cuba, would make it difficult or impossible for the AMYUM group to ship arms and other equipment from Havana to the eastern most provinces (i.e., Las Villas, Camaguay or Oriente) without jeopardizing both shipments and personnel. Hence, the need for unilateral action on our part to supply those fighting groups in these provinces. This explanation appeared to satisfy AMRUNG-1, however he still insisted that his organization should at least be appraised of any materiel support provided other groups in Cuba. He was assured that we would take his request under consideration.

f. AMBIDDY-1: AMRUNG-1 feels that no useful purpose would be served in sending his associate to join forces with him in Havana. He feels that AMBIDDY-1 should continue to represent the AMYUM faction in the FRD and when the counter-revolutionary forces are fully prepared to overthrow the Castro regime, AMBIDDY-1 will be brought into the Pinar del Rio to direct the AMYUM forces in this province.

g. Manolo Ray: AMRUNG-1 considers RAY as a highly dangerous individual because of his great ambition to play a prominent role in any subsequent Cuban government following the overthrow of the Castro regime. In his opinion, RAY poses a serious threat to VARONA's leadership and the FRD inside Cuba. He is attempting to draw various dissident groups to his banners and appears to have support from the middle class represented by business interests, politicians, and the professional class. Should RAY be persuaded to join forces with the FRD, AMRUNG-1 thinks he will continue to operate on a unilateral basis while seeking to supercede the FRD with his own organization in Cuba.

h. Tony Varona and the FRD: Although AMRUNG-1 recognizes the need to support the FRD as a political front for rallying counter-revolutionary groups against the Castro regime, he nonetheless feels that the FRENTE and Tony VARONA have lost considerable face in Cuba by inaction and political maneuvering. He further pointed out that he is aware that thousands of dollars had been poured into the FRENTE, but dissident groups in Cuba have seen no evidence of any of this money to support their efforts to overthrow Castro. Hence, confidence in the FRD is at a relatively low ebb among the people in Cuba and a new shot in the arm in the form of materiel and financial support is needed to restore this confidence. According to AMRUNG-1 this support must be forthcoming soon because such people as Manolo RAY are taking the initiative and will soon control the entire counter-revolutionary movement in Cuba.

REPORTING AGENT: AMCONCERT-1

SUBJECT: Cira MARTINEZ, aka: "Cirita", very closely connected to Manuel RAY.

SOURCE: Marta DIEZ Rivas. Married to Dr. Ricardo MACHIN. Was connect in Havana with various anti-Communist organizations.

On a visit I made to source, she told me that she had met Mrs. Cira MARTINEZ in Havana. That Mrs. MARTINEZ used the clandestine pseudonym "Josefina" and was married to architect Frank MARTINEZ. That both subject and her husband were persons in the absolute confidence of engineer Manuel RAY, and "Josefina" had been RAY's secretary for a long time.

Source claims to have learned from "Josefina" that she was dissatisfied with RAY's political actions, to the extent that RAY wanted her to join the executive of the organization J.U.R.E. but she had refused because she did not agree with the/policies of this organization. That "Josefina" had described this organization as a political movement the same as Castroism, only changing the name of the leader. That she knows the plan of this organization is to organize all anti-BATISTA and anti-CASTRO organizations, under the direction of the J.U.R.E., and develop a nationalistic and especially an anti-American policy in order to be able to group all the elements existing in Cuba that have not figured prominently in the CASTRO regime. After the fall of the CASTRO regime they plan to form a strong political party in Cuba and capitalize on the mistakes committed by the provisional Government. With this objective in mind, they will stay separated from the C.R.C. and from all relations with the U.S. Government in order to be able to carry out their plan freely.

Mrs. Cira MARTINEZ lives with her husband at 1004 NE 17th St., Miami, phone number PL-8-0483 on which they talk to many persons related with RAY's plan.

NOTE: One of RAY's most trusted leaders in Miami is still Osorio DAVILA, former treasurer of the 26th of July Movement and man in the absolute confidence of Haydee SANTAMARIA. For a long time DAVILA was the Chief of the Havana Immigration Department, until he came to the U.S. by boat from the coast of Matanzas. Some days ago I submitted a detailed report on Osorio DAVILA, and also on CISNEROS and many other known leaders of J.U.R.E., because there is another group of individuals whose names are not advertised but who have command powers in the J.U.R.E. One of these men is Ignacio LEDON, former leader of the 26th of July Movement, private secretary of the Commissioner of Havana Jose LLANUSA, and G-2 delegate in Havana City Hall. LEDON persecuted many persons in the City Hall because he was the one who made the lists of persons who should be watched, to the G-2. He also had close connections with the Minister of the Interior, Jose A. NARANJO, whom he kept informed about the persons under suspicion who worked in the Ministry of the Interior. One time LEDON visited NARANJO and informed him, in the presence of NARANJO's secretary, Lucy ECHEVERRIA, that he should keep Captain Ramon PADILLA, at that time Chief of the Isle of Pines prison, under surveillance. In 1960 PADILLA was preparing the escape of Captain Jorge SOTUS, and thanks to Lucy's warning PADILLA took precautions and the plan could be carried out. Ignacio LEDON lives in Miami but I don't know his home address. Although he later declared himself an anti-Communist, and I think he sought asylum in the Brazilian Embassy, I have no trust in him at all.

On Sunday, October 28, I met twice with Manolo RAY of the Movimiento Revolucionario del Pueblo (MRP) at the San Juan Intercontinental Hotel, in San Juan, Puerto Rico. My main objectives were: (1) to elicit from him a list of Cubans, presently associated with the Castro regime, who are critical of Castro and might be considered potential defectors; (2) to obtain a list of Cubans, either inside or outside the island, who could be available, in case of an emergency, to help in setting up some kind of provisional government; and (3) to have his general views on the possibility of an insurrectionary movement.

Since I had arranged to return to Washington on the same day, I did not give Ray much time to do a thorough job. However, he was able to furnish me with a list of names, covering points (1) and (2). He promised to provide me with additional information after checking with some of his associates in New York and Miami. His thoughts on the possibility of an insurrectionary movement will be the subject of a separate memorandum.

SUBJECT: Operational/TYROSE/AUBESK

ACTION REQUIRED: None; FYI

1. Subject was removed from CAC on 3 [illegible] and taken to a safe site where he was debriefed for [illegible]. The [illegible] of the debriefing was to ascertain the Subject's [illegible] Cuba and determining if he had any relationship with the G-2 or any other Security organization.

2. During the course of the debriefing the Subject appeared to be willing to cooperate and there were no indications [illegible] attempt of deception. However, it is believed that the Subject is a sharp operator, an opportunist and an individual who lives by his wits. He is very verbose, loud and attempts to hold the floor at all times.

3. ORELLANA claims that he had no relationship with the Cuban G-2, that he knew Ramiro VALDES, Chief of the G-2, [illegible] Manuel PINEIRO, Deputy Chief of the G-2, but that he never conducted any business with them. He stated that he knew [illegible] by sight but never knew their names. He is of the opinion that all members of the G-2 are Communists and individuals of very low caliber.

4. Subject was granted asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy on 06, 08 [illegible] April 1962, which was obtained through the [illegible] of [Fernando RODRIGUEZ, leader of the Chauffeurs Union,] who knew the Uruguayan Ambassador. According to Subject he had to seek asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy because he was in danger of being picked up by the Cuban Security Services. He claims that in [illegible] 1961 he was engaged in the transportation of material and personnel from Habana to the "Segundo Frente" in the Escambray Mountains, in the Province of Santa Clara. At that time he was cooperating with 06 06 [Captain (fnu) SALAS, Elio BALMASEDA,] "Benito," "[illegible]," [illegible] GUTIERREZ Menoyo, [Kiko [illegible],] 06 [Captain Ramiro [illegible]] and [Bernardo PARALTA.] 06 According to Subject, an individual named "[illegible]" was arrested in March 1962 and during the course of his interrogation

3 January 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR : Chief, Special Affairs Staff

ATTENTION : Mr. A. Rodriquez

SUBJECT : Radio Switch Equipment for Demolition Firing Purposes

03 1. After our conversation on 03 this subject on 30 December, the question was discussed with Mr. Jay Alpern, TSD/AOB, and Mr. Lee Poole, TSD/QRF. The following information is forwarded for your consideration as a result of our discussions.

2. Mr. 03 Alpern, Audio Operations Branch, recommends two companies as sources of equipment of this nature. These companies have experience, under classified contracts with TSD, in producing reliable equipment for special purposes of this sort. They also, of course turn out commercial equipment of good quality for normal communications needs. These companies are:

a. Motorola, Chicago, Illinois
b. Kell, Cambridge, Massachusetts 29,08

29,29

The TSD VHF radio switch equipment for demolition needs was developed for us by Motorola. 'Kell-Com' transistorized sets have been produced to meet the special needs (not for demolition purposes) of other SAS projects.

3. In the opinion of both persons consulted, the expenses noted in our first discussion should have produced a reasonable amount of workable equipment if the source was both capable and reliable. TSD recommends the use of frequencies in the VHF/UHF spectrum for equipment of this sort and crystal tuning control for reasons of reliability, selectivity and rejection of spurious signals.

4. Inexpensive equipment of Japanese or American manufacture in the citizen's band frequency ranges for toys, radio control devices, short range communications, etc., is available from many manufacturers. Our Quick Reaction Facility can produce a small number of radio switches based on these devices with a considerably lesser degree of security from false signal triggering with a lead time of 6 to 8 weeks. Simple mechanical protection against accidental triggering can be gained by inclusion of counting switches, for example, which require a preset number of firing impulses intentionally transmitted to produce the final closure of a relay and firing of a charge.

5. Reliability of operation in terms of response to a transmitted signal of a given power is quite difficult to predict when conditions of antenna length, orientation and exposure cannot be foreseen. Location of the receiver in a target building will also have a strong bearing on 'range' from the transmitter. Building construction, intervening obstacles and interference from other nearby radio frequency sources will affect performance of the set.

6. If you wish to discuss the problems in greater depth, we recommend a conference with audio technicians or engineers. It may serve to clarify the appropriate characteristics which special or m modified commercial equipment should possess to meet the needs of your operation. Problems of camouflaging the explosive or incendiary material to serve operational requirements would be minor compared to the necessary consideration of effects on the receiver switch concealed within which could have important effects on performance.

2 August 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with AMBANG-1

1. I met with AMBANG-1 on 27 July 1963 in Miami. The following is a resume of the business transacted at that meeting.

a. Request for High Explosives

AMBANG-1 stated that in view of my outline of strategic targets inside Cuba during our last meeting which took place in Washington on 21 June 1963, he had decided to attempt a sabotage operation against the Havana power plant. He informed me that he has a man employed in the power plant in Havana who is capable of launching this operation. In this connection AMBANG-1 asked if we could make available twenty pounds of high explosives as well as six to eight thermite grenades. AMBANG-1 asked if it were possible to have the twenty pounds broken into smaller lots. In our further discussion of this subject, it became apparent that A-1 would be willing to receive the materiel either in San Juan or inside Cuba, but that he definitely preferred the latter if this were possible. Like in most other instances during our conversation, I advised AMBANG-1 that I would need to discuss this matter with my superiors but that I could tentatively assure him of our ability and willingness to furnish the high explosives in San Juan and possibly inside Cuba. At this point I asked AMBANG-1 if he could foresee the need for materiel of this type inside Cuba. I told him that I asked this question because if his group were prepared now or in the near future for meaningful sabotage action inside Cuba it was conceivable that we could begin the caching of needed materiel inside Cuba. AMBANG-1 assured me that they were in a position to sabotage the electrical plant in Havana. (I did not ask, neither did he specify which plant.) He did not promise immediate action, adding that he wanted to assure himself of the details of the planned operation and the safety-odds of the man involved. A-1 then indicated that he would certainly be in a position to accomplish this mission and others in the future and would be most grateful for any materiel we could put in place. I left the matter with him with the understanding that if it were possible we would proceed with caching the high explosives in the general area of Havana. He assured me of their capability to service and retrieve the cache.

b. Request for Contact in Guantanamo

AMBANG-1 asked me if it would be possible for us to arrange some means for Rogelio Cisneros to visit Guatanamo and talk to his brother who is an employee of the Naval Base and another agent of theirs likewise employed there. The reason A-1 gave for the request was that they wished to inform Ramon Cisneros Diaz of the JURE plans to begin the implementation of their plan of resistance and overthrow of the Castro Regime. I advised A-1 that whereas I would look into this matter as I could tentatively tell him that the chances of accomplishing this were remote.

c. AMBANG-1 Political Plans

AMBANG-1 informed me that he was planning at this time to be in New York on or about 10 August and that following this trip he intended to go to Santo Domingo and Caracas. In Santo Domingo he hoped to set up a small base for operations such as a small house on a farm near the shore which could be used for boat travel to Cuba. Once he had made such arrangements he intended to talk to President Juan Bosch telling him of the plan and asking his acquiescence if not support. AMBANG-1 intends to tell Bosch that he will not embarrass him and will go about his business in a secure and professional manner adding that if he should embarrass Bosch, the latter could disclaim him and A-1 would desist from any further activity there.

So far as AMBANG-1's trip to Caracas is concerned, that will be principally devoted to orienting the JURE representation in that city. In addition, AMBANG-1 will attempt to see and talk to Venezuelan Government officials including President Betancourt.

Some time after this trip AMBANG-1 intends to visit Central America principally Costa Rica and if he can procure a visa, Mexico. The purpose of all his travel is the raising of funds, the general tightening of his organization and discussions necessary to coordinate their efforts.

d. Isolation of Cuba.

AMBANG-1 made it exceedingly clear that the lifeline to his assets inside Cuba had been severely restricted when PAA flights were suspended. Nothing could suit AMBANG-1 more than to have these flights resumed. AMBANG-1's obviously great interest in the resumption of these flights was the most eloquent statement yet of his belief that he has a network, or that he can revive a network within Cuba. At least at this stage of JURE operations, AMBANG-1 does not appear to consider the infiltration of manpower as necessary.

AMBANG-1 stated that the use of flights from Spain and Mexico to Cuba was difficult and costly whereas the Miami-Havana run had been most useful in maintaining contact within Cuba. It was AMBANG-1's opinion that the resumption of PAA flights would be an operational boom to JURE and that whereas he could see Castro making some political capital out of the flights, he believed that some appropriate statement such as "there is no political significance but only a humanitarian and compassionate reason for the reestablishment of this link," would be sufficient to negate any political advantage by Castro.

e. AMBANG-1 Phasing Out of his Employment

AMBANG-1 gave me to believe that he is closing shop and giving up his position with the Corporacion de Renovacion Urbana y Viviendas where he is employed as an engineer in charge of building pre-cast concrete houses. AMBANG-1 stated that during the past week Governor Munoz Marin gave final authority for the erection of a plant to produce these houses in Puerto Rica. AMBANG-1 is torn with the thought of leaving this project which he believes will be most successful, and which would assure his livelihood, but he knows that he must devote himself to the fight against Castro. It is obvious to me that AMBANG-1 will within the next two months phase out of this employment to devote full time to the liberation of Cuba.

f. A JURE Radio Link

AMBANG-1 asked me if I would be able to assist him in the establishment of a San Juan-Caracas-Miami radio link. He explained that the JURE has spent a great deal of money on telephonic communications between these points and were most anxious to set up a means of radio communication in order to economize. I guess that AMBANG-1 could tell from my reaction that I was not too sympathetic to his request for he withdrew it almost as soon as he had made it. He went on to say that this was a problem which they could overcome and I presume that he will seek to establish such radio communications without our assistance.

g. Aerial Maps of Cuba

AMBANG-1 informed me that the JURE membership had brought out of Cuba an entire series of maps showing key roads, bridges, industrial plants, et al, which they had copied by the Aero Service Corporation in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. AMBANG-1 stated that they had received most of these photos from the Aero Service Corporation but that the 101 were still missing. He gave me the numbers of those missing and asked if we could procure them. I have since informed AMBANG-1 that it would perhaps be best it he could, or his organization, do this instead but that we would pay the travel of one of his men, should this prove necessary. Attached, hereto, is a copy of the missing photos in question.

h. JURE Organization and Strength

AMBANG-1 informed me that the membership of the JURE in San Juan was now at about 500 members and that each of these individuals makes a weekly contributionto the organization.

In addition there are large JURE organizations in Caracas, Venezuela and Dallas, Texas. There are according to AMBANG-1 a total of thirty delegations in Latin America, the U. S. A. and Europe. He cited as an example the delegation in San Francisco which had recently purchased a typewriter through the collection of green stamps. He added that Rogelio Cisneros had travelled to San Francisco some time ago to communicate with that group and to tighten its organizational activities.

i. AMBANG-1 Asks About ARTIME and the Activities in Central America

AMBANG-1 raised the question of Manuel ARTIME's activities in Central America and particularly in Nicaragua. He stated that any association with Somoza would not help in creating the mistique and political coloration necessary to inspire revolution and resistance from the non-Communists elements in Cuba. Whereas, I had expected AMBANG-1 to go into a long harangue as to the positive damage that ARTIME's actions with Somoza could cause, he left the matter at about this point. I agreed that the Somozas did not have a liberal political reputation throughout Latin America, but added that whatever Cubans could do from that or any vantage point against Communism in Cuba would in my estimation be helpful, -- while I am sure AMBANG-1 did not agree with me, he did not say so. In respect to ARTIME and Miro Cardona, whose name entered into the conversation later, AMBANG-1 took a fairly objective view. He stated that Miro had arrived in San Juan and that he wished him the best as he figured he had suffered enough. Insofar as ARTIME was concerned I gathered that AMBANG-1 might feel that the association with Somoza would not do ARTIME any good in a post-Castro Cuba. As AMBANG-1 is convinced that a government after Castro must be of a progressive liberal stripe, ARTIME was not doing himself any good by identifying himself with the Somozas.

j. A List of Cuban Diplomats

As AMBANG-1 had asked for a list of Cuban Diplomats abroad while we were in Paris, I advised him that such a list had been prepared and we would make it available to him. In this connection he asked if we could include the addresses of each of the Cuban installations. Speaking of diplomats, AMBANG-1 wanted to know if Ambassador Gustavo Arcos had returned from Prague. I informed him that I did not know. AMBANG-1 was most interested to learn that Franqui's wife and children had actually come out of Cuba, and indicated that he would intensify his efforts to maintain contact with Cuban Diplomat Cabrera Infante in Brussels as a means toward the eventual recruitment of Franqui.

k. AMBANG-1 Relation with Jorge Volsky

In conjunction with questions regarding propaganda sent to Cuba, and the JURE's general plans in this field, I asked A-1 about his relation with Jorge Volsky. A-1 stated that he considered Volsky to be an extremely able, serious newspaperman. He added that whereas he saw Volsky frequently on his trips to Miami, the latter did not work for him. A-1 stated that Volsky's work was a full-time job which left him little time to do anything else.

A-1 stated that JURE propaganda was produced by a twelve - man board.

A-1 added that the JURE expected to shortly introduce a statement on its position into Cuba.

l. AMBANG-1 Asks about Two Man Underwater Craft

A-1 asked if I knew anything about a two man type craft which travels through the water. I presume A-1 was talking about the "sea-sled." I advised him that I know little about this type craft, but in my opinion its usefulness for the type activity he had in mind was limited. AMBANG-1 would use this craft for the final phase of an infiltration effort. A-1 stated that this craft was being used at the hotel beaches in San Juan as a type of sporting activity. I will advise him that he could pursue this matter himself as all knowledge on this subject is publicly available.

A WAVE technician, [Culver Ladd,] under the name of Mr. Lane trained A-1 to use a [simple scorch system] of S/W. A-1 was given some eighty pills with which he will be able to make the "ink" used in this system of S/W. A-1 was pleased with the system, especially its simplicity. He will use the system to communicate with his chief delegate in Paris and undoubtedly other persons in Cuba as well as in the other JURE delegations.

n. AMBANG-1 is Writing an Article for Cuadernos

At the request of German Arcienegas, the famed Colombian intellectual, A-1 is preparing an article which is to be published in Cuadernos. The article will deal with the problems facing Latin America and how they can be resolved. A-1 will be in select company as Arcienegas has asked a number of prominent Latin American intellectuals for their views.

o. Communication Between AMBANG-1 and Case Officer

AMBANG-1 gave me the following addresses at which he can be reached:

Corporacion de Renovacion
Urbana y Viviendas
PARADA 31
Ponce de Leon,
Hato Rey
Puerto Rico Telephone No. 723-1671

(NOTE: This is not AMBANG's office or home, but that of a friend who is always able to reach A-1.)

Also:

Mr. Jaime Mitrani
Hialeah, Florida

AMBANG-1 was given the following means of contacting me:

Mr. Alfred Fernandez
P.O. Box 1104, Main Post Office
Washington, D. C. Telephone No. 737-8294

AMBANG-1 will use the name "Tony" as a signature in mail to me.

2. General Observations

I beleive AMBANG-1 is planning to return to Cuba. He indicated that he would give the matter serious thought to even go in, disguised, as a legal traveller if that road were generally open, i. e., if rather large numbers of travellers were going in via PAA flights. This line seemed a bit out of character for A-1, for it seems unrealistic and somewhat remindful of Macaulay's references to the state of mind that exiles develop. I also detected what we consider to be a somewhat unrealistic appraisal of the Cuban situation in A-1's estimate that Castro has considerably less than 40% of the Cuban people with him. A-1 may be losing more than a little touch with Cuban reality.

A-1 remains convinced that he is on the right track in working for the eventual overthrow of Castro. He is convinced, however, that two to three years is all the time left for actually destroying the Castro regime, believing that there will be a favorable turn in the Cuban economic situation by late 1965. A-1 is likewise convinced that Castro cannot add to the improvement of Cuba, to the contrary that so long as the principal decisions are made by Castro, the general trend will be confusion arising from a failure to concentrate on specific problems until they are corrected.

AMBANG-1 is likewise convinced that the JURE is building a political group and general outlook which will have an impact on Cuba for many years to come. He is especially concerned with the need to carefully consider each position of his group in order to create the lasting impression that JURE knows where it is going and that its leadership is composed of men who know how to "run" a country without the false starts, confusion and chaos identified with the Castro regime.

AMBANG-1 is likewise greatly concerned with the necessity of not creating an impression inside Cuba that the JURE will return to mete out "justice." It is essential, A-1 states, to convince the general populace that the overthrow of Castro will not result in a bloodbath, rather that the sole aim is to save the revolution that has been betrayed. He is anxious that the people inside Cuba see the JURE as a responsible, intelligent and dispassionate group which is capable of bringing to Cuba all that the revolution promised.

Current Analysis of Cuban UN Mission and DGI Center in New York

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: FYI

1. Transmitted herewith are one copy each for C/WH/COG and COS/WH/MIAMI of the April 1970 Cuban Official Presence Listing as prepared by the local LNERGO Cuban Squad. The under-signed has added on the 201 numbers, indicated CUIS affiliation, added two names and deleted one. The departure dates for several CMUN personnel also are noted. The listing, thus, is valid as of 10 April.

2. According to LNERGO, only two CMUN working wives are officially carried on LNERGO records. Maria BERMUDEZ Garcia, wife of Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-328953), and Consuelo HORTA Larrinaga, wife of Pablo DRAKE Capiro (201-815821). BERMUDEZ, because of the impending departure of the VIERAs on 14 April, can be deleted from the listing. Additionally, other CMUN wives work or have worked in the past on a sporadic basis (such as Teresita FERNANDEZ Aranga, wife of DGI Center Chief Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez (201-330002). However, only BERMUDEZ and HORTA of late have been regular local employees.

3. Addressees will note the preponderance of DGI personnel on the CMUN roster. Of the 18 (excluding Rolando PEREZ Alfonso) personnel on board as of 10 April, 12 are DGI. Interestingly enough, 6 non-DGI personnel is a higher number than has been the rule over the past several years; at one point there were only 3 non-DGI personnel, including the Ambassador/Permanent Representative. Of these,12, two (DRAKE and CADALSO) are code clerks detailed to the DGI Center from the DSE. Two others (REYES Goicochea and SANTIAGO) are the "architect" and the mason assigned here temporarily to work on the CMUN secure rooms and security systems (see previous reporting for details). Thus, 8 personnel are left for espionage operating purposes. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez (201-332665) probably serves now as the Deputy to Center Chief PRENDES. Allowing for the impending departures of Rolando PEREZ Alfonso, Jose Raul VIERA Linares, and Pedro Luis PINERO Eirin, the DGI Center will now consist of:

✓Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez

✓Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez

✓Orlando PEREIRA Gonzalez

✓Miguel Manuel SANTANA Fraiz — 951 ✓

✓Justo Cesar GELABERT Martinez

Ruben Rafael FRANCO Gonzalez ✓

✓Roberto SANTIAGO Humet

✓Pablo DRAKE Capiro

LA [illegible] PROCESSED

4. As will be noted, the departure of Jorge REYES Vega (in March) and the impending departures of VIERA and PINERO will change the complexion of the DGI Center considerably. If they are not replaced for one reason or another (per other reporting), the DGI Center will have but four experienced and competent Case Officers at its disposal. Of these, PRENDES spends by far the bulk of his time inside the office pursuing his role of supervisor/manager. RODRIGUEZ is a handler. GELABERT and SANTANA are mainly concerned with operational support tasks -- GELABERT is the Center's best counter-surveillant, and SANTANA is the technical "expert" of the Center. PEREIRA is a handler, but his abilities are rather limited in this regard, per Base and LNERGO information and observations. Should the departees not be replaced, the Center may be forced de facto into a cutback of operational activity.

5. We shall watch with interest the behavior patterns of the DGI Center in the near future, in light of the above and in light of other recent reporting re the status of the DGI abroad.

1. VICTOR MANUEL GUTIERREZ, HEAD OF THE PARTIDO GUATEMALTECO DEL TRABAJO (PGT-GUATEMALAN COMMUNIST PARTY) IN MEXICO, SAID ON 24 MARCH 62 THAT THE PGT IN GUATEMALA REGRETS THE WAY IN WHICH THE GUERRILLA FIGHT HAS DEVELOPED THERE. ACCORDING TO THE PGT, THE RESULTS OF THE GUERRILLA FIGHTING HAVE NOT BEEN SUCCESSFUL BECAUSE THE 13 NOVEMBER GROUP (MEMBER OF THE 13 NOVEMBER 1960 ATTEMPT TO OVERTHROW THE GUATEMALAN GOVERNMENT) HEADED BY MARCO ANTONIO YON SOSA, IS NOT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE POLITICAL CONCEPTS OF THE COMMUNIST STRUGGLE. THE PGT ALSO REGRETS THAT THE COMMUNISTS AND MEMBERS OF THE PARTIDO DE UNIDAD REVOLUCIONARIO (PUR-EXTREME LEFTIST PARTY) HEADED BY CARLOS PAZ TEJADA WERE INTERCEPTED AND

FORCED TO FIGHT WHEN CONDITIONS WERE NOT ADVANTAGEOUS FOR THEM. ACCORDING TO THE PGT THE RESULTS WERE DISASTROUS, WITH THE LOSS OF "MIDDLE RANK COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERS AND NATIONAL LEADERS." THE PGT CONSIDERS IT A "MIRACLE" THAT PAZ TEJADA WAS ABLE TO ESCAPE. HOWEVER, THE PGT STILL BELIEVES THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF MIGUEL YDIGORAS FUENTES, PRESIDENT OF GUATEMALA, WILL SOON FALL.

2. THE MAIN HOPE OF THE PGT NOW HINGES ON THE ACTIONS OF THE GUERRILLA GROUP ORGANIZED AND ARMED IN MEXICO. (FIELD COMMENT: IT HAS BEEN REPORTED PREVIOUSLY THAT THE 13 NOVEMBER GROUP IN MEXICO HAD CROSSED THE MEXICAN/GUATEMALAN BORDER SUCCESSFULLY AND HAD ESTABLISHED A SECOND GUERRILLA FRONT.) THE PGT BELIEVES THAT IT SHOULD CONCERN ITSELF WITH THE SURVIVAL OF THIS GROUP "EVEN IF THE POLITICAL CRISIS SHOULD ELIMINATE YDIGORAS". IT BELIEVES THAT THIS GROUP SHOULD CONTINUE TO OPERATE IN THE MOUNTAINS IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH AND STABILIZE ANY DEMOCRATIC REGIME. H

3. GUTIERREZ SAID THAT HE HAD MET WITH ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ as LOPEZ, THIRD SECRETARY OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY IN MEXICO CITY. RODRIGUEZ TOLD GUTIERREZ THAT "THE PERSON FROM CUBA WHO IS GOING TO TAKE OVER RELATIONS WITH GUATEMALA HERE IN MEXICO, STILL HAD NOT ARRIVED." 14:27 JUAN REJANO, con acento gachupín, indicó a MAIZ "PACHO", portero de la Embajada Cubana, que necesita hablar con ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ urgentísimamente; que si le puede mandar recado. MAIZ dice que ROGELIO ha salido y no sabe a qué hora volverá, pero en cuanto regrese le dirá que vaya a verlo. REJANO le pide que procure mandarle recado a algún sitio, porque es una cosa muy urgente. MAIZ está seguro que ROGELIO no está en su casa porque su mujer se fué ayer a Cuba y él habrá ido a comer a algún lado, pero cree que vuelve por la tarde. REJANO pide le diga en cuanto llegue que se comunique con él, ya sabe a dónde, que tiene urgentísimamente que hablar con él, "pues este hombre parece que se ha olvidado de que teníamos que habernos visto ayer, y de una porción de cosas, y estoy verdaderamente apurado". MAIZ en tono acusativo comenta que "aquí se olvidan muchas veces", pero que en cuanto vea a ROGELIO le dirá que REJANO lo está buscando con verdadera urgencia. (MAIZ siempre contesta en forma ruda a todo mundo e inclusive al mismo personal de la Embajada, pero en este caso se dirige a REJANO llamándolo JUANITO y le habla con mucho comedimiento).

Sr Rogelio Rodríguez.

Mi querido ahijado, me alegraré que cuando ésta llegue a tus manos estén bien en unión de Ester, nosotros bien.

Rogelio mucha alegría me dio que me mandaras el retrato, yo creía que con tanto amor te habías olvidado de mí, pero veo que no es así, lo único que con tu nuevo trabajo no te alcanza el tiempo para escribir, ni a Ester tampoco, te voy a explicar lo del nuevo trabajo, como tu estas recién casado tienes un nuevo trabajo, que se llama amor.

Rogelio le dices a Ester que lo que nosotros hablamos de los aretes el día que reciban una carta por algun compañero luego que vaya para esa, te lo voy a mandar, para que me lo compren así que tengan cuidado al abrir las cartas, sin mas besos de tu abuela que esta loca por verte pues casi hace un año que no te ve. querido, podía escribirte muchas cosas como la segunda declaración de la Habana, y lo enfrascado que esta el pueblo en la segunda zafra del pueblo, con decir que de la Habana a salido para Camaguey un batallón de 7.000 obreros, para el corte de caña esos obreros abandonaron su trabajo para ir a cortar caña como voluntarios, de los campesinos le diré que ha sido la mas grande que ha habido en Cuba

porque ahora las carrozas no son comerciales sino la integran los 25 sindicatos de Cuba.
antes de pasar la carroza para la comparsa que la integran los obreros a la cual pertenece la carroza, quisiera que pudieras ver a esos obreros bailando al compás de sus orquestas y conjuntos, ya se acabo aquellas comparsas, de negros solos, que bailaba con la botella de aguardiente en la mano y se acababa a puñaladas no te canso mas pues te estes muy ocupado, sin mas recibe el cariño de tu tia que te quiere como a un hijo

Fina

Rogelio dice tu padrino que lo unico que quiere, es, que le mandes un retrato tuyo que se vea bien la cara.

saluda a Ester de mi parte no le debia mandar mi saludos tan siquiera en dos meses no he tenido ni dos letras para mi, saludos de Alberto
y de Carlito

1. LIENVOY (B) reported that Jose Arturo DE LA PENA had been trying to reach Rogelio •RODRIGUEZ Lopez, Cuban Third Secretary, on 20 January. Since he was unable to reach RODRIGUEZ, he left a message to the effect that he was leaving Mexico City and on his return he would give the address to which they should send the Information Bulletin of the Cuban Embassy. He said the pressure is a "little strong here, since yesterday (19 January) they were picking up all that left the embassy - newspapers and all that" and for that reason he did not go in. He said that he was taking several copies of No. 4 of the Information Bulletin to Coahuila, but that he also wanted No. 5 which contained information about scholarships.

Consequently, the team has not been able to mount a prolonged surveillance at the Cuban Embassy.

SUMMARY:

A young third secretary of the Cuban Embassy was disarmed by an assortment of Mexican law-enforcement personnel. The fracas occurred 8 December 1961 at the International Airport.

DISTRIBUTION BY ORIGINATOR: AirA/NA, PolR/Emb, FOL, USARCARIB, 4th Army

1. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ, a third secretary of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, was disarmed at Mexico's International Airport on 8 Dec 1961.

2. The fracas apparently started over the documentation of a diplomatic courier, one Fernando [illegible] Castillo, by the emigration agent who was processing Cubana de Aviación's flight 465, outbound for Havana. RODRIGUEZ rushed to "defend" the courier and harsh words ensued. Before it was all over officials of Emigration, special agents of Interior, and the Federal Judicial Police took part. In the melee it was discovered that both Cubans were carrying concealed pistols. The Judicial Police confiscated the weapons. The affair ended with RODRIGUEZ threatening to return armed the following Tuesday and declaring, "We'll see if you take my pistol then."

COMMENT: 1 The following Tuesday (12 Dec) has come and gone with no similar incident reported.

2. The rank and file Mexican is no longer enchanted with his Cuban brother. CASTRO's defiant pronouncement of his true color stripped away the last vestige of respectability his government may have had in the eyes of Mexico's literates. (i.e. politically speaking)

3. The police probably enjoyed the encounter.

JARDON le pregunta que si quiere que se encamine para allá ahora, porque trae el tiempo muy limitado y tiene algunas otras cosas que tratar "además de lo de allí de ustedes", a ver si es posible que se vaya mañana. [illegible] lo espera.

18:03 [illegible] FUENTES manifestó a JARDON que acaba de llegarle el rumor de que el General fué baleado, aunque él espera fervientemente que no se confirme dicho rumor. JARDON pregunta que cuál General. FUENTES responde que cuál General ha de ser, CARDENAS, y le pide que verifique la noticia él que tiene más contacto con esas gentes. Posteriormente JARDON preguntó a [illegible] RIVERA si era cierto que el General había sido objeto de un atentado. RIVERA dijo que era falso, pero al preguntar JARDON que si así podía informarlo a los compañeros de la prensa, RIVERA respondió que mejor lo consultará con el General y posteriormente llamará a JARDON.

18:17 El Gral. CARDENAS preguntó a [illegible] JARDON qué hay de la noticia que le dieron. JARDON indica que le hablaron los compañeros del diario La Prensa, preguntándole qué había de un supuesto atentado que CARDENAS sufrió, en el cual había muerto uno de sus ayudantes. CARDENAS dice que inventos de éstos hay todos los días, pues "estamos vivitos y coleando absolutamente y saliendo para todas partes sin que nadie nos moleste". JARDON manifiesta haberle dicho a FUENTES, a quien encargaron que indagara ese asunto, que le parecía absurdo, pero de todas maneras pidió a RIVERA que consultara ésto con el General, para que cuando lo vuelvan a llamar, decirles que es completamente falso. CARDENAS le indica "cuando lo vuelvan a llamar, hay que decirles a éllós que ya habló conmigo y que es conveniente que se los diga a los que están inventando ésto que dónde consideran éllos que yo en lo personal pueda tener algún peligro para ir sin acompañamiento ninguno a esa área; pues si el pueblo quiere éso ni hay ninguna desconfianza de uno para que vayan a creer que se cuida uno de algo; hay que decirles ésto a los llamados compañeros de la prensa, porque son [illegible] pero no compañeros". Ambos se ríen. JARDON cambia de tema e indica al General que tiene unos documentos que le interesa conocerlos; que si se los manda o puede venir alguno de sus ayudantes. CARDENAS indicará a [illegible] que vaya ahora a Prensa Latina.

SUBJECT: Probable Transfer of Ramiro del Rio Perez

1. On 12 December 1961, LITAMIL-2 told me that Chelo Esperon, Cuban Embassy secretary, had been told by Jose Antonio Portuondo, Cuban Ambassador to Mexico, that he had succeeded in getting Subject out of the Cuban Embassy. LITAMIL-2 also reported information from Esperon that Portuondo was arranging a secret meeting with Ricardo Vidal, former Cuban Embassy Counselor, prior to his Mexican defection.

Rogelio

2. Source comment: With the removal of Subject and the possible removal of third secretary, Rodrigues, who was recently involved in a pistol-toting incident at the airport, Portuondo may feel the necessity of discussing the current Cuban Embassy personnel situation with Vidal, who is a veteran Cuban diplomat.

3. Station comment: There is also the possibility that Portuondo may wish to try to use Vidal to obtain oil for Cuba. Portuondo has recently been exhausting all sources in an effort to obtain oil.

15:10 El Corl. RANGEL ESCAMILLA informó al Lic. DIAZ ORDAZ que hoy desde la diez horas hubo un paro de los maestros de la Sección 35, en Saltillo, por falta de pago de sueldos. Que dicho paro continuará indefinidamente. Además un incidente que se registró en el Aeropuerto en el que tomaron parte ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ de la Embajada de Cuba y el Correo Diplomático FERNANDO ALONSO quiénes pretendieron entrar armados. 17:20 El Ing. JORGE L. TAMAYO preguntó a su cuñada GELA qué le pareció a su cónyuge JOSE ALBERTO el nombramiento del General CARDENAS, ya que no lo quiere nada ni es santo de su devoción. GELA responde que ya no trata esas cosas con JOSE ALBERTO porque siempre están en desacuerdo. TAMAYO ve este asunto desde muchos ángulos de vista y cree que tiene mucha importancia desde el ángulo de la mala jugada que le hicieron al Gobierno Brasil, Ecuador, Uruguay y Argentina de rajarse a la hora de la votación en la OEA. Entonces el Gobierno necesitaba apoyo y TAMAYO cree que ésa fué la intención del General CARDENAS al aceptar el cargo del Gobierno, porque éso se lo habían ofrecido hace 3 años. GELA dice que sí, y que no se le habían dado. TAMAYO rectifica en el sentido de que CARDENAS no lo había aceptado, y de la noche a la mañana lo aceptó y entonces a TAMAYO le parece que fué en función de la situación internacional. A GELA le dió mucho gusto, pues le parece que es una de las cosas que necesitaba el Gobierno, un puntalito, porque con el General no se juega. Asimismo le parece que los demás ni fu ni fa. TAMAYO a ese respecto comenta que fué requisito que pidió el General, que llamaran a todos. Claro que a los otros les dieron cosas simbólicas y en realidad el que fué a una posición de importancia fué el General CARDENAS.

17:43 ELENA VILIE secretaria del Lic. AGUILAR dejó recado para la Sra. CLEMENTINA BASSOLS, en el sentido de que hoy a las 20:00 hs en el despacho del Ing. CUAUHTEMOC CARDENAS será la reunión del Comité Nacional.

18:25 FEDERICO BARRERA FUENTES comentó con FRANCISCO GALINDO OCHOA que éste ahora sí tiene mucho material, preguntándole a la vez qué opinión tiene de los nombramientos. GALINDO responde que buena. FEDERICO dice que no hay más que un error de ubicación en el asunto de la pesca, pues éso le quita valor a los 20,000. HECTOR contesta que 9,000, pero que tuvieron que recortar lo de quién invitaba. RENATO pregunta que si así les van a servir. HECTOR dice que sí y que se repartieron, pero supone que todavía habrá en Salvador. De todos modos hay que ver éso, porque parece que no se llevaron todo lo que habían hablado. RENATO tiene todavía, y sólo quería informarle qué lugar y qué fecha. El sábado se ven allá.

14:22 ELENA VAZQUEZ GOMEZ preguntó a MAIZ, el portero de la Embajada Cubana, que si no ha regresado TERESA PROENZA todavía, porque aquí la están esperando en Fundición, 8, y la señora dice que TERESA iba a ir primero a la Embajada Norteamericana. Que por favor en cuanto llegue, le diga que la están esperando en esa dirección. MAIZ comenta que si TERESA fué a la Embajada Norteamericana, a lo mejor allí ya la degollaron. ELENA se ríe de la ocurrencia.

14:57 El Ing. JORGE L. TAMAYO recomendó a su hijo el Lic. JORGE que ahora que vaya a la casa lo espere, porque quiere hablar con él, pero que procure que la cosa no sea muy ostentosa, pues no quiere que de ésto se dé cuenta su esposa MARTA. Que el Ingeniero irá disimuladamente a su recámara y luego suba JORGITO en la misma forma, pues le urge hablarle.

14:59 El Embajador PORTUONDO puso el siguiente cable a GARCIA INCHAUSTEGUI, Embajador de Cuba ante la ONU en Nueva York: "Favor SOUSA espere compañeros TALAVERA y RODAS, Delegados CIES llegarán vuelo 400 Aeronaves México seis horas mañana sábado".

16:11 POSADA, Consul de Cuba en Veracruz, desde el Puerto Aereo dijo a ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ, de la Embajada Cubana, que dentro de un rato sale a Tampico, a las 18:00 hs., y pregunta que si allí en la Embajada tienen alguna información que llevar para allá manden a alguien con ella y él se encargará de hacerla llegar a aquella gente o que si quieren decirle algo vaya alguno al Aeropuerto a verlo. ROGELIO manifiesta que tratará de ir con otro compañero de allí de la Embajada.

18:00 De parte de [illegible] preguntaron por el Lic. AGUILAR, manifestando que es urgente. En el despacho de AGUILAR se informó que se encontraba en las oficinas de Salvador [illegible] y se les proporcionó el número de teléfono.

11:55 FUENTE preguntó al cubano ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ que si ha habido algo, pues a él lo fueron a buscar de parte de un señor RODOLFO ROMERO de La Habana y FUENTE no sabe si es cierto o le quieren tender una trampa, porque parece que ya le andan pisando los talones, por lo del Movimiento de Liberación, y entonces quiere saber si allí en la Embajada tienen información sobre las personas que llegan, a ver si este señor RODOLFO ROMERO está aquí o vino antier. ROGELIO le sugiere que mejor llame al Consulado de Cuba, aunque desde luego "no sabemos quién sea ese señor". FUENTE mejor va a hablar con el señor de la Cubana de Aviación, además de que va a ponerse más abusado.

AGUILAR agrega que precisamente está aquí ahora NACHO ACOSTA y con él va a precisar los nombres para así telegrafiarles a aquellas gentes, pues parece que son los mismos cinco elementos inicialmente propuestos. HEBERTO dice que parece que se incorpora también NACHO AGUIRRE. AGUILAR a su vez manifiesta que ACOSTA indica la posibilidad de que también vayan dos o tres petroleros de la Secc. 35, y eso sería muy útil. HEBERTO no puede precisar quienes son, no obstante que el sábado estuvieron tratando ese asunto con los petroleros. AGUILAR dice queel acto será el sábado a las 20:00 hs. HEBERTO le recalca que la comisión estará integrada por el Lic. CALDERON, el Lic. CASTILLEJOS Ing. SANTOS BARONA, NACHO AGUIRRE, Sra. CASTILLEJOS, el propio HEBERTO y los dos o tres petroleros.

La presente es para decirte sobre los trámites que se están corriendo aquí para la Boda de Doles, como Doles es menor de edad y papá está muerto hay que sacar una certificación de defunción para presentarlo en los papeles del matrimonio hoy se fue a pedir ese papel y no sale hasta el 4 de Dic, pero eso no tiene mayor importancia en caso de no conseguirse pues se hace una declaración jurada ante un notario y cuando ese papel esté se adjunta a los ya archivados en la notaría, la certificación de nacimiento de Esther y la fe de soltera estarán para el 2 de Oct, mañana a las 10 a ir a Inmigración a solicitar la tarjeta pues eso tiene un trámite de 15 días

Mañana va Tana a ver a la Sra que le arregle la pensión a la madre de Gilberto
y tratar de ir a [illegible] para ver si ellos pueden sacar el certificado de

Carlos ARIEL and Julieta were there talking about Human Rights Congress at the Del Prado.

GALLO told Subj they were interested in closer relation with Belice, i.e. mutual collaboration. He talked quite some time on the Cuban Revolution and what is was doing. He told Subj that he was veryinterested in his union and that it affiliate itself as soon as possible with the ~~XXXXXXX~~ Confederacion de Trabajadores Cubanos (CTC), in fact, he asked him to write out (dictate) a letter to Rozalio RODRIGUEZ Lopez re affiliation with CTC. Subj told GALLO that he would discuss this with Edmundo JARDON and that the two of them wo ld come ~~up with~~ something re the CTC. GALLO told Subj that they would like the CDU (Christian Democratic Union) to be th lick between the PGT in Guatemala and the CTC in Cuba. GALLO also asked Subj if he knew anything about a military buildup in Puerto BARRIOS. Subj believes that GALLO thinks that there has been a mil itary buildup there. Subj told him he knew nothing about this whi which is the truth. GALLO also asked about relations between B. H. and British Guiana.

Subj reported that Guillermo TREJO ~~of Te~~ [illegible] Prensa Libre went to Toluca on urgent mission on 17 Aug. 61.

Subj said that GALLO, RODRIGUEZ and BORDES tal ked at some length in Spanish in his presence but he was not able t to understand what they were talking about. He cited the followin items: something will happen in Mexico whichiwill bring about an- other situation similar to Guantanamo. CARDENAS mentioned, and name HERNANDEZ of FERNANDEZ on several occasions. Also Oaxaca and Chilpan- cingo.

1. LIENVOY (3) reported that on 9 August 1961 Lorenzo ZELAYA Romero, Honduran Communist who lives in Mexico, told Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, Cuban Embassy employee, that he wanted to discuss with him the matter of Gustavo R. MENDOZA, a Venezuelan who is an instructor in the use of farm machinery. He said that MENDOZA, member of the revolutionary group in Venezuela, can no longer return to his country and has been practically dismissed from his teaching job at Chapingo because of his ideology. ZELAYA said that he would send MENDOZA, who has had much experience, to see RODRIGUEZ.

SUBJECT
PBRUMEN/AMMUG/Operational; Shipment of explosives to Mexico

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action: FYI

Following is a translation of a report submitted by AMMUG-1 concerning a shipment of explosives to Mexico:

"The Communist Party of El Salvador had asked me to send them twenty-five one-quarter pound packages of gelatin explosives. They requested that the explosives be sent to Mexico where they would receive them and take them to El Salvador.

'In view of the request, I spoke with Manuel PINEIRO regarding the shipment itself, as well as the amount. PINEIRO answered by telling me to do so.

'During my trip to Mexico (March 1964) I spoke with Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez regarding this shipment and he ~~told me that there was no~~ need of my sending the explosives to Mexico as this type of explosive was available in the Embassy. I then told RODRIGUEZ that I would answer the request from El Salvador.

'Upon returning to Cuba I spoke with PINEIRO, who told me not to send the explosives as the orders now were to send nothing but money due to the recent exposure of the arms shipment to Venezuela."

feel that FLORES Sanchez was deliberately creating difficulties and putting up roadblocks in connection with Cuban plans to put on an art exhibit in Mexico City. (Perhaps this falling out may be exploitable in the current campaign to discredit APARICIO)

g. On 5 June Hermes CABALLERO and Angel GONZALEZ Drets arrived from Cuba to attend some sort of UNESCO meeting. Staying at the Hotel Montejo. CABALLERO knows Dra. MACHADO of the Embassy. L-9 heard that both of these men have Spanish wives. They are scheduled to return to Cuba about 5 July. GONZALEZ Drets' trip was paid for by UNESCO, not so with CABALLERO. CABALLERO remarked that in Cuba recently one of the visiting Mexican chess players chided him by asking why two militiamen guarded all the busses in town.

h. Coty SOLORZANO arrived back on 5 June from Cuba. She brought best regards for L-9 from his sister-in-law and said the s-i-l needs some medicines. This was the first time Coty had met L-9's brother and s-i-l, was very impressed by both -- this reflects favorably on L-9. On 6 June Dra. MACHADO told L-9 that Coty had said lots of nice things about L-9's relatives in Cuba. (This is interesting since MACHADO rarely says anything nice to anyone). P-8360

i. A staff meeting was held on Saturday 6 June. The Ambassador said that he had been invited by President LOPEZ Mateos to attend the inauguration of a new hospital; remarked that this had happened a few times before but that he had noted that he is invariably the only ambassador in attendance -- apparently LOPEZ Mateos keeps him isolated. P-8736

j. INTERIAN did not attend the staff meeting but VEGA and Rogelio RODRIGUEZ were there.

k. The preoccupation with hidden microphones was again evident at this staff meeting -- staff members were warned once again to be careful what they say since the enemy is probably listening.

l. It was announced that APARICIO had been the target of unfounded accusations (in connection with the Berta ORTEGA de ARROYO case) but that everyone should know that he had acted in good faith in his dealings with this ballerina. The Ambassador then rapped APARICIO's knuckles by saying that from this time on he should keep strictly to cultural matters, that "the next time something like this happens it will be more serious than a ballerina," and that matters pertaining to the chancery should be referred to Dra. MACHADO. Although MIRABAL was not present, the Amb said that the same warning applies to the Consulate -- it should not get involved in things which properly belong to the chancery. P-8729 P-8590

m. APARICIO reported that a planned AMCOSAC social affair (perhaps a dance) would not take place because the organization had run out of money.

n. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ was especially friendly to L-9 at this staff meeting, gave him a pack of Cuban cigarettes, chatted amiably, etc. P-736

o. On 8 June a Canadian citizen was visiting APARICIO.

SUBJECT LYAB/Operations
Contacts in Mexico with Soviets and Cubans

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

The Panama Station has completed the preparation of Field Information Reports based on information provided by LYAB from his contacts in Mexico with IDENTITY 1 and IDENTITY 2. Such reports did not, however, include operational details of such contacts, summary of which follows:

— what month?

1. LYAB checked into his hotel in Mexico City on a Friday morning and immediately telephoned IDENTITY 3.making an ostensibly innocuous inquiry using specific terminology in line with procedures arranged by IDENTITY 1 during previous meetings with LYAB in Mexico City. Although this inquiry was intended to alert LYAB's contact for a meeting the following day (alternate meeting twenty-four hours later), the system failed or IDENTITY 1 did not follow through for unknown reasons. Five days later (Tuesday), LYAB requested the assistance of IDENTITY 4 in contacting IDENTITY 1. IDENTITY 4 instructed LYAB to meet him the following night (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. on the corner of San Luis and Cuatemoc Avenue. Alternate meeting was fixed for twenty-four hours later.

2. IDENTITY 4 did not appear for the first meeting, but did appear for the alternate meeting on Thursday. He and LYAB entered a taxi, and drove to the corner of Nola Boulevard and Bolivar Street in the Colonia Alamos, where LYAB walked one block while IDENTITY 4 went to determine whether IDENTITY-1 had arrived for the meeting. He returned to LYAB about twenty minutes later and said that the meeting had been postponed until the following day (Friday). IDENTITY-1 did not show for the Friday meeting, and LYAB and IDENTITY-4 agreed that no further effort should be made until Monday. IDENTITY-1 did not appear for the Monday meeting, but on Tuesday IDENTITY-4 instructed LYAB to go to the corner of Toledo and Andalucia in the Colonia Alamos at 8 p.m., to enter a small store there, and drink a soda. IDENTITY-1 whom LYAB would recognize, would pass the store during that interval. This contact plan was carried out as scheduled, with LYAB finally meeting IDENTITY-1 approximately one block from the store in question. The next meeting was fixed for the following day (Wednesday) at 8 p.m. in front of the Mexican Power and Light Building for the purpose of delivering $20,000 to LYAB and for passing of reports from the Party in Panama.

3. The Wednesday meeting took place as scheduled. LYAB and IDENTITY-1 went to a restaurant, where IDENTITY-1 reviewed the reports provided by LYAB and discussed Party matters in accordance with the briefing given LYAB by Party leaders prior to his departure from Panama. At the end of their discussion, IDENTITY-1 told LYAB to go to a nearby corner and wait there for him, that he would return in a few minutes with the funds. LYAB did as he was told. IDENTITY-1 returned to the corner within a few minutes, continued walking a short distance, and turned into a small lane. LYAB followed, and also entered the lane; however, he noted that he was being followed by a car driven by a man of Slavic appearance who stopped his car at the entrance to the lane and dimmed the lights: LYAB feels that this was a surveillance of the meeting by IDENTITY-1's associates, however, there were no further unusual incidents and the funds were passed as planned.

4. LYAB had arranged to meet IDENTITY-4 at 1 p.m. on Thursday at the corner of San Luis and Cuatemoc for a meeting with IDENTITY-2; however, IDENTITY-5 substituted for IDENTITY-4 with the explanation that IDENTITY-4 was busy. IDENTITY-5 said that he would wait with LYAB to introduce him to a Party member (a woman) who would take him to the meeting with IDENTITY-2. IDENTITY-5 said that the meeting would be held at a restaurant in Coyocan, because this would be more comfortable for all concerned. A short time later, the woman appeared driving a car which LYAB entered after being introduced by IDENTITY-5. During the drive, the woman told LYAB that her name is IDENTITY-6. She said that she is a medical doctor who studied in Europe. In France she met some youths who interested her in attending a World Youth Festival. On her return to Mexico, she joined the Mexican Communist Party. She said that she had worked in Cuba and had taken a political training course there. She now works as a political educator for the Party in Mexico. She has a sister, IDENTITY-7 who works in the women's movement of the Party.

5. IDENTITY-6 said that she had planned to return to Mexico from Cuba on the day that President John Kennedy was assassinated, but because of the assassination her return was delayed. She said that there is much sectarianism and many supporters of a Chinese hard-line position in Cuba; however, the people involved are the least qualified of the Cubans, politically speaking. She said that these people adore Fidel Castro, and act on the basis of what Castro says, not on the basis of whether or not Castro is right. The old members of the Partido Socialista Popular are in a very difficult position, and are generally disliked.

6. Because of the location of the restaurant in the center of a block in Coyocan, LIYAB was unable to provide the name of the street on which it is located. He said that it is a typical Mexican restaurant in a colonial building, and that the employees wear native dress. IDENTITY-2 arrived somewhat late at the restaurant, explaining that they lost their way because they did not know Coyocan. LIYAB identified them as IDENTITY-8 and a large heavy-set man whose name LIYAB does not know. Following the luncheon, LIYAB was driven to the home of a personal friend by IDENTITY-6. The following day (Friday), he returned to Panama.

The Panama Station has completed the preparation of Field Information Reports based on information provided by LYAB from his contacts in Mexico with IDENTITY 1 and IDENTITY 2. Such reports did not, however, include operational details of such contacts, summary of which follows:

— what month?

1. LYAB checked into his hotel in Mexico City on a Friday morning and immediately telephoned IDENTITY 3, making an ostensibly innocuous inquiry using specific terminology in line with procedures arranged by IDENTITY 1 during previous meetings with LYAB in Mexico City. Although this inquiry was intended to alert LYAB's contact for a meeting the following day (alternate meeting twenty-four hours later), the system failed or IDENTITY 1 did not follow through for unknown reasons. 15:43 TEJO OVIEDO pide a JORRIN, portero de la Embajada Cubana, que diga al Embajador o a FERNANDEZ ROA que están esperando a que lleguen para empezar el acto. JORRIN indica que el Embajador tuvo que salir urgentemente a una diligencia, y FERNANDEZ ROA fué a esperar a su señora que llegaba hoy. TEJO dice que si entonces no va a venir nadie; que si el Embajador tenía que salir debió haber nombrado un representante; que ésto es una falta total de atención y que le diga al Embajador que está bastante molesto, pues ya no puede esperar porque tiene allí a todos los invitados y es una cosa bastante penosa que les hagan esa falta de atención.
Acto seguido JORRIN se pone en contacto con ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ y le hace saber que habló ahora TEJO OVIEDO diciendo que "están esperando a la gente de aca" para empezar el acto, y parece que está disgustado porque no ha llegado nadie; por lo que sería conveniente que ROGELIO se arrancara para allá. RODRIGUEZ: que entonces se lo dirá al Embajador. HF acepta y agrega que ayer habló "con nuestro Cónsul" cuando visitaron el Instituto y dijo que nohabría ningún problema y que se podría arreglar normalmente, ya que "regularmente se puede traspasar todo dentro a las personas que están aqui como nosotros, para explorar la venta libre entonces es necesario esperar esos tres años". RODRIGUEZ repite que se lo transmitirá al Embajador para que éste llame al de HF y se pongan de acuerdo. HF está de acuerdo y ROGELIO dá las gracias por todo.- 066.-

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM : Lawrence F. Barker

SUBJECT : Meeting with LITAMIL-9, 6 January 1964

1. A meeting was held with L-9 from 2000 hours until 2320 hours 6 Jan -- pick-up and drop-off were made by car, the meeting took place at B's home with B's wife working the gate.

2. L-9 was unusually depressed -- had just received a letter from Spain indicating that his sister had been forced to leave her work as a result of excessive fatigue and the "never ending round of discussions and study circles" etc. She had not received much sympathy from the Cuban FOMIN and her request for 2 months leave in Spain was denied pending further study. L-9, who is quite fond of his sisters, took this news to heart and it ate away at him and compounded his usual miserable feeling. The first part of the meeting was taken up in a C/O delivered pep talk.

3. L-9 had the following to report:

a. At the evening reception of 2 Jan at the Embassy, the TASS representative remarked that he believed KHRUSHCHEV did not travel to Cuba to attend the anniversary celebrations because of the revelation of an exile plot to bomb Havana -- revelations which came about as the result of the arrest by the US Coast Guard of some war-like Cubans with bombs in their possession. The TASS man said that he believed that KHRUSHCHEV would show up someday in Havana quite unannounced as did CASTRO in the USSR.

b. Teresa PROENZA may be hired back by the Embassy -- APARICIO recently remarked to L-9, "Surely they will re-hire her." It is quite clear that APARICIO doesn't want her in his office again and he expressed the wish that if she were to be rehired she would work in the main embassy building.

c. In regard to the PROENZA firing, ROJAS of Cubana de Aviacion, who is married to Teresa's sister, said that he had written to FOMIN Raul ROA in her behalf but had received no reply.

d. Ambassador HERNANDEZ Armas sent a Christmas present to GOROSTIZA of the Mexican Foreign Office this year -- it was really a New Year's present, sent 31 Dec. L-9 does not know what it was.

4. L-9 was asked what all the ruckus was at the airport on 5 Jan. This drew a blank. B then said he had heard that a phalanx of Embassy officers was out there apparently guarding someone who was on his way to Cuba. L-9 didn't know anything about it. B remarked that two Cuban officials were supposedly on the flight to Havana -- one from the Embassy in Montevideo. At this point, L-9 slapped his forehead and said, "My God, PEREZ! I forgot about him." He then related the details of a conversation he had had with Earle PEREZ Friman at the Embassy on 2 Jan -- details sent to HQS separately by cable. (See MEXI 7659). L-9 was not aware that PEREZ had been on the 5 Jan flight -- he described him perfectly. He was not made aware of KUBARK involvement in the alleged "assault" nor was he told anything about PEREZ' appearance at TPELIDE.

5. L-9 identified a number of persons appearing in the photos taken at the diplomatic reception held at the Embassy 2 Jan. Identifications were noted

6. L-9 revealed that he had welcomed in the New Year at Nico GARCIA's home -- at Nico's invitation. When Nico picked him up at the Embassy they made a swing by a house at 131 Alejandro Dumas, Polanco, where Nico wanted to drop a couple of bottles off with a friend named Mary, a Cuban. L-9 tried to remain in the car -- was not dressed for calling -- but Nico insisted that he come in. Mary was not there but her sister was -- she had just recently arrived from Cuba. Another Cuban man and woman were there -- anti-Castro types who were very sad at being away from their homeland -- the man was softly crying -- probably a bit liquored up. Nico fit right in -- L-9 says that he is a master at getting along with people, even those on the other side of the political fence. (This tallies with info on file). The Mexican landlady -- an old crone -- tried to put the make on L-9, really flipped for him, and wanted him to stay but he and Nico finally drove off. L-9 does not know who these people are (to be checked out). They then went over to Nico's place where L-9 joined the family for a Cuban dinner. Nico's mother-in-law was there -- she recently came out of Cuba to be with her daughter (Nico's wife) while she has a baby -- due soon. Jorrin appeared soon thereafter and joined in the meal. Nico put on some popular and light classical records, working his way from dance music to Tchaikovsky. When a carload of Embassy people -- Rogelio RODRIGUEZ and wife, Dra. MACHADO, Berta MACHADO, and Buenaventura REYES appeared in front Nico quickly took off the music and put on a record of Fidel CASTRO intoning his Second Declaration of Havana -- the new arrivals were greeted with this as they came in the door. L-9 says that Nico is a superb actor and knew just what to do when the Patria o Muerte types showed up.

7. In response to questioning L-9 revealed that Nico looks upon him as a Fidelista but definitely not a Communist. He says that Nico is very self assured, a calm man who cannot be ruffled. He appears to have no complexes about being a Negro. Asked whether he felt there might be any chance that Nico would cooperate against CASTRO, L-9 said, "Let us face the fact that many people are becoming more and more convinced that the revolution is here to stay. This man GARCIA is one of them. On the other hand, if he could be "got to" he would be invaluable. He would be a great loss to the Embassy. I would say that the chances are slim but it would probably be worth the effort to try to win him over. He has many friends from all walks of life, many of them among the anti-Castro elements."

8. L-9 showed B some documents regarding Cultural plans of the Embassy which did not seem to merit reporting. He turned over two long lists of persons invited to the 2 Jan receptions.

9. L-9 reported that Mr. Dudley THOMPSON, an opposition senator from Jamaica had been in town and he identified THOMPSON from among those photographed at the Diplomatic Reception of 2 Jan. T was in Nairobi, Kenya, two weeks ago and arrived in Mexico from Miami on 1 Jan. He hoped to continue on to Cuba right away but was unable to make the trip since he could not be assured of getting there and back to Jamaica by 6 Jan -- he had to be in Jamaica on the 6th to attend a meeting of those opposing the BUSTAMANTE regime and had to attend another meeting on 10 Jan which was to be attended by Cheddi JAGAN of British Guiana and leaders from Barbados. He hoped to be able to go to Cuba to see Jesus CANIZARES of the INRA in order to brief C about land reform measures in Kenya. He told L-9 that he would probably be back in Mexico in February 1964 to arrange to go to Cuba. L-9 says that T appears to be a very well educated, bright person.

TO The Files
FROM Floyd M. AIMONET
SUBJECT Debriefing of LITAMIL-3 on his meeting with LITAMIL-7
NEXT SCHEDULED MTG.: 27 May, Car pickup on Lerma, Guadalquivir, 0930

1. Once again, our bid to establish a small monthly deposit in the bank for LITAMIL-7 has failed. L-7 appreciates the thoughtfulness but won't accept a cent. No hard feelings and L-7 will continue to help in any way possible. Aimonet has decided against seeing L-7 personally because of the fact that a PBPRIMER's presence in the home of L-7 represents a disturbing factor and we do not want to rattle L-7 now that L-7 is calmed down and producing.

2. Following tidbits from this week's meeting:
   a) A long locked-door session between Lechuga and H. Armas on 18 May P-8412 B) Roa officially placed in charge all statements released to Mexican press.
   P- c) The full name of the new diplomat coming is Enrique Villavicensio Argudin. (will send cable requesting traces)
   d) José LAIN, consul Merida, PCS to Habana
   P-7365 e) Rogelio Rodgríguez returned with wife but left child behind Cuba.
   P-7921 f) Vega Perez placed in charge all fares and flights for those invited to Cuba from or through Mexico.
   P-8515 P-8591 g) Mirabal and Dra. Machado have had long daily sessions (meetings, that is.)
   P-7887 h) Ruiz and Garcia Lara have had long closed door sessions recently with Hernandez Armas.
   i) The Cuban FornMinistry cabled all personnel abroad to be "on alert view current rumblings"*(w.t.m.)
   j) On 16 May 16 Mexican chess players left for Cuba, guests of IDER
   k) On 16 and 18 May, total of 13 Colombians left for Cuba with fares paid and separate pieces of paper visas.
   l) Dr. Arturo Barber Orozco (suplente for Lechuga) arrived with Lech

3. LITAMIL-7 finally told off Pereira. He stopped bothering L-7

4. Instructed LITAMIL-3 to tell Mendejar to visit AMSAIL-1 as initial step in showing good faith and establishing bona fides.

*w.t.m. equals whatever that means.

1. On 14 December 1970, the undersigned visited WUSHARP at the latter's request and had the following discussion. WUSHARP asked whether we could use WUSLAB/1 as a means of contacting Cuban officials for the purpose of establishing lines which could later be exploited by WUSHARP assets. I explained to WUSHARP that WUSLAB/1 had been instructed to adopt a passive role in relationship to his Cuban contacts, and to respond only to contact initiated by the Cubans. WUSHARP stated that they understand our point of view thoroughly.

2. At this meeting I briefed WUSHARP on the telephone call from a DGI representative cited in reference. I told WUSHARP that I would give them a memorandum on this as well as a copy of the PCQ on Rogelio Rodriguez Lopez (201-332665) in which they expressed definite interest.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation

ATTENTION : Mr. D. J. Brennan

SUBJECT : Rogelio Rodriguez Lopez, Cuban Intelligence Officer

1. Reference is made to your previous correspondence concerning Rogelio Rodriguez Lopez, First Secretary of the Cuban Mission to the United Nations (CMUN) and an officer of the Cuban General Directorate of Intelligence (DGI). Rodriguez is the CUIS Case Officer for Jennifer Enid Miles, a South African national, now under investigation by the Bureau. Your most recent memorandum on Rodriguez and Miles was dated 26 January 1970.

2. On 30 January 1970, there was a liaison discussion about Miles and Rodriguez at which time your representatives advised that your Bureau planned to interview Miles, on an appropriate pretext, and that there were signs that she might be susceptible to "doubling". We recognize that the Miles Rodriguez case is an internal security responsibility of the Bureau but, to assist us in our efforts to assess Rodriguez as a DGI officer, it would be appreciated if you would provide us with the results of your interview with Miles as well as personality information about him that she may acquire in the future.

3. We would also like to have your comments about considering Rodriguez as a potential penetration of the DGI in Cuba. There is the possibility that Miles might be used to assist in approaching Rodriguez if, for example, she has refused to cooperate as a double agent or later if internal security considerations warrant an approach to Rodriguez.

TEXT OF EXTRACT (Also cite doc. distribution, Dissem. No., etc. - if applicable)

2. Production: WUSLAB/1 said that Jose Raul Viera Linares had phoned him at his home at about 1100 on 8 April. Viera said that a friend had described to him an acquaintance who had had an eye problem similar to WUSLAB/1 (or words to that effect), and that Viera now realized the seriousness of the case and that WUSLAB/1 would not be able to travel. Viera said that the chances were now remote that he would be returning to New York. A friend of his named "Rogelio" would contact WUSLAB/1. He did not say when or where, but it would be when circumstances permit. WUSLAB/1 asked if Viera might be assigned to another foreign country. Viera did not deign to answer this question.

3. I asked WUSLAB/1 what he considered the possibilities of recruiting Viera were. He thought an important factor would be Viera's liking of comfort and security. He would not be motivated by money, but he did like good living. He also probably did not like living in Havana, and would not like to stay there for a very long period. W/1 thought that if Viera came out to a country such as Spain that contact with him could easily be developed. In the United States Viera was on his guard. Also in the United States Viera did not have high level contacts with the local government, whereas in other countries he would be expected to have such contacts. Some of those contacts might then be also in contact with U.S. officials and you could get a cross-check on Viera. I told WUSLAB/1 that we would finish the PCQ form on Viera the next time we get together.

1. Transmitted herewith as an attachment to this dispatch are one copy each for WH/COG and WH/[illegible] of the [illegible]/1 debriefing results on CUUN and DGI Center personnel and activities in New York. The information was obtained by [illegible] during a short meeting 22 March 1970 (the information on Teofilo ACOSTA and "[illegible]" was obtained jointly by [illegible] and [illegible]). Other information was forwarded via Reference B. Information on Pedro Luis PINEIRO [illegible] ([illegible]), CUUN Third Secretary and DGI officer, also was cabled separately via Reference C.

2. Copies of the attached have been passed by FIGALAN to the local LNERGO office. "[illegible]" is the local code name used between the Base and LNERGO to designate [illegible]/1. As addressees will note, the attached sheet on PINEIRO makes no mention of the LNERGO [illegible] made to and reported by him; rather than make such information a matter of record within LNERGO FIGALAN merely passed that information to LNERGO orally 23 March.

3. [illegible] we had but limited time with [illegible]/1 on this trip, the attached information is necessarily slim. Items of particular interest concern PINEIRO and the forthcoming cutback in [illegible] activity, not only here but elsewhere.

4. Re the attached information on Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-[illegible]), CMUN Counsellor and DGI officer, [illegible] told the writer that VIERA's contact within Random House (publishing firm) is one

Jason EPSTEIN (no further bio data available).

5. Re the attached information on [illegible] (201-[illegible]), First Secretary and DGI officer, and his "female friends", [illegible] told the writer that one known romantic involvement is one

(Miss) Joanna Faith [illegible]
DOB: 1947
POB: Believed U.S.A.
CIT: U.S.
OCC: [illegible] (or intern), General [illegible], Beth Israel Hospital, New York City.

This young lady, who is part or all Jewish, is the daughter of a New York taxi driver. She visited Cuba in 1969. From technical coverage of the CMUN [illegible] is aware that DGI Center Chief Orlando [illegible] Gutierrez (201-[illegible]), First Secretary, knows of [illegible]' involvement with Miss [illegible] (one morning [illegible] phoned the young lady's apartment at 0815 hours to ask if [illegible] were there). [illegible] believes that [illegible]' interest in [illegible] is romantic only; as opposed to PINEIRO's interest in Mildred MARQUEZ Ortiz, per the attached sheet.

6. Re war-name "[illegible]" per the attached sheet, [illegible] believes that [illegible]/1 may be mistaken in the year "[illegible]" was here as part of the Cuban Delegation to the UN General Assembly; as related below, there are possibilities for "[illegible]" in both 1967 and 1968. In 1967 there are the following personalities who could be identical with "[illegible]":

A. Joaquin Camilo GARCIA Alonso, born 26 August 1937 in Havana;

B. Gonzalo DIAZ Diaz, born 25 November 1945 in Pinar del Rio;

C. Pedro Juan [illegible] Veloso, born 8 March 1938 in Las Villas;

D. Carlos E. ANTELO Perez, born 15 January 1943 in Pinar del Rio;

E. Gonzalo [illegible] Solo (201-728312), born 10 January 1930 in Havana.

In 1968 there are the following personalities who could be identical with "[illegible]":

F. Eduardo [illegible] Agero (201-840186), born 21 March 1930 in Las Villas;

G. Gonzalo GONZALEZ Cueto, born 15 November 1942 in Havana;

H. Crescencio E. [illegible] Paez, born 14 September 1941 in Havana;

I. Alvaro P. [illegible] Fonseca, born 6 December 1943 in Oriente;

J. Reno VALENZUELA Acebal, born 26 July 1938 in Havana;

K. Julian TORRES Rizo, born 1 September 1944 in Havana.

Other members of the UNGA Delegations for 1967 and 1968 we have been able to eliminate because they are either not DGI personnel and/or AMMUG/1 knows them sufficiently to rule out the possibility that they are identical with "AGLO". If the cut-name corresponds to the true name at all, then it would appear that the two most likely candidates for "AGLO" are Eduardo ARIOZ Agero (201-840126) and Carlos [illegible] Perez. The latter was here in 1967; ARIOZ here in 1968. We lean toward ARIOZ.

7. Should addressees be able to shed any light on the true identity of "AGLO" we would be most interested. Even if this is not possible, presumably we will know eventually who he is should his assignment here materialize.

8. The attached sheets should be extracted to the appropriate 201 files. To facilitate this the 201 numbers are listed below:

Orlando PEREIRA Gonzalez (201-[illegible]48505)
Pedro Luis PINERO Marin (201-[illegible]4876)
Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-[illegible])
Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez (201-[illegible]302)
Ricardo ALARCON Quesada (201-[illegible]7536)

Howard G. FIGMAN

26 March '70

7. Recruitment Targets. Subjectively, Source considers that the most vulnerable of the CMUN personnel are Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, Ambassador ALARCON, and Pedro Amado MORALES Carballo. RODRIGUEZ because he likes the ladies and the material things in life; ALARCON because of his strained relationship with PRENDES; and MORALES because he is basically a good sort and a realistic person. As stated, this is subjective reasoning on Source's part.

Teofilo ACOSTA Rodriguez

8. Replacement Personnel. With VIERA and PINERO leaving soon, there is talk in Havana about assigning one Teofilo ACOSTA here as a replacement for one or the other. ACOSTA is a negro in his early 30s and has served in several African posts for the DGI (including Tanzania and Mozambique). ACOSTA has been protected by Manuel PINEIRO Losada, former DGI chief, but is disliked by most MINREX types who know him. Source described ACOSTA as a sly and suspicious person who would not hesitate to report on anyone, including his friends and neighbors. ACOSTA is believed to have been deeply involved in various "wars of liberation" in Africa. ACOSTA was originally under consideration as a replacement for Francisco V. PORTELA, the Prensa Latina chief in New York, but it was finally decided to leave PORTELA here as there were advantages to his being a U.S. citizen.

Source also mentioned that one "AGEO" (a war name; real name not known to Source) was under consideration for assignment here. Source said that "AGEO" was a member of the Cuban Delegation to the 22nd UN General Assembly in 1967 (date possibly not correct). This "AGEO" was in charge of the purge within MINREX in 1967 which resulted in the ouster of some 300 persons regarded as homosexuals, counter-revolutionaries, or incompetents.

1. Transmitted herewith as an attachment to this dispatch are one copy each for C/WH/COG and COS/WH/MIAMI of the AMANVIL/1 debriefing results on CMUN and DGI Center personnel in New York. The information on Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez, DGI Center Chief, and Esperanza BALLESTER Fernandez was obtained by BETHOURN during meetings 26 January 1970 and 31 January respectively (some of the information on PRENDES was forwarded via DO BASE/NEW YORK 7403). The remainder of the information was obtained by FIGALAN during a meeting 1 February. Other information obtained by BETHOURN and FIGALAN from AMANVIL/1 on local subjects was forwarded by the referenced dispatch.

2. Copies of the attached have been passed by FIGALAN to the local LNERGO office. "ELGIN" is the local code name used between this Base and LNERGO to designate AMANVIL/1.

3. The attached should be extracted to the appropriate 201 files. To facilitate this the 201 numbers are listed below:

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 31 JANUARY AND 1 FEBRUARY 1970

1. Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez, First Secretary and DGI Center Chief. PRENDES is a highly intelligent and capable DGI officer who has some nine years experience in his trade. He is well-liked and respected by Manuel PINEIRO Losada ("Barba Roja"), former Chief of the DGI, and Ramon OROZA Naveran ("Demetrio"), currently Chief of U.S. operations in DGI Headquarters, particularly by the latter. PRENDES appears to be a fanatical revolutionary. He also is well-liked and respected by the staff of the DGI Center here, and he in turn is quick to single out each for praise--with the notable exception of Orlando PEREIRA Gonzalez, DGI officer and First Secretary. PRENDES seldom mentions PEREIRA, and Source concludes that he does not like or have much use for PEREIRA.

2. PRENDES' dislike for both Permanent Representative Ricardo ALARCON Quesada and Mrs. ALARCON is growing daily, and ALARCON's recall has become a fixation with PRENDES. While PRENDES is basically modest, his vanity emerges when discussing his own professional ability and accomplishments. Outwardly, he is anti-American, referring to Americans frequently as "nuestros enemigos". However, he is enjoying his tour in New York and obviously admires certain aspects of U.S. life. He has a large collection of American records, likes American clothes, etc.

3. PRENDES' wife, Teresita FERNANDEZ Arango, is scheduled to return home to Cuba permanently in June 1970. PRENDES plans to do the same in December 1970, after the next UN General Assembly ends. His two year tour will be up in September 1970. Teresita FERNANDEZ is popular with the CMUN personnel.

4. Source stated that PRENDES' father was uneducated (believed to be a fisherman), and his mother is a directress of a school in Matanzas. Source considers PRENDES a much more likeable type than the average Cuban intelligence officer. PRENDES is interested in the CMUN and its job as a whole, unlike his predecessor as Chief of the DGI Center, Chafik Homero SAKER Zenni ("an animal", according to Source).

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 1 FEBRUARY 1970

1. Pedro Luis PINERO Kirin, Third Secretary. PINERO is the favorite of DGI Center Chief Orlando MENDES Gutierrez, First Secretary, because PINERO is hard-working and "audacious". Source believes that PINERO is the DGI Center officer specializing in the handling of Cuban exile agent operations; PINERO "disappears" from the CMUN for 2 to 3 days at a time, and Source speculated that PINERO might be traveling to Miami to contact DGI agents. PINERO also continues to be active at night in lower Manhattan, and Source thought that he might be either making new contacts amongst youth/student circles in Greenwich and East Villages, or seeing existing contacts in those locations; this, of course, is only speculation on Source's part.

2. PINERO is currently in a state of mental depression. Not only has he been working too hard, he also received a "Dear John" letter from Lohania Josefina ARUCA Alonso, who had been a member of the Cuban UNGA Delegation in Fall 1969. This letter was hand-carried from Cuba to New York City in January 1970 by Esperanza BALLESTER Fernandez, a Cuban delegate to the Ninth Governing Council Session of the UN Development Programme. (PINERO is divorced from his wife in Cuba, and has two children by her; he and ARUCA had been planning marriage). Source thought that PINERO might return to Cuba soon for these reasons, as he has been here already for a little over two years.

3. According to comments made by Ramon OROZA Naveran, Chief of U.S. operations, DGI Headquarters, PINERO and Jose Raul VIERA Linares are considered by OROZA to be the two DGI officers here in the most danger of being declared persona non grata by the U. S. Government.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "[illegible]" ON 3 FEBRUARY 1970

1. Miguel Manuel SANTANA Frais, Attache. SANTANA's chief DGI duty is the purchase of electric and electronic instruments and components, mainly for shipment back to Cuba. SANTANA is an accomplished electrician and technician and is particularly knowledgeable re technical television matters. After Pedro Luis PINERO Eirin, Third Secretary and DGI officer, SANTANA is the favorite of DGI Center Chief Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez. SANTANA has done the electrical and technical work on the CMUN closed circuit television and alarm systems, and PRENDES has praised his work highly in this regard. Source thinks that some other Cuban Embassies abroad may install similar systems, and opined that the materials for same would be procured here by the CMUN and pouched either directly to the particular Embassy or via Havana. SANTANA would handle such procurement.

2. Jose Raul VIERA Linares, Counsellor. Source could offer little new information on VIERA and his intelligence activities. VIERA, not overly intelligent, has intellectual pretensions and likes to give people the impression that he is cultured and very well-read. VIERA has the responsibility within the CMUN (and the DGI Center) for handling U.S. citizens who wish to travel to Cuba; he handled the volunteers of the Venceremos Brigada who went to Cuba to assist in the sugar cane harvest. According to comments made by Ramon OROZA Naveran, Chief of U.S. operations, DGI Headquarters, VIERA and Pedro Luis PINERO Eirin are considered by OROZA to be the two DGI officers here in the most danger of being declared persona non grata by the U.S. Government; VIERA would be expelled mainly because of his involvement with U.S. citizens as indicated above.

3. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, First Secretary. Source could offer little new information on RODRIGUEZ; the latter has always been very reserved with Source and seldom talks with him. Source is aware that RODRIGUEZ serves as the "official" CMUN/DGI contact with Jose Maria QUIMPER, a leftist Peruvian national employed in the Department of Political and Security Council Affairs, UN Secretariat. RODRIGUEZ also appears to handle much of the CMUN business with the local Prensa Latina office. As far as contacts go, RODRIGUEZ concentrates--at the UN at least--on Latin Americans.

Orlando PEREIRA Gonzalez, First Secretary. PEREIRA is not overly liked within the CMUN. He is servile to and afraid of DGI Center Chief Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez. Whereas PRENDES has remarked to Source in favorable terms about all his other Center staff personnel, PRENDES has seldom mentioned PEREIRA at all. Source concludes that PRENDES does not like or have much use for PEREIRA.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 1 FEBRUARY 1970

1. Mrs. Victoria FERNANDEZ Padilla, newly arrived Attache at the CMUN, was the subject of a squib passed to your office 23 January 1970. Source "ELGIN" provided the following information on FERNANDEZ on 1 February 1970.

2. FERNANDEZ will stay in New York City for probably about a three month period; while here she will be working on documents and files at the CMUN. In Havana, she is employed in the documents section of the International Organizations Directorate of MINREX. She had been scheduled to come here for three months for the same purpose in Fall 1969 during the XXIV UN General Assembly, but Cuban Permanent Representative ALARCON had objected so her travel was postponed. FERNANDEZ is billeted in the apartment (5 M, 220 East 63rd Street) previously occupied by Justo Cesar GELABERT Martinez, Attache; GELABERT is staying temporarily with Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, First Secretary, in his apartment in Queens, 15 M, 61-15 97th Street, Elmhurst. Neither GELABERT nor RODRIGUEZ is happy over this turn of events. FERNANDEZ is married, but Source does not know anything about her husband.

3. FERNANDEZ is fat and ugly; she does not dress well. She is a mulatto. She is not known for her intelligence quotient. She has a somewhat rigid personality and does not get along well with people, male or female. She is convinced that she is discriminated against because she is part negro. FERNANDEZ considers herself as a revolutionary but does not seem to understand politics and ideologies. She takes herself extremely seriously. Within MINREX she is a "loner"; older than most of her female professional associates, she has nothing in common with them and her overbearing attitude is offensive to them. Source believes that it is almost a foregone conclusion that FERNANDEZ and Permanent Representative ALARCON will have a run-in, based on their respective personalities.

4. FERNANDEZ' brother, Oscar FERNANDEZ Padilla, is Vice-Minister for Labor Justice, Ministry of Labor. He is an "old guard" Communist, and Victoria FERNANDEZ is thus linked in some minds to the out-of-favor old guard herself.

5. In previous years Victoria FERNANDEZ has served as an instructress in the civil defense program. She has enjoyed being in a position of authority over those normally, outside the training program, her superiors in position and ability.

6. She has no known intelligence/security affiliations, but Source believes that she would be happy to collaborate with the DGI or DSE if so requested.

SECRET

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 26 JANUARY 1970

Esperanza BALLESTER Fernandez, Cuban Government Official

1. Esperanza BALLESTER Fernandez, born 12 March 1927 in Havana, attended the Ninth Session of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Governing Council in New York City 19-27 January 1970.

2. At the present time BALLESTER is Chief, Technical Assistance Section, Directorate of International Organizations, Cuban Foreign Ministry. In January 1967 BALLESTER, as an Observer, attended the Third Session of the UNDP Governing Council in New York City; in January 1969 she attended the Seventh Session. She is not known to have any intelligence/security affiliation.

3. On 26 January 1970 Source "ELGIN" commented on BALLESTER as follows.

> While ostensibly an ardent revolutionary, BALLESTER does not really understand revolution and appears to be confused. Among other things, she is disturbed by the fact that her mother and brother left Cuba. The former is in Miami, but BALLESTER is reluctant to have any contact with her at this time because she fears the Cuban Government would misunderstand. Instead, BALLESTER is considering making a request for official Cuban Government authorization to meet her mother outside the U.S. at a later date.
> BALLESTER is a hard-working "bureaucrat" who attacks her work conscientiously. Her husband, Rafael MARTEL, is a well-known Cuban radiologist who currently is serving an 18 month tour in North Vietnam with a Cuban technical aid group. BALLESTER and MARTEL are quite wealthy, by Cuban standards, and both are undertaking their current jobs out of loyalty to Fidel.

1. Attached herewith for C/WH/COG and COS/WH/MIAMI are two copies each of three memoranda concerning results of an 11 October 1969 debriefing of AMCLOCK/1 by Howard G. FIGALAN on CMUN and Delegation personalities. The meeting with AMCLOCK/1 was necessarily brief, and thus the results are not as extensive as those forwarded by the two referenced dispatches (from a 6 October meeting with AMCLOCK/1).

2. A copy of each of the memoranda has been passed by FIGALAN to the local LNERGO Cuban Squad, per our existing informal arrangement. "ELGIN" is the code name for AMCLOCK/1 as used between the Base and LNERGO here.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 11 OCTOBER 1969

CUBAN-UN MISSION PERSONALITIES

2R 201-834376

1. Pedro Luis PINERO Ervin, Third Secretary. ELGIN stated that PINERO continues to spend much of his time with Lohania Josefina ARUCA Alonso of the Cuban UNGA Delegation. ELGIN said that PINERO seems to have the approval of the DGI Center here for his modish dress and his excursions to Greenwich Village, et al. ELGIN assumed that PINERO is being used by the DGI Center to roam around town at night meeting new people in the hopes of developing U.S. contacts. Apparently PINERO's garb at times approaches that of a hippie. ✓

2C 201-815881

2. Pablo DRAKE Capiro, Attache-designate. DRAKE is scheduled to arrive here in late October to replace Rafael AGUILERA Batista, Attache and DSE code clerk. ELGIN did not recognize DRAKE's name and could furnish no information concerning him. 2C 201-351449 ✓

3. Jose Osvaldo GARCIA Calvo, Attache-designate. GARCIA had been scheduled to come here in July 1969 as an aide to Antonio DE SOUZA, CMUN Advisor. His wife, Nydya Irene ARROYO Martinez, was to have been a secretary to Ambassador Ricardo ALARCON Quesada. ELGIN said that GARCIA and ARROYO will not be coming to New York; their assignment has been cancelled. ARROYO currently is working in the Cuban Foreign Ministry (MINREX), but GARCIA has been sacked from MINREX and is now somewhere in the interior of Cuba. GARCIA fell into official disfavor because a girl friend of his denounced him to the DSE, either because GARCIA would not divorce his wife and marry her, or because she just became disenchanted with him for some reason. Moreover, GARCIA in his MINREX capacity had accompanied the British Ambassador in Cuba on a provincial tour several months ago. During the tour, the Ambassador, apparently favorably impressed by GARCIA, invited him to visit the United Kingdom. GARCIA neglected to report this invitation to the proper Cuban authorities, and when the fact of the invitation leaked out, GARCIA was suspended from MINREX.

4. MISCELLANEOUS. Although he naturally would not be aware of the specifics, ELGIN commented that it appears to him that the DGI Center here is extremely active operationally and seems to have more than enough funds at its disposal to pursue such activities.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON [illegible] OCTOBER 1969

[illegible] RODRIGUEZ LOPEZ, CMUN FIRST SECRETARY AND DGI OFFICER

1. ELGIN was shown the two photographs (as furnished by your office) of the individual believed to be Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, CMUN First Secretary and DGI officer, who was engaged in an intelligence activity in Queens on Saturday night, 4 October 1969. ELGIN identified the better of the two photographs as RODRIGUEZ; his identification was unhesitating. In questioning ELGIN further to be sure that he was positively convinced that the individual in question was RODRIGUEZ, ELGIN stated that RODRIGUEZ had recently had his hair cut and that it was now lying flatter on his head and that he was keeping it "slicked down" with water or oil. There was no doubt at all in ELGIN's mind that the individual was RODRIGUEZ. ELGIN has known RODRIGUEZ for several years and has seen him here this past month fairly frequently.

2. ELGIN could not furnish any information as to where RODRIGUEZ might have been over the week-end of 4/5 October. He did not see him on either of those two days.

3. ELGIN commented that RODRIGUEZ has been spending quite a bit of time lately with Maria de los Angeles FLORES Prida, an Alternate Representative of the Cuban UNGA Delegation. Their companionship is assumed by ELGIN to be more in the social line than in the professional line. RODRIGUEZ is a bachelor; FLORES is a divorcee.

1. [illegible] FERNANDEZ Vasquez, Advisor. ELGIN stated that he had seen very little of FERNANDEZ in the previous week, and could offer no new information on him or on his activities. FERNANDEZ seems to shun most of the Delegation and Mission personnel apart from his fellow DGI people.

ZR 201-333693

2. Augusto C. VEGA Hernandez, Advisor-designate. Although VEGA has been carried on the provisional Cuban Delegation listing, he has yet to appear here. ELGIN was not familiar with VEGA's name, but he commented that he had heard talk of another Advisor coming here in October; ELGIN thought that possibly this could be VEGA.

3. Maria de los Angeles FLORES Prida, Alternate Representative. FLORES has been spending quite a bit of time with Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, CMUN First Secretary and DGI officer. RODRIGUEZ is also an Alternate Representative of the Delegation. Their companionship is assumed by ELGIN to be more in the social line than in the professional line.

TO : Chief of Base

FROM : Howard G. FIGALAN

SUBJECT: ISOLOG/Operations
Western Hemisphere Targets, Group II: Cuba
Monthly Activities Report, July 1969

1. During July 1969 the writer continued in contact with AMBEDEW/3. No Intelligence Information Report disseminations sourced to AMBEDEW/1 were received from Headquarters during July, nor were any operational information squibs received. Results of the photos sent for identification by AMBEDEW/1 via UNDA-4574, 26 June, were not received by the end of July. Although AMBEDEW/1 was "surfaced" on 16 July, the Base was not advised of the vehicle by Headquarters until 23 July, after the Base had queried via DO BASE NEW YORK 6572. Fortunately, AMBEDEW/3 advised the Base of the media of surfacing prior to 23 July. The surfacing had minimal impact locally, as the vehicle chosen for the surfacing does not reach the local observer as would the New York Times, the New York Daily News, or the New York Post. With the turnover of AMBEDEW/1 to WODISH for resettlement, the case, for informational purposes, is closed.

2. 2P DO BASE NEW YORK 6607 concerned the effort to expel Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Gato (201-331833), CUMUN First Secretary and Deputy Chief of the DGI Center; and Lazaro ESPINOSA Bonet (201-816433), Third Secretary and DGI officer; and the intent to deny a reentry visa to Jorge REYES Vega (201-816437), Second Secretary and DGI officer, who is currently in Cuba on leave. Subsequently, BOZA left for Cuba on leave on 27 July; his wife already had returned to Cuba in June. Additionally, the following CUMUNers will be placed on "warning" status and liable to expulsion if any further illicit activities occur: Pedro Luis PINERO Eirin (201-824376), Third Secretary and DGI officer; Miguel Manuel SANTANA Fraiz (201-816439), Attache and DGI officer; and Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-328953), Counsellor and DGI officer.

3. Shortly before his departure on leave, Jorge REYES Vega introduced on 9 June Base asset WUHABIT/1 to REYES' "replacement" for the leave period. This turned out to be Orlando E. PEREIRA Gonzalez (201-848505), newly arrived First Secretary. The threesome lunched, and REYES did most of the talking, concentrating on the Cuban election to the Governing Council of the UN Development Programme. WUHABIT/1 did ascertain that PEREIRA spoke fair English and good Russian, and PEREIRA volunteered that he had spent two years in the Soviet Union (he was a First Secretary in the Cuban Embassy in Moscow 1967/1969. In introducing PEREIRA, REYES stressed that WUHABIT/1 should feel free to discuss any subject with him, and in turn told PEREIRA that he should call upon WUHABIT/1 whenever PEREIRA needed advice or help. While RYBCCK traces did not reveal any intelligence affiliation for PEREIRA, the Base and local LNERGO strongly suspect that PEREIRA is a DGI officer. His behavior in the future months will undoubtedly confirm or deny this.

4. The most noteworthy new arrival, Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez (201-332665), First Secretary and DGI officer, has been lying dormant since his arrival in early June. He is living, presumably temporarily, in the CMUN. Julio [illegible] GIL (201-851731), another new First Secretary, also has been quiet since his June arrival.

ZR

5. UNDA-4578, 3 July, transmitted a current listing of CMUN personnel to WH/Miami for use in debriefing AMCARD/1 as to any knowledge or acquaintanceship with any of them. The writer and EXTHOURN of WH/Miami discussed in New York on 1 July the possible move of AMCARD/1 to the New York area.

6. The month of July appeared to be a quiet one for both the legitimate CMUN personnel and the DGI Center.

SUBJECT: ISOLOG/Operational
Monthly Activities Report, August 1969

1. AMBEDEW/1 arrived in the area for resettlement on 1 August 1969. Although WODISH is handling the administrative aspects of the resettlement, the writer is staying in periodic contact with AMBEDEW/1 and AMBEDEW/3 for future operational purposes (e.g., debriefing AMBEDEW/1 on new CMUN arrivals, etc.). Results of the last batch of photographs forwarded by UNDA-4574, 26 June, were received via DIRECTOR 25971 in early August.

2. On 20 August the UN Secretary General was briefed by the U.S. Permanent Representative to the UN on the illicit activities of Lazaro ESPINOSA Bonet (201-816438), CMUN Third Secretary and DGI officer, and Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Gato (201-331032), First Secretary and Deputy Chief of the DGI Center. The following morning, 21 August, the CMUN was advised by diplomatic note that ESPINOSA should expeditiously depart the U.S. and that BOZA (then in Cuba on leave) would not be allowed a reentry visa. Jorge REYES Vega (201-816437), Second Secretary and DGI officer, also was requested to confine his activities to those related directly to his status as an officer of a mission to the UN. (See DO BASE NEW YORK 6763 for background.) The story surfaced in the press the following day, 22 August.

3. In mid-August LNERGO advised the writer that AMCLOCK/1 would be visiting the U.S. This was the first indication to RYROCK of his possible travel here this year.

4. On 30 August AMOELAY/1 arrived in the area for resettlement.

5. In late August the Base with local LNERGO monitored, for WH/MIAMI, the AMGAIT/1 matter involving Pedro Luis PINERO Kirin (201-824376), CMUN Third Secretary and DGI officer. We were all in agreed opinion that PINERO would not show up for the 28 August meeting as it had been laid on prior to the events cited in paragraph 2 above; we were correct as PINERO did not appear. See DO BASE NEW YORK 6792 for background. It is likely that the local DGI Center will remain more operationally quiet for a time because of the knocks taken by the DGI lately: the expulsion of Jesus JIMENEZ Escobar, the defection of AMBEDEW/1, the expulsion of

DOZA and ESPINOSA, and the defection of AMDELAY/1 all coming within the past six months.

6. In mid-September the Cuban Delegation to the 24th UN General Assembly will start arriving in sections. The first arrives on 11 September, the second 15 September, and the last on the 18th. Not surprisingly, the name of AMCURVE/1 (201-333971) is not among those coming. We doubt that he will be out for quite some time, if ever. The bulk of the Representatives, Alternate Representatives, and Advisors of the Delegation have been here before for General Assemblies. The distaff side will be well represented by Marta JIMENEZ Martinez, Lohania Josefina ARUCA Alonso, and Maria de los Angeles FLORES Prida; the first two are well known to us from previous General Assemblies. Ramon OROZA Naveran, an Advisor of the Delegation, is well-known to us as a leading official of DGI Headquarters.

2. A copy of each of the two memoranda has been passed by FIGALAN to the local LNERGO Cuban Squad, per our existing informal agreement. "ELGIN" is the code name for AMCLOCK/1 as used between the Base and LNERGO here.

3. Results of the 6 October meeting concerning Marta JIMENEZ Martinez (201-784065) of the Cuban Delegation have been forwarded to above addressees by separate dispatch.

4. The writer anticipates that further and more detailed debriefing information on personalities of local interest to this Base and LNERGO will be forthcoming in future sessions with AMCLOCK/1.

5. Items should be extracted for the appropriate 201 files.

CUBAN UN MISSION PERSONALITIES

All in USA as of 6 Oct 1969

ZR -- 201-850951

1. Pedro Amado MORALES Carballo, Counsellor. Source stated that MORALES has no intelligence/security affiliation. He is close to Fidel CASTRO Ruz. He is "very frivolous", not a serious type of person. Although MORALES is an Alternate Representative on the II Committee of the UNGA, he knows little about the issues or the work of the Committee. He has intellectual pretenses, but in actuality is of somewhat limited intellectual capacity. Does not take his work seriously. Source termed him a "tonto". Source is not aware whether MORALES has had any contacts with Cyrus EATON since MORALES' arrival here.

ZR 201-851731

2. Julio ALOM Gil, First Secretary. Source stated that ALOM has no intelligence/security affiliation. ALOM is very close to Ambassador Ricardo ALARCON Quesada. ✓

ZR -- 201-843605

3. Orlando PEREIRA Gonzalez, First Secretary. Source stated that PEREIRA is a DGI officer. He speaks a "little" Russian learned when he was assigned to the Cuban Embassy in Moscow. PEREIRA is a close associate of Manuel PINEIRO Losada, Chief of the DGI. PEREIRA is the DGI replacement for Jesus JIMENEZ Escobar, former CMUN Counsellor; however, JIMENEZ' diplomatic replacement is Pedro Amado MORALES Carballo. Source does not personally like PEREIRA. Just before PEREIRA was assigned to New York he married Maria de los Angeles LOPEZ Canas. ✓ Until her marriage, LOPEZ served as secretary to the Chief of the Cuban Communist Youth Organization. She now works part-time in the CMUN as a teletype operator.

4. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, First Secretary. RODRIGUEZ is a bachelor, which Source stated is rare among DGI personnel assigned abroad. Source stated that RODRIGUEZ has a frank ✓ and open manner, also rare among DGI personnel.

ZR -- 201-850953

5. Florentino JIMENEZ Padron, Attache. Source stated that JIMENEZ has no intelligence/security affiliation. He is the CMUN chauffeur. Member of the Cuban Communist Party. A "campesino" type. Came to the Foreign Ministry as a chauffeur from the Cuban Armed Forces. JIMENEZ enjoys good personal relations with Foreign Minister Raul ROA, and is under ROA's "protection". ✓ During his assignment at the Cuban Embassy in Prague, JIMENEZ initiated a one-time sexual liaison with a local woman with the approval of the DGI Center. He continued the liaison, however, and the DGI Center complained to the Foreign Ministry; ROA bailed JIMENEZ out.

ZR 201-846371

6. Serafin GARCIA Rodriguez, Attache. GARCIA (who had arrived here in February 1969) has departed permanently from New York for Cuba.

ZR 201-824376

7. Pedro Luis PINERO Zirin, Third Secretary. Source stated that PINERO and Lohania Josefina ARUCA Alonso, member of the Cuban UNGA Delegation, of late are always together, day and night. Marta JIMENEZ Martinez commented that one time Lohania did not return to her room until 0400 hours in the morning after having been with PINERO. Source assumes that PINERO and ARUCA are having an affair. (In 1967, during the UNGA, ARUCA and Nicolas RODRIGUEZ Astiazarain, then CMUN Counsellor, were romantically involved; ARUCA expected RODRIGUEZ to divorce his wife and marry her -- he didn't).

ZR 201-839221

8. Justo Cesar GELABERT Martinez, Attache. Source was told by Jorge REYES Vega, Second Secretary, that GELABERT and his wife, Noida BLANDY Reyes, returned to Cuba at the direction of the CMUN because BLANDY was behaving promiscuously ("como una prostituta"). They plan to divorce. Source doubts that GELABERT will return to New York. Source did not know the person or persons with whom Noida BLANDY was sexually misbehaving. Source said that REYES commented to him that GELABERT appeared to be afraid of BLANDY.

9. MISCELLANEOUS

ZR 201-330002

(A) Source continues to regard Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez, First Secretary and Chief of the local DGI Center, as a very "simpatico" person. He also thinks well of Teresita FERNANDEZ Arango, PRENDES' wife, as a person. PRENDES spends little time outside of the CMUN. As Chief of the DGI Center he concerns himself principally with administration of the Center's personnel and operational activities, leaving conduct of actual operations to his subordinates.

ZR 201-328953

(B) Source thinks that Jose Raul VIERA Linares, Counsellor, may be acting as the deputy to PRENDES. At any rate, after PRENDES, the three ranking DGI personnel are VIERA, Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, and Orlando PEREIRA Gonzalez (not necessarily in that order).

(C) Rolando PEREZ Alfonso, Attache, and Rafael AGUILERA Batista, Attache, continue as the two code clerks.

(D) Miguel Manuel SANTANA Fraiz, Attache, is very interested in radios. SANTANA is a "disagreeable person", and rarely speaks. Source is not sure whether SANTANA is with the DGI or the DSE.

CUBAN UNGA DELEGATION PERSONALITIES

1. HOUSING ARRANGEMENTS. Fernando ALVAREZ Tabio, Ambassador, and Enrique CAMEJO Argudin, Ambassador, are rooming together in the Peter Cooper Hotel. Marta JIMENEZ Martinez, Minister, Maria de los Angeles FLORES Prida, First Secretary, and Lohania Josefina ARUCA Alonso, First Secretary, are rooming together at the Peter Cooper Hotel. Roberto Miguel FERNANDEZ Vasquez, Antonio Bruno FERNANDEZ Pajon, and Victor Manuel GONZALEZ Valdez, all Advisors, have moved from the Peter Cooper and are now staying in the apartment of Justo Cesar GELABERT Martinez, #5 M, 220 East 63rd Street. (It is possible that one of the Cuban diplomatic couriers is also staying in the GELABERT apartment as well). 201-79133

2. DELEGATION ADVISORS. All of the "Advisors" on the Delegation are with the DGI. Ramon OROZA Naveran, Manuel MARTINEZ Galan, and Raul Ceferino ZAYAS Linares have gone to Canada to "inspect" the Cuban Embassy in Ottawa; from there they will return to Cuba via Mexico. They do not plan to return to New York enroute home. Source thinks that the other three Advisors -- FERNANDEZ, FERNANDEZ, and GONZALEZ -- will remain in New York until the end of the UNGA. They are currently taking English lessons for several hours most mornings (place not known to Source). Source considers that these three are all "disagreeable" people -- very reserved and not at all friendly. Source considers Roberto FERNANDEZ Vasquez to be a "sinverguenza". 201-335771 201-33[illegible]

3. MISCELLANEOUS. Carlos OLIVARES Sanchez, formerly Cuban Ambassador to the Soviet Union and formerly a high ranking official of the Foreign Ministry, may attend a later portion of the UNGA. OLIVARES is in Boston to have an eye operation at Massachusetts General Hospital. He may stop off in New York enroute back to Cuba. OLIVARES' influence in Cuba has been waning ever since Fidel CASTRO began replacing the "Old Guard Communists" with "Fidelistas".

1. Reference your telephone request of 24 June 1969 requesting a photograph of Eugelio RODRIGUEZ which is better than the one appearing in the Cuban Mugbook, it is believed that Subject of your request is Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, whose photograph is included in the Mugbook. There is no photograph of Eugelio RODRIGUEZ.

2. Forwarded herewith for your retention is a photograph of Rogelio *RODRIQUEZ Lopez, recently designated First Secretary, CMUN, who was scheduled to travel to New York via Mexico in early June 1969. Unfortunately, this photograph is little, if any, better than the one in the Cuban Mugbook. It is the only other photograph available at Headquarters.

3. AMBEDEW-1 has been shown and has positively identified the attached photo as Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, a DGI officer in Section III who was known to AMBEDEW-1 as "Rogelio." A-1 last saw Rogelio in Paris on 21 November 1968, at which time Rogelio was enroute to Conakry on what A-1 thought to be an important mission. It appeared that someone in Conakry could not leave until Rogelio arrived. A-1 understood that Rogelio had been in the UN Mission in New York, or in Canada, in 1964-65.

ACTION REQ: Index, if necessary; extract information to appropriate 201 files

REF: DO BASE/NEW YORK 5174

1. As indicated in the reference, the undersigned met with Subject on 19 October 1968 for the purpose of debriefing him on items of local interest to the Base and LNERGO.

2. Attached herewith is the information obtained at that meeting, broken down on separate sheets by major topics:

A) Cuban UN Mission (CMUN) personnel;

B) Cuban personalities of local interest (but who are not now in New York);

C) Physical lay-out of the CMUN;

D) Miscellaneous information on the official Cuban community;

E) Cuban Delegation to the 23rd UNGA.

MICROFILMED
DOC. MICRO. SER.

3. Perhaps the most interesting items are the following:

A) Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez (201- 330032 ?) appears to be the new chief of the DGI contingent within the CMUN, with Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Gato (201-331832) probably serving as the deputy; Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-328953) and Jesus JIMENEZ Escobar (201-749244) follow as the third and fourth ranking DGI officers;

B) There are apparently now two code clerks in the CMUN;

C) The physical lay-out of the CMUN;

D) The proportion of intelligence/security personnel within the CMUN (this information updates that given in UNDA-4116, 23 September 1968).

4. It is suggested that Headquarters extract appropriate items for the respective 201 files, particularly the intelligence/security personnel. To facilitate this process, the following individuals are mentioned in the attachments (201 numbers shown where known):

Jesus JIMENEZ Escobar (201-749244)
Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-328953)
Jorge BOLANOS Suarez (201-787157)

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 19 OCTOBER 68

CUBAN UNITED NATIONS MISSION (CMUN) PERSONNEL

201-749244

1. Jesus JIMENEZ Escobar, Counsellor. JIMENEZ was promoted to Counsellor in July 1968 because, according to Source's opinion, this rank would give him more status in his overt responsibility for economic and UN Development Programme matters. Source believes that JIMENEZ is now the fourth ranking DGI officer in the CMUN behind PRENDES, BOZA, and VIERA. Source considers JIMENEZ to be the most sophisticated officer in the CMUN.

201-328153

2. Jose Raul VIERA Linares, Counsellor. Source believes that VIERA is now the third ranking DGI officer in the CMUN behind PRENDES and BOZA. Source thinks that VIERA will be transferred back to Cuba soon, probably in December 1968.

NOV 1 1968

201-757157

3. Jorge BOLANOS Suarez, Counsellor-designate. Source stated that the Foreign Ministry has cancelled the assignment of BOLANOS. He definitely will not be coming to New York.

201-331832

4. Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Gato, First Secretary. Source believes (but does not have positive proof) that BOZA is now the Deputy Chief of the DGI contingent in the CMUN, behind PRENDES. BOZA specializes in "Black Power" matters. Source said that BOZA is now occupying the apartment formerly lived in by Carlos MORALES Quevedo, First Secretary, and his family. The wife of BOZA, Adamina VASQUEZ Caparo, currently is working in the CMUN as secretary to Ambassador ALARCON. Source believes that the assignment here of BOZA means greater emphasis is to be placed on "Black Power" matters.

201-777565

201-336002

201-824376

7. Pedro Luis PINERO Eirin, Third Secretary. Source believes, based on stories that he had heard in Cuba, that PINERO is a DGI officer.

CS COPY

201-833265

8. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez, First Secretary-designate. Source does not know RODRIGUEZ or anything about him. RODRIGUEZ was scheduled to come to New York some months ago; it would seem that he is not coming at this point. RODRIGUEZ amply has been documented as a DGI officer through other sources.

201-873421

9. Cecilia ANDRE Sandain, Second Secretary-designate. Source does not know ANDRE, who was scheduled to come at the same time as Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez. Source thought ANDRE might be the wife of Jorge BOLANOS Suarez (paragraph 3 above), as he thought BOLANOS' wife was named Cecilia, whom Source knew to be employed as a staff officer in the Cuban Embassy in London during BOLANOS' assignment there.

201-816439

10. Miguel Manuel SANTANA Fraiz, Attache. Source, who had identified SANTANA as a DGI officer in November 1967, now states that he is not sure whether he is with the DGI or with the DSE. Source thinks that he is probably with the DGI. Source said that the wife of SANTANA will return here late October.

201-839221

11. Justo Cesar GELABERT Martinez, Attache. Source stated that GELABERT is with the DSE. He replaced Ramon MARTINEZ Suarez as the "Portero" of the CMUN.

201-351449

12. Rafael AGUILERA Batista, Attache. Source confirmed that AGUILERA replaced Roberto GUERRA Gonzalez as a code clerk.

13. Rolando PEREZ Alfonso, Attache. Source stated that there are now two code clerks in the CMUN; by process of elimination, it would appear that PEREZ might well be the second one (Source did not know the name of the other code clerk).

14. CLERICAL EMPLOYEES. In addition to Adamina VASQUEZ Caparo (wife of Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Cato, First Secretary) who works as secretary to Ambassador ALARCON, and Mercedes SALGADO Hernandez (wife of Jorge REYES Vega, Second Secretary) who is the Telex operator, Source believes that two other wives of CMUN officers also work part-time in the CMUN. One of these females is pregnant, and may be married to one of the code clerks. Source thinks that the other might be the wife of Pedro Luis PINERO Eirin, Third Secretary (her name is Juana CRUZ Fernandez), but was not at all sure of this identification.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 19 OCTOBER 68

CUBAN PERSONALITIES OF LOCAL INTEREST, BUT NOT NOW IN NEW YORK

201-869011

1. Nicolas RODRIGUEZ Astiazaraín, Former CMUN Counsellor. Source stated that RODRIGUEZ is now the head of the Czech (and possibly the Hungarian) Desk, Directorate of "Socialist Countries", Foreign Ministry. He is now divorced from his wife, Magaly MESTRE Pintado, and reportedly will marry Lohania Josefina ARUCA Alonso, who was a member of the Cuban Delegation to the 22nd UN General Assembly in the Fall of 1967. RODRIGUEZ was not in any known difficulties or trouble when he returned to Cuba in early March 1968; he did do a short stint of "voluntary" cane-cutting after his return, but this is particularly required of members of the Cuban CP (of which he has been a member for some 4 years).

2. Marta JIMENEZ Martínez, Member of Cuban 22nd UNGA Delegation. Source does not believe that JIMENEZ will attend any portion of the 23rd UNGA this year. She is the Deputy Chief of the Directorate of International Organizations of the Foreign Ministry; since the Chief of that Directorate is in New York for the 23rd UNGA, Jose FERNANDEZ COSSIO Rodriguez, Source believes that JIMENEZ could not be absent from Cuba at the same time. Source stated that JIMENEZ is very close to Fidel CASTRO, and at times has by-passed Foreign Minister Raul ROA to go directly to Fidel on certain questions.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 19 OCTOBER 68

PHYSICAL LAY-OUT OF THE CUBAN UN MISSION (CMUN)

1. BASEMENT -- contains a kitchen and storage rooms.

2. GROUND FLOOR -- reception area; archives of unclassified UN (mostly) documents and papers; telex machine room; offices of Justo César GELABERT Martinez, Attache, and Mercedes SALGADO Hernandez (wife of Jorge REYES Vega, Second Secretary). GELABERT, a member of DSE, replaced Ramon MARTINEZ Suarez as "Portero" of the CMUN. SALGADO (reported last year by the same Source as a member of the DSE) is the Telex operator.

3. SECOND FLOOR -- office of Ambassador Ricardo ALARCON Quesada (runs along the front side of the CMUN on East 67th Street); reception salon for visitors; large office occupied by Antonio DE SOUZA Carvajal, Advisor; smaller office occupied by Gustavo Adolfo PLAZA Peterssen, Attache, and Adamina VASQÚEZ Caparo (wife of Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Gato, First Secretary). VASQUEZ is acting as secretary to Ambassador ALARCON.

4. THIRD FLOOR -- mostly living quarters; large common room; library; Rolando CONDE Figueredo, Attache (who is the chauffeur), lives on this floor; there are also several offices, occupants unknown.

5. FOURTH FLOOR -- entire floor is occupied by DGI personnel. (Last year, the Source reported that the DGI occupied the third floor; what Source actually meant was that the DGI had the third floor per European style of reference, which is the American fourth floor).

6. FIFTH FLOOR -- more living quarters (presumably the residential occupants of the CMUN, other than CONDE, live on this floor).

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION ON OFFICIAL CUBAN COMMUNITY

1. Alfonso VILLACORTA, Prensa Latina. Source stated that VILLACORTA is disgusted with the Cuban regime, but has stayed on with Prensa Latina here because his brother is in prison in Cuba. Source believes that VILLACORTA would defect were his brother ever able to get out of Cuba. VILLACORTA cordially dislikes the CMUN and its personnel. VILLACORTA, who has been reportedly pro-Chinese in the past, has no deep political convictions, according to Source. Jose Antonio RABAZA Vasquez, a member of the Cuban Delegation to the 23rd UN General Assembly this year, has spent quite a bit of time with VILLACORTA in the past month. Source thinks that VILLACORTA may be homosexual.

2. Relations between the CMUN and the local Prensa Latina Office. Source said that relations between the two offices continue to be marked with ill-feeling on both sides. The CMUN personnel look down on the two Prensa Latina employees, and the latter are well aware of this condescending attitude.

3. CMUN Morale. Source claimed that morale is high within the CMUN regarding Cuba's current status in the world. In response to a question as to whether VIERA and JIMENEZ resented the arrival of PRENDES and BOZA, and the consequent "demotion" of the first two within the DGI hierarchy here, Source indicated that he had seen no manifestations of resentment on the part of either VIERA or JIMENEZ. Source believed that this was mainly because both PRENDES and BOZA have long been senior to VIERA and JIMENEZ.

4. Proportion of Intel/Security Personnel within the CMUN. Of the 16 officers of the CMUN, 12 are believed to be affiliated with either the DGI, DSE, or DIER (the affiliation now thought for the code clerks). PRENDES, BOZA, VIERA, JIMENEZ, MORALES, and REYES are known to be DGI officers. PINERO is a presumed DGI officer. SANTANA is either DGI or DSE. ESPINOSA and GELABERT are known DSE. AGUILERA is known to be either DSE or DIER (Investigations Department of the Rebel Army). PEREZ is suspect DSE or DIER. Only four CMUN personnel are without any intelligence or security affiliation: Ambassador ALARCON, DE SOUZA, PLAZA, and CONDE.

INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM SOURCE "ELGIN" ON 19 OCTOBER 68

CUBAN PERSONALITIES, 23rd UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY DELEGATION

201-766981

1. Jose FERNANDEZ COSSIO Rodriguez. Director of International Organizations, Cuban Foreign Ministry. Now gets along well with Foreign Minister Raul ROA, but at one time he led the "anti-ROA Mafia" within the Ministry. Major ambition at this time is to become an Ambassador in one of the more prestigious posts abroad. Interestingly, he is a distant relative of Raul ROA. Has been a member of the Cuban CP for 4/5 years. Source said that FERNANDEZ COSSIO is "making a career of Communism", meaning that he makes the system work for him but is not ideologically oriented. He is a "loner", and his only real friend is the head of Directorate of Socialist Countries of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, who once saved the life of FERNANDEZ COSSIO during BATISTA days. Source terms FERNANDEZ COSSIO a superficial person, not an intellectual type, and interested in living comfortably and having money to spend.

2. Fernando ALVAREZ Tabio. Not pro-Communist and not really pro-CASTRO. A political rationalizer who is happy with the regime that allows him to lead his own life. Would not consider defection unless the regime changed its attitude toward him, which is not likely, according to Source.

201-333971

3. Jose Antonio RABAZA Vasquez. RABAZA is, in Source's belief, a homosexual (consistent with other reporting on RABAZA). He works in International Organizations of the Foreign Ministry under Marta JIMENEZ Martinez, Deputy Chief. While in New York, RABAZA has been very friendly with Alfonso VILLACORTA of the local Prensa Latina office. Source believes that VILLACORTA at least has tendencies toward homosexuality himself. RABAZA is very close to Osmani CIENFUEGOS in Cuba, and the latter has protected him in the Foreign Ministry (other reporting has indicated that RABAZA found himself in difficulties with the regime after an assignment in Rome; he spent close to a year in prison). According to Source, CIENFUEGOS spoke up for RABAZA and this is why he still is in the Foreign Ministry. RABAZA does not associate with others in the Delegation or in the CMUN; he spends little time in the UN Delegates Lounge, contrary to others in the Delegation. Source characterized his behavior as "mysterious", and suspects that RABAZA may be practicing his sexual proclivities here. He is well-educated and speaks several languages. He considers himself to be a good poet.

4. Technical Assistants of the Delegation. Source stated that all of the Technical Assistants of the Delegation are members of the DGI, the external intelligence service. All have now departed New York. During their stay, Source observed that all spent their time with DGI officers assigned to the CMUN. The only Technical Assistants personally known by Source are Ramon SANCHEZ-PARODI Montoto, Alvaro TAMAYO Fonseca, Rene VALENZUELA Acebal, and Eduardo ARAOZ Agero. Source did not know of any specific duties or missions of any of the Technical Assistants. He commented that TAMAYO was a close friend of Alberto BOZA Hidalgo-Gato, First Secretary of the CMUN, who specializes in "Black Power" matters in New York. Source does not know if any more Technical Assistants will come to New York during the 23rd UNGA.

DOC. MICRO. SER.

1. The following is a current listing (as of 13 September 1968) of the officers assigned PCS to the Cuban Permanent Mission to the United Nations (CMUN) in New York City. Intelligence or security affiliation is also shown where applicable. The listing is in the probable order of real (as opposed to UN listing) precedence. As can be seen, the CMUN continues to upgrade both legitimate diplomatic personnel and intelligence/security personnel both in terms of quantity as well as quality.

A. Ricardo ALARCON Quesada (201-347590), Ambassador and Permanent Representative;

B. Jose Raul VIERA Linares (201-328953), Counsellor, DGI officer;

C. Jesus JIMENEZ Escobar (201-749244), Counsellor, DGI officer;

D. Antonio DE SOUZA Carvajal (201-354048), Advisor (essentially a figure-head without substantive responsibilities or power);

E. Alberto LOZA Hidalgo-Gato (201-331832), First Secretary, DGI officer;

F. Orlando PRENDES Gutierrez (201- ?), 201-320002 First Secretary, DGI officer (presence not confirmed as of 13 September, but was scheduled to arrive 18 September);

M. Justo Cesar GELABERT Martinez (201- ?), Attache, reportedly was with DIER in 1961, no further information available; 201-839221

N. ~~Rafael~~ AGUILERA Batista (201-351449), Attache, code clerk, either DIER or DSE employee;

O. Rolando CONDE Figueredo (201-354057), Attache;

P. Rolando PEREZ Alfonso (201- ?), Attache, (here according to UN records but not confirmed by LNERGO as of 4 September). 201-836157

2. In recent months visas have been requested for the following officers, but they have not arrived as yet, and presumably some of them may not now be coming for one reason or another.

A. Jorge BOLANOS Suarez (201-787157), Counsellor-designate, was due to arrive in late August but presence has not been confirmed;

B. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ Lopez (201-332665), First Secretary-designate, DGI officer, visa requested in April 1968 with no further information available as to whether he will come (presumably he will not);

C. ✓ Cecilia ANDRE Sardain (201- ?), Second Secretary-designate, same ETA status as Rogelio RODRIGUEZ above.

3. VIERA Linares serves as Charge d'Affaires in the absence of Ambassador ALARCON Quesada. Up to this point, neither the Base nor LNERGO have been able to state evidentially as to whether VIERA or JIMENEZ Escobar is the sucessor to Chafik Homero SAKER Zenni (left PCS October 1967) as the DGI Station Chief. We both, however, tend to regard JIMENEZ as carrying the most weight in terms of operational activity and in terms of effectiveness. Now, with the arrival of BOZA Hidalgo-Gato (who reportedly has been the deputy to Ramon OROZA Naveran, head of U.S. operations for the DGI, per our last information), it remains to be seen if BOZA figures higher in the local hierarchy than VIERA or JIMENEZ. With JIMENEZ, VIERA, BOZA, and PRENDES Gutierrez, the local DGI station has more ranking talent than has been the norm. The Cubans do not necessarily slot their intelligence officers in Mission titles equivalent to their true ranks and responsibilities.

4. In terms of vulnerability from the LNHARP standpoint, the intelligence/security personnel at this point appear to offer little in the way of approach potential. Jorge BOLANOS Suarez (if he comes) and Gustavo Adolfo PLAZA Peterssen, on the basis of known information, seem the likeliest targets for us as of now. Both the Base and LNERGO, however, continue to look at all of them in this regard.

5. It will be noted from the above that of the 16 CMUN personnel now here, 8 are identified DGI/DSE, 2 are presumed DGI, and 1 (GELABERT) may be DSE or DIER. The percentage of personnel involved with intelligence/security thus ranges from a minimum of 50% up to 69% of the total CMUN personnel strength.

6. The number of official Cubans in New York will, of course, be swelled by the arrival of the Cuban Delegation to the 23rd UN General Assembly this month. We have requested, via DO BASE/NEW YORK 4844, traces on the 8 of the 12 man delegation on whom we hold no information.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Reference: HMMA-25993, 29 April 1965

Action : See Para 3.

1. It was reported in Reference that a man identifying himself as "Roberto" from Costa Rica phoned the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, on 23 April 1965, in an attempt to get in touch with the successor of Rogelio Rodriguez Lopez, Cuban intelligence officer. The man further stated that he was the doctor friend of Manuel, presumably Manuel Mora, head of the Costa Rican Communist Party.

2. An intercepted letter, dated 2 May 1965, to Judith Ferreto from Dr. Jorge Vega Rodriguez, Apartado 1212, San Jose, refers to his recent quick trip to Mexico. Vega wrote to Judith using her Party pseudo of Juanita Saenz, and at the end of the typewritten letter he wrote by hand "Greetings to Cafula and Engle (?)". Cafula is one of the pseudos used by Costa Rican Communist leader Carlos Fallas Sibaja. Headquarters has been interested in Vega's frequent trips to Mexico and his intimate friendship with Judith, as revealed by their telephone conversations, but no derogatory information on Vega has been developed. However, the fact that he is familiar with the Party pseudos of Judith and Fallas suggests that he may be more involved than he appears to be.

3. It is requested that Station San Jose determine if Dr. Vega was in Mexico on 23 April 1965, the date of the call to the Cuban Embassy. The Station is again asked to try to uncover any indication of subversive activity on the part of Vega. Is he friendly with the Mora brothers?

PBRUMEN/Unknown Costa Rican in Contact with Cuban Embassy

Action Required: For information, and see paragraph two.

1. According to LIENVOY, on 23 April 1965, an unidentified man called the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City to speak to the Ambassador, who was not in. The man refused to give his name but said he was the person who used to be seen with "the young blond man" from the Embassy. Subject asked the Embassy secretary to tell the Ambassador that he had received a cable from the Embassy asking him to come to Mexico from Costa Rica and that now he was here, but could not stay long. Subject also said that he had seen the Ambassador frequently but had been told not to use names on the telephone; that he had received the cable at the beginning of Holy Week but could not get a plane reservation then; that they had known him in the Embassy by the name of "Roberto"; that since the young blond man had now gone to Cuba, Subject was supposed to make the acquaintance of the person who had taken the young's place; and that the cable had alluded to some business they were going to take care of. Finally, Subject said to tell the Ambassador that he was the doctor friend of Manuel.

2. The Station is unable to identify Subject. However, the blond man is probably Rogelio Rodriguez Lopez, Second Secretary and identified Cuban intelligence officer, who left PCS for Cuba on 5 March 1965. The Station would be interested to know the identity of Subject if it can be determined by the San Jose Station.

This document is for the use of your agency only and neither it nor its contents should be [illegible] without appropriate authorization.

It has been reliably reported to this office that captioned vehicle, not otherwise described, was observed on the grounds of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City at 11:30 A.M. on October 29, 1964.

Investigation to date to identify the owner has developed that captioned vehicle is a 1961 Ford Falcon two-door with Vehicle Identification Number 1R11S123981. Investigation in California has disclosed that the captioned vehicle was last sold to one ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ who gave a false address in the Los Angeles area to the seller of the vehicle. At the time of the sale, RODRIGUEZ indicated that he was buying the automobile for someone else in Mexico, and would allegedly go to Mexico in the automobile.

RODRIGUEZ was described at the time of the purchase of the vehicle as a man between 35 and 40 years of age, apparently a Mexican (judging from his Spanish, dress, etc.) and was allegedly staying with relatives in Los Angeles, California.

Comrade Ferro__

Several days ago we received a request from comrade Eulogio with reference to your need of a loan to pay some debts, which resulted from recent purchases made by you.

We are aware that your work requires certain commodities, such as a presentable house, capable of making persons, who you receive, feel comfortable in the atmosphere they are in.

Now, you should have analyzed your economic possibilities before incurring those debts. If you had done so you would have realized that these were not within your reach (budget), for which reason you would have turned to us, with the purpose of finding a solution to that problem.

We are instructing comrade Eulogio to make you a reasonable loan with which you can get out of your present debts.

In the future you should consult us and in particular present a plan to comrade Eulogio, on any problem of that nature, with the confidence that it will be solved.

You should make us a report justifying the loan that you will get to pay the debts you have."

Subject: S/W Communications

In s/w communications, the agent is given a name, separate from his own pseudonym, as an indicator. In the Romeo Operation the use of the name "JULIO" meant that the letter was for "EDUARDO" that is Rogelio RODRIGUEZ, who had that as one of his pseudonyms and used it in August 1962 when he was in the MA Section at DGI (Cuban Intelligence service) Headquarters. The Valladares Operation similarly used "GENARO" to indicate that the letter was for "TEODORO," identity unknown, but a case officer in MA Section in August 1962.

miércoles 10 febrero 1965

09:07 SOL ARGUEDAS se reporta a casa del Lic. ALONSO AGUILAR y éste le pregunta cómo le fué en su viaje por Cuba. SOL responde que estupendamente. AGUILAR se alegra y comenta que sería muy bueno charlar ampliamente pues "a nosotros nos interesan mucho tus comentarios" de todo lo que seguramente ha podido seguir mas de cerca. SOL agrega que este ha sido el viaje mas inteligente que ha hecho, inteligente en el sentido de la comprensión, una cosa menos emotiva. AGUILAR así lo cree y manifiesta que ahora ya tiene una base que deberá servirle para la reapreciación de muchas cosas. SOL dice que además tiene pensado regresar muy pronto, y por tal motivo quisiera que AGUILAR y señora fueran el sábado a cenar a su casa. AGUILAR agradece la invitación pero no puede aceptar en vista de que precisamente ese día deberá estar en Ciudad Obregón, pues tiene el compromiso de hacer un recorrido rápido por el Estado de Sonora, pero promete que a su regreso se pondrán de acuerdo y se reunirán.

09:24 El Dr. ALVAREZ (la voz del guatemalteco VICTOR MANUEL GUTIERREZ) pregunta a la Embajada de Cuba por ROGELIO RODRIGUEZ y al ser informado por JORRIN que no se encuentra deja el recado siguiente: que lo esperaron ayer los esposos que lo habían invitado y que como no pudo ir lo esperan el sábado para merendar, porque ellos van a estar fuera. JORRIN toma nota y pasará el recado.

09:37 JESUS GIL después de ofrecer a la venta cierta cantidad de frijol azufrado a CAMILO DOMENECH de la oficina comercial de la Embajada Cubana, dice que mañana almorzará con TOÑO ROCHA pues es muy amigo de él y que es el Procurador de la República y que va a aclarar esas cosas que han publicado en contra de mismo CAMILO los diarios capitalinos. Este dice que lo tien sin cuidado, pues es la misma prensa que siempre ha criticado a los grandes hombres y verdaderos próceres, con mas razón van a criticar a un pobre hombre como lo es él. JESUS dice que de todas maneras " son unos mierdas, y bien mierdas", pero que los verdaderos amigos están con CAMILO que lo quieren de verdad. CAMILO lo sabe y se lo agradece.

10:15 Una empleada del Lic. FERNANDO FIGUEROA TARANGO Secretario del Presidente de la Gran Comisión del Senado, manifiesta que aquel desea ir a Cuba con su familia en viaje de placer. El Vice-Consul ABREU dice que lo puede hacer. La empleada entonces solicita "un salvo-conducto para FIGUEROA". ABREU indica que no es necesario pues eso solo es cuando hay estado de guerra, pero que si tiene pasaporte oficial puede otorgársele la visa.

1. The SW supplies and instructions needed to establish two-way SW correspondence with AMIRE-1 are transmitted herewith. We realize that some of the instruction forms and supplies which are being transmitted are duplicates of those sent to the Station in support of other operations. However, in order to facilitate the handling of each operation, the supplies for each are furnished as a complete unit. This will preclude the need for borrowing from one agent's supplies to outfit another.

2. AMIRE will write to the Case Officer, using carbon system #39337. 99 Two unused sheets of carbon #39337 should be issued to the agent for this purpose. He should be told to store them separately to avoid accidental loss of his writing system. His carbon system is developed by means of tablet #30607. A supply of the developer material, in quantities sufficient for training purposes, accompanies this dispatch.

3. According to the WH operational plan, SW messages written by AMIRE-1 01 will be mailed to accommodation addresses in various Latin American countries. In accordance with that, KURIOT will provide the appropriate WH Field Stations 28 with the materials necessary for developing the operational messages.

4. AMIRE-1 01 will develop 99 the SW messages he receives by means of pill #58838. 99 He should be issued twenty pills #58838 for that purpose. It is recommended that the agent be told to hide his developer materials in a safe place. This should not present much of a problem because the pills are so small. 99 We do not generally recommend that pills be camouflaged as medicines. 99 Even in cases where the SW ingredient does have a bona fide medicinal usage, the concentration represented by the SW pill would usually be in excess of the 99 normal dosage, and thus there would be a danger of having an unwitting person use them by accident. 99 If the Case Officer feels that for operational reasons it is desirable to camouflage them as medicines they should only be kept in a bottle which is clearly marked FOR EXTERNAL USE ONLY. 99

5. According to the operational plan, the Case to agent SW messages will be prepared for the Area Division by KURIOT at Headquarters. The Area Division will pouch the SW messages (as "blank" sheets of stationery) 99 to the appropriate Field Station for application of the cover text and mailing.

6. The AMIRE-1 01 99 Case Officer should familiarize himself with the accompanying supplies and instructions before any attempt is made to train and issue supplies to the agent. Experience has shown that it is advisable to plan for two or three short (2 hour) agent training sessions scheduled over a period of days, rather than to attempt to cram the training into one long session.

7. Special attention should be given to planning the 24 cover correspondence. It is usually recommended that the agent use false name and return address on his SW messages to the Station, thereby dis-associating himself completely from his SW reports once they are in the mail channel. 24 This requires that the correspondence be fictional, and entails a certain amount of skill on the part of AMIRE-1 in fabricating apparently innocent correspondence. 24 We have found that the use of a 24 false postal identity frequently provides the agent with considerable psychological reassurance during the course of the operation.

8. The cover/

8. The cover correspondence must in no way appear to be different from the bulk of mail ordinarily found in the channel being used. It should contain no information which could be viewed as suspicious in any way. The external aspects of the correspondence must be innocent in all aspects if the SW is to be expected to provide any level of security.

9. We have found that the reliability of any SW system depends nearly entirely on the care with which it is used. Please stress the need for careful writing techniques in your agent training sessions.

10. The following supplies and instructions are transmitted in support of the AMIRE 01 operation:

a. Standard Form 99 #1059-CWT which describes in detail how to write with a carbon 99 sheet.

b. One carbon 99 sheet #2010, labeled 99 DEMONSTRATION CARBON is to be used to demonstrate the principles of 99 carbon writing. The development process for this system can be carried out in the agent's presence.

c. One bottle (100 ml.) 99 of developer #20609 which will develop the demonstration 99 carbon writing.

99 d. Instruction 99 Form/H-16029 describing the development of the DEMONSTRATION CARBON.

e. Three carbon sheets 99 #39337. The one labeled 99 PRACTICE CARBON is to be used in training and is to be retained by the Station. Two 99 are to be issued to the agent. The agent should not be allowed to witness the development of this system, nor should he be shown the message after development. 99

f. Instruction 99 Form H-36037 specific instructions for the development of carbon system #39337 99

g. 99 Twenty pills #30607, to be used to develop practice and real messages written with carbon #39337 99

h. Two practice messages written with AMIRE 01's ingoing SW system which he should use to practice his development technique.

i. Twenty-five pills 99 #58838 which AMIRE 01 will use 99 to develop the SW messages he receives. Two or three of these pills should be used in training. 99 Twenty of the remaining pills should be issued to the agent.

99 j. Instruction 99 Form #H-26058, instructions for the use of developer #56838.

k. One copy of the "Station Maintenance of SW Supplies form.

l. Miscellaneous items such as 99 cotton, swab sticks, and blotters; items generally useful for SW processing.

11. You will note that two different kinds of 99 carbon sheets have been submitted with the supplies. One is labeled DEMONSTRATION CARBON 99 This should be used in the practice session only. It should be used to demonstrate carbon 99 writing techniques 99 to the agent. This system can be developed in the agent's presence. The other carbons submitted (#39337) 99 constitute the agent's operational sending system. 99 One sheet of carbon #39337 has been labeled PRACTICE CARBON. 99 After the agent has mastered the use of the DEMONSTRATION CARBON 99 he should be given an opportunity to write with the PRACTICE CARBON 99 It is very important that the Case Officer have the chance to critique the agent's SW writing technique with the actual system which the agent will use. However, the agent should not be allowed to witness the development of his operatio[illegible] [illegible]on system nor be shown the message after development. The develop[illegible] [illegible] carbon 99 / 39337 should be carried out at the Station. 99 If the Case Officer [illegible] that the training messages written with the operational PRACTICE CARBON 99 [illegible] that the agent's technique is poor, he should use photographs of the [illegible] [illegible]ped messages to point out to the agent those areas where improvement [illegible] [illegible]ded, or he should just discuss it verbally.

12. The Station should retain the DEMONSTRATION 99 CARBON, the [illegible]TICE 99 CARBON, and the rest of the supplies. Please bear in mind that [illegible] [illegible]veloped messages and working materials should be treated as classified.

13. Please do not hesitate to request additional help from [illegible] as needed.

1. Reference A does not give sufficient detail to make a very realistic appraisal at this time of the damage to our operations from the arrest of AMIRE-1. 24

2. According to AMRYE-1, the head principal agent of our stay-behind nets in Cuba, AMIRE-1 01 was kept fully informed of everything concerning operations and reporting. He also knew of the AMPARCH-1 agent net and how contact can be made with the agents. He was kept fully cognizant of all incoming and outgoing radio messages and reports.

SUBJECT: Operational/CYPOSE/AMIRE/AMGLEN/AMFOX
WT Operator Candidate Inside Target Area.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: Request for Headquarters Review of Files - Para 5.

1. In the fall of 1960 AMIRE-1 (Peter J. DI CERVENO) recruited in Havana a WT operator candidate, whose name he cannot recall at this time. This candidate was spotted and first contacted by AMPANIC-1, who passed the lead over to AMIRE-1. AMPANIC-1 first contacted the candidate on the porch of the old Mercedes Benz Agency at Malecon and Principe Streets, and AMIRE-1 then contacted subject in the latter's apartment in the fourth floor of a building located in the middle of the block on the East side of Menocal Avenue (Infanta) between Valle and San Jose Streets. This building had a store in the first floor, was painted a pinkish beige, and the apartments were very small (one bedroom and bath, living-dining room combination and a small kitchen). Subject was at the time working in a hardware store and living with his wife and a small child. Subject was about 33 years old, 6'6" tall, 120 lbs., wore thick glasses, light complexion, light hair, protruding facial features.

2. Subject had experience as a professional WT operator and worked a clandestine WT set for the Organizacion Autentica (OA) against the Batista regime. AMPANIC-1 was a member of the OA and spotted subject through a leader of the OA for whom Subject worked in the underground.

3. Subject was trained for a week or so by AMGLEN-1 in a safehouse located at 39 San Rafael Street which had been obtained for that purpose by AMFOX-1. AMFOX-1 attended the training sessions as a look-out, but neither AMFOX-1 nor AMGLEN-1 knew the identity and address of the trainee. Training included the clandestine operation of a RS-1, the use of signal plans, the use of pads in coding and decoding, and personal security. Training was conducted in the fall of 1960 after recruitment of Subject and with the approval of CO George D. SCOPGORY, who was AMIRE-1's CO at the time and to whom full reports were turned in on the training and the identity of the candidate. Subject was never activated and was kept on stand-by for possible use at a later date. For that purpose bona fides were established by AMIRE-1 and reported to his CO. Subject was not supplied with a WT set and no signal plans nor pads were issued to him.

4. AMIRE-1 recalls Subject was very secure in his clandestine contacts and operations. Despite established bona fides, AMIRE-1 had considerable trouble in gaining Subject's confidence and three preliminary contacts were necessary before getting down to business. Subject was last contacted by AMIRE-1 at Subject's apartment described above, in January or February 1961. At this time Subject was still willing and ready to work.

5. It is assumed that Headquarters files on the activities of AMIRE-1, AMCLEN-1 or AMFOX-1 will contain copies of the training reports and information reported by AMIRE-1. We would appreciate Headquarters assistance in ascertaining Subject's identity and present whereabouts in order to determine if he could still be used operationally inside target area. AMPANIC-1 has been terminated by JMWAVE PW Branch because of weakness in his personal security, and it is believed best not to contact him on this matter if possible.

AMAUTO-1 immediately suspected that this Cuban was an agent of RVROCK and suggested that GARCIA get to know this person and try to elicit biographic information as well as attempt to get a photograph of him for possible identification.

1. On 16 January 1969 QUTIMID reported a discussion between Subject and the Chief of the Rumanian Trade delegation in Spain, during which the Rumanian asked when they could meet. Subject invited the Rumanian to his home where, he said, he has set up a small office and was beginning to work more at home than in the office, because of the added comfort. (We wouldn't be surprised if this was suggested by his wife, who is very jealous of her husband.) The meeting was arranged for 1130 hours on 17 January. AMAUTO-1 commented that he is up quite early in the morning, presumably to begin work in his office.

2. The above report is the first we have received on Subject's use of his home as an office. The invitation to the Rumanian, of course, casts suspicion on the nature of the conversation.

3. Since his move to new quarters, AMAUTO-1's home is about 50 yards from two WOFIRM staffers - Martin B. CRYMM and Conrad B. FALAGIARO. (See attached sketch). Edwin B. RATTEREE lives approximately 200 yards from the AMAUTO home. This proximity to AMAUTO-1's home by three staffers brings up the question of the use of an RF device to monitor conversations in AMAUTO's office at home, assuming at this time, that he has a phone in the office, most likely an extension of the home phone. For planning purposes, we would appreciate from MKNOVA a list of requirements for a target study in the use of an RF device. If other means are available for external penetration of his home we would welcome your suggestions and comments. Please advise us also if the RF device is still a controlled item, which cannot be discussed with or released to liaison. Your earliest reply would be appreciated.

Operational/TYPIC/QUDOZE/MHGUILE Indications of Clandestine Activity planned by PBRUMEN Embassy in Madrid.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES: A. MADRID 4776
B. OSMA-23406, 12 Jan 68

1. In the four month period since the forwarding of ref B, the QUDOZE and QUTIMID Operations have continued to provide insights into the program of the PBRUMEN official establishment in Spain, the requirements laid on it and the evolution in the thinking of AMAUTO-1 and his staff as they work toward expanding their contacts and influence in the political, economic and cultural-propaganda fields. These developments will provide the subject matter for subsequent dispatches. However, in addition to such conventional "public relations", the QUDOZE Reports have recently carried evidence of MHGUILE activity. Because such activity automatically means PBHUMEN involvement in Spain's internal affairs, QUOTA has taken an even greater than usual interest in these developments. Translations of the transcripts detailing this information are given below.

2. The earliest and certainly the most striking MHGUILE information was forwarded under ref A describing AMAUTO-1's advice to AMADIEU-1 on the techniques of living a clandestine life, on the use of disguise and on the necessity for good organization for "with bad organization we are lost". Then, a QUDOZE Report of 30 April 68 summarized a discussion on the lack of personnel in the Embassy to make scientific and technical contacts, at which time AMAUTO-1 digressed into describing the cover for a new member of the staff whom he apparently expected to arrive in the near future. ".....what is lacking is a comrade who could take care of the cultural and apparently the technical aspect also. Who could also ascertain who are the Americans, their addresses, in what streets are located their...." He adds that this comrade will have to move about, to make contacts, to be up on everything, and if time remains to do other things. He added that he remembers the President (of PBRUMEN) gave much importance to this as a matter of honor for all the missions abroad. He repeated that the technical aspect (i.e.collecting technical information) required a comrade, a comrade who learns the details of foreign commerce in order to be able to converse well with people. Apparently this would be a type of overt specialty that they would give to the comrade who in order to hide the true purpose of his mission which would be to collect information for them as AMAUTO-1 is heard to comment that they have to "invent" the work of this comrade in order that he might have a definite specialty. AMAUTO-1 seems to be thinking of a specific person because he comments that he speaks two languages, that he likes economics, and adds that at the end of two months he would be ready.

3. Following the return of AMADRIFT-1 on the 7th of March 68, via PBRUMEN national flight, after home leave in PBRUMEN, the QUDOZE material reported extensive conversations between AMADRIFT-1 and AMAUTO-1 on future plans. Two were of MHGUILE interest:

A. QUDOZE Rport of 13 March 68. AMAUTO-1 says, "this is... with the American movement in Spain and with the monopoly that they have here". He says, "In my judgement our fundamental problem in Spain from the political point of view is to ascertain what there is behind all this, what is there here, we must get ourselves in motion". "That is a very important point for us, to ascertain what are their names, who are those who are here, how they (the Americans) are moving". He adds that, "If we are able to find out, we will be able to stop them completely."

B. QUDOZE Report of 14 Mar 68. AMAUTO-1 says that they have to find out "what are the forces in Spain, with the possibility of our having access (to them)". He comments that Spain, is at a crossroads internally and externally. He says they have to find out what is happening in Spain, whether they give the workers liberty to strike, etc. He again repeats all they have to find out, mentions finding out "who are the monarchists, what forces they represent, to what forces are they united, who are the elements that are being financed by the CIA and by the American Embassy". "Which are those scattered elements that the newspaper of the Movement has accused of being backed by the American Embassy, what financial power do they have?"

4. AMAUTO-1 had apparently set great hope on the 1 May 68 anti-government demonstration by workers and students which, as Headquarters is aware, the police effectively handled. In a 2 May QUDOZE Report, AMAUTO-1 repeatedly commented on what a tremendous failure the demonstration had been; he kept asking AMADRIFT-1 what had happened, why the Spanish people had not responded, why the workers had not, and finally said "The next demonstration we are going to name here a member of the Embassy".

1. The following conversation came from Subject source:

(At a meeting with Hector GALLO and Aristides DIAZ, the following statement was made by Guillermo RUIZ, Cuban Charge d'affaires:

"You know why I'm saying this....because the CIA is directly intervening in the internal affairs of the country, ARAGON can say it, the DGS Director can say it, as well as our dear friend Don Camilo PONSEVEDRA (phon.), and here they don't permit this or anything because they know very well that......here the Soviet KGB as well as the American CIA can't.....because the Spaniards.....hate it so much. The Americans are trying to asphyxiate this government, first because while FRANCO is in power there is always the great danger of a revolt here. The Americans want to have a government in Spain of the type Italy, France and West Germany have, a stable government, that has a high middle class, and where there is a high standard of living, because when you have the difference between the individual who is eating.....and the individual who is eating a chicken, then you have a dangerous problem, because in Latin America we have.....but here in Europe it's different, that is why I'm telling you this.....they can be intervening in the government.....that is why we must try to find out."

2. Following is the identity of the personnel involved -

a. Hector GALLO Protieles, First Secretary of Cuban Embassy, also believed to be Chief, DSE officer stationed at the Embassy.

b. Aristides DIAZ Rovirosa, Second Secretary/Press Attache, also possibly involved in intel matters.

c. Guillermo Orestes RUIZ Perez, Charge d'Affaires.

1. On 10 January 1968, AMAUTO-1, in one of his many daily discussions with his subordinates, reflected on the international position of his country, and among the things he said, we quote the following which may be of possible interest to addressees. Although part of the discussion was not heard because of the emotional inflection of the speaker, we feel that the jist of the discussion is clear and understandable.

> "We are demonstrating to the world that Cuba...is favorably disposed to do whatever...(AMAUTO-1 begins to talk against the United States) that when the Americans have to raise the white flag...because the first plane that appears on radar...(AMAUTO-1 is speaking excitedly and it is very difficult to understand each word but it appears that he is talking about the positions of missiles in Cuba), Havana, Las Villas and Camaguey and that with these missiles, we can cover Miami, New York, and all their bases and all of their "mierda". . .if the Americans say they are going to ~~sud them~~ (missiles? planes?), we will send them; if they (Americans) say they are going to invade us, the first plane that comes to invade...(AMAUTO-1's subordinate remarked that 15 October 62 marked a point in international politics, when the Yankees ordered the Soviets to withdraw their missiles). . .(AMAUTO-1 injected) "they (the Soviets) presented them (the Cubans) with ten bombs".

2. Our reason for reporting this fragmentary information is that AMAUTO-1 might be confirming the presence of offensive missiles in Cuba.

Plans of New Cuban Ambassador in Madrid

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. The new Cuban Ambassador to Spain, Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez arrived in Madrid on the Iberia flight of 3 December 1967 accompanied by his wife, Nilda, and three sons. CALZADILLA, RUIZ's predecessor had not been a strong administrator and had let the various components of the Cuban official establishment in Spain run their own affairs. This fact plus the inevitable tendency of a new chief to be a "new broom" and rearrange things according to his own lights, led Station Madrid to expect some changes particularly within the Embassy. However, the QUDOZE and QUTIMID operations have shown RUIZ at least initially to be an aggressive and well organized individual with ideas of his own that clearly reflect his background in commercial affairs and prepared to make changes that promise to go beyond the superficial sweeping of a new broom. Underlying RUIZ's actions and proposals is the clear implication that he came to Madrid with the specific task of upgrading the Cuban mission in Spain both in terms of prestige and effectiveness. Station Madrid will transmit to the addressees the relevant information on this program as it becomes available from the QUDOZE and QUTIMID operations along with information on the official Cuban personalities administering the program.

2. A striking difference between RUIZ and his predecessor was noted in the QUDOZE and QUTIMID reports of that first week. RUIZ has no inhibitions over spending money. One of the Embassy cars, a Peugeot was replaced with a new model and there was discussion of replacing the other two Peugeots with new ones. Nilda, RUIZ's wife, was picked up by the wife of GOVIN who turned $200 over to her to go shopping at the Corte Inglesa, one of Madrid's two best known department stores. RUIZ checked with GALLO, his deputy, on the proper clothes for diplomatic functions in Madrid and an appointment was to be made with a tailor. Nilda declared that the apartment where CALZADILLA and his family had lived economically was inadequate and they decided to look for a chalet, something very spacious and well-priced. They subsequently seriously considered one known to rent for 30,000 pesetas ($500) per month and then turned it down, apparently for reasons other than price. A new telex machine was ordered for the Embassy. The technician stated they could install a teletype that could only receive, not send, messages but this seemed acceptable.

3. On Monday, 4 December 1967, the day after his arrival, RUIZ ordered the Cuban consuls in Barcelona, Sevilla and Vigo to Madrid for a meeting. The order was couched in terms of "wanting to meet" them, but after their arrival on Wednesday, 6 December, all parties settled down to a detailed meeting in which primary attention was given to administrative matters, trade and propaganda. The latter two subjects will be dealt with in separate dispatches. On the administrative side, RUIZ listened sympathetically to complaints about low salaries, old buildings and inadequate operating budgets and concluded by asking for a monthly report on receipts and expenses and a report on the consuls' current needs, their monthly balances and their administrative activities. The printing and telephone bills were the two items of expense that kept recurring throughout the discussions.

4. By the end of the week, RUIZ had prepared a report on the situation he found in the Chancerry and the mission in general for forwarding to Havana and which he first discussed with his subordinates. He started by assuring them that he had "found great co-operation among all the comrades in this mission" and declared that the staff was complete. Apparently, RUIZ intends to make no personnel changes and Hector GALLO Portieles, who had previously been most eager to return PCS to Havana, now has gone to Havana on vacation. He left Madrid on the 20 December 1967 Iberia flight.

5. The Cuban mission has certain financial problems since the present budget dates from previous years and does not cover current expenses. However, the "new economic activities of the consulate" are expected to assist with the problem. Here RUIZ is presumably referring to the pressure brought to bear in November 1967 by Cuban sympathizers in the Spanish Foreign Office working through the Customs and the Immigration Office to force Cuban exiles to register with the Cuban consulate and pay the $22.50 fee for a valid passport. Enough exiles have responded to this pressure to relieve some of the financial problems of the Cuban mission. This source of income will last as long as the Cubans' friends in the Foreign Ministry are able to assist them.

6. The reception of Cuban official travelers at the airport and the handling of Embassy pouches poses a continuing administrative problem for the Embassy. Jose DIAZ Puga, who is in charge of this airport work has to devote himself exclusively to taking care of the couriers and their pouches when any come in, leaving visitors to fend for themselves. This situation has been alleviated by other Embassy staff members jaunting out to the airport at will to meet the incoming planes. Now, RUIZ has declared that the rest of the staff must stay in the Embassy because they have a work plan to fulfill. Thus, he has left himself with an unresolved problem he must face in the very near future.

7. The new Ambassador concluded his report with three recommendations:

a. Rent another building where the Chancillary, the Commercial Office, the Consulate and the Cubana Offices can all be housed instead of being dispersed in separate buildings as they are now;

b. Rent or preferably buy a residence for the Chief of Mission. The one they now have is not adequate;

c. Send another person from Cuba who has the background to take care of scientific work plus continuing the contacts the Mission will have already made. In view of RUIZ's previous statement on the completeness of the staff, such a person would likely be a "non-official" representative of one of Cuba's cultural fronts such as the Casa de las Americas.

8. RUIZ concluded his remarks by saying that in Spain there is a tremendous field for the Cubans, they have no language problem and they can do a great work. Such is the goal RUIZ has proclaimed and that Station Madrid believes he was sent to attain.

1. Guillermo RUIZ Perez, Charge d'Affaires of the Cuban Embassy in Madrid, has occupied that post for nearly a year. During that time, the QUDOZE/QUTIMID material has revealed various facets of his personality, showing him to be a man of volatile temper, an incessant talker and with more breadth of experience and outlook than the other members of the local Cuban mission.

2. In his public relations RUIZ seems to do well. Here in Spain he has been interested in meeting as many people as possible and in widening his circle of acquaintances. No matter what their political views may be, he feels it is worth establishing some kind of relationship with them and will listen attentatively to persons with a good reputation in the intellectual world. He has laid great emphasis on cultural matters in outlining his plans for the Embassy's activities. He has shown a certain intellectual restlessness, a desire to keep abreast of events in the world outside of Cuba and a willingness to accept whatever he deems to be good or useful from that exterior world. Thus, during his early conversations with his staff soon after his arrival, he extolled the virtues of the Yankee system of "briefing" and the fact that executives have privacy for thinking without being bothered by the routine details of the office. RUIZ has been concerned over having Cuba and the Cubans well thought of in Spain. He early said he was pre-occupied by the interpretation he would be able to give to Cuba here, that cultural relations were reduced to a very narrow circle and since Cuba was "in" economically it was now necessary to give attention to the political and cultural fields. He later commented on the fact that Cuba is practically unknown in Spain, that Cuban products are never seen in the local stores and that the view of Cuba of the average Spaniard has come from the exiles. He has continued to discuss the need for advertising Cuban products and considered decorating his office and his home with Cuban items and furniture so he could show a little bit of Cuba to his Spanish and foreign contacts. Another consequence of this desire to put Cuba's best foot forward is a certain harshness in dealing with the shortcomings of his colleagues and fellow Cubans outside the mission, calling attention to any deficiencies in their conduct and ways of dealing with the persons they meet. As recently as in a QUDOZE report of 13 July he was complaining that the Cubans seem to have lost the elegant touch in their public functions.

3. RUIZ's attitude toward money follows logically from his desire that Cuba's prestige increase and he is quite willing to spend money where it will show. The Embassy's 6 January reception was an expensive affair, the Embassy and Commercial officers take their Spanish contacts to the best restaurants, he and his wife pay 30,000 pesetas (approximately $ 430.00) rent per month for a house deemed suitable to his position and buy new clothes without hesitation for the various diplomatic functions. Before he went on home leave on 6 August 1968, he was encouraging his staff to rent better apartments that would more nearly match their status as diplomats and his wife was looking for a different house for them, one with fewer maintenance headaches and with rooms large enough for small receptions of as many as 40 people. All of this is quite in accord with RUIZ's own bourgoise tastes, reflected more than any thing else in his great interest in clothes and in being well dressed. Yet the Cuban mission operates on a slim budget and the salaries are not high. Station Madrid has no information on whether Cuban mission personnel receive a housing allowance but assumes they must as otherwise RUIZ, at least, could never make ends meet. RUIZ earns a gross salary of $681.50 per month and all his living expenses including clothes, food, medical expenses, education for the couple's 5 children and perhaps utilities must come from this sum. RUIZ also expects to be able to invite Cuban officials transiting Madrid and his Spanish and foreign contacts home for lunch or dinner at any time. There is no indication that he receives a representation allowance yet he will allow his wife to charge nothing except the salaries of two maids to the Embassy and she can't economize on food when they are alone because he will go out to a restaurant rather than eat rice and beans. RUIZ is plainly cautious in his dealings with Havana over money, even while wanting to live as well as possible in Madrid. The difference in the couple's manner of living between Havana and Madrid must be striking since RUIZ had a good position in the Ministry of Foreign Commerce prior to becoming Charge d'Affaires and yet his wife told Vera, the Embassy secretary and her closest friend, that she did not have a refrigerator in Cuba and would like to take one back with her if they did not return to Madrid after home leave!

4. As an individual, RUIZ has appeared in QUDOZE/QUTIMID as nervous, capricious, quick tempered. In contrast to his pleasant public appearance and his usually acceptable telephone language, his private conversation is vulgar, low and full of ugly words. He swears continually and flies off into rages. He is a compulsive talker and apparently uses his long conversations and his consultations over some course of action as a means of psychological reinforcement. He has given the impression of being insecure in his position and when faced with an accumulation of problems in the office prior to home leave, was talking of resigning and returning to Cuba. This insecurity may account for his touchiness over the way he is treated by the Spaniards, especially those in government positions. He has been noted describing several of his interviews with Spanish Ministers or people holding important government positions at great length, going into much detail on the length of the meeting, if they shook hands, if the person smiled, if he had anything nice to say about Cuba or the Cubans, etc. As the addressees know, RUIZ came to his post as a transfer from the Ministry of Foreign Commerce. On numerous occasions he has said that his life interest is in commerce and industry and prior to his vacation in Cuba, he was increasingly depressed over his present position and his ability to fill it, which may account for some of this sense of personal uncertainty. He has seemed a hard worker and a man with good ideas on the work of the Embassy and how it should be organized, ideas which he has repeated endlessly, but he has been unable to inspire in his subordinates. In his disputes with GALLO in June he complained about the lack of team spirit in the office.

5. RUIZ's political ideas are centered in the Cuban revolution and the Station considers him as an unquestioned regime supporter. However, his approach is different from that of the younger, less intelligent men who have known nothing else. RUIZ has had a sufficient breadth of education and experience to make a choice, to have reached his own decision that the Castro regime is good for Cuba and that Marxism as interpreted by the Cubans is an adequate intellectual foundation for life. A QUDOZE Report of 13 December 1967 included a discussion with a Spanish employee of the Embassy during which RUIZ explained that the Cuban revolution is different from any other revolution there has ever been in the world, that it has different characteristics and trajectories, that in spite of having a mark of Marxist principles it has many variations which make it different. These variations are unknown even to some of the comrades themselves. In a QUDOZE Report of 23 June, he commented on certain features of the Cuban system as "very difficult to understand unless one is of the left". The QUDOZE Report of 4 July quoted extensively in OSMA-24,112 of 9 August 1968 showed most clearly RUIZ's view of Cuba and the revolution as one entity and to see himself within that structure, a part of it and serving it. Beyond that, his mind runs in business and public relations rather than political channels and he has shown less interest in the policies than in the power relationships of the men within the hierarchy who administer the policies. He has been able to avoid sounding doctrinaire in his discussions and has been able to deal satisfactorily with the wide variety of people he likes to meet. This last winter the couple was able to find a secular school for their children where they would not be taught religion. Along with the rest of his staff RUIZ has exaggerated ideas about the size and aggressive intentions of the WOFIRM organization in Spain and is always on the lookout for a "provocation" even to the extent of refusing to receive an unknown newspaper man who called for an interview.

6. RUIZ seems to have little time for his wife, Nilda, and their children and, at least in public, his attitude toward his wife has been quite curt. He has mentioned on at least two occasions having "his problems at home" and that all married couples have problems they alone can solve, but he has never discussed them. Nilda, for her part, in her long conversations with Vera has made no comments that would indicate any special problems. She had always worked prior to coming to Spain and at first was quite discontented with a life of idleness, but adjusted herself to her new situation. She appears intelligent, competent, a good mother and probably a good business woman. She is outspoken but also solicitous and affectionate with her husband, always interested in his work and encouraging him in what he does. RUIZ, like most of the members of his staff, has health problems. He has had trouble with his back since 1955 and here in Spain has had colds and an intensification of the pain in his back.

7. Despite health problems, office problems and whatever feelings of inadequacy he may have had, home leave must have done RUIZ good for he returned to Madrid on 30 September 1968 for another year and his wife and children are expected to follow shortly.

Conflict Between Guillermo RUIZ Perez and Hector GALLO Portieles

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

MICROFILMED
DOC. MICRO. SER.

Reference: OSMA-24,050 dated 12 July 1968

Action Required: FYI

1. At the time the referenced dispatch was prepared, the QUDOZE Reports were showing the beginning of a full fledged fight between Guillermo RUIZ Perez, the Charge d'Affaires of the Cuban Embassy in Madrid and his first Secretary, Hector GALLO Portieles. As so often happens in human relations, less important issues proved the vehicle for expressing deeper conflicts and problems. In this case, the primary problem can be simply summarized. The members of RUIZ's staff operate independently of their chief and he feels he is neither consulted nor informed by his subordinates on their activities. This is particularly true in relation to GALLO. The specific issues which sparked their quarrels were RUIZ's dispute with Emilio ROMERO, editor of the newspaper Pueblo, and the distribution of Che GUEVARA's Diary.

2. A QUDOZE Report of 2 July 1968 outlined a hot discussion that ensued when RUIZ went into a rage over a phone call GALLO had received from Emilio ROMERO. RUIZ and ROMERO are not on speaking terms whereas GALLO and ROMERO get along well. GALLO said he feared enmity with ROMERO would bring about the publication of articles unfavorable to Cuba whereas RUIZ replied that when the first unfavorable article comes out, he will take it to the Foreign Minister and settle the matter on that level. He believes that he represents Cuba in Spain and that his subordinates should back him by taking the same positions in public that he takes, a not unreasonable demand on the part of a Chief of Mission. RUIZ bluntly told GALLO that he, GALLO, had committed an error and GALLO just as bluntly disagreed. GALLO's view was that RUIZ had come in in a bad humor and nothing pleased him whereas RUIZ felt GALLO should try putting himself in RUIZ's place, something he claims GALLO is incapable of doing. Finally, this particular argument ended in a form of compromise with GALLO agreeing to call ROMERO the following day and remind him that he "should call the Minister".

3. On 4 July the battle was renewed over the distribution of Che's Diary. At that time the Embassy only had 6 or 7 copies which were being loaned out on an overnight basis. RUIZ said he wanted to send the Diary "to a mountain of people" while GALLO was also offering it freely and without consulting RUIZ about the action or his list of recipients. RUIZ scolded him roundly for this and, ignoring GALLO's attempts at self-justification, told him he had to respect the instructions he received. At one point in his tirade, RUIZ even went so far as to suggest it would be better for one of them to leave and go to work in another country, for example Rumania. Several interesting items emerged from this long quarrel:

A. GALLO has some undefined problem which Station Madrid assumes is related to his personality and his approach to his fellow workers. Ruiz said, "Look, GALLO, here everyone knows the problem you have. It is necessary to be hard, because unfortunately all the comrades that have come here through many years know of the problem..." Ruiz then insisted on the importance of discussing problems among the comrades and said "for example in your case, you have been foolish in not outlining the problem. I was waiting and ESPINO was waiting and PILOTO".

B. RUIZ commented that now he can understand the attitude of CALZADILLA. Before, he had thought CALZADILLA was in error but now he feels the same way. He mentions "an ambivalence" and says he will not react the same way, "that CALZADILLA was wrong in limiting himself to a reduced group of persons whereas I will continue to go forward but with everyone, not just a few."

C. RUIZ takes a broader view of Party membership than his contemporaries. In commenting on the weekly study circle for members of the Party, he set forth his opinion that all the comrades of the local Cuban Mission should participate even though they may not be members because in his eyes it is as if they all really were members.

D. RUIZ repeated a statement he has made on previous occasions - the great interest of his life is foreign commerce. However, in this 4 July QUDOZE Report, he added the interesting detail that he had not wanted to come to Madrid as Charge and, in affect, had been persuaded to come against his will. He believes he is best able to serve in the control of industry and that is where he could perform a tremendous work for his country as every revolutionary ought to be in the place of work where he is able to do the most. "Until now, I have always done and have always gone where the revolution sent me... with my present limitation of criteria, I should not be here". He repeated his conviction that he is wasting his talents and doing nothing for Cuba in the position of Charge in comparison with what he could do elsewhere. "I believe that with which I am best able to serve my country is in the control of industry...I put myself in an industry and I see if things are being done well or if they are being done badly because I have knowledge and because I arrive at my conclusions through the accounting...look, here I am wasting my presence and my resources when I am able to be useful to production in another position."

By the end of this 4 July report, RUIZ had exhausted all his combativeness and appeared very depressed.

4. RUIZ is due for home leave in Havana the first part of August. There have been indications scattered throughout the QUDOZE and QUTIMID Reports of the last month or two that he might not return. The information given in Paragraph 3-D above seems to make this possibility even more likely and is a developement that Station Madrid will watch closely.

5. The arguments ended inconclusively. Neither man could afford to carry the battle to the ultimate conclusion of an open break. GALLO has tried to make some pro-forma gestures acknowledging RUIZ as head of the Mission and RUIZ will soon be going on home leave. However, the former close association noted upon RUIZ's arrival is gone and they are more distant and cool. GALLO at one point in this same 4 July QUDOZE Report mentioned how he had looked forward to working with RUIZ and QUDOZE had shown an initially close working relationship between them with daily discussions of the problems of the Mission and the events of the day. Now, their relationship is cool, correct and business-like. The personalities of the two men have also come into sharper relief. RUIZ with his quick temper, shouted and used harsh, course language and in the end got nowhere; GALLO did not raise his voice, although his language was no improvement over that of his boss, and tried to sound reasonable but never gave in an inch on any of the points over which they quarreled. In the end nothing was resolved except possibly to clear the air of some of the tension between the two men for in a 10 July QUDOZE Report, RUIZ was still complaining about GALLO's friendship with Emilio ROMERO and saying that GALLO only wanted to be out meeting people and not preparing written memos on his work!

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT : Guillermo Orestes RUIZ Perez (201-735296)
Cuban Charge d'Affaires in Madrid

According to QUDOZE/QUTIMID, Subject is suffering from a spinal ailment resulting from a fall he had about 12 years ago. Since then he has had chronic backaches which were particularly severe during the time that he was in the U.S., Haiti, and Santo Domingo. His pains have recurred since he arrived in Spain about six months ago. On 3 June he had another severe attack and was treated by the Embassy's Spanish doctor VILLALANDA who prescribed Cortisone. His condition was diagnosed as incurable since it was doubted that the injury to his spine could be corrected by an operation. Subject was further told by his doctor that the condition would worsen to the point where within six to 10 years he would have a defective walk. Subject planned to send the diagnosis and x-rays to ROA in Havana who would pass them to the Cuban specialist MARTINEZ-PAZ for reviewing.

C Comments of Cuban Charge d'Affaires in Madrid on Vietnam

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

A: SPAIN, MADRID CIT CUBA

1. According to a QUDOZE Report of 17 February, the 201-735296 Cuban Charge d'Affaires in Madrid, Guillermo RUIZ Perez, was discussing the war in Vietnam with one of his subordinates and commented that a Chinese general is driving the North American command mad. He added that this Chinese says that they failed the first time and can fail the second time but that in the end the victory will be theirs. He also added that Vietnam had been at war with the Chinese for thousands of years, that the Chinese have a demonic power that is their people.

2. The nature of the QUDOZE Report does not permit further amplification of the above information which, even though fragmentary and obscure, is being forwarded for whatever use Headquarters may wish to make of it. Should any clarifying information appear in future QUDOZE reports, it will be forwarded. It is interesting to note that, although Station traces do not show the information, a previous QUDOZE Report quoted RUIZ as saying he had once been in North Vietnam as a member of a trade mission.

AMAUTO-1 Discussion of Missiles

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. On 10 January 1968, AMAUTO-1, in one of his many daily discussions with his subordinates, reflected on the international position of his country, and among the things he said, we quote the following which may be of possible interest to addressees. Although part of the discussion was not heard because of the emotional inflection of the speaker, we feel that the jist of the discussion is clear and understandable.

> "We are demonstrating to the world that Cuba...is favorably disposed to do whatever...(AMAUTO-1 begins to talk against the United States) that when the Americans have to raise the white flag...because the first plane that appears on radar...(AMAUTO-1 is speaking excitedly and it is very difficult to understand each word but it appears that he is talking about the positions of missiles in Cuba), Havana, Las Villas and Camaguey and that with these missiles, we can cover Miami, New York, and all their bases and all of their "mierda". . .if the Americans say they are going to send them (missiles? planes?), we will send them; if they (Americans) say they are going to invade us, the first plane that comes to invade...(AMAUTO-1's subordinate remarked that 15 October 62 marked a point in international politics, when the Yankees ordered the Soviets to withdraw their missiles). . .(AMAUTO-1 injected) "they (the Soviets) presented them (the Cubans) with ten bombs".

2. Our reason for reporting this fragmentary information is that AMAUTO-1 might be confirming the presence of offensive missiles in Cuba.

1. When Guillermo RUIZ Perez, the new Cuban Charge met with the Cuban consuls following his arrival in Spain, the result was a long meeting at which primary attention was given to administrative matters, trade and propaganda. The subject of propaganda will be dealt with in this dispatch.

2. The Castro regime has always attached great importance to propaganda activities of all kinds and when the new Cuban Charge d'Affaires began to re-organize the work of his subordinates, propaganda matters were not overlooked. According to the QUDOZE and QUTIMID operations, the provincial consulates have been receiving four types of propaganda for distribution, two of which were identified. One was the propaganda put out by the organizations created by the Castro regime, for example "The Voice of Vietnam". The other is newspapers. PACHECO, Consul in Sevilla, mentioned Granma, which he claimed many people read, and added that lately he had been receiving Juventude Rebelde.

3. RUIZ's ideas apparently go beyond hand-shaking and the distribution of propaganda. He asked the consuls to make a list of all the institutes and all the scientific centers in their territories including the special positions of these centers and any other relevant information. They are to use these lists to develop a systematic work plan of visiting each one, making friends, trying to obtain scholarships for Cuba, trying to obtain publications and propaganda of every type, free if possible or by subscription if necessary. The consuls were told to go with the attitude of "looting".

4. Even while he was laying these responsibilities on his consuls, RUIZ was busy within the Embassy. In discussions with Andres MARTINEZ, a Spanish employee who works on cultural matters and is responsible for publication of the Embassy bulletin, RUIZ mentioned that he is interested in offering Cuban documentaries to Spanish Cine (Movie) Clubs as they now have a large number, "an infinity", of documentaries showing both Cuban technical application and how the people live. RUIZ also asked to see copies of the Embassy bulletin and in the meantime suggested MARTINEZ do a bulletin drawing a parallel between Gibralter and Guantanamo. Finally, according to a QUDOZE report of 11 December 1967, Hector GALLO Portieles had been ordered to prepare a work plan for cultural activity. In this context cultural activity is not limited to art, music and literature but also includes public information media. The Cuban Embassy has already built up a series of press contacts over the past years and the Cuban Revolution seems to draw a ready response in Spanish intellectual circles as evidenced by the Spanish delegates attending the Cultural Congress held in Havana from 4-11 January 1968. An expense-paid trip is always attractive to be sure but the delegates, many of whom were not communists, were also sympathetic to the host. Accordingly, within the limits imposed by the Spanish government, Station Madrid expects an increase in the propaganda and political action activities of the Cuban official establishment.

Plans of New Cuban Ambassador in Madrid

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

MICROFILMED
DOC. MICRO. SER.

1. The new Cuban Ambassador to Spain, Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez arrived in Madrid on the Iberia flight of 3 December 1967 accompanied by his wife, Nilda, and three sons. CALZADILLA, RUIZ's predecessor had not been a strong administrator and had let the various components of the Cuban official establishment in Spain run their own affairs. This fact plus the inevitable tendency of a new chief to be a "new broom" and rearrange things according to his own lights, led Station Madrid to expect some changes particularly within the Embassy. However, the QUDOZE and QUTIMID operations have shown RUIZ at least initially to be an aggressive and well organized individual with ideas of his own that clearly reflect his background in commercial affairs and prepared to make changes that promise to go beyond the superficial sweeping of a new broom. Underlying RUIZ's actions and proposals is the clear implication that he came to Madrid with the specific task of upgrading the Cuban mission in Spain both in terms of prestige and effectiveness. Station Madrid will transmit to the addressees the relevant information on this program as it becomes available from the QUDOZE and QUTIMID operations along with information on the official Cuban personalities administering the program.

2. A striking difference between RUIZ and his predecessor was noted in the QUDOZE and QUTIMID reports of that first week. RUIZ has no inhibitions over spending money. One of the Embassy cars, a Peugeot was replaced with a new model and there was discussion of replacing the other two Peugeots with new ones. Nilda, RUIZ's wife, was picked up by the wife of GOVIN who turned $200 over to her to go shopping at the Corte Inglesa, one of Madrid's two best known department stores. RUIZ checked with GALLO, his deputy, on the proper clothes for diplomatic functions in Madrid and an appointment was to be made with a tailor. Nilda declared that the apartment where CALZADILLA and his family had lived economically was inadequate and they decided to look for a chalet, something very spacious and well-priced. They subsequently seriously considered one known to rent for 30,000 pesetas ($500) per month and then turned it down, apparently for reasons other than price. A new telex machine was ordered for the Embassy. The technician stated they could install a teletype that could only receive, not send, messages but this seemed acceptable.

3. On Monday, 4 December 1967, the day after his arrival, RUIZ ordered the Cuban consuls in Barcelona, Sevilla and Vigo to Madrid for a meeting. The order was couched in terms of "wanting to meet" them, but after their arrival on Wednesday, 6 December, all parties settled down to a detailed meeting in which primary attention was given to administrative matters, trade and propaganda. The latter two subjects will be dealt with in separate dispatches. On the administrative side, RUIZ listened sympathetically to complaints about low salaries, old buildings and inadequate operating budgets and concluded by asking for a monthly report on receipts and expenses and a report on the consuls' current needs, their monthly balances and their administrative activities. The printing and telephone bills were the two items of expense that kept recurring throughout the discussions.

4. By the end of the week, RUIZ had prepared a report on the situation he found in the Chancerry and the mission in general for forwarding to Havana and which he first discussed with his subordinates. He started by assuring them that he had "found great co-operation among all the comrades in this mission" and declared that the staff was complete. Apparently, RUIZ intends to make no personnel changes and Hector GALLO Portieles, who had previously been most eager to return PCS to Havana, now has gone to Havana on vacation. He left Madrid on the 20 December 1967 Iberia flight.

5. The Cuban mission has certain financial problems since the present budget dates from previous years and does not cover current expenses. However, the "new economic activities of the consulate" are expected to assist with the problem. Here RUIZ is presumably referring to the pressure brought to bear in November 1967 by Cuban sympathizers in the Spanish Foreign Office working through the Customs and the Immigration Office to force Cuban exiles to register with the Cuban consulate and pay the $22.50 fee for a valid passport. Enough exiles have responded to this pressure to relieve some of the financial problems of the Cuban mission. This source of income will last as long as the Cubans' friends in the Foreign Ministry are able to assist them.

6. The reception of Cuban official travelers at the airport and the handling of Embassy pouches poses a continuing administrative problem for the Embassy. Jose DIAZ Puga, who is in charge of this airport work has to devote himself exclusively to taking care of the couriers and their pouches when any come in, leaving visitors to fend for themselves. This situation has been alleviated by other Embassy staff members jaunting out to the airport at will to meet the incoming planes. Now, RUIZ has declared that the rest of the staff must stay in the Embassy because they have a work plan to fulfill. Thus, he has left himself with an unresolved problem he must face in the very near future.

7. The new Ambassador concluded his report with three recommendations:

a. Rent another building where the Chancillary, the Commercial Office, the Consulate and the Cubana Offices can all be housed instead of being dispersed in separate buildings as they are now;

b. Rent or preferably buy a residence for the Chief of Mission. The one they now have is not adequate;

c. Send another person from Cuba who has the background to take care of scientific work plus continuing the contacts the Mission will have already made. In view of RUIZ's previous statement on the completeness of the staff, such a person would likely be a "non-official" representative of one of Cuba's cultural fronts such as the Casa de las Americas.

8. RUIZ concluded his remarks by saying that in Spain there is a tremendous field for the Cubans, they have no language problem and they can do a great work. Such is the goal RUIZ has proclaimed and that Station Madrid believes he was sent to attain.

1. JMWAVE traces reveal that (fnu) RUIZ, successor to Francisco CALZADILLA Nunez, 201-315988, may be identical with Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez, 201-735296. Information pertaining to RUIZ Perez is as follows:

a. In August 1963, RUIZ was appointed Cuban Commercial Counsellor at Mexico City, and was believed to be a G-2 official attempting to infiltrate counterrevolutionary groups based in Mexico. (UFGA-11065, dated 16 September 1963, and UFGA-11445, dated 23 September 1963.)

b. In 1964 an attempt was made to establish communications with RUIZ through Antonio VECIANA, an uncle of RUIZ' wife. VECIANA stated that neither he nor members of his family were in correspondence with RUIZ, and that he was unwilling to act as a "go-between." (UFGA-19006, dated 21 December 1964.)

c. A Headquarters' "WATCHLIST" card, dated 1 June 1965, indicates that RUIZ was believed to be assigned to the General Directorate of Intelligence, Ministry of Interior, in Havana.

2. AMOT traces pertaining to Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez, and an evaluation of his new assignment are attached.

1. Francisco CALZADILLA Nunez has not been an attache at the Cuban Embassy in Madrid but rather the head of the Embassy as with his rank of Minister Plenipotenciary he has always acted ad Charge d' Affaires Ad Int. in Spain.

2. Since the end of 1959, after the incident which took place in the CMQ TV station in Havana between Fidel CASTRO and the then Ambassador of Spain to Cuba, Juan Pablo de LOJENDIO, and the subsequent recall of Dr. Jose MIRO Cardona who, at that time, was Cuban Ambassador to Spain, both countries have kept persons with a rank of less than ambassador as the heads of their respective embassies.

3. If Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez is replacing CALZADILLA Nunez, he will do so as Charge d'Affaires a.i. If we take into consideration the fact that RUIZ Perez, since August 1963, has been holding positions of confidence in the Cuban Government in the fields of economics and commerce, such as Commercial Counselor in Mexico and Vice-Minister in the Ministry of Foreign Trade, first in administration and afterwards in economy, it can be presumed that he has complete knowledge of the commercial policies of the Cuban Government.

4. From the above, it is believed that the designation of RUIZ Perez to be in charge of the Cuban Embassy in Spain means that the Cuban Government is anxious to intensify even more its commercial exchange with Spain and for this reason is sending as its top re-

For Your Information

1. The earliest information in the file of Guillermo RUIZ Perez, born 1931, is that he was in exile in Mexico during the BATISTA regime. In April 1962, he was described by a refugee who was a former co-worker as a militiaman and a militant communist who was Chief of the Department of Construction Expenses Studies, Office of Financial Statistics, Ministry of Treasury. RUIZ arrived in Mexico City in August 1963 as Commercial Counsellor. Shortly thereafter, AMTIKI/1, a reliable JMWAVE asset, stated he had received a letter from a friend inCuba who stated that RUIZ was a "G-2" member sent to Mexico to infiltrate counter-revolutionary groups. In January 1964, LITAMIL/9, a reliable Mexico Station asset, reported that RUIZ of the commercial office was emerging as a fanatical Fidelista.

2. In April 1964, the AMOTS contacted several members of the VECIANA family (relatives of Nilda VECIANA Lopez, wife of Guillermo RUIZ) who live in Miami to see if any one of them would be willing to contact RUIZ for purposes of recruitment.

The VECIANA family members stated they do not correspond with Nilda, were not willing to contact RUIZ, and did not believe he would cooperate. They stated that RUIZ's father was an old guard communist and his brother (first name not given) was a member of the Department of State Security (DSE, the Cuban internal intelligence agency) in Havana. In May 1964, AMMUG/1 stated that Guillermo RUIZ was one of the DGI officials stationed in Mexico and that he was "case officer for intelligence operations targetted against some nearby area."

3. RUIZ was appointed Vice Minister for Economics of the Ministry of Foreign Trade in August 1964, and it is assumed he held that position until appointed Cuban Ambassador to Spain.

Headquarters agrees that the primary objective of contact with AMAUTO-1 by a controlled person for assessment purposes, was well met. We wish to add, moreover, our appreciation for a smooth job with what could have been a difficult "controlled" asset.

Action: FYI

1. Forwarded herewith is a contact report from PACHANKIS on his follow-up interview of Alexander SAMKO (201-866054), which concerns SAMKO's contact with AMAUTO/1 (201-735296) in Madrid. As can be seen from the report, Madrid Station's defensive briefing of SAMKO apparently took effect and he has been cautious in avoiding the many suspicious characters that have appeared since his trip to Madrid.

2. The question of his writing to AMAUTO/1 was mentioned by SAMKO. He was told that AMAUTO/1 was back in Cuba and we did not know when he would return to Madrid, if ever. WH/Miami believes we should wait until AMAUTO/1 returns to Madrid, or some other post in the Free World, and then have SAMKO write to him.

3. Despite SAMKO's newly self-discovered James Bond talents PACHANKIS enjoyed handling him. It also appears that our primary objective, contact with AMAUTO/1 for a face to face assessment, has been met.

Contact Report on Alexander SAMKO, on 28 July 1970.

1. On the morning of 28 July, I called Sam to check in with him after being away on TDY for almost 6 weeks. He sounded a bit upset at not being contacted during this period, so I dashed out to his Hollywood home to explain what had happened and set him at ease.

2. It was plain to see that the trip had changed him. He is now a bit presumptuous, cocky, and know it all James Bond. He told me all sorts of wild stories about being tailed in Madrid "by 7 or 8 'Chivatos' (Castro agents," and leading them on long "8 or 9 mile hikes through Madrid." Castro agents were also "watching" him on the day he was in Barcelona and on the short layover his Pan Am plane had in Lisbon on his way home. At no time, however, was he molested by these "agents."

3. The Castro surveillance continued -so Sam says- in Hollywood. "About the second night after I got home," c. 14-15 June, a car parked across the street and a little to the rear of his house "after it got dark." When Sam got into his car and went to the gas station, the car -described as looking like a white Volkswagen, without headlights on- followed Sam's car on his short trip in the neighborhood and back to his home. He could not make out the physical description of the driver of the VW. He has never seen this car again.

4. The only other suspicious individual near his home, was "a tall, thin man," (described as about 5-11 to 6 ft and 170 lbs; black hair; no distinguishing features visible; once wearing slacks and white shirt, another time wearing a suit). This individual showed up across the street from his home "just as the sun had gone down, several evenings during the first week that I got home." (c. 14-18 June) The man just walked past the front back and forth a few times and appeared to have his car around the corner of Sam's house. He could not identify the car or anything else about the man.

5. Again, during the first week after his return Sam received several telephone calls where no one would answer when the phone was picked up, or the person calling would say, "sorry, wrong number." Sam has not experienced any other suspicious incidents after the first week home from Spain. I should note that Sam does not talk of these incidents with fear, but ratherin the vein of a paperback detective story.

6. Sam would not admit that he enjoyed himself somewhat in Madrid as a tourist, although he did not deny that he stayed in a luxury hotel, ate as well as drank well, saw the sites and even went to a night club, all on the house. He went so far as to say that if he had "known it was going to be like this, I never would have gone." Yet, in the same breath, he told "William" that he would be back in Spain in September. Of course, Sam would go again if we asked him,

H/Watt to UFHA-2231 SECRET CS COPY 201-735296 "but, only to help my country." (With "Patriots" like Sam, how can we lose.)

7. Sam is most anxious to start some correspondence to "William." He says "William" asked him to send him some photos of Cape Kennedy and some smoked shrimp. Sam wants to know if we want to supply him with photos of the Cape that he can send. Sam states he will write anything we wish. I promised to check out the status of the case with my office and Madrid to see what course of action they deem should be initiated.

8. Modesty not being one of his greatest virtues Sam rambled and rambled about the "secrets" he got out of "William" and passed on to the Madrid c/o. I went along with him and complimented him on a job well done; which is true. But, he was not satisfied with my plaudits, he wanted to know "What Washington said?" To which I said, "everyone, Washington, Madrid and Miami thought you did an excellent job and we are most grateful for your cooperation." He liked that very much; you could see it in the smile on his face. He tries to make it sound like it was a great ordeal and sacrifice on his part to go to Spain to see "William," but he cannot hide his anxiety to get on the next plane to Madrid, and the good life there.

9. I pointed out that "William" is now back in Cuba and there is no indication of when he will return. Nevertheless, Sam feels he should write him "because the letter will be sent to Cuba to him." I assured him that I would get a reading on this matter and have an answer for him sometime next week. At that time, I promised to take him and his close friend Masip to lunch. Sam gave me an extensive and expensive expense account of his trip. I will attempt to decipher it at the close of this report.

10. We ended the meeting on very cordial terms. He was not so mad at not being contacted so much as he is dying to get back on the gravy train, and so much time has passed by without word to or from "William." Sam asked for some way in which he can contact us "right away" if "William" notifies him "that he's ready to jump. You know when he jumps he won't have much time." I pointed out that at present "William" is in Cuba and the prospects of him defecting from Cuba right now are very slim indeed. We would, however, take this into consideration after "William" returns to Spain or another foreign post. We will be seeing each other next week to clear up the accounting (we owe him money, he says) and have lunch.

Henry S. PACHANKIS.

1. Alexander SAMKO arrived in Madrid on 30 May and was met by the undersigned at 1700 hours in his hotel room. SAMKO does not know the true name of the undersigned. He quickly complained of his flight and said never before has he flown on a "cattle plane" and avowed never again to fly Aeronaves de Mexico. PACHANKIS correctly assessed him as a querulous person. The undersigned was mentally prepared for his comments regarding the flight, the bad food served on the plane, and, much later in the week, the hotel room, Madrid in general and, because of the language barrier, his one-plate diet of steak and potatoes. He said his return trip would be through London where he expected to fly the Boeing 747 to New York. SACODER interrupted him and said that we had other plans for him and his only reply was "oh!". Beneath his rough exterior and use of the vernacular, which is indeed spicy, SAMKO is a loveable person who has an infinite number of anecdotes. Although he had no children, he gives the impression of being a good, grandfatherly type who could easily put anyone in a nostalgic mood. After leaving the room we continued the conversation in the hotel bar. SACODER reviewed the cover stories and went through a series of do's and don'ts; i.e., do try to establish a channel between SAMKO and AMAUTO-1; don't hesitate to accept an invitation to visit AMAUTO-1's office, failing all other means to meet with him; do try to invite him out alone to a restaurant for dinner or to a bar for a drink; do accept an invitation to have dinner at his home; don't hint to your sponsorship for this trip. He had no objections to the cover stories, but embellished them to his liking with appropriate references to his deceased spouse, the fact that "Julio" was always jealous of AMAUTO-1 and his doctor's orders to take a vacation to relieve his mind of the recent death of his wife. After several rehearsals SAMKO would have convinced anyone of the purpose of his visit to Europe. He did an outstanding job throughout the operation.

2. On the evening of 30 May SAMKO and SACODER dined at an out-door restaurant. We spent another three hours rehearsing his cover story, reviewing the objectives and trying to anticipate questions AMAUTO-1 might ask during their meeting together. SAMKO was given the following objectives:

a. The foremost objective was for SAMKO to renew and improve upon his relationship with AMAUTO-1, to the extent that they would be able to reminisce, over a prolonged period, about the relationship that existed before AMAUTO-1's departure from the United States.

b. To exchange addresses and telephone numbers for the purpose of sending occasional greetings to one another.

c. To invite AMAUTO-1 (and his wife, if necessary) to dinner, at his expense.

d. To ascertain AMAUTO-1's future plans.

e. To assess AMAUTO-1's feelings toward the United States and toward his own government.

f. For SAMKO to talk favorably about the United States using himself as an example,(the son of immigrant parents who made good in business); to emphasize the opportunities available to anyone with imagination, ambition and aggressiveness.

g. If the opportunity presented itself, to show sympathy for the apparent failure of the Cuban Government to reach the 10 million ton sugar goal and to ask whether the non-fulfillment of this goal would adversely affect the economic development of Cuba. It was our hope that sometime during the conversation AMAUTO-1 would volunteer to discuss his country's economic situation which might have opened the conversation to further exploitation by SAMKO.

h. Parallel with objective e. above, SAMKO was instructed to ask (provided an appropriate opening appeared in the conversation) AMAUTO-1 for his personal comments on the Vietnam issue and anti-war demonstrations in the United States and abroad. We were trying to draw out AMAUTO-1's personal analysis of the U.S. position vis-a-vis the war in Vietnam and to compare his statements with the Cuban Government position .

3. Although SAMKO was determined to see AMAUTO-1 even if he had to camp outside AMAUTO-1's home, we reminded him that because of AMAUTO-1's position, he might refuse to see SAMKO in his home, but that SAMKO should not hesitate to accept any reasonable invitation to be with AMAUTO-1. When SAMKO approached AMAUTO-1's home we had a stroke of luck. First, one of AMAUTO-1's children was in the front yard playing, and two, the door to the driveway was open, thus SAMKO was able to enter the front yard. Under separate cover for C/WHD and COS, Miami we are forwarding photographs taken during the initial meeting between SAMKO and AMAUTO-1. The pictures were taken from the home of one of our staffers. We believe they highlight the events leading to the reunion of these two old friends. The following is a description of each photo:

PHOTO A: SAMKO arrives at AMAUTO-1's home at 1150 hours, 31 May 1970. (Although not shown, KENTLAND and SACODER were monitoring AMAUTO-1's home from 0900 hours on 31 May so that, in the event AMAUTO-1 decided to leave before SAMKO's arrival, we could instruct SAMKO by phone to delay his departure.)

B: After trying to enter via the front gate, SAMKO called to one of the children who was playing in the front yard. The child told him to go to the garage entrance. SAMKO walks toward that entrance.

C: The boy apparently called for someone in the house. A maid, not shown in this photo, but who can be seen in photo L, came out and approached SAMKO. In his halting Spanish, SAMKO said he wanted to see "el Senor". The maid said he wasn't in. He explained to the maid that it was "very importante" to see the Senor. By this time another maid appeared, shown in this photo, and she gets into the act. She repeats that el Senor is not in. SAMKO, sensing he wasn't getting anywhere, changed his tactics and asked to see "la senora". The maids went into individual monologues, but SAMKO could not understand what they were saying. Finally, SAMKO produced a note, which he was asked to prepare, and handed it to the maid in this photo. SAMKO repeated that it was "very importante to see el Senor."

D: The maid accepts the note and returns to the house. Three of AMAUTO-1's children observe the activities from the front entrance.

E: AMAUTO-1 exits, with note in hand and looks toward the driveway. SAMKO spots him and calls out, "Bill, don't you remember me, it's SAMKO." Bill replies, "SAMKO, muy bien, come here, come here." Actually, AMAUTO-1 goes toward SAMKO and they embrace. (The driveway slants toward the house and from our observation post we could not see the embrace.)

F: AMAUTO-1 accompanies SAMKO into the house, arm in arm. As they go SAMKO tells AMAUTO-1 that he put on weight and asked where his boy was. AMAUTO-1 replies that he's rich because all these kids are his (pointing to the three boys).

G: Same as F, above.

H: After a brief talk in the house, the AMAUTOs and SAMKO return to the driveway where they snapped some pictures. AMAUTO-1 is impressed with SAMKO's Polaroid and they exchange comments on their cameras.

I: AMAUTO-1 helps move the baby carriage through the gates. This is his newest and sixth child.

J: Same as I, above.

K: Maid takes baby out for a stroll. This is a new maid.

L: A picture of the new maid. (Might prove helpful for future identification in the event we resume our operation against AMAUTO-1's residence.)

M: AMAUTO-1 prepares to open both gates to remove his new Alfa-Romeo.

N: Same. Notice AMAUTO-1's high forehead. He has lost a considerable amount of hair since his arrival in December 1967.

P: SAMKO's still taking pictures. He gave the pictures to AMAUTO-1 to avoid casting any suspicions. (SACODER ran out of film here, but AMAUTO-1 removes his Alfa from the garage. The car still carries Italian license plates. The AMAUTOs, SAMKO and the kids get in the car and leave for the amusement park located at the Casa del Campo.)

4. During the conversation in AMAUTO-1's home, SAMKO began his deliberate softening of AMAUTO-1 with such comments as "you know Bill, Julio was jealous of you because I treated you like a brother. I didn't want you to return to Cuba, but I couldn't stop you. We were all in favor of Castro." Bill admitted here that SAMKO was a good friend and enjoyed his job and the pay was good, but added that "I had to go. I was in the States illegally." SAMKO added "you know, Bill, I never was blessed with any children; you were like a son to me, but when I heard you died in the mountains in Cuba, I blamed myself for letting you go." Bill replied that he was wounded on his left side. SAMKO explained that if AMAUTO-1 was in the States illegally, SAMKO could have arranged for him to remain in the States by getting assistance from some police and detective friends in Florida. SAMKO repeated his delight to again see AMAUTO-1 and how happy he was to know he is alive.

5. Moments after entering the house, AMAUTO-1 invited him to have breakfast. SAMKO refused, but settled for a beer. AMAUTO-1 excused himself, went to the phone and called an unidentified party. SAMKO could not understand the conversation, but SAMKO and Station officers suspect that he called his embassy or one of his colleagues, possibly advising him of SAMKO's presence. (It is also possible that AMAUTO-1 called the embassy to advise the duty officer that he (AMAUTO-1) would be leaving for the Amusement Park. There were no QUTIMID reports supporting this theory.) The fact that the telephone call was made soon after SAMKO's arrival leads us to suspect that the call was made to establish a surveillance of SAMKO and AMAUTO-1 at the park. As noted in references SAMKO was specifically briefed on this possibility and was alerted to report any absence of AMAUTO-1 from the room.

6. We were confident that AMAUTO-1 would be the first to ask the cover questions, but instead his wife asked both questions: What are you doing here? and How did you get our address? SAMKO repeated the cover story and at the end of the second - how did you get our address - AMAUTO-1 said that it was quite possible. (AMAUTO-1's wife remained cool and suspicious throughout the initial confrontation, but later reacted warmly toward SAMKO.) As we noted above, SAMKO embellished the story to his satisfaction. He also shed a few tears when he repeated the story of his wife's death and the doctor's recommendation that he take a vacation. He continued his softening approach of AMAUTO-1 by adding: "Bill, when my wife took ill some years ago, she asked me to divest myself of all business interests, but if you were there with me, Bill, you could have handled my affairs and you might have been a millionaire today." SAMKO sensed that AMAUTO-1 and his wife were moved by this comment and were literally drooling with the thought of being millionaires. The wife asked a number of questions regarding SAMKO's wealth, his real estate activity, collection of silver and his success in general. The wife was astounded with the simple explanation of how SAMKO went about building and financing apartment houses. SAMKO made a suggestion that AMAUTO-1 invest in silver because the scarcity of this metal would eventually raise the market value. He explained to AMAUTO-1 that he was collecting all silver coins stamped prior to 1965. The next couple of hours were spent at the amusement park where, on arrival, AMAUTO-1 steered SAMKO to a cafeteria near the main entrance. In short order two men arrived on the scene, friends of AMAUTO-1. They were introduced to SAMKO, but SAMKO could not remember the names. After a few moments a couple arrived and they, too, were introduced to SAMKO. (SAMKO could not identify the persons he met from the photographs in our mug book.) AMAUTO-1's friends took a number of photographs of SAMKO and AMAUTO-1 and after a short while together, they left. The conversation at the park was aimless. They discussed the kids and SAMKO repeated how delighted and proud he was to know that one of AMAUTO-1's children was named Alexander - his namesake. AMAUTO-1 had a wide grin while SAMKO was talking about Alexander. He asked AMAUTO-1 about the oldest boy. AMAUTO-1 replied that the oldest was in Havana studying civil engineering. SAMKO suggested to AMAUTO-1 that he should give his children the best education and have them stay away from politics and political courses but concentrate on the professional fields, engineering, law, medicine, etc. AMAUTO-1 admitted that his intention was to keep his children away from a political career. SAMKO said he would send Alexander some commercial slides of Cape Kennedy and other points of interest in Florida.

7. While still at the park SAMKO said he hoped AMAUTO-1 would get an assignment to the United Nations so that AMAUTO-1 would have an opportunity to visit SAMKO in Florida. AMAUTO-1 was thrilled with this idea and SAMKO's offer. SAMKO said his eyes glowed while AMAUTO-1 pondered this possibility. SAMKO talked about his home and the beach nearby, the climate, his new car, etc. SAMKO's comment on AMAUTO-1's reaction was interesting. He said that beneath AMAUTO-1's communist exterior lies the capitalist. Before leaving the park (AMAUTO-1 had to leave for the airport where he had an appointment to see AMECRU-1), SAMKO said, "Bill, if you ever need me, I'll never let you down. You have a good friend who loves you a lot." SAMKO said he noted some emotional change on Bill's face after this comment.

8. SAMKO was met 48 hours after the contact with AMAUTO-1 in the event AMAUTO-1 decided to put a surveillance on SAMKO. No surveillance was noted when SAMKO was picked up, but on entering the car SAMKO suggested that SACODER keep an eye out for a tail. We drove around town for fifteen minutes. Certain that no one was tailing us, we drove to a Station safehouse which has an underground garage. SAMKO was visibly excited and was enjoying the "cloak and dagger" role, but he was nervous. He was highly impressed with the garage entrance to the safehouse and commended us for being so shrewd and security conscious. He wanted to know whose apartment it was and SACODER said that it was his private "pad". His comment was:"you sure live it up well." As PACHANKIS aptly explained in one of his reports, SAMKO's temper does rise. He was highly excited during the meeting because he was asked to leave the hotel room. Since the reservation was made for four days, he was asked to leave. He pleaded with SACODER to do something to keep him in the hotel room or risk losing the opportunity to lunch with AMAUTO-1 because AMAUTO-1 was to call him at the hotel on Saturday, 6 June. SACODER admitted the error but added that there was a simple solution if he could not convince the hotel management to allow him to stay a few more days. SACODER suggested that he should explain to the manager that 1) his laundry had not yet returned and 2) he was expecting an important phone call on Saturday and that there was no way of getting in touch with the caller. Failing this, SACODER offered another simple solution. Since SAMKO and AMAUTO-1 had not yet exchanged addresses, SAMKO could return to the AMAUTO-1 home and give the maid a note advising AMAUTO-1 that he had to change hotels. (SAMKO admitted that he told AMAUTO-1 about the possibility of having to leave the hotel because his reservation ended soon.) SAMKO did not at first accept this logic, but SACODER explained that he (SACODER) could not plead with the hotel management on SAMKO's behalf. This was poor security. SAMKO accepted this and after a glass of scotch and water admitted that the solution was indeed simple, but he was terribly excited at first.

9. Throughout the debriefing SAMKO revealed the following: He was born in Perth Amboy, New Jersey on 2 November 1907 to Polish parents. At the age of 14-15 he worked as a construction hand on a bridge being built in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania. Later, he worked on the construction of the Anhauser Yeast Factory in Oldbridge, New Jersey. He married in 1930. During the hard years, his wife worked in a factory while he roamed the streets looking for employment. In the early 40's he worked for Dupont reportedly on the atomic bomb project, but specifically with U-235. After the war he applied for work with NBC which he thought would be the National Broadcasting Company, but after he filled out his application and was accepted for employment, he learned that it was the National Buscuit Company. He was a master mechanic. He's an ingenious person and has invented several items on which he has patents. Although the years before, during and after the war were difficult, he had the foresight to put his meager savings in real estate. He moved to Florida in the early 50's, reportedly purchased two apartment buildings, but sold them after a year for a $15,000 loss and made some investments in land near the Cape Kennedy area. He was about to begin a multi-million dollar building project on the land, but the NASA complex was moved to Houston and he therefore cancelled his plans and sold the property. While he is not considered wealthy SAMKO lives quite comfortably in retirement. He has a Lincoln continental in the garage and a home valued at about $50,000. Another of his complaints was the way we controlled his purse strings while in Madrid. We put him in a hotel used by many travel agencies which SACODER thought was comfortable, but SAMKO would have preferred the Hilton. He complained of the fact that he was dipping into his own money and was not happy with the idea of keeping receipts (aside from the hotel bills and the airline ticket, SAMKO probably did not keep any receipts). He was advanced $280 in Madrid which will be T/A'd to Miami. Miami should pick up his full tab and might consider buying him a case of scotch as a token of our appreciation for his accomplishments on the assignment, but PACHANKIS probably has learned that a couple of pats on SAMKO's back is sufficient to reward him.

10. Contact was again made with SAMKO on the eve of his possible luncheon engagement with AMAUTO-1. We again reviewed the objectives and he was given a defensive briefing as suggested by WH/Miami. He was told that PACHANKIS probably would not visit with him for about two weeks after his return and that he should not attempt to get in touch with PACHANKIS. He understood why this was necessary and agreed with the briefing. If a luncheon could be arranged, SAMKO was asked to concentrate on the following: (in addition to the requirements he was given before his first meet with AMAUTO-1)

A. Try to ascertain AMAUTO-1's future, his ambitions, his next possible assignment.

B. If possible engage him in a conversation regarding the United States to get his reaction toward our problems.

C. Build up your successes and reflect on how AMAUTO-1 might have achieved similar goals had he remained in the United States.

D. Be alert for any opening to inject questions relating to the Cuban economy vis-a-vis the failure of the "ten million", but to avoid criticism for this failure, and show sympathy.

11. SAMKO had no difficulty convincing the hotel management that he had to remain in the hotel until Saturday, 6 June. He spoke directly with the manager and told the manager that he was planning to leave on 7 June for Barcelona and would stay at a sister hotel and asked the manager to make reservations for him. The crisis had passed.

12. On the morning of 6 June AMAUTO-1's wife called SAMKO and, in English, said that her husband would pick him up at 1400 hours in front of the hotel. At the appointed hour, AMAUTO-1's official vehicle pulled up in front of the hotel driven by a chauffeur. AMAUTO-1 greeted SAMKO in front of the hotel and after exchanging a few words, they departed for a nearby restaurant. (SAMKO was too preoccupied to make note of the name of the restaurant. We decided against any surveillance during the AMAUTO-1/SAMKO meeting to avoid alerting AMAUTO-1 and/or his staff that the SAMKO visit to Madrid was pre-planned.)

13. At lunch SAMKO and AMAUTO-1 again reminisced. They discussed the following:

A. In one of his references, AMAUTO-1 said that men like him are needed in Cuba and noted that he would probably die fighting for Cuba which is young and aggressive, but that some day it will be a great country; that he has been fighting all his life to relieve the oppressed and repeated that he will die fighting. (It is interesting to note SAMKO's reaction here to AMAUTO-1's statement. When SAMKO first visited AMAUTO-1 on 31 May, he was certain that under the facade of being a devoted revolutionary AMAUTO-1 was indeed a capitalist at heart, but at this meeting SAMKO modified his comment by adding that it appears AMAUTO-1 is truly a communist, who maintains strong convictions of the righteousness of the revolution. The above comments by AMAUTO-1 produced the peg on which SAMKO could have questioned the veracity of AMAUTO-1's statement on freeing the oppressed, but he was not specifically instructed to maintain a polemic argument on the rights and wrongs of the revolution because we felt this objective was secondary to the re-establishment of a relationship between these two old friends. A future meeting might include the exchange of an objective appraisal of the revolution as seen by SAMKO.)

B. AMAUTO-1 proposed that SAMKO act as an intermediary for the sale of Cuban sea food in the United States. He explained that the Cubans have a large fishing fleet in the Canary Islands. The fish caught is processed in the Canary Islands and can be shipped to the United States as a product of Spain, not of Cuba. AMAUTO-1 added, "SAMKO, you're like a father to me, please think about it (the agency)? AMAUTO-1 explained that SAMKO could earn about $200,000 a year in commission based on sales of $2,000,000. SAMKO said he would think about it, but privately to SACODER he said that he had no intention to disturb his retirement with a fishy business.

C. SAMKO gave AMAUTO-1 a new Kennedy half-dollar which delighted AMAUTO-1.

D. SAMKO told AMAUTO-1 that he expected AMAUTO-1 to be bigger than just an ambassador to Spain. He said, "I want you to get to the United Nations." SAMKO repeated his desire to show AMAUTO-1 his Florida home and spend a few days at the beach with him. AMAUTO-1 again was visibly moved with this idea.

E. SAMKO restated that "Bill, you have a good friend, don't forget it. You are like a son."

F. They exchanged addresses. SAMKO had printed his address, but AMAUTO-1 asked him to write it on another piece of paper. AMAUTO-1 reasoned that he wanted it written to understand it better, but we believe he will use the sample to compare it with letters SAMKO might send in the future. They promised to write to each other. SAMKO was given AMAUTO-1's private address, not that of the embassy.

G. AMAUTO-1 regretted that SAMKO had to leave so soon because he would have enjoyed showing SAMKO the Spanish interior. SAMKO said he might consider returning near the end of 1970, but AMAUTO-1 did not say whether he would be in Spain in late 1970.

H. AMAUTO-1 said he was suspicious when he first saw SAMKO noting that the nature and importance of his position make him act suspicious, but the suspicion soon dissipated - so he said.

14. On saying their last goodbyes at the hotel, both men embraced and again promised to keep in touch through correspondence. At this point the operation was over. SAMKO was met late that evening. He was taken to a new safehouse.

15. Accomplishments: We feel the objectives programmed and rehearsed were successfully fulfilled, perhaps far greater than our own expectations. Unless we are misjudging the shrewdness of AMAUTO-1 through our own naivete, we believe the relationship was sincerely re-established and a channel opened for future use by AMAUTO-1 should he desire to use this channel other than to maintain a friendly correspondence. It was unfortunate that his Barcelona trip interfered possibly to the point of SAMKO having one or two additional meetings with AMAUTO-1 nonetheless, in the six plus hours together, SAMKO admirably fulfilled our requirements and courageously maintained the fiction of his visit to Spain. We believe too, that although AMAUTO-1 appears to be solidly in favor of the Cuban regime, he did not criticize the United States which we feel he might have done had he suspected that SAMKO's visit to Madrid was sponsored by the U.S. Government. AMAUTO-1 has come a long way since his internship as a butcher in the United States and probably realizes that while he retains a prodigious role in the Cuban Government, he will continue to give his loyalty and devotion to the regime. At the same time, we feel, AMAUTO-1 is an opportunist and might take advantage of the SAMKO channel should the current regime come to an end or his own position jeopardized by the vengeful attitude of his colleagues.

15. We would appreciate PACHANKIS doing the following:

A. Purchase a dozen or so slides of Cape Kennedy and rocket launchings which will be sent to AMAUTO-1's son, Alexander. SAMKO should prepare a letter to AMAUTO-1 as soon as the purchase is made extending his appreciation to AMAUTO-1 for spending his valuable time with SAMKO and repeating his desire to help in any way possible and not to hesitate doing so.

16. We again would like to extend to SAMKO our appreciation for his support and full cooperation. Also, our thanks to Miami and PACHANKIS for their fine support.

Howard R. SACODER

P.S. AMAUTO-1 was recalled on 30 June 1970 and his future is uncertain at this time; therefore, we suggest that SAMKO not mail any letters or send any slides to AMAUTO-1 in Madrid.

OSMA - 26416, 16 July 70
Report No. 344 17 June 1970

Ruiz dictates to Nilda: "The Cuban Embassy greets the Minister of Foreign Affairs and has the pleasure to request the corresponding permission to carry a pistol, "Star" 9 m.m. short, No. 50.234, which at the present time is being held in the offices of the "Star" factory, in the Plaza de España, for ________________ ______________, whose photograph is attached."

Ruiz is talking with a Cuban who is in Madrid on a scholarship.

They are talking of bringing a teacher from Cuba and Ruiz says that this would be very difficult. He says that instruction is given by professors, but education is given by the parents, and what the children will be depends on this education. Ruiz says that his father made him a communist. Of all the children, he was the only one that studied, but it was his father that formed them all. From the time he was a small child his father gave him books of Lenin to read. These books arrived clandestinely to Cuba. He remarks about problems his own children have given him. He refers to an incident where one of the children was invited to a First Communion, and speaks of the freedom he gave the child to make his First Communion also, if he wanted to.

Then Ruiz says that his other son "ALEJANDRO, is inclined to remain in Spain, and he is willing to let him if this is what the boy wants. He says that these things have to come from one's own self, and if they are opposed in these actions it can leave marks on them for the rest of their lives. Ruiz says he gives them the liberty to choose.

Ruiz tells this student with whom he is conversing that Alejandro DE LA NUEZ has gone to the United States, and adds that De La Nuez' wife never came to meetings or reunions that were held at the embassy. She always gave as an excuse that her nerves were bad. Ruiz says that De La Nuez took the money with him.

This comrade(F) left at 12:15. He said goodbye to her very cordially. Apparently around the 29th of the month she is going to Paris.

Later Ruiz entered the office again and put the radio on very loud. He didn't leave the office all morning, but the radio continued to play very loud; so much so that you can hardly tell when anyone goes in or out of the office.

Report 345 18 June 1970

Apparently they have received a document in which all the Chiefs of Mission have been called to Cuba for the third week of July, as some of them can make it coincide with their leave. He tells Curbelo that he intends to send Nilda either before or after he leaves.

royalties from the song throughout the world, which have been calculated at between $750,000 and $1,000,000, and although this amount will have to be divided among many things, something would fall to them.

Ruiz says to work abroad they have to or should send people of the greatest trust, otherwise it is better that they remain in Cuba. If there isn't complete confidence it is a constant struggle with the capitalistic life, money, the stores, the easy life. They mention De la Nuoz, and Ruiz says if he's gone he's gone, but the interesting thing would be to know what motivated him; his wife, his son, or money. He says that it has caused a great impression here, and that no one even imagined such a thing. Only two days before he had been in the study circle with all of them.

A girl that is in this meeting with Ruiz says that De la Nuez' daughter is married to Juan Antonio GARCIA, who is Head of Government..., that he has been proposed for ambassador(Ruiz says that they will now have to reconsider this), and what they all three agree on is that De la Nuoz was not to blame, Ruiz mentions the letter from De la Nuoz' son in which he says that his father has betrayed them. They also mention an ambassador who has left(for Cuba-?) and took watches as gifts to everyone in the Ministry. Ruiz thinks that some of them will remain here in Spain as they have a great deal going for them there.

Ruiz' is very displeased. He speaks to Horacio about how badly some of the comrades speak of him when they return to Havana. He asks him if he remembers the name of one of these comrades that spoke badly of him last summer when he was there on vacation. It was someone named COLON and another one that soon left. After what COLON said they wrote him a letter calling his attention to the criticism. Ruiz is very worried about his re-call to Havana. He tells Horacio that he doesn't think it is about his work, and Horacio says they are doing things there th at are super-human, that without the necessary means at hand they are resolving difficult problem of various kinds. Ruiz mentions contacts that he has had in Spain with different people, and he never has committed an error, and has always handled everything with great tact and in favor of his government, even when he has had to deal with Falangists.

Ruiz says that he is very sensitive and that things have got to the point that he can't just let them go by, things they are accusing him of in Havana. But, there is no one that has the courage to tell him directly to his face so that he could justify himself, and if they are things that he cannot handle then for them to call him back, and relieve him of the post because "Comandante Guillermo Ruiz cannot resolve them, but the thing is that the Minister doesn't want to receive him or listen to him when he goes there. Horacio says that the worst of it is that here in Spain there is always some personality from there that they have to entertain, someone important, and that the attention they need is continual, and sometimes it is necessary to attend to the people here in Spain, which prevents them from attending those who arrive from there, but they don't understand this.

He continues to talk with Horacio and he is indignant. Ruiz says that he has been in the Revolution since he was twenty years old, when he began to think for himself. He says that he belongs to no party, none other, that is, but the Cuban communist party. He says that the situation is becoming so uncomfortable regarding him, and he doesn't like it at all. He says he puts everything he has an all the care possible into doing his job.

Ruiz says that one never knows about these things in Havana, and that it is possible that he won't be returning. In the event that this should happen, he is going to leave Horacio officially in charge, so that he will represent him during his abscence.as Charge'de Affairs, and if he returns he will notify the Spanish government officially. He wants samples or models of the passports to take with him, and then he tells Horacio that if he has not returned by the 18th of July, that he should represent him at the official reception. He gives Horacio instructions as to what to wear, what the official ceremonies are and just what they consist of.

Ruiz speaks to someone that calls and gives him a message which annoys Ruiz. Someone has called the Provincial Department of Public Health of Santander saying that they (the Cubans) use "boric acid" in the stoves(?) which they export. They give him this message in the name of the Commercial Office of Cuba, they have a Latin-American accent, and say that they would take adequate measures so that no stove would be shipped.

Ruiz says to Horacio that he doesn't have time to take care of this matter, and for him to accompany Franco and go to the General Department of Security and make charges about the telephone call which is interfering with the trade between Cuba and Spain. He says to go right up as far as the General Director if necessary, not explaining the "boric acid" one way or another, but simply as to the malicious call which was made in the name of the Commercial Office of Cuba. This can cause a delay of six or eight days in the departure of a ship while this call is being explained in Public Health.

1. Relative to Subject's recall to Havana, which came via a telephone call on 24 June (probably from MINREX) bidding him and Orestes BARREDA Perez to return, QUDOZE has recorded Subject's reaction to the unexplained call as follows:

recalled to Havana

(201-016136)

A. on 26 June Subject ~~talked at length with~~ Horacio FUENTES Martinez speculating on Havana's possible motives for requesting his return at this time, when in a matter of a few weeks he was scheduled to travel to Cuba for the 26 of July celebrations which he expected to combine with his vacation leave. He was extremely upset and complained bitterly about companeros who have tried to discredit him in Havana. He wondered if Havana was going to put him on the carpet for charges brought against him by these companeros. He recalled one COLON (he was not sure of the name) who last summer made false accusations against him, for which he received a letter of reprimand from Havana.

Subject 201-735296 re calling recall to Havana

B. Subject also wondered if Havana could have any complaints about his work. He had always maintained good relations with the Spaniards and despite their contrary political idiology, he was careful not to ruffle their feathers while upholding his government's position at all times. He could not imagine that Havana would question him on that score. However, if there were problems that Havana felt he lacked the ability to resolve, he should simply be removed "because Comandanto Guillermo Ruiz cannot resolve them." Subject said he had been a revolutionary since the ago of 20 when he began to think for himself. He had never bolonged to any political party other than the Cuban Communist. The current state of affairs, however, was becoming too disturbing and distasteful to him because conscientiously he knew that he was putting forth his full mental and physical capacity toward the fulfillment of his function.

C. Subject told Fuentes that since he didn't know what was brewing in Havana it was possible that he might not return to Madrid. In any event he would designate Fuentes to substitute for him as charge d'affaires. During the entire conversation no mention was made of Orestes BARREDA Perez and why he was asked to return with RUIZ. The latter seemed to be thoroughly absorbed in his own concern over whatever fate lay in store for him on his return to Cuba.

MEMORANDUM

22 June 1970

SUBJECT: Jules Chopin

At 2200 hrs on the evening of Saturday, 20 June, Jules Chopin entered the Embassy offices as instructed. His face showed the strain of the situation, yet he managed to force a grin. He was taken to a convenient office and for the next 3½ hours was debriefed. While sipping Scotch throughout the evening he managed to control some of his natural fears of the present and future.

In all fairness, he must be commended for answering our questions in a straightforward, sincere manner. While not every question--from the various interested parties--was put to him, the majority were. In some cases, he was given requirements for the next meeting, and in addition, he offered several worthwhile reports.

Apart from the business aspects of the meeting, there were two dominating themes running throughout: His passionate pleas for the personal safety of his family in the US and my stand that after his conduct on 12-13 February 1970, he had to prove his worth and good faith; not to me, but to the powers that be, who were highly distrustful of his intentions.

Specifically, the following matters were discussed:

1. Asked if he knew what the DGI was, Chopin was confused, but understood when I said "DSE" or "G-2". In his circle, the intel people are known as "Seguridad del Estado" or "G-2". He denies that he has ever worked for them wittingly. He doubts that he has ever worked for them unwittingly, because he has never had more than a passing working relation with them. Chopin states that he has never known officially who the intel personnel are, "but after awhile, you can hear and see things that leave no doubt." Asked to identify those persons who he feels are intel and their hierarchy, Chopin stated:

A. In early 1969, Armando LOPEZ, appeared to be Chief of Intel and DIAZ Vigo, the number two man.

B. When Orlando CASTRO defected in c. March 1969, LOPEZ was immediately recalled to Havana and has not been heard from since. DIAZ Vigo assumed head of intel, and Havana sent Emidio VALDES Martinez as a replacement. With VALDES, came his wife Magda (Magdalena ESPINOSA Vivar) who went to work as DIAZ Vigo's secretary. Chopin considers her to be an intel agent as well.

C. In c. late February or early March 1970, Diaz Vigo was recalled to Havana. He has not been heard from again and there is

W/W Cctl #1 To CFPA 92830 SECRET 201-815359 talk that he will not return.

D. Magir has taken over the control of the Consular Section and appears to be directing the functions that DIAZ Vigo had. No one has been appointed to take DIAZ Vigo's post.

E. The only other prominent suspect of being a full fledged intel type is Hildo ALVAREZ Valdes, who came to Paris about 2 years ago with the cover position of chauffeur. ALVAREZ' true role was made evident shortly after he arrived in Paris when an unwitting functionary of the Cuban Embassy gave ALVAREZ a routine chauffeur's assignment. Whereupon ALVAREZ turned to the individual and said, "I didn't come here to be a chauffeur." ALVAREZ has never functioned prominently as a chauffeur, "and they had to change his status after a while, because he couldn't fool anyone in that role."

F. Chopin denies that he knows anything of their manner of operations; who their contacts or agents are; and, in a word, the inner workings of the intel apparatus.

G. Chopin acknowledges that many Latin Americans visit the Embassy, "but they go upstairs to the Consulate," and he does not know their identities, nor the exact purpose of their visits. His lone contact with Latin American types are when they enter his section asking for propaganda material. In those cases, Chopin directs them to help themselves from the racks of Cuban publications available.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. At Christmas 1969, after turning down other invitations, AMMARTINI-1 and his wife accepted an invitation to dinner at the home of Guillermo RUIZ Perez (201-735296) and his wife Nilda. Another couple was present, Danilo MENDEZ Fernandez (201-788424) and his wife Lydia. Ruiz impressed the AMMARTINI couple as intelligent and muy fino. He talked very favorably of the U.S., especially New York City for which he had great admiration. "Americans are very bad", he said, "but they have very good things." "Jose, let's go to New York", he said at one point, causing MENDEZ, a good revolutionary, some discomfort. He never had trouble in the five years he spent in the States, Ruiz said at another point in the conversation.

2. Mendez is a "great apple polisher", according to the AMMARTINI couple, and he was hard put to know what to say when the "Ambassador", his boss (indirectly) spoke so favorably of the U.S. AMMARTINI-1's wife, on the other hand, said that Lydia Mendez was having a somewhat similar problem with Nilda Ruiz. The latter was expecting again at the time and after five boys, Lydia suggested that she (Nilda) probably wished for a girl. "Not at all", said Nilda. "I don't want a daughter of mine to go into agricultural work at fourteen years of age", she exclaimed setting Lydia back. AMMARTINI-1 pointed out that the Ruiz couple has a 14 year-old son in Cuba -- a "hostage" while they are abroad. They might be willing to defect, according to AMMARTINI-1, if it weren't for leaving the boy in Cuba.

Ruiz dictates to Nilda: "The Cuban Embassy greets the Minister of Foreign Affairs and has the pleasure to request the corresponding permission to carry a pistol, "Star" 9 m.m. short, No. 50. 234, which at the present time is being held in the offices of the "Star" factory, in the Plaza de España, for ____________, whose photograph is attached." ____________

Ruiz is talking with a Cuban who is in Madrid on a scholarship.

They are talking of bringing a teacher from Cuba and Ruiz says that this would be very difficult. He says that instruction is given by professors, but education is given by the parents, and what the children will be depends on this education. Ruiz says that his father made him a communist. Of all the children, he was the only one that studied, but it was his father that formed them all. From the time he was a small child his father gave him books of Lenin to read. These books arrived clandestinely to Cuba. He remarks about problems his own children have given him. He refers to an incident where one of the children was invited to a First Communion, and speaks of the freedom he gave the child to make his First Communion also, if he wanted to.

Then Ruiz says that his other son "ALEJANDRO, is inclined to remain in Spain, and he is willing to let him if this is what the boy wants. He says that these things have to come from one's own self, and if they are opposed in these actions it can leave marks on them for the rest of their lives. Ruiz says he gives them the liberty to choose.

Ruiz told this student with whom he is conversing that Alejandro DE LA NUEZ has gone to the United States, and adds that De La Nuez' wife never came to meetings or reunions that were held at the embassy. She always gave as an excuse that her nerves were bad. Ruiz says that De La Nuez took the money with him.

This comrade (F) left at 12:15. He said goodbye to her very cordially. Apparently around the 29th of the month she is going to Paris.

Later Ruiz entered the office again and put the radio on very loud. He didn't leave the office all morning, but the radio continued to play very loud; so much so that you can hardly tell when anyone goes in or out of the office.

Report 345 — 18 June 1970

Apparently they have received a document in which all the Chiefs of Mission have been called to Cuba for the third week of July, as some of them can make it coincide with their leave. He tells Curbelo that he intends to send Nilda either before or after he leaves.

Report No.345(continued) 18 June 1970

Ruiz and Nilda are alone and are talking about when they can leave Spain. Ruiz wants here to go on Iberia, but Nilda says she doesn't want to go separately. If he goes on Cubana she will go with him. Nilda speaks of the 18th of July fiesta, and says that the Minister has been so nice to him that he shouldn't miss this Spanish holiday. They then discuss leaving for Havana on the 20th or 21st of July.

We had better follow this one closely, because it should by [illegible]-1's son-in law

Nilda speaks to Ruiz about someone that spoke to her, that wants to stay in Madrid for a few days, but they don't have any money, (Possibly it is ALFARA) and they have asked her if they can stay at her house. It seems that the people she is talking about are on their way to Cuba, and they say, if they don't have the money to stay in Madrid, then let them go directly to Cuba. Nilda says that CHAIN's son-in-law is going to Morocco as Cuban ambassador. The one that he had as his secretary. When Alfara was in Madrid he said that the son-in-law had neither the personality nor the qualifications for the position. Ruiz says that if they are referring to the head of Chain's office, that he is going to Poland as ambassador, but Nilda insists that it is the husband of Chain's daughter.

Two comrades arrive, a man and a woman. They are going to Holland, where they will spend a week, and they want a visa. They will go to other European countries also, and will be a month and a half altogether. (It seems that it is only the woman that is going to Holland and the other countries). Ruiz asks her if it is her first trip to Europe. She says it is her first trip to Western Europe, but that she has already been in the socialist countries of Europe. Ruiz asks them what Havana thought about De la Nuez. Ruiz says it isn't worth having an argument or quarrel with the "gallego" because of De la Nuez. Ruiz believes that the whole affair was handled by the C.I.A.

Ruiz asks them who has been named ambassador to Morocco, and they confirm the fact that the husband of his daughter (CHAIN-?) has been appointed.

They return to the topic of De la Nuez. Ruiz says the only thing they know is that he has gone, but they don't know where. In any case, most likely they had family or friends among the refugees in Miami.

Ruiz asks the girl if there are new people in the Ministry there (Havana-?), if new ones are coming in. She says that her enterprise has 71 employees, and that 55 of them are outside of the enterprise, that the personnel situation is very bad. Two days ago they started giving language classes in French and German, and they talked with RAUL and he believes it is very necessary, because it is very difficult to find people. In addition to their being of trust, what is difficult is their lack of culture.

I should think this could make good CA press play

Again they discuss De la Nuez' case and his wife. They tell Ruiz not to be too discouraged because it is the first time that anything like this happened to him here. Ruiz tells them about the illness of the woman, and that she never wanted to come to the meetings, but on the other hand went to meetings and gatherings of commercial people and others. He was never suspicious of him. Two days before he had been in the study Center with all of them. Ruiz says that it had been six months since they proposed getting a substitute for De La Nuez, but only because of his administrative inefficiency, and for no other reason. If Ruiz had suspected anything he would have put him on a plane and sent him back there.

A person from the Feria in Barcelona comes into the office. He has some business to do with Horacio here in Madrid. They hope that Raul LEON will arrive on Thursday, as they have many things to work out together regarding the Chamber of Commerce in Madrid. He speaks about "Cubaexport" and a problem that they have with the brand name. He says it would be better to postpone the process and continue exporting meanwhile to the Canary Islands, until it is all settled. He has visited the Chamber of Commerce in Barcelona. He has eaten and had supper with some of the people from there. He mentions GUERRERO y Garabon, to whom he and ROVIRA have given an explanation: First, the problem that exists with the Cuban Chamber of Commerce can be resolved by a simple diplomatic gesture, Second, the individual that has an interest in it, it is up to him Third, the problem can be solved by establishing another Chamber of Commerce in Madrid. This however, would involve spending and would not be worth it to them economically.

FOLEY

ROVIRA told him that he wanted to go to California. He wants to be close to Cuba and learn the future development of the Cuban production.

Nilda says that they have received a call from Paris telling them that VALDES VIVO left there and will arrive in Madrid at 2:45 PM. Ruiz asks if they sent the cable to Moscow. Nilda says that they have, but that no one answered the cable. They have received only one cable from Moscow saying that he was coming. Then they sent another cable back asking on what Flight, and on what day, but they have had no answer.

Report No.346
Two people enter Ruiz' office. One of them is called "ZORRILLA"(ph). They are discussing De La Nuez. Zorrilla says he has been very hurt by it all, not only politically, but personally also. He says that he always felt that De La Nuez was a person one could trust, and that he has failed them. Ruiz says that here everyone trusted him.

They continue to talk about De La Nuez, particularly the visitors. Ruiz says that after this they are going to have to strengthen the cadres, that it is important for everyone. He says he has spoken to [illegible]. MANUEL CASTRESANA (phon), and they have agreed to form new very strict cadres.

The visitors leave and on saying goodbye Ruiz says not to discuss the De La Nuez affair too much so that it won't spread any further. Besides, they are all very impressed by it.

VALDES VIVO CALLS RUIZ on the telephone. Ruiz asks him if he has arrived at the hotel and if he has seen MARISI (phon). (MARISI is staying at the same hotel as Valdes). Ruiz says that Zorrilla has just been there, and he has given him the telephone number of the hotel for him to call. He says they have had no word on the Cubana flight, only that it is to arrive today and will leave tonight. But, Ruiz says if it arrives at 3 o'clock that this will not give them time to inspect it and all to leave, even though they will do it all at night. Both Valdes and Marisi are leaving this evening on Cubana.

Ruiz then speaks with Marisi, and says that he had heard of his appointment as ambassador. Apparently this is the one that is to be in Morocco. They say that this ambassador, in all the capitals that he is going to, is visited by the best doctors. Ruiz tells them that he has a luncheon engagement but that he will keep in touch regarding the flight.

The ambassador that has just arrived from Beirut enter the office. He was at the movies last night and they comment on it. Then two other persons come in, one of them is Zorrilla. They speak of various things; that by diplomatic mail they should only send things of a confidential nature, everything else should go by diplomatic pouch.

MERCEDES enters and says that Comrade Armando VELAZQUEZ, whom Ruiz does not know, is here. He is the father of the Cuban consul in Jamaica. He says he has been here 15 days waiting for something to be resolved. He adds that a Rosa Maria of the Ministry was supposed to resolve this problem, but she hasn't done so. He doesn't want to borrow money here, and BARREDA has already given him 1000 pesetas. He wants them to send a cable to Havana to resolve his situation. Mercedes says that this consul studied in the University with Barreda and that he is a very fine person.

They tell Ruiz that the person that is here is ALARCON; he hasn't seen him, nor has he received any cable about his arrival.

Then the ambassador asks Ruiz if they carry pistols here. Ruiz shows him one with five chambers, with which he can shoot without taking it out of his pocket. He says they won't kidnap him, and that one has to be prepared for there are 10,000 gusanos here.

Ruiz tells the ambassador to consult with ROA and tell him that he has received a cable telling him to be in Havana the second week of July, but that the National Day in Spain is on the 18th. He says that he doesn't want to miss this celebration, because the Minister of Foreign Affairs came to their fiesta, and he would have to explain about the reunion in Havana and all that, and they could think something else. So that he is thinking of staying even if he has to leave the very next day on the 19th.

Some comrades arrive. It appears to be the Alfaras. Mercedes calls Iberia and confirms reservations for the afternoon flight to Havana, #941, in the names of Carlos Alfara and Berta Fernandez. She asks what time they should be in the airport in order to leave on the six o'clock flight. They tell her they should be there an hour before flight time.

Ruiz begins to dictate the following to Nilda, in a very low voice: "To enlarge further on the report dated 7 of the current month regarding my meeting with the Minister of Labor, Sr.LICINIO DE LA FUENTE, in relation to the request of theNational Institute of Fishing and the Ministry of Basic Industries for contracting Spanish technicians, we wish to inform you that today we received a telephone call from the Executive Officer to the Ministry of Labor. He informed us that our request for Spanish technicians is still being considered, but that the Minister of Labor and the Spanish government wishes to communicate officially to my Government, their official displeasure with the position adopted by the Cuban representation in the last meeting of the O.I.T.(I.L.O) regarding a proposition that interferes in the internal affairs of Spain. Unfortunately the Minister of Labor had confirmed that the request of our representative in Geneva contradicted the efforts that were being made at high levels of our countries for the betterment of our relations, and the cooperation, and for the brotherhood that should exist between two peoples of the same blood.

My total lack of knowledge of what took place in the I.L.O. with regard to Spain, and the position taken by our delegation, precludes me from answering with accuracy, limiting myself only to saying that I would pass on the words of the Minister and that an explanation of the problem would be given.

On the other hand, on this same date I received word from our Consul in Barcelona advising that he has observed a minimum of interest in the industrial circles with which we trade. This would make it appear that a problem exists at a high level between the Government of Cuba and the Government of Spain, which is holding back trade with our country. Specifically, some industrialists have advised our representative that the Ministry of Commerce has spread the word that until certain talks are held between the two governments authorization of permission of import with destination Cuba have been suspended.

We are attempting to confirm this today and learn if there exists some relation with what we have been advised by the Ministry of Labor.

We would appreciate it greatly if you would, as soon as possible, inform us what the position of our Government was in the meeting of the I.L.O. in Geneva. — [illegible] please!

Dear ROA: I beg you to see that this confidential [note] gets to our President, to the Minister of Basic Industries and to the President of the Fishing Institute.

Ruiz tells Horacio that he should tell MARIÑAS that "we are willing to change our passports, and to give us blank models of both the diplomatic and regular passports in order to study them and compare them with those used by other countries.

Ruiz asks PACHECO if they have reserved tickets for him and BARREDA, who have been called from Havana by telephone. The tickets are to be reserved for the two of them only, not for the wives, neither Mercedes nor Nilda.

Ruiz says that NEIRA is to arrive today on his way to Paris, and they will see what he has to say about this (the call from Havana) They don't know if the call from Havana is for the ambassadors meeting which will be held now, or only for the two of them to discuss something related to Spain. Pacheco says that that is maybe why the ambassador of Helsinki asked for reservations yesterday.

Suspicious Cubana crews!

Ruiz continues to talk with the new person that has arrived. He says that he has had to go to the Hotel Conde Duque to visit the crew of Cubana, who have never once come to the embassy, although sometimes some of them are here for a week; they don't attend the study circles, the meetings, nor anything. They havee complained about Ruiz because sometimes they have learned of receptions that have taken place and they haven't been invited. Ruiz says that if at these receptions they invited industrial and commercial people, or even cultural people, they would get nothing done here. When they give a reception it is because of work, to maintain contacts, find things out, and not for any other purpose. They have nothing to do there, and he is not going to invite them to just come and eat and drink When they have to spend some pesetas they do it, but for questions of work. Nevertheless they have the obligation to maintain contacts. Ruiz has sometimes met these people on the street, especially the air-stewardesses, with some "pick-up", and although all the people they are friendly with are very nice people, they should know who these people are.

Ruiz then explains to this new comrade the problem of the location of the embassy. He tells him that they are building a new embassy and all the services will be together. There will also be some community rooms, such as a library, a recreation room, a dining room with a bar, that they will all have a chance to see, but this is going to take probably a year. It will be on Avenida de la Havana. Meanwhile they are putting up with this place because they only pay $50.00 for it, and Havana finds its a gift. If they were paying $500, by now they wouldn't be here; they would have found some other place. They have the place rented since 1936, and even though they have spent more than a thousand (or one hundred thousand) in fixing it, it is still an old house.

With this new arrival he talks about the children, and the problems they have with the schools. They have to find schools where they don't teach religion nor politics.

It seems that they would like to bring a professor from Havana, so that the children could study the same revolutionary methods as there, but Ruiz sees this as a very difficult thing to do. Because, one would not solve the situation of the different grades and ages, and they are not going to send four or five because they are needed there. He sees it as a better possibility to hire Spanish professors among the young capable people, with revolutionary leanings and who are simpathetic toward Cubans, and have them teach the methods, and from books that are brought from there. In this way they could have many professors or teachers for the various ages, and they could rent and furnish an apartment for this purpose.

Apparently Ruiz has no problems with the school his children attend. The Director of the school is a friend of theirs and visits the embassy. Her husband is a communist. The children that attend the school have the same political leanings as their parents. Neither religion nor politics are taught. Ruiz says that the two older ones eat at the school, but the little ones don't as they need help. Ruiz pays over $100 for 4. The person who is with him has two children and pays $100 for the two.

The children of this new comrade that is talking to Ruiz arrive day after tomorrow. He has a little girl 11 years old and the other one is nine. Ruiz is advising the comrade to send his children to the same school where his children go. The name of the school is "ESPINO" or "EL PINO", in the Calle Serrano. He says he will be glad to speak to the Director. They have sports, and music, and the children can have lunch at the school.

He is talking with Mercedes, and they enter the office and continue the conversation. They are speaking in confidential voices, because Mercedes normally talks very loud, they are now talking in very low voices. Mercedes is trying to console him, saying that his work is very difficult and little understood. Ruiz says that they are"throwing him the bait." He is very depressed.

Tomorrow he has an appointment with Quiroga publishing company, who have had a meeting with DAVID PAX(phon) about the rights of the song "Guantanamera.", which was acknowledged in London by an American firm, and it's author as being the Cuban Jose FERNANDEZ Diaz, at a reunion that was held there. In the United States alone there are rights (or royalties) of over $50,000. They are trying to establish definite authorship for this Cuban, so that he will be able to collect some of the royalties from the song throughout the world, which have been calculated at between $750,000 and $1,000,000, and although this amount will have to be divided among many things, something would fall to them.

Ruiz says to work abroad they have to or should send people of the greatest trust, otherwise it is better that they remain in Cuba. If there isn't complete confidence it is a constant struggle with the capitalistic life, money, the stores, the easy life. They mention De la Nuez, and Ruiz says if he's gone he's gone, but the interesting thing would be to know what motivated him; his wife, his son, or money. He says that it has caused a great impression here, and that no one even imagined such a thing. Only two days before he had been in the study circle with all of them.

A girl that is in this meeting with Ruiz says that De la Nuez' daughter is married to Juan Antonio GARCIA, who is Head of Government..., that he has been proposed for ambassador(Ruiz says that they will now have to reconsider this), and what they all three agree on is that De la Nuez was not to blame, Ruiz mentions the letter from De la Nuez' son in which he says that his father has betrayed them. They also mention an ambassador who has left(for Cuba-?) and took watches as gifts to everyone in the Ministry. Ruiz thinks that some of them will remain here in Spain as they have a great deal going for them there.

Ruiz' is very displeased. He speaks to Horacio about how badly some of the comrades speak of him when they return to Havana. He asks him if he remembers the name of one of these comrades that spoke badly of him last summer when he was there on vacation. It was someone named COLON and another one that soon left. After what COLON said they wrote him a letter calling his attention to the criticism. Ruiz is very worried about his re-call to Havana. He tells Horacio that he doesn't think it is about his work, and Horacio says they are doing things there that are super-human, that without the necessary means at hand they are resolving difficult problem of various kinds. Ruiz mentions contacts that he has had in Spain with different people, and he never has committed an error, and has always handled everything with great tact and in favor of his government, even when he has had to deal with Falangists.

Ruiz says that he is very sensitive and that things have got to the point that he can't just let them go by, things they are accusing him of in Havana. But, there is no one that has the courage to tell him directly to his face so that he could justify himself, and if they are things that he cannot handle then for them to call him back, and relieve him of the post because "Comandante Guillermo Ruiz cannot resolve them, but the thing is that the Minister doesn't want to receive him or listen to him when he goes there. Horacio says that the worst of it is that here in Spain there is always some personality from there that they have to entertain, someone important, and that the attention they need is continual, and sometimes it is necessary to attend to the people here in Spain, which prevents them from attending those who arrive from there, but they don't understand this.

He continues to talk with Horacio and he is indignant. Ruiz says that he has been in the Revolution since he was twenty years old, when he began to think for himself. He says that he belongs to no party, none other, that is, but the Cuban communist party. He says that the situation is becoming so uncomfortable regarding him, and he doesn't like it at all. He says he puts everything he has and all the care possible into doing his job.

Ruiz says that one never knows about these things in Havana, and that it is possible that he won't be returning. In the event that this should happen, he is going to leave Horacio officially in charge, so that he will represent him during his abscence.as Charge'de Affairs, and if he returns he will notify the Spanish government officially. He wants samples or models of the passports to take with him, and then he tells Horacio that if he has not returned by the 18th of July, that he should represent him at the official reception. He gives Horacio instructions as to what to wear, what the official ceremonies are and just what they consist of.

Ruiz speaks to someone that calls and gives him a message which annoys Ruiz. Someone has called the Provincial Department of Public Health of Santander saying that they (the Cubans) use "boric acid" in the stoves(?) which they export. They give him this message in the name of the Commercial Office of Cuba, they have a Latin-American accent, and say that they would take adequate measures so that no stove would be shipped.

Ruiz says to Horacio that he doesn't have time to take care of this matter, and for him to accompany Franco and go to the General Department of Security and make charges about the telephone call which is interfering with the trade between Cuba and Spain. He says to go right up as far as the General Director if necessary, not explaining the "boric acid" one way or another, but simply as to the malicious call which was made in the name of the Commercial Office of Cuba. This can cause a delay of six or eight days in the departure of a ship while this call is being explained in Public Health.

1. QUTIMID periodically has reported contact between Subject and Guillermo RUIZ Perez, the Cuban Minister in Madrid, mostly over the telephone but also indicating that he has seen her personally. It would appear that he has taken unusually strong interest in her, considering the number of other more demanding tasks he claims to have. Until now, we have not been able to identify either Subject or her relationship with RUIZ.

2. On 28 May QUDOZE (a sensitive joint audio penetration with liaison) reported the following memorandum (presumably to Havana) on Subject as dictated by RUIZ:

> "Sr. RUIZ Ojeda. Some months ago we received a ciphered cable dealing with Aida Rosa CORREA Felipe asking that we contact her to determine her situation. At that time we informed you that said Aida Rosa CORREA, married to Pedro ECHEVARRIA, Portuguese citizen who was in Cuba during 1959-1968, intended to return to our country, abandoning her husband because of his alcoholism.
> "Approximately one week ago the brother of Aida Rosa CORREA - Luis CORREA Felipe - passed through Madrid en route to France on a special mission. He spoke with her at the Airport about definitely returning in order to see that her 12-year-old son might be educated in Cuba.,

Today we interviewed Aida Rosa CORREA and her son, who at all times has maintained a positive attitude toward this Embassy concerning her return. We have let her know that given the circumstances of her presence in Spain - not as a 'gusano' but as the wife of a foreign doctor who has worked in our country - we saw no difficulty to prevent her from returning, especially taking into account the fact that she expressed herself as a revolutionary, but that first we had to receive official permission.

"In our opinion, because the situation in which she finds herself in Spain because of marriage to a foreigner, her return can be authorized, based on what has expired."

Name: Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

DPOB: 10 February 1930, Havana Municipal District, Havana Province

Occupation: Minister, Cuban Charge d' affaires in Spain. From August 1964 until late 1967, he was Vice-Minister of the Ministry of Foreign Trade (MINCEX). From 1 August 1963 until mid-1964, he was Cuban Commercial Counsellor in Mexico. From 1959 until 1962, he was an official of the Ministry of Treasury, having appeared in 1961 and 1962 as Director of Economy Financing of the Ministry of Treasury. It has also been reported that he was a G-2 member (member of the Department of State Security (DSE)) in 1961 and 1962. It has been reported that he had been working at the Ministry of Treasury since prior to 1959, that is, under the Batista regime. So far, we have not been able to confirm this information.

Political affiliations and attitude: It has been reported that Subject is a member of the Communist Party of Cuba (PCC) and a staunch sympathizer of the Cuban regime. There is information to the effect that in 1958, Subject was in exile in Mexico and was a member of the Triple A Organization led by Dr. Aureliano SANCHEZ Arango. It has also been reported that during the struggle against BATISTA (1957-1958), Subject belonged to action and sabotage groups in Havana and was charged with placing bombs and other devices. Source does not know exactly what activities Subject carried out as a member of action and sabotage groups, but believes that he had to leave for Mexico in 1958 on account of his activities.

Intelligence connections: RUIZ has been reported as a member of the General Directorate of Intelligence (DGI). It has been reported that in 1961 and 1962 he was a G-2 (DSE) member at the Ministry of Treasury, where he worked.

Travels: He traveled to Mexico (from mid-1963 until mid-1964, he was Cuban Commercial Counsellor in Mexico). Spain, where he has been since late 1967 as Cuban Charge d' affaires. (It was reported that on 27 July 1968, he arrived in Paris, from Madrid. We do not know the reasons for that trip).

Access: a. Rolando CARDOSO Perez (A18 239 674). Arrived in the U.S. on 10 October 1968 from Madrid, Spain. He knows Subject because he and Subject are cousins (Subject's mother and Rolando's mother are sisters). When Rolando arrived in the U.S., he said he was going to reside at 940 SW 11th Avenue, Miami, Florida, telephone number 377-3877. We have not been able to locate him because we were told at this address that Rolando had left for another state and that his present address was unknown to them). Rolando saw Subject for the last time at the Barajas Airport, Madrid, Spain, on 10 October 1968, when Rolando was going to take the plane which brought him to the U.S. According to Rolando, they greeted each other on that occasion. Rolando said he had seen Subject at this same airport in early or mid-1968 and that they had talked for approximately five minutes. On this opportunity, Subject was at the airport waiting for the arrival of a group of Cuban diplomats.

b. Manuel Domingo German VIGOS Perez (A18 780 716). Arrived in the U.S. on 20 February 1970 by way of the Refugee Airlift. He knows Subject because he and Subject are cousins (Subject's mother and Manuel's mother are sisters). Manuel saw Subject for the last time in 1963, at the home of Subject's mother, where they happened to meet. According to Manuel, he and Subject only said hello to each other. When Manuel arrived in the U.S., he reported his address as 4000 NW Fourth Street, Miami, Florida, telephone number 445-7193, home of a lady named Mercedes BORGES Dobarros. Manuel also stated that he would later leave for 433 West 49th Street, New York, N.Y., home of Antonio GOMEZ Lemus. Manuel told I-122 that he and his friend, Jorge BORGES Dobarros, were homosexuals and had been living together since approximately 1963. (Jorge BORGES Dobarros arrived in Miami aboard the same Refugee Airlift flight as Manuel. He is a brother of Mercedes BORGES Dobarros, and he and Manuel went to live in Mercedes' house when they arrived in Miami).

We believe that Manuel cannot be used in an approach to Subject because they have not maintained relations for a long period of years. In addition, Subject might know Manuel' weakness (homosexualism) and might take advantage of this knowledge to blackmail Manuel. Manuel also told I-122 that he had received psychiatric treatment in Havana.

Assessment: Subject's present position; the positions, all of them important, which he has held before; and the fact that he has been reported as a DGI officer, lead us to believe that we do not have many possibilities of success in an attempt to recruit or defect Subject. The fact that Subject's father has been a militant Communist since prior to 1959 and that Subject's wife has been reported as a supporter of the regime should not be forgotten.

Subject's revolutionary background during the struggle against BATISTA seems to indicate that he is in favor of acts of terrorism. This gave him knowledge and experience in matters related to subversive activities and/or intelligence activities which he could use later.

Therefore, we believe that Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez must be a very useful person for the Cuban regime, in Spain. He has experience in negotiating trade agreements and in handling administrative affairs (he has been working in this field for more than ten years). All this knowledge and experience added to his knowledge and experience in subversive and intelligence affairs make him a man who is not often found in the Castro regime.

1. OTA-1858, 16 January 1970, contains information and/or file traces on Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez, his wife, and other members of his family. OTA-1858 also contains or lists all other references or reports in which Subject has been mentioned.

5 May 1970

FRANCO enters the office. They mention the incident that happened last night at Barajas airport when the plane arrived from Havana. A woman(Spanish) raised her umbrella and threatened HORACIO, while a gusano kept hitting him. FRANCO says that he hit five or six of the attackers real hard, and that he thinks he really hurt one of them quite badly around the face and head. Everyone was covered with blood.

A woman and a man come into the office and talk about the incident(above) also. Then the girl says that she has come to Spain to take a course in Alcala. It seems that the course is connected with UNESCO. She will later go to the University of Santander and on to Paris to take a course there. She says she is a member of the Party, and wants to know how she is going to maintain he[illegible]ontact here in Spain. RUIZ says that they too are members, but that due to the difficulty of public relations that it is a month and a half since they have had a group meeting. He says that the work that they are doing makes it difficult to carry on the Party life, but that nevertheless it is necessary to have group meetings to discuss the members. She says that she would like to live in Madrid, in a student residence, and commute to Alcala by car, or bus every day. Ruiz says that in this way it would be more economical for her and she would have more contact with the other students. She says that she would like to be in some Spanish-American college to get acquainted with the students there. RUIZ says she could be very useful to them with her student connections, and that without interfering with her studies she can also be helping Cuba. He highly recommends that she get every thing she can, culturally during her stay in Spain. He says that for very much she has read about museums and historical and artistic places it is quite differnnt seeing them.

Ruiz asks her to leave her address at the embassy so that the President of the Women's Federation of the Party can take advantage of her being of use to them in one way or another. Ruiz tells her that anything that might happen to her to come to the embassy and let them know about it. He says there is the danger that they will spy on her or follow her and that there is the possibility of enemies getting close to her. He says that everyone makes mistakes and that if she does to let them know at once so that they can prevent the consequence, and give her good advice.

He has been out of the office for a long time. At about 2:30 pm he comes in with BARREDA and another person. Ruiz says that he has to write to the Deputy Secretary(of Foreign Relations-?) about the incident at Barajas airport. He is going to point out the permissiveness of the police. He is going to point out that the officials of the embassy were provoked by the others

WE ARE NOW PREPARED TO IMPLEMENT APPROACH TO AMAUTO-1 USING SAMKO; HOWEVER REF B HIGHLIGHTS AN IMPORTANT ASPECT OF SAMKO'S CHARACTER WHICH COULD HAVE AN ADVERSE AFFECT ON THE SUCCESS OF THE OPERATION. BEFORE PROVIDING CONTACT INSTRUCTIONS NEED CLEAR INDICATION THAT SAMKO, ALTHOUGH DOING FAVOR FOR HIS GOVT, WILLING AND ABLE FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS. HE MUST UNDERSTAND THAT HIS MISSION TO MADRID IS TO OBTAIN ASSESSMENT OF AMAUTO-1 AND THROUGH RENEWAL OF OLD FRIENDSHIP TO OPEN CHANNEL TO AMAUTO-1 SHOULD THE LATTER EVER NEED A FRIEND IN THE U.S. ALSO THAT HE CANNOT RPT CANNOT EXPRESS OR IMPLY TO AMAUTO-1 THAT VISIT TO MADRID WAS AT THE BEHEST OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT OR JKLANCE. 1. SAMKO CONTACTED MID-DAY 20 MAY. HE HAS SHOTS, NEW PASSPORT, AND READY TO TRAVEL. PACHANKIS MENTIONED TENTATIVE DATE OF 29 MAY VIA IBERIA.

2. WHEN QUESTIONED ON MUTUAL FRIEND WHO COULD HAVE TOLD HIM OF AMAUTO-1 POSITION IN SPAIN, SAMKO SAID HE TALKED TO "JULIAS" FROM OLD DAYS ABOUT ONE YEAR AGO. "JULIAS" WORKED IN GROCERY STORE WITH AMAUTO-1 AND CURRENTLY RESIDES IN MIAMI/HOLLYWOOD AREA. SAMKO CANNOT FURTHER IDENTIFY. APPEARS WE CAN INVOKE "JULIAS" AS COVER STORY FOR CONTACT, RATHER THAN PURSUE MANUEL (VIGOS) PEREZ LEAD.

2. IN ANY EVENT, SAMKO HAS ALREADY BEEN BRIEFED ALONG LINES OF DIRECTOR 033355. DO NOT BELIEVE BRIEFING ON COMPLICATED SENARIO WOULD BE PRODUCTIVE, AS SAMKO IS SIMPLE MAN, HAS SOMEWHAT VOLATILE PERSONALITY, AND NOT TRAINED INTEL OPERATIVE. HE IS IN EFFECT DOING FAVOR FOR HIS GOVERNMENT AND IS NOT A RECRUITED ASSET WHO HAS BEEN TRAINED TO FOLLOW DIRECTIONS. IN ADDITION, HE APPEARS TO BE RATHER NAIVE AS FAR AS INTEL OPS ARE CONCERNED. (AS EXAMPLE, WHEN SAMKO APPLIED FOR PASSPORT, EXPECTED RED CARPET TREATMENT. DESCRIBED PASSPORT OFFICIAL AS "MISERABLE SOB" WHO GAVE EVERYONE HARD TIME.

SOURCE AN OFFICIAL SPANISH SERVICE; FROM A SOURCE DESCRIBED AS SENSITIVE AND USUALLY RELIABLE.

1. IN EARLY MAY 1970, THE CUBAN EMBASSY IN MADRID PREPARED A PROTEST NOTE TO THE SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTRY OVER AN INCIDENT WHICH OCCURRED AT THE BARAJAS AIRPORT IN MADRID BETWEEN CUBAN REFUGEES AND CUBAN OFFICIALS, IN WHICH BLOWS WERE EXCHANGED. ACCORDING TO MINISTER GUILLERMO RUIZ, CUBAN CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, THE EMBASSY WILL CHARGE THAT SIX FUNCTIONARIES AND FOUR DIPLOMATIC COURIERS FROM HAVANA WERE PHYSICALLY ATTACKED ON 4 MAY AT THE AIRPORT BY DISAFFECTED CUBANS, ALL RESIDENTS OF SPAIN. THE NOTE STATED THAT "THIS COWARDLY AND UNJUSTIFIABLE AGGRESSION" ENDANGERED DIPLOMATIC

2. (FIELD COMMENT: ACCORDING TO ANOTHER UNTESTED SOURCE WHO WAS AN EYEWITNESS TO THE 4 MAY INCIDENT, THE CROWD INCLUDED 23 MEMBERS OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY AND A NUMBER OF CUBAN EXPATRIATES MEETING AN IBERIA FLIGHT FROM HAVANA WHICH WAS CARRYING 75 CUBAN OFFICIALS AND 30 CUBAN REFUGEES. MAXIMO TORRES, FORMER MAYOR OF SANTIAGO DE CUBA AND A MAN OF OVER 60 YEARS OF AGE, ADDRESSED ONE OF THE ARRIVING CUBAN OFFICIALS, MISTAKING HIM FOR A REFUGEE. THE OFFICIAL REBUFFED HIM RUDELY AND A GENERAL ARGUMENT ENSUED AND BLOWS WERE EXCHANGED. HORACIO FUENTES MARTINEZ, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY, JUMPED FROM A NEARBY CAR AND PISTOL-WHIPPED ONE OF THE REFUGEES. AFTER THE POLICE ARRIVED, TORRES AND HIS WIFE NEEDED MEDICAL ATTENTION.)

3. ON 6 MAY, ROBERTO FRANCO OLIVA, CUBAN CONSUL IN MADRID, COMPLAINED TO A SPANISH POLICE INSPECTOR CONCERNING THE INCIDENT AT THE AIRPORT AS FOLLOWS:

A. THE SCENE AT THE AIRPORT HAD BEEN PREPARED BY THE U.S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) AND 'COUNTERREVOLUTIONARIES." THE INSPECTOR REPLIED TO THIS THAT SPANISH AUTHORITIES WERE

INVESTIGATING AND WOULD GIVE CUBAN OFFICIALS THE PROTECTION IN SPAIN WHICH THEY SHOULD HAVE. HE SAID THAT THREE CUBAN REFUGEES HAD BEEN ARRESTED AND WOULD BE DEPORTED TO FRANCE. FOR THEIR PART, THE REFUGEES HAD SAID THAT HORACIO FUENTES HAD PULLED OUT A GUN DURING THE FIGHT, A CHARGE WHICH FRANCO DENIED AT LENGTH.

B. MANY OTHER ATTACKS HAVE BEEN SUFFERED BY CUBAN OFFICIALS AT THE AIRPORT AND DAMAGE DONE TO THEIR PARKED CARS.

C. WHEN CUBAN SEAMEN ARE ARRESTED BY THE SPANISH POLICE IN THE CANARY ISLANDS THEY ARE INTERROGATED SEPARATELY IN THE POLICE STATION BY AN AGENT OF THE CIA WHO IS A CUBAN "GUSANO" (TURNCOAT).

D. ALTHOUGH THERE ARE SPANISH REPUBLICANS AND SPANISH COMMUNISTS IN CUBA, THE SPANISH EMBASSY IN HAVANA IS NEVER MOLESTED.

E. FRANCO IS PREPARED TO ADVISE CUBAN PASSENGERS COMING TO SPAIN TO CARRY RAZORS FOR SELF DEFENSE. CUBAN OFFICIALS, PARTICULARLY THOSE WHO GO TO THE AIRPORT, SHOULD APPLY FOR LICENSES TO CARRY PISTOLS.

4. (FIELD COMMENT: ACCORDING TO AN OFFICIAL SPANISH SERVICE, CUBAN DIPLOMATS MAY APPLY FOR GUN PERMITS TO THE SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTRY AND WOULD PROBABLY RECEIVE PERMISSION. NON-DIPLOMATIC CUBANS MUST APPLY TO THE DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF

INTERNAL SECURITY (DGS) BUT WOULD PROBABLY NOT RECEIVE PERMISSION. TDCSDB-315/01741-70 REPORTED THAT AS OF 8 APRIL ALL CUBAN COMMERCIAL REPRESENTATIVES WERE CARRYING PISTOLS, AND THAT SOURCES OF KNOWN RELIABILITY HAVE NOTED THAT CUBAN DIPLOMATS ABROAD HAVE BEEN AUTHORIZED BY THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT TO CARRY A SMALL HAND WEAPON.)

5. FIELD DISSEM: STATE.

1. The following information about Subject's trip to Spain and her activities while here was obtained from QUTIMID and QUDOZE.

2. Subject arrived in Madrid on 10 February 1970. She traveled to Barcelona during the week of 23 February and returned to Madrid 6 March whereupon she then left for Portugal. She returned to Madrid on 17 March and waited for Guillermo RUIZ Perez' return from the Spanish/Cuban Commercial negotiations in Cuba. Sonia departed Madrid for Cuba on 27 March 1970. It appears that she intended to travel to Vienna, Austria next, since several cables were sent to Vienna from Madrid advising Sonia's travel status. During her stay in Spain, Sonia was in frequent contact with one Jose Agustin GOYTISOLO, Spanish writer in Barcelona, telephone 228-4063 (Station traces are OSBA 02385, 17 February 1965; OSBA 02718, 11 August 1967; and OSBA 02795, 1 March 1968). She was not known to have been in contact with any other locals and what little time she had for diversion she spent with the mission officers and their wives.

3. The purpose of Sonia's trip to Madrid was to discuss the 1970 work plan for the Embassy with the Charge, Guillermo RUIZ Perez. She also talked with the various Embassy officials, most probably to familiarize herself with their duties and to see if they had any problems. She pitched in and helped with the backlogged work of Orestes BARREDA and Horacio FUENTES and also helped with the cultural activities. For instance, she sent two cables to MINREX - one regarding the forwarding of movie posters for a March exhibit and another regarding the forwarding of a Cuban stamp exhibition by end March.

4. In their discussion of the 1970 work plan Sonia told RUIZ that they were going to plan the February, March, and April quarter. She showed him "an agenda for the control of planned and unplanned activities" and the general directives of the plan which included scientific information and political information, with specific directives (requirements) for Spain. RUIZ has to prepare for Havana a monthly report, then a quarterly summary, of the activities accomplished. Based on these reports the activities of the following quarter will be planned.

a. In line with the plan of scientific information, Sonia and RUIZ discussed the pros and cons of a Comite Cientifico-Tecnico which is to be set up in Madrid. RUIZ was of the opinion that the local (Spanish) Communist Party would try to infiltrate it and this would bring problems to the Embassy. Sonia pointed out the successes encountered in Switzerland and Sweden with such a committee even though at first there were problems which were later overcome.

b. Sonia showed RUIZ a commercial project which she planned to take to Portugal and asked him to read it because it was also of interest to the Cuban mission in Spain.

c. Sonia mentioned that the Plan of Information was still to be completed especially in the priority categories of livestock and economy.

d. They turned next to the topic of the budget. Sonia said that the budget for each mission had to be submitted before the end of April (every year) and no additional expenditures could be submitted for approval during the course of the year. Spain, Canada, and France, however, would be treated individually. Their special needs, such as acquisition of more office space, raises in cost of living allowances, etc., would be taken into consideration at any time.

5. During their various discussions RUIZ aired his complaint about the Visa Department in Havana saying that the department was practically worthless and that last year 76 cables regarding visas remained unanswered. Sonia defended the Ministry saying that it had a lot of work to do, but RUIZ replied that they wanted to work only 8 hours a day. They also discussed the scholarship situation. It seems that during an interview between PRIETO (Probably Jose PRIETO Benitez, Director of Foreign Relations of the DAP) and the Minister of Public Works, PRIETO was asked to provide a list of scholarship candidates to be considered and he had none. Sonia mentioned that in Belgium they also lost four scholarships because of this same reason.

6. According to QUTIMID Sonia GOMEZ Aragon is married to one Miguel (LNU) and has a daughter named Iliana. Sonia's mother is still living although appeared to be very ill at the time Sonia left for her trip to Madrid because Sonia cabled at least twice to Havana inquiring about the status of her mother's health. (TYLOTE reported that Sonia's home phone number in Havana is 7-4263.) Perhaps Headquarters can determine the full name of her husband by checking the reverse telephone listings. Sonia is attractive, intelligent, sertious-minded and reserved. The last time she visited Spain she stayed with Vera BORODOWSKI and was on the same type of mission as the present one - to discuss the Madrid Embassy's work plan. She also visited the Barcelona Consulate and the Cuban Embassy in Lisbon.

Since Headquarters has recently prepared an extensive analysis on RUIS for the information of addressees, an additional review has been omitted. However, the attached biographic study should be useful.

30 April 1970

NAME:	Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez (201-735296) (NOTE: A comprehensive study/analysis on RUIZ was prepared in February 1970, see OSMW-11726.)
ALIAS:	Also uses Guillermo RUIZ Perez
DPOB:	10 February 1930, Havana
PRESENT POSITION:	Minister, Charge d'Affaires, Cuban Embassy, Madrid, since December 1967.
WIFE:	Nilda VECIANA Lopez (DPOB: 26 December 1934, Havana)
CHILDREN:	Five sons, and a sixth child due to be born April/May 1970, Guillermo, the oldest, in school in Cuba. Alejandro, Julio, Juan Carlos and Ivan with their parents in Madrid.
PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:	White, variously described as 5'5" - 5'7" tall, and 170-190 pounds, stout build; round face, fair complexion, blond slightly wavy hair, light-colored eyes (also reported as blue and green), wears glasses. No visible identifying marks. Well dressed.
PERSONALITY:	Perhaps a relative's description of RUIZ sums up his personality - "a man of many moods." He has variously been described as intelligent, mentally alert, competent, hardworking, and respected by his subordinates. Pleasant, easy going, nervous, quick-tempered, brusque but sincere, opinionated, strong-minded idealistic, self-confident. Has basic emotional instability, gives impression of being insecure in his position. At times sarcastic, indifferent, egotistical, cynical, serious, ungrateful and cold, who, paradoxically, appears friendly to some people. Outspoken, compulsive talker, articulate, limited vocabulary, swears a good deal.

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

He can turn on considerable charm, where motivated. In contrast to his pleasant public image and acceptable language, private conversation is vulgar, swears continually and flies into rages.

Likes good living and spends money where it shows. Avid reader, keeps abreast of world events, shows willingness to accept whatever he deems to be good or useful from the outside world. Concerned with the image and prestige of Cuba in Spain. Emotionally committed to an ideal. An AMEDIT study summed RUIZ up as a realist. He speaks English and French. His wife, a teacher, always worked before going to Spain, and there works as a secretary and bookkeeper at the Embassy on an informal basis. Appears intelligent, competent, outspoken but solicitious and affectionate with her husband; interested in, and encourages him in his work. Appears to support the regime, but not a fanatic. RUIZ is the dominant personality of the two.

EDUCATION:

One reference states that he went to work at age 14, which suggests lack of formal education.
In 1960 as an employee of the Ministry of the Treasury, selected to attend a statistics course offered by CEPAL, which lasted two years.

One relative reported he completed elementary education at "Hermanos Maristas" school in Havana; did not know whether he attended high school, but said in early days of the Castro regime attended the University of

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

Havana.

Another relative said his primary and secondary education was received in private institutions, and that he has a degree in "political economics" from the University of Havana.

He is well versed in world affairs and has an understanding of international trade.

PREVIOUS POSITIONS: Vice Minister, MINCEX, 1964-1967.

Commercial Counselor, Cuban Embassy, Mexico City. Although he was accredited to that position in December 1963, travel indicates he was in Mexico from August 1963 to May 1964. Other references indicate he was in that position in September 1963.

Ministry of the Treasury. In April 1962 he was Chief of the Department of Construction Expenses Studies, Office of Financial Statistics of that ministry. He was with the ministry as early as 1960, when he was selected to attend the statistics course.

During the Batista regime he was in exile. Came to the U.S. sometime in the 1950's and apparently remained for some time before he left in February 1957, when, according to some reports, he entered Cuba clandestinely. Also reported to have been in exile in Mexico.

LNYUMA records show he came to U.S. on 8 November 1956 to see his brother, left 17 November for the Dominican Republic where he received five months military training. Returned to the

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

U.S. 5 April 1957, overstayed his time, and on 11 February 1958 was ordered deported; claimed he would be killed if he returned to Cuba and did not show for deportation. Subsequent investigation showed he was in Cuba as of 2 March.

POLITICAL ATTITUDE:

A member of the Cuban Communist Party, admitted on the recommendation of Armando HART Davalos, Secretary of Organization. Although he has been described as a militant Communist, a convinced supporter of the Castro regime and a fanatic Fidelista, there is evidence to dispute this image. An analysis of available information indicates that he is not a convinced Marxist, he cannot accept Party discipline, and that his character is basically incompatible with the system he serves.

His father is reported to be an old-guard Communist and a leader of the barber's union. A brother reported to be a member of DSE in 1946.

He expressed dissatisfaction with his position as a diplomat, feels his talents are wasted and would like a position in commerce or industry, where he considers he could better serve the revolution. Has criticized the bureaucracy and inefficiency in the government in Havana.

He has said that many Cuban diplomats want to stay out of Cuba, but it seemed to him that the Cuban government wanted to keep him (RUIZ) out of the way (i.e., outside Cuba). That LEON had appointed him, supported him, and they are good friends, but that he (RUIZ) does not like to work with a man who one does not get to know, nor to know what he is thinking. He said he felt as if he were in Miami.

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

INTELLIGENCE CONNECTIONS:

In May 1964 AMMUG-1 reported RUIZ was a DGI case officer in Mexico for operations targetted against "some nearby area," and later identified his photograph as DGI member in Mexico.

In 1961 an emigre said RUIZ, with the Finance Ministry, was a Communist and G-2.

AMTIKI-1 said a letter from a friend in Cuba stated that RUIZ, then in Mexico, was a member of G-2, sent to try to infiltrate counterrevolutionary groups (1963).

In April 1968, RUIZ advised Aristides DIAZ Rovirosa on the use of disguises, the need to "live secretly" and commented on DIAZ' being "already clandestine."

The Cuban Ambassador to Geneva, in 1968, commented on RUIZ' refusal to accept DGI dominance of the Cuban Embassy, Madrid. (AMDELAY-1). In July 1969, AMBEDEW-1 said RUIZ was very dictatorial in his dealings with DGI officers.

CONTACTS:

Not much is known of his contacts in Madrid, other than official. Is in touch with Ahmed LAIDI, Algerian Ambassador; Manuel TELLO Troncoso, Counselor of Chilean Embassy, Madrid; Alexandru PETRESCU, Romanian Minister to Spain and Carlos CARRASCO Munoz de Vera, a lawyer and personal friend.

ASSESSMENT: It appears that RUIZ might well be responsive to an approach, with consideration given to the manner in which it is undertaken, the timing and the person involved.

ACCESS:

MISCELLANEOUS:

Although RUIZ' health has been described as generally good, he suffers from a back ailment which resulted from a fall in 1955 and which has been diagnosed as incurable. Also he suffers from a liver ailment for which he takes medicine.

RUIZ is scheduled to return to Cuba in mid-1970, where he expects to be with MININT, rather than MINREX or MINCEX.

SUBJECT: Interview with Alexander SAMKO.

1. SAMKO was contacted by phone (927-6721) on the morning of 21 April, and he agreed to meet with "Joseph MORRIS, an official of the US government," later the same morning at his home: 1647 Rodman Street, Hollywood, Florida.

2. SAMKO accepted my credentials without any reservations. He is a Caucasian male in his 60s. He is of strong build; "white" gray hair; small clear eyes which require thick glasses to read. His most distinguishing feature is a large tatoo on his right forearm. He has a loud booming voice, with a NY accent and although he does not appear to have much of a formal education, he is articulate and sociable. He appears to be retired now and spends his days playing chess with a business associate. He lives in a clean middle class neighborhood and has a Lincoln Continental (about 3 or 4 years old) in the garage.

3. After speaking with him for over half an hour, SAMKO does not appear to know Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez. SAMKO answered my questions in a straightforward manner and I have no reason to doubt his testimony. Specifically, these are the facts as SAMKO related them:

A. The name Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez (it was typewritten on a 3 x 5 card) means nothing to him. His business associate -who has worked with him for many years and especially during the 1950s- does not recall the name.

B. SAMKO acknowledges that from c. mid 1958 till c. the end of 1959, he owned the "Fruit Center" -a grocery, meat market, and fruit store- on 100 SW 17th Avenue, Miami (one block from Flagler Street). He does not recall that anyone in his employ answered to the name of Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez, or any combination of these names. He never had anything but an impersonal employer/employee relationship with his personnel.

C. The last time he had been to Cuba was in c. 1948, "when I went down from New York." He denied several times that he had been to Cuba after Castro took power in 1959.

D. SAMKO had bought the "Fruit Center" from a Mr. FNU WOODS, who also owned the property in the vicinity of 100 SW 17th Avenue. SAMKO dismissed the personnel WOODS had in the store when he bought. He does not know the whereabouts of WOODS at this time, but presumes he still owns the property.

4. Naturally, SAMKO was curious to know why we were after RUIZ. To satisfy his curiosity and perhaps elicit some admission, in the event he was playing games with me, I disclosed these bits of information:

H/W [illegible]

[illegible] 1-054

A. RUIZ had been exiled in the US -from Cuba- in the 1950s. (He was in his mid 20s at the time).

B. We had information that RUIZ had worked for SAMKO in his store as a butcher in the 1950s and that they had established a close personal friendship apart from the normal business relationship.

C. When Castro took power in Cuba (c. 1959), RUIZ had returned to Cuba and there are reports that SAMKO had visited RUIZ in Cuba in 1959. And, further, that SAMKO had offered RUIZ a partnership in his store if RUIZ returned to the US.

D. RUIZ was now the Cuban Minister to Spain and the GOUS was interested in talking to his old friends to see what kind of a person RUIZ was. We had reason to believe that SAMKO was an old friend of RUIZ'.

5. SAMKO listened intently. He seemed confused by all these reports. He denied the allegations firmly, but without betraying any sign of nervousness or doubletalk (as when one is telling less than the truth.)

6. SAMKO asked if we had a photo of RUIZ. He said he knew of no other SAMKO in the Miami area, such as a brother, uncle, etc. He did not appear to be bothered or inconvenienced by the allegations, so if he was not telling the truth, he did a wonderful job of it. The only thing he could suggest was to locate Mr WOODS -the owner before him of the "Fruit Center"- to see if he had RUIZ as an employee.

7. In view of SAMKO's statements of denial, there was nothing more to do than to thank him for his cooperation and say good morning.

Henry. S. PACHANKIS.

[illegible] 1975

SUBJECT: Interview with Alex [illegible] SANKO, on the identity of [illegible] Guillermo RUIZ Perez, DGI Minister to Spain.

1. On the evening of 27 April, SANKO was contacted by phone at his Hollywood home ([illegible]). He was cordial and agreed to receive us on the morning of 28 April. He said he looked forward to seeing the photos of RUIZ: "Maybe we can get to the bottom of things if I see his picture."

2. Before showing him the pictures on 28 April, I gave him a short preamble on the background of the case. I said that we were perplexed that he did not recognize RUIZ' name since we had it on good authority that RUIZ still reminisced about his days in SANKO's employment and remembered him with fondness. I added that our purpose was to have someone in whom RUIZ had complete confidence talk to him and find out how he feels about his political fate. There was no violence or hanky panky involved; only a straight man to man exchange. (It was my hunch that perhaps SANKO feared we were trying to tie him into something illegal or related with RUIZ' Revolutionary activities while he was in the US and SANKO was playing it cool. This was a possibility since it was strange SANKO did not recognize RUIZ, while everything pointed that there had been a relationship.)

3. My fears were dispelled when SANKO had an opportunity to study the photos carefully: "Why, this is William. He has aged, but I would know him anywhere." There was a friendly, happy smile on his face as he reached back into his memory:

"When I bought the store, he was already working for the previous owner, [illegible]. He worked for me about 7 or 8 months and then he left for Cuba, to fight Batista. There was a tear in his eyes when he said goodbye. I understood that he had been killed. I never heard from him again. You say he is a big shot with Castro. I'm surprised at the turn, since he was such a freedom lover. He had high ideals. In my opinion, he was pro American, although he seemed more pro Cuban. He loved his country and wanted to liberate it and rid it of tyranny. He used to show me the atrocities that Batista committed when they were published in "Bohemia" and it made his blood boil. And, it made my blood boil too. He used to talk to me about taking part in the Revolution and I used to try to talk him out of it. He was happy after he talked it over with me. He would consult his problems with me and after the talk he would say, 'Sanko, I'm glad I talked to you.' I used to [illegible] him off, set him straight and help out in every way I could. I used to contribute food from the store. William would have it picked up. He said it was for the families of those men who were jailed in the US for running guns to Cuba. Although he was just a grocery clerk -he was the [illegible] of the grocery department and I kept him in the meat department when the butcher took a day off- he was a very clean cut fellow. He had a good appearance and was an all round nice kid. He was a quiet boy, a loner. I never socialized with him enough to know of his family. I don't remember that he had any relatives or friends that I knew. [illegible] back. Remember its been 19 years, a long time and I haven't thought about him in all this time. I [illegible] a long time ago and I haven't run into these people again. He was an enthusiastic Castro follower then, but I can't understand how he has turned so far left. I didn't realize he still remembers me, and you say he talks of me fondly (his face lit up with pride). He was a good boy, young, in his 20s. All of my employees had respect for me. I backed them up in everyway I could and William did everything I asked of him. No, I can't remember his last name. I only recall 'William.' Will I write to him? I won't write, because he won't answer it. You have to confront him. Sure he will talk to me. We have alot to talk over. He will pay attention to me. You say you want me to go to Spain to see him? At my expense? Oh, well, at your expense. Well, if it is for my country, I would be glad to help out."

4. I pointed out on more than one occasion that this was not a commitment, but an exploratory interview. We were grateful for his cooperation and would certainly consider him in the event my superiors opted to contact RUIZ. SAUKO was born in New Jersey and has a birth certificate. He has an expired passport from his days as a merchant seaman. In the event he is requested to go to Spain to pitch RUIZ, SAUKO understands that he will be paid only for his personal expenses.

5. To sum up, SAUKO has finally disclosed his relationship with RUIZ, but only after viewing RUIZ's photos. He knew RUIZ only as "William." Although from what SAUKO said of their relationship there was a definite father-son alliance, SAUKO never thought of it as such. Evidently the younger man was more impressed with his mentor, than the mentor with his pupil. SAUKO is available to travel to Spain to meet with RUIZ, "and try to steer him back to the high ideals he had in 1959."

6. Before parting, I thanked SAUKO once again for his cooperation and promised to keep in touch with him in the event his services were required. He too was gracious and said we could call on him anytime we need him. He repeated his refrain: "If its for my country, I'll cooperate."

1. On 16 April 1970 Stacy R. HARRIOTT had lunch with Subject and Agustin GERVAS who are partners in Taller, S.A. The following is HARRIOTT's report of that meeting:

A. "Subject, and GERVAS have joined with another lawyer, fnu ITURRIAGA, to explore joint venture possibilities in Spain. Subject and Iturriaga are law partners with offices in Madrid. An assessment of Subject based on such a short conversation would not normally be of much assistance but since Subject opened up on his thoughts about Cuba, a general recommendation can be reached.

B. "During the lunch I was able to work the conversation around to the business potential for Spanish and U.S. companies in Latin America. Eventually, we touched on Cuba, and Gervas said that Subject considers himself to be an expert in this area as he visited Cuba last year and had a private three-hour interview with Fidel Castro. Gervas said that Subject received a "snow job" from the "jefe", and this about sets the tone for his feelings for the present Cuban regime. It was not clear how Subject received an invitation to Cuba, but he said that he assisted in obtaining a contract from Cuba for the Pegaso truck company - whether as a representative of this company or in a free-lance capacity was not brought out. It seemed to me that Subject is riding an emotional high for Cuba and Castro. His face lit up and he became relatively excited when telling us how Castro mixes and talks with the "common people," and is from Spanish parents, and has done so much for the country. I asked him what his general impression was of life there and he replied "phenomenal," and I believe he meant it.

C. "Some comments that Subject made would appear to be inspired by Cuban propaganda or a briefing. He said that JKLANCE is in control of U.S. internal security and is forcing a rightest swing in its internal politics. Also, all people going to Cuba from Mexico are photographed by JKLANCE people, while if you go from Spain you don't rum this risk.

D. "I asked him if there was good potential for Spanish companies doing business with Cuba. He replied that Cuba is a bridge to Latin America. This seemed a strange answer, and I pointed out that you didn't have to go to Cuba to get to Latin America. He said, "that's true, but other countries will change to the Cuban system and will need technicians to assist them. Then we (Iguess he meant Spanish business men doing business with Cuba) will have excellent possibilities.

E. "Subject said that he knew the Cuban Ambassador to Spain and in fact visited him this morning and received a large box of Havana cigars from him.

F. "Subject is about 30 years old, good looking and makes an excellent first impression. He appears to have a good business background in addition to being a trained lawyer. He seems aggressive, determined and has a good imagination for business ventures.

G. "It would be premature to say that Subject leans toward Communism or has been had by the Cuban I.S. I doubt that he would have talked so freely about his admiration for Cuba if he is working covertly for them. It is quite certain that he is being used by the Cuban Embassy for commercial purposes, and I would estimate that he would make an excellent "front man" for Cuban business ventures.

H. "I would recommend against trying to recruit Subject as a means of getting to the Cuban Ambassador. He would probably turn down the pitch and inform the Cuban Embassy."

2. The above report is an excellent beginning in our assessment of Subject and HARRIOTT must be commended for his adeptness at steering the conversation toward the relevant areas of interest. We think the report stands alone and requires little commentary by the Station; however, we might add here that there is a strong probability that Subject was indeed snowed under by the impact of his alleged three-hour talk with Castro. Given Castro's charisma and persuasive qualities it would not be difficult to "convince" a young lawyer, alien to the Cuban environment, of the progress in Cuba. Not withstanding HARRIOTT's fine report we feel that Subject is still wallowing in the ebullience of this confrontation with Fidel Castro. His short relationship with the Cuban Embassy and one visit to Cuba would hardly make him an authority on Cuba.

3. If you agree we would like to try another attempt to get an assessment of Subject. For days we have been trying to devise a cover story for a Station officer to use in an approach to Subject. We have one and would like your comments, suggestions and ideas. A Station officer, preferably in disguise and using an alias, would approach Subject as a free lance writer for "World News" (a suggestion made by UCAMERA-1 because there are so many stringers for "World News" that it would be virtually impossible to confirm) with the intention that he is writing an article on Spanish lawyers in business with the theme that a degree in law offers greater opportunities for advancement in business and government. (The theme actually is taken from an article in Fortune or Business Week magazine read by the undersigned some years ago). The theme was tested on CUCAMERA-1 and he agrees that it is a good one and would work because of the general nature of Spanish businessmen to like to talk about themselves. What is involved however, is a considerable amount of homework, particularly in the collection of names of lawyers in business who have been successful. CUCAMERA-1 is preparing a list of such people and we will review them together. The undersigned subsequently will ask for Dun and Bradstreet reports on the firms these lawyers represent as well as review the firms' financial history in our reference aids located in the Embassy's commercial library.

4. The theme opens the door to a number of provoking questions, but it particularly offers a good opportunity to assess the personality of the target. Perhaps the opportunity will again come when Subject discusses his relationship and knowledge of Cuba at which time an interesting exchange might ensue possibly provoking Subject to reveal his true relationship with the Cubans and/or his affection for the Cuban system. No pitch would be made and, if after this assessment, the officer arrives at HARRIOTT's conclusion, the Station would recommend against using Subject as an intermediary to AMAUTO-1.

Advise.

14 April 1970.

Mr. JAVIER, from the Casa Conde of Vigo, calls HORACIO to say that they have had in Vigo for two months the ship VIA JAIBA (ph) for repairs and the captain has decided that it is best if the crew takes its month of vacation now and return later to the ship in Vigo. J adds the captain has to return to Cuba on Friday by CUBANA, but he has no visa and authorization must be requested from the General Department of Security. HORACIO takes down the captain's name: Eugenio LEOPOLDO PORTAL y PEÑA, Passport No. 038-534, issued 12 September 1969, Havana.

Nilda RUIZ calls Alicia FRANCO to instruct her that should someone go by claiming to be a relative of hers to say she has no cousins or relatives of any sort. AF tells her that person went by the Consulate the day before claiming to be her cousin and saying he was a Spaniard. NR contends she cannot imagine where he got that notion because she has no cousins, adding that her cousins are Catalonians and not from Gijón. AF says the man who came to the Consulate saying to be her cousin resembles NR, and describes him as having blue eyes, sort of blond, and tall. She then says it is an older married couple. According to NR, all her family comes from Catalonia. AF repeats this is an older married couple and their problems cannot be solved by the Consulate, rather they must be resolved there (in Cuba?), for as she says, "It is a boy who also claims to be a relative of yours and wants to come here, but that he has a brother in New York." NILDA says, "That is a bunch of lies..." N wants A to take down the name of that person if he should come back to the Consulate, so that she may find out who they are.

FRANCO talks with ALICIA and says that the case of the gusano who killed this wife is being handled by HORACIO.

Report No. 2536. 14 April 1970.

Raul GONZALEZ Romero calls ALDO (ph) to ask if VILLA ROYA is there, for he wants to talk with him. He is. ALDO ask the architect comrade how are things going regarding the lots. GR says everything they have seen has been interesting and it is good experience for they can compare and select. He adds that so far the lot on Paseo de la Habana is the best and this is precisely what he wants to tell José Miguel VILLA ROYA.

GONZALEZ ROMERO (to VILLA ROYA): After having seen what we have seen until now and after having checked everything yesterday afternoon--with this man next door--the possibility of resolving at this time the question of the frontón /pediment/, we think that the best lot we have seen, and the truth is that we should not let any more time go by because we might lose it, is the one one Paseo de la Habana. 7. The Station has now focused on a possible intermediary to an eventual approach to [illegible]. Of all the operations currently active or planned, we believe this operation will be the most demanding on the Station. (See OSMA [illegible], 18 March 1970.)

8. We have now pinpointed the home address of the mistress of Subject of 201-[illegible] and it is now a question of watching her movements. A lack of surveillance capability has placed a burden on Station personnel, but it is expected that a pitch will be made before the end of April, preferably by Perry D. WACHAL prior to his departure.

9. A dispatch was prepared and forwarded asking for Headquarters permission to use [illegible]-1 to make a recruitment pitch to Subject of 201-[illegible]. [illegible]-1 and Subject are former classmates and based on his assessment there might be a good chance to gain Subject's cooperation. (See OSMA 20085, 1 April 1970.)

10. Headquarters approval was received to mount operation AMCACTUS. [illegible]-37 will arrange all the details with AMCACTUS-1 and AMCACTUS-2. In an effort to make operation AMCACTUS as broad and flexible as operationally possible, the Station has commented on the use of the AMCACTUS devices in parallel operations. (See OSMA 20105, 8 April 1970.)

11. The PBRUMEN Government has approved the construction of a new official installation in Madrid which is expected to be completed within one year. The Station is actively pursuing this matter with the intention to install various audio devices in the new building. There will be a number of barriers to overcome since the PBRUMENs appear to want the building constructed by their own team of workers. The Station expects to work closely with [illegible] in this operation. (See OSMA 20040, 18 March 1970 and DIRECTOR 621511, 1 April 1970.)

Ruiz has been a Communist since before the days of Castro's regime. I think that he was a member of the old PSP. Just prior to 1959 Ruiz was operating clandestinely in the Dominican Republic trying to create an overthrow of Trujillo's regime. For this Trujillo reportedly wanted him dead, but Ruiz escaped and returned to Cuba. Castro appointed Ruiz Minister of Foreign Relations sometime during 1959. Ruiz filled this post until 1963 or 1964 at which time he was appointed Ambassador to Spain, a post that he still holds.

2. Ruiz is a well-educated individual with a degree in political economics from the University of Havana. All his prior secondary, and primary education was conducted in private institutions. Would appreciate your comments in turn. Pls return for an on going

Notes

1. Now that AMAUTO-1 is scheduled to go back to Cuba in mid-year, it is a bit late to begin the recruitment of an intermediary. We have information that he intends to go back to MININT rather than MINREX or even MINCEX, which makes the likelihood of his coming out again somewhat slimmer to say the least. I'm afraid that, although we have time only for a reasoned quick approach, this type of approach might lose him to us for good.

2. This causing him to become suspicious is not quite what we had in mind when we wrote ref B. We made, I think, a rather strong case for laying cards on the table with AMAUTO-1, and a slow development by a senior staff officer seemed to emerge from the possibilities. We even suggested how it might be done (through the gymnasium). That might be impossible, but the validity of the approach should deserve a comment.

3. An intermediary would be an access agent, so certainly he should be responsive. I can't consider this point to have any additional bearing on the matter. Of course it will be difficult, and I'm glad they're prepared to work on it.

4. I'd like to have had a chance to review the Dun & Bradstreet file on Carlitos, even tho the PCA has gone forward. CORRECTION: we have it.

5. A joint operation (in some ways) is the easy way out. We simply did not get started in time.

6. I disagree, because the question of commitments is somewhat premature, but I'd be willing to push for 750-1,000 a month while working in place, with a bonus when he does come out. For defection outright, which is a poor second, he might even be worth work to resettle him here. UBGA 19006 reported a 1964 attempt to get at Mrs. AMAUTO-1's relatives in Miami, and they might still be there. PerO haps they would sponsor. Everything, but everything depends on initial approaches and debriefings.

7. There are a lot of unanswered questions, posed in the outgoing, and I'd have appreciated a word about them: we have answered this one, we are working in tal manner on that one, etc.

a. The construction work on the new Embassy. There is a separate dispatch on this so all is on wheels.

b. The lonely automobile trips deserves looking into. No comment in the incoming.

In any case, they're on it, so I want to encourage as much as possible.

Pls tube back (DV-3) when you've had a chance to comment

1. There is little we can contribute to the exceptionally fine reports submitted by Headquarters on AMAUTO-1. His character, personality, physical and mental capabilities, and to some extent even his vulnerabilities, are succinctly outlined in your reports. In addition, you have appropriately recognized the Hurculean task we have, to overcome his strong-mindedness and idealistic character.

2. After a series of discussions among the officers involved with PBRUMEN operations at the Station, we have concluded that to execute a logically developed "traditional" recruitment, we are faced with the challenge to recruit a person, an intermediary, in whom AMAUTO-1 has confidence and respect; an individual who is able to plausibly carry on a polemic argument with AMAUTO-1 without either antagonizing him or causing him to become suspicious of the intermediary's true role. Moreover, the intermediary must be intelligent to be able to respond in an appropriate way to our instructions, as well as show a genuine willingness to cooperate. Frankly, we have no such person currently on our list of assets and to find someone with the attributes set forth in Reference A, will be difficult to say the least, but we are prepared to work diligently on this problem.

3. AMAUTO-1 confides in few people. From our reading of QUTIMID and QUDOZE, there are at least three persons who could logically and effectively fill the role as an intermediary. They are Identities A, B, and C. We can categorically eliminate Identity A for obvious reasons, i.e., lack of direct access to him. Because of his relationship to Identity D, we can also tentatively eliminate Identity B. He presents a risk which we are not certain should be taken; however, we would like to add a comment on him in a later paragraph. Identity C would seem to be the most logical choice. He is intelligent, a professional man, well-to-do, young and one with whom AMAUTO-1 frequently talks and whom he often sees. We know little about his political proclivities although he gives the impression of being a moderate analyst of world events and doesn't seem to have a strong affection or aversion for the PBRUMEN Government. We have a good background on him prepared for us by Dun and Bradstreet; however, as you can well imagine, the report concentrates on the economic side of the individual. We have made a number of attempts here in the Embassy to determine whether he has any American contacts, but with negative results. His visa file does not show where he visited in the United States or the purpose, except that it was a business trip. He has an indefinite visa and we are fairly certain that, if necessary, we could use the question of his visa as an entree to him. We are currently reviewing with all Station assets their knowledge of Identity C. In addition, we are also considering assets such as QUCASH-1 and QUSPOT-1, who could, under some legitimate business pretext, contact Identity C. Our objective is to develop a warm entree to Identity C without compromising any of our agents, but we are in need of an assessment of Identity C by either a Station Officer or an asset working under an officer's instructions. We will keep you advised of our progress. We are forwarding PRQ Part I under separate cover. A POA on Identity C was requested separately. There are no derogatory Station traces.

4. Identity B would be an excellent choice if not for his relationship with Identity D. This avenue might be explored with QUSEQUIN-48 if Headquarters is agreeable to a joint operation. QUSEQUIN-48 could probably get the necessary clearances from Identity D directly, or from one of Identity D's aides, to contact Identity B. We will not pursue this until we receive your comments.

5. It is not too early to consider the emoluments we might want to offer to AMAUTO-1 at the time a pitch is made. As always they should be divided into two areas - for defection and for recruitment and work in place.

RYBAT TYPIC TECHS/Construction of New PBRUMEN Embassy

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Reference: OSMA 24774

1. The PBRUMEN government has approved the construction in Madrid of a new office building to be used as an Embassy, Commercial office and residence for the PBRUMEN Minister. The site has been identified and work is expected to begin soon, probably after the return of AMAUTO-1 from PBRUMEN, sometime within the next two weeks. The builders expect to complete the building within eight months.

2. QUSEQUIN-37 is far more confident than we are, about the possibility of getting access to the building during the construction phase to possibly install various audio devices. We believe this operation to be a formidable one and we might be challenged by the presence in Madrid of PBRUMEN security forces overseeing the construction, the presence of PBRUMEN electricians and other professions, complicating the access to the building. We believe AMAUTO-1 has the Romanian experience well in mind and most likely will do everything within his power to overcome the possibility of an audio penetration of his building.

3. We would be grateful for any information addressees might have on the general modus operandi of PBRUMEN security forces in areas where PBRUMEN official installations have been constructed. Have they used PBRUMEN technicians, electricians, construction engineers, etc? Also we would like to know whether the PBRUMENS have installed their own telephone system or have they generally relied on the system of the host country. We would appreciate too, any comments Headquarters or other addressees would like to make on the best course of action for the Station to consider. QUSEQUIN-37 believes he can get a copy of the blueprints after the plan is submitted for approval to the Spanish Government. He feels confident that he can probably get the Spanish telephone company to cooperate and possibly some of the sub-contractors, if there are any.

4. We have made the assumption above that Headquarters desires the Station to pursue this matter,; if not please advise.

1. According to QUTIMID on 26 February, Miss SUAREZ de Cepeda of the Grolier Company called AMAUTO-1 and spoke with his secretary to explain that her company is giving their book to a number of persons in order to obtain their opinions about the product and AMAUTO-1 was one of the persons on Grolier's list. AMAUTO-1's secretary said that he would call when he returned. Later, Miss SUAREZ was told that an appointment was made for 10 March.

2. This would appear to be a routine item which probably would not merit further investigation, unless we can discover someone of higher caliber in the Grolier Company who could approach AMAUTO-1 as a means of cultivating a meaningful friendship with AMAUTO-1.

SUBJECT Problems of Cuban Mission in Madrid with Lack of Response from Havana

ACQ Spain, Madrid (2 February 1970) FIELD NO. OSM 9937

SOURCE An official Spanish service from a usually reliable source who was able to read the memorandum reported below.

1. In a memorandum dated 30 January 1970 to Carlos A. Neira Garcia, official of the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Cuban charge d'affaires in Madrid Guillermo Ruiz Perez outlined the salient current problems of most concern to his mission:

a. Building construction. Ruiz submitted a proposal to Havana in December 1969 for the construction of a building to house all the mission offices including the embassy, the consulate, the commercial office, the Cubana Airlines office, and possibly the minister's residence. Ruiz had not received a concrete reply to the proposal and he urged Neira to take it up again with the ministry.

b. Radio facility. Responding to a request from the Director of the Cuban National Fishing Institute, Emilio Aragones Navarro, in December 1969, Ruiz applied to the Spanish authorities for permission to install a radio facility in the Canary Islands for communicating with Cuban ships. The permission had been granted by late December yet Havana had failed to follow up the project with plans and instructions.

c. Visa delays. Havana is consistently late in processing visa requests for foreigners traveling to Cuba. Ruiz attributed the delays to the red tape which involves processing the requests through two ministries; The Visa Section in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the Directorate of Immigration in the Ministry of Interior. Ruiz requested authorization for the consulate to send its visa requests directly to the Directorate of Immigration since this is the section that ultimately determines whether a foreigner may or may not enter Cuba.

SUBJECT
TYPIC/QUTIMID/U.S. Company in Touch with Cuban Embassy, Madrid

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. QUTIMID reported a 21 January 1970 conversation held between the wife of the Cuban Charge in Madrid and a Miss "Lourdes" speaking for the Grolier Company in New York. Miss Lourdes said that her company was undertaking some type of publicity and wished to interview the Charge in this regard. When questioned about what kind of work the company does, Miss Lourdes replied that Grolier is an investigation (studies) and consultant firm with central office located in New York City. Lourdes gave her local number as 233-7448. She was advised that the matter would be brought up to the Charge, Guillermo RUIZ, and she would be informed of the results later.

2. Later that day Aristides DIAZ Ruvirosa, the Embassy's press officer and a member of the DGI, called back to say that he would see her the next day in his office at 10:30.

3. According to QUSEQUIN, telephone 233-7448 is registered in the name of Isaac BENDAHAN Sananes at Calle General Moscardo 6, 6th floor, Apt. C, Madrid. There are no Station or liaison traces on BENDAHAN.

4. DO Base New York may be able to identify the Grolier Company in New York and the reason for which their representative was in touch with the Cuban Embassy.

5. Whatever follow-up action is conducted, the sensitivity of the QUTIMID operation should be kept firmly in mind so that our interest does not appear to stem from a technical monitoring of the Cuban installation.

Report No. 259 (Cont'd). 27 JAN 1970

I told her that I personally regretted it, as an individual and as Cuban, but that as a diplomat I could not do her any favor because she had left Cuba voluntarily, in flight, and that I could not render any assistance to her and least of all protect her. If I had then been able to take pictures, I could have sent them to Havana for them to see (This happened when RUIZ had first arrived here.)

RUIZ goes on to say that many people are misled when they arrive in Madrid from Cuba, or have been misled by their relatives. Parents bring their children--RUIZ says there are over 400 Cuban children in one school. One of them left /school/ once and passage had to be provided for him at the airport in CUBANA and allowed him to leave because they did not want to be mixed up in that affair. The child was 14 years old and did not want to stay in Madrid in the parrochial school with the monks. R says that should anything happen to him and his wife wants to stay in Madrid, he wants his children to return to Cuba and remain there until they become of age and make their own choice, but that to take children out of Cuba is a mistake.

NILDA is typing while RUIZ is out of the office. CURBELO comes in and she tells him a cable arrived granting her permission to travel to Havana, but that she will not be going because RUIZ became annoyed. She adds that RUIZ is very selfish.

NILDA and RUIZ discuss her trip. R asks her if she is going; she says 'no' because he does not want her to go. Apparently he tells her to go home that instant and get ready, after she tells him that she has no time to take out her summer clothes, etc. She declines by saying that he has already ruined everything. She goes on to say that she had not asked MELVA or anyone else for her passage, but had written to RUZ (ph) saying that she was very depressed and that she missed her son very much, and they had arranged for her passage. NILDA adds that she is not going on a pleasure trip, but to see her son and see how he is doing, which she finds only natural. She would have stayed with him for two whole days and would have talked to the School Director and found out how the child was doing. She calls R selfish and says if the trip had been for him she would not have doubted it. She wants to know why RUIZ places objections to her trip to Havana. He wants the two of them to go together, and for her to wait until their vacation, not at this time. She contends it is because he does not want to stay by himself, as she knows him well after 16 years of living together.

other such things. This amount could be reduced if we bring our Cuban architects, who were here two years ago, and knowledgeable of their mission could discuss with the land owner and the construction firm those things they feel could be omitted and the price could be brought down considerably. We do not need a luxury building, but one that is attractive, simple and functional. Term payments could also be extended. I want to impress upon you that when we entered into negotiations we had a binding agreement.

"The lot is on Avenida La Habana. Fermín GUTIERREZ looked well into this matter. He asked me to send him the project and that he would look at it. The system of payments in Spain allows us to pay $100,000 or $150,000 annually which will not be difficult for us.

"NEIRA, I want you to talk to CHAIN, not bearing pressure on him, but to make him understand that what I want is to leave my successor established, for any construction , lasting over nine months I certainly will not be able to enjoy.

"Another thing I want to bring to your attention is in regard to our Consulate, its activities and relations with the Visa Section. A letter has come from VERA addressed to FRANCO pointing to FRANCO's incorrect wording of a cable to that Section. I agree that it was incorrect, but I

There is another unidentified Cuban in the office. When RUIZ is left alone with her, he says that he feels like an exile, that he has been out for two years and is tired. There are many who want to be out of Cuba, he continues, but it seems to him they want to keep him out of the way. He goes on to say that LEON had appointed him, and supported him, but although they are good friends, he does not like to work with a man whom one never knows what he is thinking, and one never gets to know. R mentions a cable he had sent and says it could have cost his assassination,and that he had purposely done so to see if he were summoned to discuss the matter in Cuba. He would have liked to discuss it there, but they have apparently remained silent. R laments he feels as if he were in Miami.

MATOS: I don't know what you mean, miss.

NILDA: Well, because none of the comrades here is going to allow himself to be provoked. So, please do not keep on."

MATOS: Well, I don't know what you are referring to, miss, I am completely astonished.'

NILDA: Well look, don't be astonished, you might end up some other way.

MATOS: I don't know what you are talking about.

NILDA: Well, we do.

NILDA hangs up.

Mrs. MATOS calls the Ambassador's secretary again; it seems there has been a misunderstanding.

NILDA: Look miss, we do not wish to talk to you anymore. We are telling you in a nice way. Please do not call anymore.

MATOS: I am not going to call again... I only want to say I had nothing to do.,. I know nothing at all.

NILDA: Aren't you the one who called the other day? You made a date.

MATOS: What kind of a date?

NILDA: Didn't you make a date with the Charge d'Affaires?

MATOS: No, no,no. One moment, miss. I received a telephone call and was told to call this gentleman, the Cuban Ambassador. I could also tell you about another ambassador, but that they were trying to get in touch with me.

NILDA: Who are'they'? To whom do you refer when you say that 'they' called you?

MATOS: I was called on behalf of the Ambassador of Chile and the Ambassador of Cuba. I thought it was extremely unusual, miss, because I don't know anyone here.

NILDA: Didn't you call here a few days ago?

MATOS: I called when I was advised to do so.

NILDA: And you made a date with the Ambassador.

MAŒOS: I don't know now what exactly did happen. I was asked to talk with him and to get in touch with him, miss.

NILDA: But, who called you, miss?

MATOS: Whoever it was said "I am the Cuban Ambassador," so then it all seems to have been a plot, or something of the sort.

NILDA: Look, if it is a plot I suggest you do not get involved because where we are concerned it is somewhat dangerous.

MATOS: No miss, I am very proper and a serious person.

NILDA: Since you are so serious and proper don't ever let anything happen to you.

MATOS: I live with a daughter and you must realize that I live only for her.

NILDA: Well, look, if you live for her, don't get mixed up in these things for they may cost you dearly.

MATOS: Very well, miss. I am deeply grateful to have been enlightened by you. I can see already that it is simply a plot or an implication by someone.

NILDA: It is a plot and we know it. And we know who is behind it.

MATOS: Yes, miss, I would also like to know, I assure you.

NILDA: Well look, stay away from this mess or you'll pay dearly... good-bye.

MATOS: Fine, miss. I am also very grateful that you have told me. My apologies, huh?

with the Minister who told him that next week they would discuss the matter of costs and that the Minister was in favor of Ruiz' idea. Ruiz asks Villaroya to wait a few days more and in the event that they receive bad news they will have a few drinks together at the Castellano to forget their sorrow. Ruiz says he is very anxious to move out of the place he is in, and aks how long it will take to construct bhe building. Villaroya tells him about 9 or 10 months. Ruiz says that most likely he won't be there to inaugurate the building because his tour is ending in Spain, but that he will come from wherever he is for the inauguration.

Item.1.- PILOTO CALLS YOLANDA. He asks for the address of the school. She says it is Cuadalquivir 16.

Item 3.- AN UNIDENTIFIED COMRADE CALLS THE HOSTAL GENEVA. A Cuban answers. The Comrade asks to speak to Antonio CASADO. The Cuban(F) says he is not there that he is on a trip to New York. The comrade leaves no message.

Item 4.- ARISTIDES RUIZ CALLS UNESCO IN PARIS, tel. 56-65-757. (The connection is poor) Ruiz greets MARTINEZ MOREL(phon-he seems to be Cuban) and tells him that he (Aristides) arrived Saturday and that he is leaving on Sunday (1 February) for Cuba. He asks for MILT(phon) and Martinez says that up to Monday he hadn't arrived.

Aristides asks to speak with extension 4111. They don't answer. He then asks for 4110 and an American, whose name seems to be Frank, answers. They speak lengthily in English about the installation of television in two Cuban schools. They also speak about films and the financing of the projects, mentioning the Swedes and the people of UNICEF.

Item 23.- PILOTO CALLS CUCA (It is 10:30 PM). They speak for a long time although Piloto is a little worried and nervous. He says "--the one on guard today is one of the bad ones and besides this, he is with his wife". He tells Cuca that as the offices are carpeted you can't hear anyone's footsteps--and he is afraid they will hear him. He remarks, "The people here have got me very nervous".

3 February 1970

Item 11.- DR. MACORRA CALLS HORACIO. This doctor has just had an operation and now that he is well again he wants to renew his connections(with Horacio) because he has to go to Cuba to give a course in the Cuban Society for Oncologicos(phon) Studies. Mercedes asks for his full name, which is LUIS DE LA MACORRA, tel. 261-12-83, home telephone 200-93-52.

Later, referring to the same subject Pepe says "the last new people (that have arrived?) are alcoholics ? ? but if you only know, things are better at least with regard to us, peace and charity".

10 February 1970

Item 18.- The second tape begins with part of a conversation between Piloto and Cuca around dinner time. Cuca says that her mother is 55 years old and her father is 57. Her mother she says has had six children. Piloto mentions the difference in age between him and Cuca; he says 12 years is a lot. Piloto says he continues to lose weight.

11 February 1970

Item 3.- CONCHITA CALLS NILDA.- She says that the place where she bought the radio is called BARROSO and it is at Lavapies 45. Nilda talks to Alicia. She says that she had a very nice time (in Havana), but that the weather was very bad; it rained a lot and it was cold. Nilda was with (in Havana) Alicia's children. She says that they got very good marks in their studies and the little one can read and they are very happy. Nilda also spoke with Alicia's mother-in-law. She is suffering from la pres ion (high or low blood pressure) and she has not been able to get the necessary medicine. Then Nilda speaks of her own son. She says he is very tall and thin and that he is working in tobacco. She says he is in Guane (phon), and as she couldn't make the trip as it was two and a half hours long, they sent the boy to her house and she was with him for a few days. She says the boy is very happy, he is a serious type and causes no problems. Apparently Nilda's mother is ill, according to her remarks. Alicia says it is better that Nilda's boy is in Cuba, because there he will become a man and solve his own problems.

[illegible]

Item 8.- VILLAMOYA, OF CONSTRUCCIONES AZAGRA CALLS RUIZ. He asks Ruiz about the project. Ruiz says that the news is good in the sense that it has been accepted in principle, and he believes everything is going along fine. But, they will have to wait. Ruiz thinks they will have a definite answer in about two weeks. He adds that they have great interest in this matter and also he would like to know definitely.

Item 20.- Someone REMARKS that Piloto "is seldom (in the embassy) in the afternoons".

Guillermo RUIZ Pérez

DOB : Late January or early February 1930.
POST: Minister Plenipotentiary, accredited since 12 December 1967.
ADDRESS: Juan de Mena #8, Madrid.
TELEPHONES: 259-5956 (home), 221-7028 (office).

DOI : March 1970.

WIFE: Nilda VECIANA. Probably in her early thirties, she is pregnant and was due to have her sixth child in May 1970. However, her physician recommended forced labor (reasons unknown), which was scheduled for 17 April 1970. She has had difficulties with her pregnancy because of recurring fainting spells and overweight, which are being treated by Dr. HERNANDEZ and Dr. MATA (the latter ordered lab tests for Diabetes, the results of which are unknown).

Married for 16 years to Guillermo, Nilda is a pleasant woman who has not been known to quarrel openly with her husband or express political or religious opinions, although in this last respect she has recited the Lord's Prayer in front of Embassy personnel, which suggests that she may have been or is a practicing Catholic.

Mrs. Ruiz is a language teacher by profession (speaks English fluently), and is active in the Embassy as secretary to her husband and bookkeeper, but only on an informal basis.

Of rather weak personality /_Exception, see Attachment II; she was upset at the time_7, which is reflected in the way that she handles her five boys--"little beasts," according to Severina ORTIZ, the maid--, Mrs. Ruiz does not permit them to be punished severely and is always complaining that she does not spend sufficient time with them.

She is known to have lived in New York for five years in the fifties (on 48th St., three blocks from Times Square), a city that she likes very much. She goes shopping alone, and once even to the airport in a taxi (Juan Antonio CURBELO, the embassy security officer, did not like the idea) to wait for her husband's arrival from one of his trips. She seems to get along well with the wives of other Cubans in the staff.

Nilda travelled to Havana on 30 January 1970 to see her son Guillermito, and returned to Madrid on 11 February. Although RUIZ used her to send a lengthy memo to Carlos NEIRA, his superior at MINREX [for text see Attachment III], he was not very happy with her trip— an attitude that Nilda resented very much ("You are very selfish") until her husband changed his mind.

Her parents live in Havana (local telephone, 2-8130). [Cuban Telephone Directory lists that telephone number under Y. LAM, Calle 21 #3421, Marianao.]

CHILDREN :

1.- Guillermito ("Guille"). At 14 he is the oldest and is currently studying in Havana. He is very tall and thin. There were reports that he was unhappy in Cuba, and his father went to Havana on 16 October 1969 to solve a "personal problem" with Guillermito. If true, Guille no longer feels that way because on 26 December he was quoted to be very happy in his new school.

Guille was scheduled to cut cane after 10 January 1970, but was actually assigned to a tobacco farm in Guane early this year.

2.- Alejandro, who is nine years old (DOB: 15 Feb). According to those who know him he is a real "devil" and a good swimmer. He is taking guitar lessons, and goes to Colegio Estilo and Gimnasio Mascardó, Pilar de Zaragoza #99, Madrid.

3.- Ivan, who is about eight years old.

4.- Juan Carlos.

5.- Juliote.

All five are very spoiled and have caused several maids to leave their jobs. Severina ORTIZ bitterly complains that they show no respect for their parents. This is why she "hates" Mrs. Ruiz. There was another maid, Ana María, who was replaced because she did not look after the children. [Ana María is currently employed by the wife of Arístides DIAZ, who is leaving Spain definitively in August 1970.]

BACKGROUND : Guillermo RUIZ, familiarly known as El Guajiro, probably comes from a humble family in Cuba, as he lived in a solar [in Cuba, a slum dwelling] in Marianao and began to work when he was only 14 years old.

accpt says he has a degree from U. of Havana?

In the fifties he emigrated to the United States, travelling throughout the East Coast and holding minor jobs. In 1957 he began to work as an apprentice butcher for a Polish-American named Alexander SAMKO, who had a grocery store on Flagler St. in Miami. He did so well in attracting Latin-American customers to the store that he soon began to distribute meat in the area for SAMKO.

He has said that when he left Miami in 1958 he turned over to his brother a house in North Miami, a brand new car, and over a thousand dollars in the bank.

But his "success" could be traced, perhaps, to another acquaintance that he is known to have had.

At the time RUIZ and Major José María MOLEON Carreras, then another Cuban exile, were in contact with an American of Cuban descent known as Joe LOUIS or LUIS, an underworld figure who was competing with the Italians in the bolita racket in Tampa. RUIZ himself has told close associates that LUIS or LOUIS offered them $800 a month, plus car and expenses, to supervise "collections" in Miami.

Furthermore, LOUIS or LUIS even asked them to kill a man named FERNANDEZ, who was involved in the numbers game in Miami, for $5000 each.

In February 1958 RUIZ left Miami with Harry VILLEGAS Tamayo [a Captain in the Cuban Army, he has been seen at parties in foreign embassies in Havana with Major Manuel PIÑEIRO Losada, DGI chief] and three other members of the 26th of July Movement and entered Cuba clandestinely.

At the triumph of the Revolution Alexander SAMKO went to Havana, where he stayed for a week at RUIZ's home, and offered him a partnership in the business, which RUIZ rejected.

In 1960 he was one of 18 out of 5000 who were selected by the Ministry of the Treasury, where he was working, to take the full statistics course outlined by ECLA. The course, which lasted two years, included such subjects as mathematics, finances, democracy...and Marxism-Leninism.

One of his schoolmates at the time was Marta ARCOL, now director of the Art Museum of Havana.

In 1963 he was sent to Mexico, and after returning to Havana was appointed Chief of the Trade School at MINCEX, post that he held for two years.

In 1967 he was sent to Spain to replace Ramón CALZADILLA as charge d'affaires.

EDUCATION : Aside from the statistics course taken in 1960, RUIZ seems to lack, in the eyes of some observers, a solid, formal education. But he makes up for it by being an avid reader (five newspapers a day, plus books). This impression, however, may be wrong, for there are indications that he either studied or wanted to be a CPA.

He understands and speaks English and French (fluency unknown), and has undertaken to teach grammar to the embassy staff.

Sensitive to art, or so he says, he frequently complains of the general lack of culture in Cuba. His vocabulary level is rather low, cussing quite often in the presence of others.

RUIZ is well-versed in world affairs, and does have an understanding of international trade.

He has read some of the works of José Martí, whom he likes to quote. But there is another book that he also refers to repeatedly, Kim PHILBY's, the KGB spy who penetrated MI-6.

He is up-to-date on current intelligence publications.

HEALTH : Blond, baby-faced, and blue-eyed ("Very handsome," according to Anita, the young maid), RUIZ is known to be suffering from an undisclosed liver illness for which he takes a medicine called bilidis. Late in 1969 he was planning to go to Portugal on vacation following the advice of his physician, Dr. Pedro CABAS (telephones, 276-7746, 256-2294), but he did not make the trip. He coughs frequently, is used to cold weather, and was thinking of going to the same gymnasium as his son Alejandro.

He wears eyeglasses to correct astigmatism, and is known to like skin-diving, a sport that he practiced in Cuba.

In general terms, however, he enjoys good health.

EMPLOYMENT : There is no doubt that Guillermo RUIZ exercises the full authority that presumably he should have as Minister Plenipotentiary (relations between Cuba and Spain remain at this level because of Spain's refusal to appoint a full Ambassador after LOJENDIO was expelled from the Island by Fidel CASTRO).

He is involved in and kept informed of all matters that have to do with Cuban-Spanish relations, including trade. He does not permit commercial attachés to bypass him when they submit reports to their respective enterprises in Havana.

In addition, he supervises Cubana Air Lines operations, and no one may travel on Iberia to Havana without his permission (this applies only to Cubans, for tickets must be paid in foreign currency). Evidently he controls the Cuban Embassy in Lisbon, and Rafael FERNANDEZ Sardiñas, the chargé there, travels frequently to Madrid for consultations with RUIZ (" Our relations with Portugal are not very good now").

Cuban officials arriving in Madrid must consult with him before arranging visits to Spanish officials or factories, and only he, Juan Antonio CURBELO Lemes, Arístides DIAZ Rovirosa, and Roberto FRANCO Oliva, are authorized to issue visas for people travelling to Cuba.

He seems to have good working relations with Spanish Government officials because he is always careful to place all the "cards" on the table in his meetings with them.

Nothing is known about unofficial contacts with other diplomats in Madrid except that he is close to and exchanges information with the Algerian Ambassador.

At times he tries to give the impression, and this might be true, that he enjoys the full personal confidence of Osvaldo DORTICOS and Raúl ROA.

He frequently tells other Cuban diplomats stopping in Madrid that he makes 90% of the decisions without consulting Havana because that is "why I am here for."

Above all, he directs constant and bitter criticism against the bureaucracy in Havana because of its incompetence, which, in his opinion, will cause Fidel CASTRO to carry out a major purge after the 1970 sugar harvest comes to an end ("No one in Havana wants or cares to make a decision").

The Peter Principle /" In a hierarchy every employee tends to rise to his level of incompetence" 7, which he has read and is going to send to Fidel CASTRO for reading on the advice of Melba HERNANDEZ, should be taken as an example of what is happening in Cuba. Furthermore, in his view Havana is always trying to interfere with the Embassy in Madrid, resulting in lack of co-ordination and even co-operation. (To Horacio FUENTES Martínez: " More than lack of organization there is chaos in Cuba today.")

He directs almost the same criticism against his staff in Madrid because they lack qualifications for the posts that they hold. " They think that I am a fool," he once told an associate, "but I don't miss anything that they do."

In turn, he has also been the target of criticism from Havana, first from Sonia GOMEZ, who made a critical evaluation of the Embassy, which he decided not to answer ("I took a librium, smoked a cigar, and forgot all about it").

[Sonia GOMEZ, a MINREX inspector close to Vice-Minister Carlos CHAIN, was in Madrid in mid-February 1970 for another review of embassy accomplishments. But this time she seemed friendly with Guillermo RUIZ.]

On another occasion he complained to Arístides DIAZ that he had received one more critical report from Havana because the Embassy "had not achieved much," although they had done things that were not included in the yearly plan.

But perhaps the most serious censure of his activities came in by telex (" Why worry? The Americans and the Spaniards intercept all messages anyway") early in October 1969. Havana questioned the way RUIZ was handling trade negotiations with the Spanish Government. [The trade agreement was extended by mutual consent to 31 December 1972.]

In his reply addressed to Raúl LEON Torrás, first vice-minister of MINCEX and senior Cuban official directly responsible for the talks, Guillermo RUIZ defended his right to be "informed" and "consulted" in rather strong language. Therefore, he rejected that his cable number 521 was offensive to Joaquin ALVAREZ, a Cuban trade official who had been the source of the complaint.

In the last paragraph he told Raúl LEON that the indemnification question (payment to Spanish citizens who owned property in Cuba) depended on his reply to Don Pedro SALVADOR, a Spanish Foreign Office official, and not on "bribery" conjectures.

Evidently this last cable upset him so much that he was nervous and particularly security-conscious. Less than a week later, he called Raúl LEON Torras and requested permission to go to Cuba, ostensively to settle a "personal problem with my son."

When he returned to Madrid on 29 October he was a changed man, again fully confident of himself. Nevertheless, he has told close friends that he feels very lonely in Spain and has had the desire to simply board a plane and return to Cuba abandoning the Embassy.

Late in January 1970 he was again depressed, for he felt like an "exile" in Spain after two years of service (" Even though LEON played a part in my appointment I cannot work for a man that I do not understand. Maybe he sent me abroad to get me out of the way. I feel as if I were in Miami.")

He thinks he is "burned" in Spain, and when he returns to the Island he will definitely not go back to MINREX, but to MININT. He has told close friends his term in Spain is up and he will be returning to Cuba probably in the summer. In any event, he does not plan to be in Spain more than nine months. Nilda, his wife, has stressed that they are leaving Madrid permanently in July 1970.

POLITICAL AND IDEOLOGICAL VIEWS: Although outwardly a "revolutionary", Guillermo RUIZ is a man of moderate political views struggling to justify the actions of his government in face of the political and economic realities of Castro's Cuba.

In this sense his inner feelings perhaps lie closer to the theory of the betrayed revolution, but not for ideological reasons: the incompetence of the Cuban Government has in fact sabotaged the goals of the Revolution. ✓

A member of the Cuban Communist Party, to which he was admitted on the recommendation of Armando HART Dávalos, secretary of Organization, he is definitely not a convinced Marxist, and consequently cannot accept the role of "robot" required by Party discipline and vertical structure (" Revolutionaries should not be coerced by political control forms," he wrote Telesforo DIAZ Portillo, a MINREX official, on 26 December 1969. " Communists are quite meddlesome," he told another colleague soon after, although in this instance he may have been referring to the Spanish CP).

But the most important revelation of his views came to light on 11 December 1969, when he was quoted as telling a visiting DAP official from Havana: " If I disagree with orders, I question them because I am not a robot nor do I have the mentality of one. As a human being I express opinions no matter the risk that I may personally have to take."

Obviously, a man who thinks in this way cannot be a Marxist.

Aside from the constant criticism of Havana because of incompetence, lack of vision, and the unreal world they live in, he is quick to point out other deficiencies in life there, as reflected in his directive to the embassy staff not to celebrate Christmas together because there are "hungry people" in Cuba. But he did invite some of his associates for dinner on Christmas eve, the classical Spanish Nochebuena. He has also said that medicine in general is quite backwards in Cuba.

Probably an atheist, he is known to believe that "religion should not be considered a handicap for people trying to return to Cuba."

On the other hand, he refers to Latin-American diplomats as "bootlickers" because they use the English language in parties, and has remarked that "capitalism is no good".

RUIZ seems to have certain admiration for Francisco FRANCO, who, in his view, is the only reason why Spain has not turned communist. Of course, it is doubtful that he really believes this.

He does not hide his favorable opinions of the American people, who are "frank" and "simple". " They treated me very well," he told Raúl LEON Torras in December 1969.

On international matters he is up-to-date and well-informed. Following are some of his views, which are contradictory at times:

" Cuba is a political power, not a military or economic power.

" The USSR has neutralized U.S. sea power in the Mediterranean.

" Cuba can destroy Guantanamo whenever it chooses to do so, although the base has lost its strategic value to the United States.

" US-China rapproachment should be feared, but also a Japan-China alliance.

" U.S. power is beginning to crumble, but the Soviets are revisionists.

" The Egyptians harm us when they buy sugar from Cuba and then resell it to other countries.

"We have to be on the side of the Soviets for two reasons: first from the military and economic point of view; secondly, because whether right or wrong they are on the same side fighting those who are on the other side.

" Cuba has had and has major discrepancies with the USSR, China, and the U.S., but we are on the side of communism because we are against capitalism.

" Israel and Cuba have the same motivations. That is why they are so successful against the Arabs. They have no choice.

" The Egyptians and the Syrians are not brave. The Israelites, like the Cubans, are brave enough to face the enemy."

PERSONALITY : Guillermo RUIZ is an easy-going rather simple man who no doubt enjoys the prestige and success that he has had in Spain.

He has a strong personality, undoubtedly the predominant pole in his marriage. He seems to get along well with his wife. (" If anything should happen to me and my wife wants to remain in Spain, I want my children to go back to Cuba to study. Then they can decide for themselves what they want to do.")

Certain degree of racism can be detected in his speech, for he always refers to Negroes as niches, a contemptuous Cuban expression.

He almost never discusses women with colleagues, nor is he known to be involved in any extramarital affair.

[Possible exceptions: Vera VORODOWSKI, his secretary now in Cuba. There were rumors that RUIZ was the beneficiary of Vera's affection. There is also a young Spanish girl named JIMENA (lnu), who addresses RUIZ in the familiar tu. She lives in the house of Carmen LABRA or LABRADA.]

He likes to go to the movies (saw Topaz; no comments), and receive people at his home for cocktails.

SECURITY : It is normal for any member of the Cuban Foreign Service to exercise certain discretion in the area of security, but Guillermo RUIZ is particularly sensitive in this respect, which perhaps could be traced to his probable involvement with the DGI in one way or another.

He is quick to warn visiting Cubans of the CIA's efforts (" La Compañía Sociedad Anónima") to compromise them, even before leaving Havana. "Our Embassy," he says, "is the primary target for U.S. operations in Spain."

He keeps control of mail going to and coming from Havana in the diplomatic pouch, and states repeatedly that his office is bugged and telephone tapped (" There are microphones here the size of olives"). In addition, he thinks he is followed openly by Seguridad.

For all these reasons he has asked Havana for funds to build a new embassy, where he plans to have a shielded room free from microphones. (The building, which will cost approximately $600.000, was approved by Havana and a Cuban architect travelled to Madrid in late March 1970 to discuss the project with Sr. VILLARROYA, from Construcciones Azagra, who is handling the real-estate operation. Villarroya's telephone number is 254 4238.)

He is particularly aware of what he calls "traps", and in this sense recalls that once he was asked to dinner by the wife of a VIP, and after accepting the invitation he was told that someone else and a priest would attend too. Even though the lady in question was very upset, he did not go because one of those present could have been a "seditionist" ready to be "arrested" by the police. An inevitable scandal would have followed. He adds that he receives visits in the Embassy because there he admits only those that he wants to see.

An interesting item is the case of Conchita CAMACHO (telephone 201 4989), who called RUIZ at the Embassy claiming to have met him at a party and wanting to see him, alone, at the Hilton for a "chat". /See Attachments I and II./

Perfectly aware of the implications and seemingly in violation of his own rules, he did go to the hotel after ordering Horacio FUENTES to check the telephone number (" The CIA has a new agent"), in spite of the fact that Raúl LEON Torras was arriving in Madrid on that night.

He and Fernando, his driver, waited outside until the woman left the hotel with some men. RUIZ wanted only, so he says, to warn her not to get involved in matters between Cubans because she could "lose her life".

Regarding communications, Guillermo RUIZ has even suggested installing a radio transmitter and speaking in code with Havana. / The Cubans are in fact installing a radio transmitter on Islas Canarias to communicate with their fishing fleet. But RUIZ, in this particular case, has stressed to the Spanish Government that Cuba is willing to permit Spanish citizens to operate the station, thereby avoiding any suspicion that the transmitter will be used for other purposes._7

In spite of his security-consciousness, he himself is the target of certain control by Juan Antonio CURBELO Lemus, the "cultural" first secretary who in reality is the security man at the Embassy (RUIZ has complained that he needs a "real" one in Madrid: " Sergio /_DEL VALLE, minister of the Interior_7 told me they were getting someone ready to send as cultural attaché"), for CURBELO instructed the front-desk girl to pass on to him a summary of who sees who and for what, including RUIZ's visitors.

RUIZ likes to recall the time when a Cuban in his staff (name unknown, but presumably he is back in Cuba) spread the rumor that RUIZ and Nilda were not well-liked in Havana, perhaps to undermine his authority. CURBELO reprimanded the man by stressing that "when Havana is doubtful of anybody here in Madrid it uses official channels to let us know."

Nevertheless, he does make mistakes, as evidenced by discussing in his office, with members of his staff, the possibility of advising Havana that a Spanish foreign service officer scheduled for duty there might be open for recruitment. Recalling his constant warnings that his office is bugged by Seguridad, such discussion clearly exposes him to expulsion from Spain.

By the same token, he likes to travel by car to the interior of the country alone (he must have powerful reasons to do so, for he is risking attack by Cuban exiles, a possibility that he surely must not discard given the reception that they gave Armando HART Dávalos, Carlos CHAIN, and Carlos ALFARAS at Barajas Airport on 30 June 1968). Neither his wife nor CURBELO approve of this.

At times he is known to write on paper key phrases or names when discussing confidential matters in his office, or to speak very low. Furthermore, he says he goes to Parque del Retiro when he wants to discuss sensitive matters with anybody.

In short, he is security-conscious, very shrewd, and suspicious of anybody that comes near him.

TRAVEL : Following are the trips that Guillermo RUIZ made from October 1969 to February 1970:

To Havana to settle a "personal problem" on 20 October 1969 by Iberia (first class), returning to Madrid on 29 October.

To London on 14 November 1969 for consultations with Raúl LEON Torras, returning two days later by air (also first class).

To Bilbao, San Sebastian, and Burgos, by car, on 28 November 1969, returning two days later.

To Italy from Barcelona with his wife and two children on 29 December 1969. He went to pick up an Alfa Romeo, which he paid out of his own funds. They returned through Florence, Genoa, San Remo, and Barcelona, arriving in Madrid on 6 January 1970.

To Burgos by car with REGALADO (fnu) and URQUIZA (fnu) on 24 January 1970.

To Havana on 20 February 1970. He was scheduled to participate in trade negotiations with the Spanish delegation that left Madrid on 22 February 1970. RUIZ returned to Madrid on 24 March 1970.

FRIENDS : Not much is known about Guillermo RUIZ's personal acquaintances, except for the following:

Pedro RUIZ.- A good friend who goes to his home rather frequently, Pedro is quite influential according to Guillermo. He is also a friend of MASSO (fnu).

Carlos or Enrique CARRASCO.- He is a partner of Carrasco, Muñoz e Iturriaga, with offices at Avenida Generalísimo #28, 10th floor. RUIZ meets with him often, either for lunch or at his home. They seem to be good personal friends. CARRASCO may have to do with arrangements for the sale of Cuban frozen seafood. Travelled to New York late in October or early November 1969. RUIZ is known to have visited CARRASCO's office.

Rosendo CANTO.- Lives at Goya #54, Madrid. His friendship with RUIZ may be interesting if he is the same Rosendo Canto who was a well-known batistiano (probably his father). If this is the case contacts with RUIZ are politically dangerous for the latter, unless he is using CANTO with the approval of Havana. According to Roberto FRANCO Oliva, the consul, CANTO wanted to go to Cuba, live there for a year, and then join the Cuban Foreign Service ("He is a fool," RUIZ). CANTO's father is ill in Cuba and sends him mail through the Cuban diplomatic pouch. CANTO is involved with the diplomatic representation of Equatorial Guinea.

Armando FERNANDEZ.- "A good friend," says RUIZ. But he has doubts about FERNANDEZ's source of income ("Maybe he gets money directly from Havana without my knowledge"). FERNANDEZ sends a "lot of things" to Cuba. He is an artist, and lives at Bondad #1 (telephone, 255-3281). Armando claims to know Fidel CASTRO and Celia SANCHEZ personally. It may be true, for he received a package at the embassy from the latter in March 1970. However, he asked the Cuban staff to send it to him because he "did not want to be seen taking something out of the embassy." FERNANDEZ's father has cancer.

following up.

JIMENEZ Asenjo, deputy director of the Spanish Dirección General de Seguridad. Knows RUIZ personally, and is in contact with him rather often, but presumably in the line of duty.

SUMMARY : Guillermo RUIZ is a very shrewd, articulate individual who has reached heights that in all probability would have been beyond his capability in normal circumstances.

Nevertheless, from what can be seen his work in Spain has been effective, and he keeps a tight control over his staff. He is a man confident of himself and of the backing [Armando HART Dávalos ?] that he surely must have in order to remain in this sensitive post of the Cuban foreign service.

Precisely because of his privileged status RUIZ is very careful in whatever he does, avoiding mistakes that would endanger his position.

Therefore, he will probably resist any indirect approach, which he will recognize in time to brush it off.

But this does not mean that he is unapproachable, for he is not. There is no question that his personality is incompatible with the system that he serves, although with profound misgivings as to its efficiency. It is then a question of how and when.

The very fact that he has made open remarks suggesting his unhappiness with Havana and his non-Marxist leanings in an office "bugged by the other side," as he points out, could be interpreted as a signal on his part indicating that he is ready to listen.

But he will be suspicious of an indirect or subtle approach, which, in his view, could be a trap to compromise him, including a loyalty test by the DGI.

Consequently, a direct approach has much better chance of success. It would be proof for him that he is walking on firm ground by dealing directly with Americans. Which leads to the question of when . There are two key factors to consider :

a) His recall to Cuba.

b) The 10-million ton sugar harvest, which is scheduled to end on 15 July 1970.

RUIZ has indicated that he is unhappy in his post--perhaps not really meaning what he says--, which he has occupied for over two years.

As he has said that Fidel CASTRO plans a major purge after the 1970 sugar harvest, he himself may be one of the targets. Assuming that his ideological inconsistencies have been noticed, the DGI, in the absence of proof regarding his loyalty and considering whatever support he has in Havana, may request his recall at an appropriate opportunity: during a major reorganization of the Cuban Government.

In any event, RUIZ does not expect to remain in Madrid much longer, and is planning to be back in Havana by the 18th of July.

If Cuba is successful in harvesting 10 million tons of sugar, and they have already reached six, the "victory" that Cuban propagandists will herald from July on may have a psychological impact on RUIZ's thought. He will be less inclined to defect, in place or otherwise, at such time.

SECRET

Finally, if RUIZ's personality were to be summarized in one word, that word would be realist with a logical mind. Above all, this is what RUIZ is.

Report No. 2274.

9 January 1970.

One 'Miss' CONCHITA calls asking for RUIZ. NILDA says she is his secretary and CONCHITA may leave the message with her. C would like to surprise him. NILDA asks for her last name; C does not give it to her because it would then fail to be a surprise, but leaves her telephone number (201-49-69) for R to call her after 8, for she works until that time. On NILDA's insistence C gives her last name as CAMACHO, adding she is the widow of the doctor who was director of the Coimbra Hospital.

RUIZ calls Mrs. CAMACHO at 201-49-69. She begins the conversation by saying they had met at a party which she had attended with her husband at the Dominican Embassy in Madrid. She reminds him that they had talked with the Paraguayan Ambassador and former Dominican Ambassador Rafael COMPRES, and that the party had taken place two years ago. Despite all the details RUIZ insists he does not remember her and asks how he can be of service to her. She tells him "I have just arrived and find myself somewhat isolated, disoriented, and I must find work. I recall you telling me on that ocassion 'If you should ever have any problem and you come to Madrid, look me up.' One other ambassador also offered me his assistance and I have tried to locate both of you." Mrs. C mentions having a daughter, that her husband was a pilot and that she is a Spaniard, adding she is not too old. R replies that in all honesty he does not remember her. She insists on seeing him to have a chat, and R suggests she come to his office at her convenience. She prefers talking with him alone, without his secretary or anyone else present, and suggests a bar at some hotel like the Palace, Ritz or Hilton. He is agreeable to any place she may desire; they agree to meet that night at 9:30 in the lobby of the Hilton Hotel. She will be dressed all in black.

RUIZ calls FERNANDO F is to meet R outside the latter's home about 9 o'clock dressed in coat and tie.

HORACIO calls the telephone company requesting the address for telephone number 201-49-89. The information is denied.

RUIZ calls PILOTO to have him meet RAUL LEON in Barajas that night. RUIZ is unable to do so because of a previous engagement.

FERNANDO calls CURBELO to ask for PUGA's phone number. F wants to tell P he cannot meet the professor at P's house that night because he (F) has to take RUIZ somewhere.

Report 2288. 22 January 1970

Mrs. Concepción CAMACHO de MATOS calls RUIZ. NILDA asks if she is the same person who called the other day and said she was the widow of... (MATOS). The woman says 'yes' and NILDA tells her: "Look Miss, you're playing a very dangerous game."

MATOS: I don't know what you mean, miss.
NILDA: Well, because none of the comrades here is going to allow himself to be provoked. So, please do not keep on.
MATOS: Well, I don't know what you are referring to, miss, I am completely astonished.
NILDA: Well look, don't be astonished, you might end up some other way.
MATOS: I don't know what you are talking about.
NILDA: Well, we do.
NILDA hangs up.

Mrs. MATOS calls the Ambassador's secretary again; it seems there has been a misunderstanding.

NILDA: Look miss, we do not wish to talk to you anymore. We are telling you in a nice way. Please do not call anymore.
MATOS: I am not going to call again... I only want to say I had nothing to do... I know nothing at all. ... Only that I have received a message. I received a telephone call... I have just arrived in Madrid, I am not familiar with Madrid, or know anyone.
NILDA: Aren't you the one who called the other day? You made a date.
MATOS: What kind of a date?
NILDA: Didn't you make a date with the Charge d'Affaires?
MATOS: No, no. no. One moment, miss. I received a telephone call and was told to call this gentleman, the Cuban Ambassador. I could also tell you about another ambassador, but that they were trying to get in touch with me.
NILDA: Who are 'they'? To whom do you refer when you say that 'they' called you?
MATOS: I was called on behalf of the Ambassador of Chile and the Ambassador of Cuba. I thought it was extremely unusual, miss, because I don't know anyone here.

NILDA: Didn't you call here a few days ago?
MATOS: I called when I was advised to do so.
NILDA: And you made a date with the Ambassador.
MATOS: I don't know what exactly did happen. I was asked to talk with him and to get in touch with him, miss.
NILDA: But, who called you, miss?
MATOS: Whoever it was said, "I am the Cuban Ambassador," so then it all seems to have been a plot, or something of the sort.
NILDA: Look, if it is a plot I suggest you do not get involved because where we are concerned it is somewhat dangerous.
MATOS: No miss, I am very proper and a serious person.
NILDA: Since you are so serious and proper don't ever let anything happen to you.
MATOS: I live with a daughter and you must realize that I live only for her.
NILDA: Well, look, if you live for her, don't get mixed up in these things for they may cost you dearly.
MATOS: Very well, miss. I am deeply grateful to have been enlightened by you. I can see already that it is simply a plot or an implication by someone.
NILDA: It is a plot and we know it. And we know who is behind it.
MATOS: Yes, miss. I would also like to know, I assure you.
NILDA: Well look, stay away from this mess or you'll pay dearly... good-bye.
MATOS: Fine, miss. I am also very grateful that you have told me. My apologies, huh?

Attachment III

Report No. 262. 30 January 1970.

RUIZ records following memorandum on tape:

"Comrade NEIRA.- I take this opportunity that NILDA is going to Havana to bring to your attention some of our problems here in Spain.

"The first pertains to the construction project for a building which I sent to CHAIN with the President of the National Bank when he passed through here in December, and to this day, after five weeks, I have not received an adequate answer. You know that when preliminary negotiations are initiated one enters into certain obligations with the land owners as well as with the construction firm, to whom we must give an answer.

"On my insistence, Comrade ROA gave me... sent a cable informing me that as yet the budget had not been approved and he could not give me the results.

"Present locales do not meet the Spanish minimum requirements for working space. CURBELO brought from Havana proposals for the leasing of a locale for the Commercial Office with a rental fee of $2,000 a month. We discussed this proposal at a meeting of comrades here and it was rejected in the belief that it was more advantageous for us to buy. We also discussed this with Fermín GUTIERREZ, who visited the Commercial Office and to whom we pointed out that in view of the system of payment here in Spain it was better to purchase a building, since this transaction at no time would affect our system in our trade policy with Spain.

"To the point of being persistent we should like to request a building for all services: the Cuban Office, the Commercial Office, the Consulate-Embassy Office, plus living quarters on the top floor for the diplomatic Representative, something with which I am not in complete accord. In summary, a building which would offer maximum security and freedom of movement. The Commercial Office would occupy the first floor, the Embassy, the second floor, and the third floor the living quarters for the Chief of the Mission. This would resolve all our local problems and our representation in Spain.

SECRET

"This construction firm built for the Rumanian representation in Spain and is now building for the Polish and others. We have been quoted a fixed price of $600,000 which includes a luxury building, with glass windows, air-conditioned, and other luxuries. This amount could be reduced if we bring our Cuban architects, who were here two years ago, and knowledgeable of their mission could discuss with the land owners and the construction firm those things they feel could be omitted and the price could be brought down considerably. We do not need a luxury building, but one that is attractive, simple and functional. Term payments could also be extended. I want to impress upon you that when we entered into negotiations we had a binding agreement.

"The lot is on Avenida La Habana. Fermín GUTIERREZ looked well into this matter. He asked me to send him the project and that he would look at it. The system of payments in Spain allows us to pay $100,000 or $150,000 annually which will not be difficult for us.

"NEIRA, I want you to talk to CHAIN, not bearing pressure on him, but to make him understand that what I want is to leave my successor established, for any construction not lasting over nine months I certainly will not be able to enjoy.

"Another thing I want to bring to your attention is in regard to our Consulate, its activities and relations with the Visa Section. A letter has come from VERA addressed to FRANCO pointing to FRANCO's incorrect wording of a cable to that Section. I agree that it was incorrect, but I find it strange that that Section should pay so much attention to correct forms and analyze the contents so little. The contents of things are not being studied, and it is essential that deep thought be given to the work that is being done. When someone comes to the Consulate with an authorization to travel to Cuba, it is usually three or four days prior to flight departure. Since the Visa Section must defer to the Department of Emigration for its authorization, inasmuch as the latter determines whether or not a foreigner can go into Cuba, the process is not carried out with the urgency that it requires, consequently, there is delay. This creates much inconvenience for us, and even personal problems, for we must consider that often people arrive with the exact amount of money and a week's delay could hurt them so that at times they don't even have enough money for lodging or food.

"At present we have the case of a member of the Chilean Communist Party and OSPAAAL whose passage has been set aside by these organizations to travel from Madrid to Cuba. Four days ago FRANCO sent a cable and still there is no answer. We made the decision to grant this person a visa because the plane leaves tonight, otherwise he will have to delay the trip one more week. If the tickets were reserved for him here there is no doubt he has been given authorization.

"NEIRA, I want you to talk to OJEDA and request that our Consulate be able to contact the Emigration Department directly. FRANCO has been on the job for approximately one year and has never given reason for complaints, but if he has now made a mistake in the editing of a cable it could have been that in the face of mounting problems he is presented with daily he might have exploded.

"Another thing I want to tell you is that last night we had as guests in our home the Chilean Director Hugo BENAVENTE and his wife, the leading lady in his Peruvian company which has brought to the stage "Luz de Europa". If they are not communists in the sense of the word, like the rest of the company, they do sympathize with us. They invited PINEDA to attend the premiere, and he answered with a cable which was shameful to see and read. The wording of that cable gives the impression that PINEDA is being held captive and asks them to please come to his help and send for him. He makes us look ridiculous. Just think that cable has been read by others before they showed it to me. The political position of PINEDA and other Cuban writers should be investigated, as now they are putting up on stage "La Noche de los Asesinos" and they also want another Cuban writer to come. I should like to get your advice in this area as I am totally ignorant of matters related to culture, for we have no cultural attaché here.

"There is also the following problem: The comrades in the fishing /department/, specifically Comrade ARAGONES, are interested in having a radio communications station to contact ships on the high seas. In this regard I spoke to Mr.ASENJO in the Security Department who said there was no inconvenience on his part if they requested it and took the necessary steps. You know Mr. ASENJO. I saw him a month ago and he had asked me if we had decided not to go ahead with it, as there had not been an answer in that regard after having obtained authorization from the General Administration of Security which was the most difficult step.

"Comrade Joaquín ALVAREZ reports that in reference to the letters left here by LEON for the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and of Commerce here in Spain, the former is taking an offensive position in foreign relations as you can see, and the Minister of Commerce has been quite busy, for the entry of Spain in the Common Market is almost a fact and conversations are in progress. This is why they have assigned to Mr. SANTAMARIA, General Director of Commercial Policy, the study of subjects which the Spanish side plans to take up in Havana during the negotiations in February. I am in touch with this man and in fact had to call him up today, for he had said that before giving me the agenda of subjects to be discussed there was to be a meeting of Ministries to include Foreign Affairs, Commerce, Information and Tourism, plus others, to determine what was to be discussed in Cuba and decide on other matters.

"Because Mr. SANTAMARIA was not in this morning, he has promised to call me at 6:30 this afternoon, but he will not find me here because I'll be taking NILDA to the airport.

"Tell Joaquín ALVAREZ that regarding the 50-million credit request from Cuba to Spain for 1970, there has been no confirmation inasmuch as we have been unable to talk with the present Secretary of Commerce. We find the figure somewhat high but have no basis for judgment to focus on any area.

"You must have heard already about the success of our reception. Not only because of the number, which was quite high, but because of the quality of the attendants. We had to use two rooms. We had prepared only one but when the Minister arrived it became necessary to open another room. There was representation from the ultra-right to the ultra-left. This has been a great triumph for us considering that in these countries the quality of people attending these events is taken well into account.

"Comrade NEIRA, an embrace for you and for those working with you. I hope when SONIA comes over she brings a project for 1970 that can be fully undertaken by us. We are very bad at making projects. This past year we did many things that had not been planned, while others that were planned remained undone, but with last year's experience we shall strive to plan better.

"Take charge of my wife's return. I have given her permission for one week and no more, for I do not like to act as babysitter--they are four children and although they are my own I do not care for it. Greetings to all my comrades and you do the cutting of the cane for I have been unable to cut. A hug."

1. Headquarters has just completed, with the able help of AMEDIT-2, a thorough review of QUDOZE tapes for the last quarter of 1969. We have added pertinent file material where necessary in order to round out the picture, but the review emerges primarily as an assessment of AMAUTO-1 as a personality and as a recruitment target. We forward this study as an attachment hereto, under separate cover, for your consideration.

2. Headquarters has not lost its keen interest in AMAUTO-1 as a long-range recruitment target, foreseeing the possibility of defecting him in place (at least for the remainder of his posting to Madrid), or defecting him outright (which would admittedly be less desirable). In line with these purposes, we offer the following readings, which may or may not be entirely applicable to AMAUTO-1:

a. AMAUTO-1 is a shrewd, articulate person who has reached heights that probably he might not have reached under normal circumstances. His work in Spain has been effective in general, and he seems to be very confident of himself and of the backing which he thinks he has from PBRUMEN.

b. Nevertheless, he has received some rather telling criticism of a professional nature, even though it is unknown whether this criticism also touches on his personal life. Perhaps because of this, AMAUTO-1 seems to be very careful in whatever he does, avoiding mistakes that would endanger his position, and avoiding any real or fancied provocation.

c. There seems to be little question that AMAUTO-1 is approachable, although he would probably resist any indirect approach in which "cards are not laid on the table." It appears very likely that his character is basically incompatible with the system he serves (with profound misgivings as to its efficiency).

d. The very fact that he has made open remarks suggesting his unhappiness with PBRUMEN and his non-Marxist leanings in an office he himself points out is "bugged by the other side" could be interpreted as a signal from him, indicating that he is ready to listen. His remarks on the subject might be those of a man who believes he can "jump off" at any time, if necessary. Note that he tends to live with criticism from his home office rather than try to get out from under --- perhaps meaning that he would not accept a PCS assignment home. (The attachment hereto shows him describing a compatriot who wishes to return home as "a fool.") He has said himself that he believes AMTHUG-1 plans a major purge for mid-1970, and he might consider himself as a victim of that purge.

e. A fact which might affect timing is the arrival of a child in May. If he were to persuade his wife (and his government) to have the child in Spain, rather than return home for it, he would have a good excuse for requesting the presence of his oldest child (the only one who is now at home). If his wife returns home for delivery, he would (for a time at least) have three hostages in PBRUMEN instead of one.

f. UFGA-19006 reported a 1964 attempt to get at AMAUTO-1 through his wife's relatives. The consensus at the time was that AMAUTO-1 is probably immune to this type of approach. Headquarters, therefore, still opts for a logically developed, "traditional" recruitment build-up.

3. In line with the above, Headquarters suggests to Madrid certain lines of action which might be followed in an attempt to know more about AMAUTO-1. These actions might seem somewhat easier from our perspective than they actually are in the field, but we propose them for your consideration.

a. The man handling the new construction work (paragraph 16 of the attachment) should be checked out.

b. The established pattern of lonely automobile trips outside the capital (see paragraph 22 of the attachment) might be instructive to follow down. At least, the situation might offer a chance for approach or for subsequent handling.

c. AMAUTO-1's desire to see more people at home, and the indication that he discusses important matters at home becomes doubly interesting with the possibility of a vacant house next door (see paragraph 18 of the attachment). The person who owns the apartment building might offer a fruitful lead.

d. The apparent hostility of the current maid (see paragraph 24 and 27 of the attachment) might offer further exploitation.

CONTINUATION OF DISPATCH	CLASSIFICATION	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER OSMW-11726

e. AMAUTO/1's desire to affiliate himself with an exercise group (see paragraph 26b of the attachment) might offer a possibility to put an access agent next to him. The circumstance would be relatively normal, not calculated to arouse his suspicions. The use of someone of WOLADY nationality might, in fact, help to allay what is evidently a tendency AMAUTO/1 has of suspecting provocation.

f. Headquarters would greatly appreciate the opportunity of examining AMAUTO/1's X-rays. In this connection, we would like to see an investigation of the physician used on this matter (see paragraphs 31 and 32 of the attachment).

g. We would like to have Madrid's assessment of the diplomat mentioned in paragraph 8 of the attachment.

4. At the same time, we would appreciate it if Miami could follow down any of the leads stemming from AMAUTO/1's time in WOLADY. We are trying to trace his entrance back in the 1950's and as much of his time here as possible, and perhaps Miami Station can develop leads on the persons mentioned in paragraph 24 of the attachment hereto, especially in reference to the brother left with the house. (Note Below.)

Michael V. SLATINSKI

I would appreciate your giving personal attention to this matter, because it is rare that we have such a detailed assessment as we have in this case.

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Pérez

DOB: c. 1931

Cuban Minister Plenipotentiary to Spain, accredited 12 December 1967.

CHRONOLOGY

1. RUIZ probably comes from a humble family in Cuba, because he lived in a solar (semi-slum area) and began to work when he was only fourteen years old. This circumstance suggests that he lacks a formal education. He appears to come from a "revolutionary" family (his father was identified as a Communist and a leader of the barbers' union in UFGA-13595, and a brother was identified as a member of the DSE as of 1964 in UFGA-19006), [illegible] (201-735296)

2. In the fifties RUIZ emigrated to the United States, traveling throughout the east coast and holding minor jobs. In 1957 he began to work as an apprentice butcher for a Polish-American named Alexander SAMKO, who had a grocery store on Flagler Street in Miami. He evidently did so well in attracting Latin American customers that he soon began to distribute meat in the area, working for SAMKO (RUIZ seems to be somewhat proud of this success). He also appears proud of the fact that when he left Miami in February 1958, he left his brother (same brother?) a house in North Miami, a brand new car, and over $1,000 in the bank.

3. Although he did well in the meat business, he traces a large part of his success to another acquaintance in Miami: an American of Cuban descent known as Joe LOUIS (or LUIS). Joe LUIS was an underworld figure who was at that time competing with the Italians in the bolita (numbers) racket in Tampa. RUIZ and MOLEON (fnu), another Cuban exile, were each offered $800 a month by LUIS to supervise bolita collections in Miami. (There is no specific indication that RUIZ took his bolita friend up on this offer). Furthermore, LUIS went so far as to offer RUIZ and MOLEON $5,000 apiece to kill a man named FERNANDEZ (fnu), who was also involved in the bolita racket in Miami.

4. In February 1957 (note the 1958 date, above; perhaps an error on RUIZ' part) RUIZ left Miami along with a man named VILLEGAS (whose first name might be Harry) and three other members of the 26th of July Movement. They entered Cuba clandestinely. When the revolution triumphed in Cuba, Alexander SAMKO went to Havana, where he stayed for a week as RUIZ' house guest. SAMKO offered RUIZ a partnership in the meat business in Miami if he would return. RUIZ rejected the offer, saying that the Revolution needed him.

5. RUIZ brags that in 1960 he was one of 18 persons out of 5,000 who were selected by the Ministry of the Treasury, where he was working at the time, to take a statistics course offered by CEPAL. The course, which lasted two years, included such subjects as mathematics, finance, democracy (?), and Marxism-Leninism. One of his schoolmates at the time was Marta ARCOL, now the director of the Museo de Arte in Havana. (It is interesting to note that in UFGA-13595 RUIZ was described as an anti-Communist as of 1960 by a Cuban refugee.

6. UFG-1539 reported RUIZ as Chief of the Department of Construction Expenses Studies of the Ministry of the Treasury in 1962, and he was described as a militant Communist. In 1963 he was in Mexico, and UFGA-11065 mentioned him as G-2, living at Calle Cuenavaca 35, apartment 7. A report from LITAMIL-9 in 1964 characterized RUIZ as a violent CASTRO partisan, and AMMUG-1 in 1964 described RUIZ as a CUIS officer. Presidential Decree 3440 of 4 August 1964 (UFGA-19006) reported RUIZ as being appointed Vice Minister of Foreign Commerce, and QUDOZE has him appointed about that time as chief of the trade school at MINCEX, a post he held for two years. In 1967 he was appointed charge d'affaires in Madrid vice Francisco Ramon CALZADILLA.

ON THE JOB

7. There seems little doubt that RUIZ exercise the full authority that presumably he should have as Minister Plenipotentiary. The relations between Cuba and Spain appear to remain static because of Spain's refusal to appoint a full Ambassador to Cuba after LOJENDIO was expelled from the island by CASTRO in 1959. RUIZ is involved in and is kept informed on all matters related to Cuban-Spanish relations, including trade. He does not seem to permit commercial attaches to bypass him when they submit reports to their respective home offices in Havana. In addition, RUIZ takes a keen and active interest in Cubana operations, and he has said that no one may travel to Havana on Iberia without his permission. He insists that Cuban officials arriving in Madrid consult with him before arranging visits to Spanish officials or factories. He seems to have good working relations with Spanish government officials, because he is always careful to "put all his cards on the table" in meetings with them. (The tenor of his conversation seems to emphasize that he likes things this way in all his relations, personal as well as professional).

8. Little appears concerning RUIZ' unofficial contacts with other diplomats in Madrid, except that he is close to and exchanges information with the Algerian Ambassador. (According to current records, this is Ahmed LAIDI, posted to Madrid on 15 December 1966, living at Calle Tiemblo 3, Ciudad Puerto de Fierro. Latest desk traces show this person as born 20 April 1934 in Oudja, Morocco, and as of 25 October 1966 to have been the Director General of the Foreign Ministry in charge of political, economic, and cultural affairs. He is described as reserved, intelligent, and probably something of an operator. He was Ben Bella's chief of cabinet before joining the Foreign Office in 1964, and he functions more on special assignment than as part of the chain of command. He was a member of the Algerian UN delegation as of 28 September 1965.)

9. RUIZ tries to give the impression that he enjoys the full confidence of Osvaldo DORTICOS and Raul ROA, thereby being able to exercise the full authority of his position. He frequently tells other Cuban diplomats stopping in Madrid that he makes 90% of the decisions without consulting with Havana, explaining that "this is the reason I am here."

10. Above all, RUIZ directs constant and bitter criticism against Havana, because of what he terms the incompetence there. In his opinion, this generalized incompetence will cause CASTRO to carry out a major purge after the 1970 harvest is in. (He specifically repeats that "no one in Havana wants to make any sort of decision"). One of his favorite books is The Peter Principle, to which he refers constantly, and he uses this book to describe what is going on in Havana. In RUIZ' view, Havana is always trying to interfere with the Embassy in Madrid, a situation which results in a lack of coordination and cooperation. RUIZ directs the same criticism against his staff in Madrid, because his personnel lack qualifications for the jobs they hold. He once told an associate: "They think that I'm a fool, but I don't miss anything they do."

11. In turn, he has also been the target of criticism from Havana, first from Zoila GOMEZ (?), who made a critical evaluation of the Embass. RUIZ' reaction is instructive: "I decided not to answer it. I took a librium, smoked a cigar, and forgot all about it." On another occasion he complained to Aristides DIAZ that he had received another critical report from Havana regarding his program for the Embassy. Havana was complaining that not much had been achieved. RUIZ noted that the Embassy had accomplished much that was not in the plan, and he intended to answer that particular criticism in detail.

12. Perhaps the most serious criticism of his activities came in a coded cable received by the Embassy early in October 1969. Havana questioned the way that RUIZ was handling the commercial treaty negotiations with Spanish authorities. In a communication directed to Raul LEON Torres (201-725624) (Under Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Commerce) and in rather strong language, RUIZ defended his right to be informed and consulted on the matter, denying that his cable number 521 was offensive to Joaquin ALVAREZ (Director of Trade with Western Europe and North America), who was evidently the source of criticism against RUIZ.

13. Evidently, this last piece of criticism upset RUIZ so much that he was nervous and particularly security-conscious. Less than a week later he called LEON in Havana and requested permission to go to Cuba, ostensibly to settle a personal problem with his son. However, his wife explained to another person in the Embassy that RUIZ' trip was due to his sick mother. His trip was probably due to the exceptionally sharp criticism and RUIZ' desire to clear it up personally.

14. When RUIZ returned to Madrid on 29 October 1969, he was a changed man, again relaxed and fully confident of himself. Nevertheless, he has told close friends that he feels very lonely in Spain and at times has had the desire simply to board a plane away from Spain and abandon the Embassy. He is always careful to say he desires to return to Havana, but he leaves room for the inference that he would rather go somewhere else. He believes that he is "burned" in Spain. He has said that when he returns to the island, he will definitely not return to his Ministry.

SECURITY AND SECURITY-CONSCIOUSNESS

15. RUIZ seems to be particularly sensitive in the area of security-consciousness. This attitude can possibly be traces to an involvement with the DGI in one way or another, but his background and especially his political views (see below) would appear to argue against his affiliation. RUIZ is quick to warn visiting Cubans against the efforts of what he terms "la compania, sociedad anonima" to compromise them, even before they leave Havana, indicating RUIZ' possible belief in the omnipresence and power of the sociedad anonima. He censors mail going to and coming from Havana, and he repeatedly states that his office is bugged, his telephone is tapped, and that he is followed quite openly wherever he goes. He attibutes this surveillance to the Seguridad, and he probably ascribes it to the Spanish. (Note that, despite his "knowledge" that his words go to hostile surveillance, he still dares to express critical opinions openly).

16. This security-consciousness is apparently the big reason he has asked Havana for funds for a new Embassy building, where he plans to have a shielded room free from bugs. He intends to have Havana send electricians for the job and Cuban personnel to act as doormen, etc., with the wives of the latter to be his char force. He seems fanatic on the subject of not having any Spanish personnel in the building. (Note that one Sr. VILLARROYA, of Constructiones Aznar in Madrid, is handling the real estate operation.)

17. RUIZ is particularly aware of what he calls "traps." He once recalled that he had been asked to dinner by the wife of a VIP and, after accepting the invitation, was told that a priest would also attend. He did not attend the dinner, although it considerably upset his hostess, because he was afraid of a scandal arranged by the police. He said that he receives only in the Embassy, because through that door can enter only those whom he wants to see.

18. Nevertheless, RUIZ has several times mentioned that he holds his really important conversations at home, and that he would rather see more people at his home instead of at his office. (In this connection, it is noted that the house next door to his --- Calle Triana 44 --- which used to be a home for the aged) is now empty. The owner of the apartment building where he lives is Ignacio ARTERO, a Spaniard.

19. RUIZ has even suggested installing a radio transmitter and speaking in code with Havana. The Cubans are in fact installing a transmitter on the Canary Islands, but RUIZ, characteristically keeping his actions correct, has stressed to the Spanish that Cuba will not use the transmitter for other than legitimate commercial purposes. RUIZ even offered to allow Spanish citizens to operate the station in order to emphasize his point.

20. Correct as he generally is in his professional behavior, RUIZ made what appears to be a mistake in discussing with members of his staff the possibility of telling Havana that a Spanish foreign service officer scheduled for duty there (Juan TORROBA Gomez, cf. OSMA-25692) might be open for recruitment. If one recalls RUIZ' constant warnings that his office is bugged by Seguridad, the discussion about TORROBA clearly exposes him to action by the Spanish authorities.

21. RUIZ himself is the target of what appears to be control by Juan Antonio CURBELO Lemus (201-733544) who is allegedly the First Secretary in charge of cultural affairs but who seems to be the "security man" in the Embassy. (We note that CURBELO's photograph was shown to AMBEDEW-1, who did not recognize the likeness). RUIZ has complained at least once that he needs a "real" cultural attache. CURBELO has instructed the front-desk girl to pass on to him a summary of who sees whom at the Embassy and for what purpose, including RUIZ' visitors. (Given RUIZ' near-mania for running his own shop, CURBELO must indeed exert an acknowledged security control).

22. Despite security considerations, however, RUIZ appears addicted to taking automobile jaunts by himself to the interior of the country. He must have very powerful reasons to do so, for he is probably exposing himself to attack by Cuban exiles. Given the reception accorded to Carlos ALFARAS, Armando HART, and Carlos CHAIN at the Barajas airport in June 1968, RUIZ might be unnecessarily exposing himself. He has not told anyone of where he goes or what he does, and both his wife and CURBELO strongly disapprove of his custom.

FAMILY

23. RUIZ' wife is Nilda VECIANA, who was reported on in UFGA-19006. She is probably in her early thirties. She is pregnant and due to have her fifth (?) child early in May 1970. She has had difficulties with her pregnancy because of recurring fainting spells and overweight. These conditions are being treated by Dr. HERNANDEZ (fnu) and Dr. MATA (fnu).

24. Nilda is a pleasant woman who has not been known to quarrel with her husband or express political or religious opinions, although once she recited the Lord's Prayer by heart in front of others. A teacher by profession, she handles the bookkeeping at the Embassy on an informal basis. She appears to have a rather weak character, judging from the way she handles her boys. According to Severina ORTIZ Gomez, the maid, these are little beasts who treat the servants badly, even reviling them with obscenities, while referring to their mother as "la chula." Nilda does not permit the boys to be punished.

25. Nilda goes shopping by herself, and once she even took a taxi by herself to the airport to meet her husband, even though CURBELO did not like the idea at all. She seems to get along well with the wives of other Cubans on the staff.

26. RUIZ' children are:

a. Guillermito. He is the oldest and is now studying in Havana. There were reports that he was unhappy there, and RUIZ asked on 16 October 1969 to go to Havana to settle a personal problem with Guillermito. If there were a problem, it seems to have been solved, because RUIZ on his return quoted Guillermito as being very happy in his new school. (Some time ago, Mrs. Hector GALLO Portieles was constantly needling the other women about not being "revolutionary" enough and took Nilda RUIZ to task for having her children with her instead of at school in Cuba. The RUIZ family had brought four of their children with them, and later the other(s) came to join them, before the older one returned to school. RUIZ once told a visitor that Guillermito had been left with his grandparents during their exile in Miami and had been very resentful of it, so they had been very careful ever since not to repeat that mistake).

b. Alejandro. He is about six years old. According to those who know him, he is the real devil of the lot as well as a good swimmer. He is taking guitar lessons, goes to Colegio Estilo, and swims at Gimnasio Mascardo, Pilar de Zaragoza 99. (Nilda has talked to the Gimnasio people about RUIZ' going there also for swimming or exercise).

d. Juan Carlos.

e. One other (?)

27. All four children are very spoiled and have caused several maids to leave their jobs. Severina bitterly complains that the children show no respect for their parents, and that is the reason Severina gives for her hate for Nilda.

EDUCATION AND CULTURE

28. Aside from the two-year statistics course taken in 1960, RUIZ appears to lack a solid, formal education, although he makes up for it by being an avid reader (five newspapers a day plus books). He understands and speaks English and French (fluency unknown) and has undertaken to teach grammar (presumably Spanish) to the Embassy staff.

29. RUIZ appears to be sensitive to art, and he frequently complains about the general lack of culture in Cuba. (This might indicate thatRUIZ considers himself "above" the Revolution). He shows some of the general inconsistencies of the self-educated. For example, his vocabulary level is rather low, and he curses frequently when talking to other male members of the staff. On the other hand, he seems rather well versed in international affairs and has a good understanding of international trade. It is probable that he has read some of the works of José Marti and, although he dictates letters to his secretary, he types some of his own reports to Havana.

HEALTH PROBLEMS

30. RUIZ suffers from what his wife has described as a liver illness (not further specified) for which he takes a medicine called bilidis. (This may refer simply to the medical words for "liver disease". Competent experts here guess that the medicine is used for anything from chronic constipation to gassiness and constant eructation because of inadequate digestion of fatty foods. It is possible that RUIZ suffers from the hard-to-pin-down mal de foie, which can be found in a high-strung, hard-driving person. RUIZ' evident use of librium (see above) might also suggest this condition).

31. Late in 1969 RUIZ was planning to go to Portugal to rest, following the recommendation of his physician Dr. CAVAS (also received as CABAS and CALDAS), and whose telephone number appears to be 276-77-46. There is also a mention of a Dr. PERIU, but his relationship is indistinct. RUIZ coughs frequently, is used to cold weather, and was planning to go for his health to the same Gimnasio as his son, Alejandro.

32. A July 1968 memorandum for the record stated that RUIZ suffers from a spinal ailment resulting from a fall he had about 12 years ago. Since then he has had chronic backaches which were particularly severe during the time that he was in the U.S., Haiti, and Santo Domingo. His pains have recurred since he arrived in Spain. On 3 June 1968 he had a severe attack and was treated by the Embassy's Spanish doctor VILLALANDA (fnu), who prescribed cortisone. His condition was diagnosed as incurable, since it was doubted that the injury to his spine could be corrected by an operation. RUIZ was further told that the condition would continue to grow worse, and that within six to ten years he would have a defective walk. RUIZ planned to send the diagnosis and X-rays to ROA in Havana, who would pass them to the Cuban specialist MARTINEZ-PAZ for review.

TRAVELS

33. Following are the trips RUIZ is known to have made during the last quarter of 1969:

a. To Bilboa, San Sebastian, and Burgos by car, on 28 November 1969, returning two days later.

b. To Havana, to settle "a personal problem," on 20 October 1969 via Iberia (first class), returning to Madrid on 29 October.

c. To London on 14 November for consultations with Raul LEON Torres, returning two days later by air.

d. To Italy with his family on vacation on 28 December to pick up an Alfa Romero that he bought for the Embassy, returning by car and arriving in Madrid on 6 January 1970.

CONTACTS IN MADRID

34. Little is known about RUIZ' contacts in Madrid. Aside from the Algerian Ambassador (see above), we know about:

a. Pedro RUIZ. A good friend who goes to RUIZ' home frequently. According to RUIZ, Pedro is quite influential and is a friend of MASSO(?).

b. Carlos CARRASCO. Another person who calls RUIZ frequently. In late October or early November 1969 CARRASCO went to New York.

c. Rosendo CANTO (201-749310). CANTO lives at Goya 54, Madrid. His friendship with RUIZ is interesting, given CANTO's background, because their being together could be very dangerous for RUIZ unless he were using CANTO for some reason with the approval of Havana. CANTO wants to go to Havana for a year, live there for a year, and then join the Cuban Foreign Service. Referring to CANTO's desire, RUIZ said on 8 January 1970: "He is a fool."

35. Superficially, RUIZ seems to be an easy-going and rather simple man who no doubt enjoys the prestige and position he has and the successes he has had professionally in Spain. He appears to have a strong character and probably plays the predominant role in his marriage. He and his wife seem to get along very well together, and they are not heard to argue. On the other hand, there appear to be very deep inconsistencies in his public and private behavior. Sometimes he speaks like a man at war with himself.

36. A certain degree of racism can be detected in his constant reference to blacks as "niches," a disrespectful Cuban colloquialism roughly comparable with the pejorative word, "nigger."

37. RUIZ almost never discusses women with his colleagues, except for one off moment when he mentioned a girl he knew in the United States before the Revolution. Perhaps RUIZ wisely remembers that Nilda also works at the Embassy and refrains from mentioning women on her account. In any case, he is not known to be involved in any extramarital affair. (Still, one wonders about the custom of absenting himself by automobile into the interior of Spain).

38. His habits seem to be simple: he likes movies; he has read Topaz (but made no comment thereon); and he receives people at his home for cocktails.

POLITICAL AND IDEOLOGICAL VIEWS

39. Although outwardly a "Revolutionary," RUIZ gives much more the appearance of a man with moderate political views struggling to justify to himself the actions of his government, especially in view of the political and economic realities of his country. It is possible that his feelings might lie closer to the theory of the "betrayed revolution" ---but not for strictly ideological reasons. The incompetence of the Cuban governmental bureaucracy, for example, has sabotaged the revolution.

40. In the first place, RUIZ definitely does not seem to be a Marxist and consequently he cannot accept the role of "robot" (his term) required by Party discipline and vertical structure.

a. On 29 December 1969 he wrote to Telesforo DIAZ Portillo, a MINREX official: "Revolutionaries should not be coerced by forms of political control."

b. On 11 December 1969 he told a visiting Agropecuario official from Havana that: " ... if I disagree with orders, I question them because I am not a robot nor do I have the mentality of one. As a human being I express opinions no matter what the risk that I may have to accept personally."

c. RUIZ seems to have little compunction in talking to what he thinks of as old acquaintances, even though they may be on the opposite side of the political fence from him. He once mentioned how he went out of his way to greet a "gusano" on the street because they had been friends in Havana. The Cuban exile evidently turned away from him, but RUIZ defended his own action in initiating the greeting.

41. Aside from the constant criticism of Havana's incompetence, lack of vision, and lack of realism, he is quick to point out the deficiencies of life in Cuba as reflected in his directive to his Embassy staff not to celebrate Christmas together, because there are hungry people at home. RUIZ has also said that medicine in general is quite backward in Cuba.

42. Although he is probably an atheist (or likes to think of himself as one), he is known to believe that "religion should not be considered a handicap for persons trying to return to Cuba." He does not hide his views of the American people, either, for he describes Americans as "frank" and "simple". "They treated me very well," he told Raul LEON Torres in December 1969. On the other hand, he refers to Latin American diplomats as bootlickers because they use the English language at parties, and he has remarked that "capitalism is no good."

43. He seems to have a certain admiration for General Francisco FRANCO, of whom RUIZ has said: "FRANCO is the only reason that Spain is not Communist." RUIZ also called FRANCO "one of the few most brilliant politicians of all time." These seem like strange words for a man as security-conscious as he.

44. He appears to be well-informed on international matters. Some of his views are contradictory at times, but they characterize him as what might be called an undecided realist:

a. "Cuba is a political power, not a military or economic power."

b. "The USSR has neutralized US sea power in the Mediterranean."

c. "Cuba can destroy Guantanamo whenever it chooses to do so, although the base has lost its strategic value to the United States."

d. "US-China rapproachment should be feared, but also a Japan-China alliance."

e. "US power is beginning to crumble, but the Soviets are revisionists."

f. "The Egyptians harm us when they buy sugar from Cuba and then resell to other countries."

g. "We have to be on the side of the Soviets for two reasons: first from the military and economic point of view; secondly, because, whether right or wrong, they are on the same side fighting those who are on the other side."

h. "Cuba has had and now has major discrepancies with the USSR, China, and the US, but we are on the side of communism because we are against capitalism."

SUBJECT : Cuban Charge d'Affairs Comments on Czechoslovakian Situation

REFERENCE : OSMA-25789, dated 7 January 1970

1. The following comments of the Cuban Minister to Spain, Guillermo RUIZ Perez, reflect Cuban thoughts on the Czechoslovakian situation:

> The Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia has been a disaster; however, criticizing the Soviet action would mean taking sides with the Americans. A friend may be criticized in private but publicly he should be defended. (QUDOZE, 19 November.) The Cubans have to side with the Soviets for military and economic reasons and because, whether right or wrong, they belong to the same ideological group. Cuba had and still has enormous discrepancies with the Soviet Union, China, and the United States but weighing the differences Cuba is with Communism and opposed to Capitalism. (QUDOZE, 3 November.)

2. The above information was obtained from a Sensitive Source and should be protected as such.

Report No. 241 2 December 1969

Ruiz is talking with Curbelo and Franco about the new building. Apparently they are waiting for an O.K. from Havana. Ruiz seems concerned about the maintenance of the building, as it has six floors and a basement. Havana will have to send an electrician, who is also a plumber, and that understands something of carpentry. They will need three or four other men to act as doormen, watchmen, etc. The wives of these men will be the charwomen of the building. Curbelo says once that Havana approves the building they will have to sit down and talk over what difficulties hiring Spanish personnel might present. Ruiz doesn't want Spanish personnel under any circumstances. He speaks of having two dining rooms, one for the Commercial Office and the other for the Embassy; here meals prepared outside will be served. The dining room will be completely isolated so that no visitor or invited guest will be able to place anything in the ceiling nor in the walls without being seen. They are going to install a closed circuit television so that all entries and exits will be controlled. Ruiz says that a Japanese type television of the kind they are discussing only costs something over $500, and he adds that most likely there is one in the American embassy.

1. Of possible interest to addressees is a translation of the following letter dictated by Guillermo RUIZ Perez to his secretary on 26 December 1969. The letter was addressed to a comrade "OCUZA or LANUZA (fon)" in Havana in response to a confidential note received by RUIZ from Havana.

> "In relation to your confidential note number 7240 about the Spanish prisoners, Joaquin AUVI Casals, Lazaro GARRIDO Sanchez and Antonio MARQUEZ Pedraza, whose release was requested in a note from the Spanish Embassy in Havana, I would like to tell you the following: Firstly, Senor Joaquin AUVI Casals was of interest to D. Pedro SALVADOR de Vicente; but because of the bad record and activities of this man, it was understood that his departure would be denied. I talked to Pedro SALVADOR about this matter and upon mentioning this man's background he told me that his interest was due to a phone call he had received from a friend of his in Miami. He considers that, given the background in this case, his friend was supposedly an instrument of "other interests". Secondly, regarding the other Spaniards, we have no objection whatsoever to their departing the country. Without anything of further consequence,....."

ACQ Spain, Madrid (Early October 1969) FIELD NO. OSM 9815

SOURCE An official Spanish service from a source described as sensitive and usually reliable.

1. On 23 September 1969 the Cuban Minister to Spain, Guillermo Ruiz Perez, called on Pedro Salvador de Vicente, the Special Delegate for Latin American Affairs in the Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, to discuss the forthcoming trade negotiations in Cuba. During the discussion Salvador told Ruiz that the one and only question which concerns the Spanish Government is that of Cuban indemnifications and pensions for Spanish employees, and he asked Ruiz what the latter could say regarding this problem. (Field Comment: The indemnifications refer to property owned by Spanish nationals which was confiscated by the Cuban Government.) Ruiz claimed that he had no instructions on what he could say, adding that the claims were numerous and that the paperwork involved was difficult and required a great deal of time.

2. Salvador told Ruiz that the subject of indemnifications and pensions must be discussed during the forthcoming negotiations, and that the Cuban Government must provide at least an approximate figure of what it is going to pay. He said that the indemnification figure must be based on the value of the expropriated properties, less the amount of any taxes levied on the properties. (Source Comment: Salvador did not say what would happen if the Cuban Government failed to reach some agreement on the question but he implied that negotiations would be delayed until the Spanish Foreign Ministry received the Cuban Government's reply to this question.) (Field Comment: Since the conversation between Salvador and Ruiz was held before the recent change of the Spanish Cabinet and other Government positions, there is no information on how these changes would affect the question raised by Salvador or the signing of a new trade agreement with Cuba. As of 17 November 1969, Salvador was still Special Delegate for Latin American Affairs.)

3. (Field Comment: Until recently, the indemnifications and pensions problem had not emerged as a serious factor in the negotiations for a new trade agreement. There has been a gradual deterioration of Spanish-Cuban commercial relations since the conclusion in May of preparatory negotiations for a new agreement, but this deterioration ostensibly was the result of a Spanish Government decision to reduce Cuban sugar imports over the next three years. The Cuban Government apparently had not considered such decision in its analysis of Cuban-Spanish commercial relations, and it was quite upset when the decision was revealed during the preparatory negotiations. Some of the problems causing the strain in Spanish-Cuban relations were previously reported in TDCSDB-315/2470-69, TDCSDB-315/02182-69, TDCSDB-315/03509-69, CS-311/08659-69 and CSDB-312/02600-69.)

N.T.

One 'Miss' CONCHITA calls asking for RUIZ. NILDA says she is his secretary and CONCHITA may leave the message with her. C and R have not seen each other for two years and C would like to surprise him. NILDA asks for her last name; C does not give it to her because it would then fail to be a surprise, but leaves her telephone number (201-49-89) for R to call her after 8, for she works until that time. On NILDA's insistence C gives her last name as CAMACHO, adding she is the widow of the doctor who was director of the Coimbra Hospital.

RUIZ calls Mrs. CAMACHO at 201-49 89. She begins the conversation by saying they had met at a party which she had attended with her husband at the Dominican Embassy in Madrid. She reminds him that they had talked with the Paraguayan Ambassador and former Dominican Ambassador Rafael COMPRES, and that the party had taken place two years ago. Despite all the details RUIZ insists he does not remember her and asks how he can be of service to her. She tells him "I have just arrived and find myself somewhat isolated, disoriented, and I must find work. I recall you telling me on that ocassion 'If you should ever have any problem and you come to Madrid, look me up.' One other ambassador also offered me his assistance and I have tried to locate both of you." Mrs. C mentions having a daughter, that her husband was a pilot and that she is a Spaniard, adding she is not too old. R replies that in all honesty he does not remember her. She insists on seeing him to have a chat, and R suggests she come to his office at her convenience. She prefers talking with him alone, without his secretary or anyone else present, and suggests a bar at some hotel like the Palace, Ritz or Hilton. He is agreeable to any place she may desire; they agree to meet that night at 9:30 in the lobby of the Hilton Hotel. She will be dressed all in black.

RUIZ calls FERNANDO. F is to meet R outside the latter's home about 9 o'clock dressed in coat and tie.

Comments of AMAUTO-1 on Current Topics of Interest

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

The following comments of AMAUTO-1 reflect Cuban thoughts on the Czechoslovaquian situation, internal Spanish politics, and the effects of recent changes in the Spanish Government on the impending trade negotiations between Spain and Cuba.

a. The Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia has been a disaster; however, criticizing the Soviet action would mean taking sides with the Americans. A friend may be criticized in private but publicly he should be defended. (QUDOZE, 19 November.) The Cubans have to side with the Soviets for military and economic reasons and because, whether right or wrong, they belong to the same ideological camp. Cuba had and still has enormous discrepancies with the Soviet Union, China, and the United States but weighing the differences Cuba is with Communism as opposed to Capitalism. (QUDOZE, 3 November.)

b. AMAUTO-1 was asked by his government to report on the new Spanish Government which Havana calls "Opus Dei". To a visiting Cuban official he admitted that he was at a loss to understand Spanish politics but attempted to define them. It is not true that the Spanish Government is in the hands of the Opus Dei. There are some men in the government who lean toward the Opus Dei but there are others of a very different leaning because they come from the Falangist ranks. These men (the Falangists) may go along with the Opus Dei line because they allow themselves to be "carried by the tide" but they are not of the Opus Dei. (QUDOZE, 19 November.)

c. Concerning the impending trade negotiations with Spain, in addition to the economic problem the Cubans are now faced with another impediment which further delays the negotiations: the recent changes in the Spanish ~~government~~. It is difficult at this time for the Cubans to approach any Spanish official because of the climate of confusion among them. Most Spanish officials have no idea as to whether they will remain in their posts or will be replaced. Therefore, it is futile for the Cubans to press them for action on the negotiations. The most they can do is wait patiently until the situation is normalized. If the negotiations are not held within the 30-day expiration period of the agreement, it is possible that the present agreement can be extended for two months. This would be advantageous to the Cubans because during the first two months of the year they will be able to acquire all the goods they will need for 1970. (QUDOZE, 19 November).

Item 3. SEVE [illegible] [illegible]. She says that the new house maid is about 50 years old, her hair is dyed and she is very skinny and bossy. SEVE doubts very much that she is going to be able to dominate "these wild lions" of Ruiz. She says that because of the children Maria's nerves have gone to pieces. She says that the other day FERNANDO hit the six year old, and that the child called Fernando "an obscenity". Another one of the little savages told Seve "go to -----", for no reason at all. Seve says that the mother is as bad as the children in this respect. They refer to Hilda as "the chula" and Seve says that evidently Hilda doesn't care whether the children bother the servants or not. Seve says she can't stand either Hilda nor the children. She then says that Hilda is expecting her sixth child in February.

RUIZ commented that in principal he envisioned no problem in meeting the woman, but that he would confirm the invitation on 9 December. TELLO went on to say that he invited a group of people to the luncheon including Alfonso SASTRE and Fernando RIESTRA.

2. Station traces note that Alfonso SASTRE Salvador was born on 20 February 1926 in Madrid, and is a graduate of the University of Madrid in philosophy and letters. He is a writer, anti-US and pro-Castro who participates in all types of activities of the Communist "intellectual" elements. His wife, Genoveva FOREST Tarrat was arrested in May 1962 for participating in demonstrations, refused to pay the fine and remained incarcerated for 20 days. SASTRE visited Havana on a number of occasions and reportedly was called to the Cuban Embassy in Madrid in July 1968 to interview Haydee SANTAMARIA.

3. There are no traces on RIESTRA.

1. Please cancel all clearances mentioned in Reference. Since AMAUTO-2's separation from AMAUTO-1's household and her immigration to the United States with her husband, AMAUTO-5, we no longer have an operational interest in her. As you know, AMAUTO-3 was used solely as an intermediary for a warm approach to AMAUTO-2. This was accomplished, and we have had no further contact with her. No Station contact was ever made with AMAUTO-4.

2. After the departure of AMAUTO-2 from AMAUTO-1's household, the Station soon learned of her replacement and this information was passed to the QUSEQUIN's. It was decided that the QUSEQUINs would attempt to recruit the new domestic, but for unknown reasons, contact was never made. We believe that there is a new domestic now working in the AMAUTO-1 household, but we have no details on her.

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

On 10 October 1969, Guillermo RUIZ Perez, Cuban Charge in Madrid dictated a letter to the Cuban Foreign Office setting forth his impressions of Juan TORROBA Gomez. These impressions by RUIZ can be interpreted as the preparation of a target study on TORROBA. The following is a verbatim text and translation:

El analisis que se realiza sobre las activadades desarrolladas por el Senor Juan Torroba y su -----, la falta de interes y comprension de parte de ----- nos da un conocimiento directo sobre las actividades de la Embajada de Espana en esa que nos puede ser muy util en nuestras relaciones. Antes de su llegada hemos tratado de ahondar en la personalidad del Senor Torroba y aparte de confirmar la buena opinion que los espanoles tienen sobre su persona, hemos conocido tambien que es hombre debil de caracter y que en esa medida pueda ser influenciado a pesar de su ----- personalidad (o capacidad). El cargo que desempena de sub-Director de Asuntos Consulares es en realidad un cargo de asesor en materias consulares pero sin mando. Es acortado la tesis de ayudarlo en su trabajo y aun llegar al extremo de que algun funcionario como el intimide con el de forma tal que esa debilidad de caracter y propension a la influencia ajena pueda servirnos a nuestros propositos. Es indudable que un ataque al Senor Torroba en el sentido de hacer deficil su tarea traeria como consecuencia inmediata una mayor influencia de aquellos que sin lugar a dudas estan interesados en que se convierta en -----. Por otra parte no consideramos posible que aun en el caso de que su trabajo no sea el mejor pueda hacerse una substitucion de otro funcionario que -----.

TRANSLATION:

The study being made of the activities of Mr. Juan Torroba and his (word indistinct), the lack of understanding and interest on the part of (word indistinct), give us a direct insight into the activities of the Spanish Embassy there (in Cuba) which could be very useful to us in our relations (with the Spaniards). Before his arrival (in Havana) we tried to probe into the personality of Mr. Torroba and, in addition to confirming the good opinion that Spaniards have of him, we learned that he is weak in character and that from this angle he could be influenced despite his (word indistinct) personality. The position he held as Deputy Director of Consular Affairs (in the Spanish Foreign Ministry) was actually that of advisor on consular matters but he exercised no authority. The idea of helping him in his work is apt and could be carried to the point where some officer like himself (of similar category) could intimidate him in such a way that his weakness of character and susceptibility to outside influence would serve our purposes. There is no doubt that an attack against Sr. Torroba in the way of making his task more difficult would bring as an immediate result a greater influence on the part of those who are interested in having him become a (word indistinct). On the other hand we do not consider it possible even in the event that his work should not prove to be the best, that another officer could be substituted that (word or words indistinct).

In order to resolve the question of handling from this Embassy the departure of the (word indistinct), please clarify the reason why there has been a misinterpretation. Everything to the problems of Spain and Cuba through this Embassy will, of course, redound to our benefit. A clear case is the application for departure of (word indistinct) and his statement that perhaps (word or words indistinct) since the Embassy in Cuba...(volume of radio increase affecting reception.)

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

SOURCE: US national, college student.

Source has been successful in a modest building construction operation, and appears to have access to investment funds. He is a new source. His cooperation is by way of a prominent US police official, long a friend of his family.

1. A [US] friend of mine and I first met Manuel Tello, then Chilean Consul General in San Francisco, late in 1963, ~~probably December~~, at the San Francisco Press Club. At that time, Tello was accompanied by several attractive young women, one of whom was his daughter, Carmen. Tello proved to be a gracious, polished diplomatic type and we all hit it off well together. As a matter of fact, we hit it off so well that Tello visited my friend's home from time to time, managed to interest him in a number of business ventures to be launched in Chile and later in Costa Rica.

2. Tello was quite active in the San Francisco area. Among his official interests were the sponsoring of a Chilean or pro-Chilean youth group, and an attempt to organize a group of businessmen able to finance commercial ventures in Chile. Integral parts of his plans were the Alliance for Progress funding and the recent California-Chile commercial and cultural programs. Ventures were to include the construction of several hundred thousand dwellings in Chile, a commercial fishing venture, to be based at Iquique, establishment of a fish meal plant also at Iquique, and the acquisition of a huge ranch or finca near Puntarenas in Costa Rica. The latter project, however, seemed more personally Tello's, whereas he was to be but one of several other investors in the others.

3. As months went on, suspicions of Tello's motives began to grow. Normal avarice is easily understood, but in the course of visits to my friend's home Tello began to hazard unmistakably anti-American expressions. We were to learn that he was an attorney and had come from an old and wealthy Chilean family, but was something of a black sheep. He spoke of his mother's apologetic references to him as "her Communist son". Tello claimed intimacy with Salvador Allende and made it clear that "when", not "if", Allende was elected president, Tello was to be extremely influential in the new hierarchy. Incidentally, he also stated emphatically that if by any remote chance Allende were not to win, there would be a revolution in Chile by November 1964. Tello claimed also that he had visited several times with Raúl Castro, and had met Fidel, all within the past year or so. He insisted that the US would recognize Cuba before the end of 1964. Tello said also that he was on good terms with important people in both the Soviet and Chinese Communist governments, and that both nations were anxious to have him as Chile's ambassador, but that he was not especially anxious to go. Another reference to Communist China was the possibility that Chile might have some small cargo ships built there.

4. Tello's pro-Communist and anti-American feelings were shared with his daughter, Carmen, who claimed to have been a youth group leader in the University of Chile. Another daughter, Patricia, I believe her name is, was said to be even more intensely anti-US. Either she or her husband is connected with a Latin American organization, possibly the OAS or Pan-American Union. Another daughter is married to the director of personnel in the Fertica plant in Costa Rica.

5. At times, it was clear that Tello's avarice transcended his concern for the poor. Once when another American suggested that the building of the houses in Chile would give employment to many more Chileans if they avoided use of pre-fab units and pre-cut timbers, etc, Tello was not interested. He wanted to get in, get as much as possible, and get out as soon as possible. At times he referred to plans to live in Europe after he had made a few financial killings.

6. I have details on only one Chilean proposal, this a fish meal operation known as Cachagua. It was formed within the past year with an authorized capital of E850 thousand [approximately US$657,500], about half of which was paid in. The prime investors were said to be Horst Enrique Hagemann, Emilio Lannon Martinez, Gaston Pascal Leon, Cristian Casanova Subercaseaux, and Gonzalvo Subercaseaux Canartu. Its main office is in Santiago; its plant in Iquique. Somewhere behind the scenes was Tello.

7. Somehow, in a manner I do not pretend to understand, Tello really wanted an American "front-man" in order to withdraw earnings in excess of what the law permitted. His planning for an American's participation included marriage to his oldest daughter, Carmen, who was later involved in a shooting incident in San Francisco in June 1964, shortly after the departure of her father to his new post in San José, Costa Rica, where he is now Charge d'Affaires.

8. In Costa Rica, Tello seems to have considerable influence also. One of his schemes there is the acquisition of a huge ranch in the Puntarenas area. The property, now self-supporting, lies between the Pan American highway and the Gulf of Nicoya. He plans to develop it both for commercial and residential purposes with the operation of a gambling sanctuary in the to-be-established resort section.

9. Tello's successor as Chile's consular representative in San Francisco is Hector Burr. He appears to have the same anti-US bias as Tello. At the time of the supposedly self-inflicted gun shot wound of Tello's daughter, Carmen, Burr said, "This is an international incident. My government will demand an apology from the United States." It was our guess by this time that Burr was interested only in creating anti-US ill will in Chile so as to enhance the election possibilities of Allende.

The Subsecretary for Diplomatic Affairs of the Colombian Foreign Office, Dr. Ricardo Anaya, informed an Embassy officer on Sept. 12 that the La Republica article was accurate only insofar as it reported that Ambassador Vargas had returned to Chile. Dr. Anaya said that as far as he was aware Ambassador Vargas had gone to Santiago to make final arrangements for the visit to Chile of the Colombian War College, scheduled for September 14 to 29. The Chilean Embassy states that the Ambassador returned to Santiago accompanied only by his wife. First Secretary Sr. Manuel Tello Troacoco is Charge d'Affaires ad interim.

[illegible], the Ministry of Foreign Commerce, Tel-70-05-50, Guillermo RUIZ wants to talk to Raul LEON. Ruiz says, "We had the meeting, that I told you about, today. There was no time to cancel it as your cable didn't arrive on time. Consequently I had to attend. Because I had no concrete instructions, I was limited to listening to their good wishes and to try to arrive at an understanding between us. The Marquise that conducted the meeting was very pleasant and conciliatory. When they started to talk figures, I avoided the issue. Then I said that this meeting would be nothing more than to make contact between us and that at the moment there was nothing more I could do. We agreed to hold another meeting on 17 October, at which time they would like to hear our ideas. I promised nothing, but that I would confirm the meeting by telephone. He (the Marquise?) said that this would give no time to discuss it.

Leon says "Did they say anything about the OLGA affairs?" Ruiz says "No, just ideas on other things, but they in no way mentioned the OLGA affair." Raul says "Just ideas in general". Ruiz says, "Just commercial ideas. They wanted to hear the Cuban ideas". Ruiz wants Leon to send him instructions for the next meeting. He wants to know if anyone is coming from Havana to attend the meeting.

Item # 4 1 & 2 November 1969

RUIZ CALLS TERCEIRO AT IBERPLAN (phon).

They greet one another very cordially, and Ruiz thanks him for sending the list. Terceiro asks how things were in Havana. Ruiz says fine in every sense, and adds "they are in the ten million ton harvest, now more than ever, as we are hitting the 'cyclamates' where it hurts". Terceiro asks " if you people paid for the campaign or not?" Ruiz says no, that luckily it was the American Department of Agriculture. He adds, "We have calculated that it will leave us, free, approximately one million tons of sugar. The price of sugar has reacted very well, and now a Sugar Conference is to be held in Geneva. You know we are going to get out propaganda now that will state "Only Cuban sugar does not cause cancer". Terceiro laughs, and says "some other problem yes, but not cancer." Ruiz says that the campaign has come at a perfect time for them because they have been struggling for years with the /Illegible; artificial sweeteners?/, especially in Japan, as they represent approximately one-half million tons. Japan was the country that used it most.

Terceiro says that he has begun to study the famous issue of the Chamber of Commerce. RAMON greets Ruiz and says that he would like to take a book to him and also to talk to him about a personal matter. It is in reference to a recommendation made by Ramon's father for some people in Cuba that are interested in going to Spain. Ramon continues, and says that he is going to Mexico and Venezuela in December and if he can combine it he would like to go to Cuba also. He says, "It will be the moment for IBERPLAN to become familiar with Cuban reality once and for all". Ruiz says he can see him next week.

A PERSON (MALE CALLS and asks for "contact". Nilda says she does not understand his language. The man asks that if it is the Cuban Embassy, to please put him in "contact". Nilda says--4252. Ruiz talks to the man and says "Look, don't be a fool nor so idiotic we have grown up; we now have ten years of revolution, and we are not likely to fall into the kind of provocation that you are trying to do. You can tell that to whoever gives you orders or whoever is recording this conversation." The man asks Ruiz who he wants him to tell that to. Ruiz answers "Don't bother me any more. Tell it to the CIA or whoever gives you order, because probably it is the CIA or some other person. The one that gives you orders. Moreover, if you are tapeing this, so am I. I was waiting for your call. You just called a few minutes ago, so don't be an idiot." The man then says, "You think that the CIA gives me orders". Ruiz answers, "Most likely it is the CIA that gives you orders as the only enemy that Cuba has is the CIA, the Central Intelligence Agency,don't be a fool." The man says, "You are very intelligent", and Ruiz answers, "It is not a question of intelligence. It is simply that in ten years we have learned something." The man then says, "Ten years,eh", and Ruiz answers "Ten years of revolution, ten years with guns in our hands." Then the man says, "In this moment do you have a gun in your hand." Ruiz answers, "Yes, we have a gun in our hands. We are always waiting for the CIA; morning, noon, and night, always with guns in our hands." The man: "If you think I am under orders of the CIA you are a little silly." Ruiz answers "Look, I don't want to continue this conversation. You are a fool. I,too, am playing the part of a fool, because the telephone in my embassy is completely intercepted, I imagine. Everyone is listening to us, so you are an idiot, and I am silly to talk to you. Therefore, goodbye sir, and please don't bother me again." Ruiz hangs up.

1. The AMEDITS have just completed the QUDOZE transcripts for the period 19 September - 13 October 1969. This was the second group of transcripts forwarded the AMEDITS for translation, per our trial period as mentioned in reference A, in order to make them more fully useful to different components at Headquarters. The take from the QUDOZE operation appears very interesting. We noted with interest that AMAUTO-1 discusses freely with his subordinates and privileged visitors subjects of a confidential nature, including matters that have to do with intelligence activities. Some of the discussions offer a number of operational leads which we can follow-up, such as the medical information given on 22 September 1969 in the morning hours.

2. The AMEDITS have suggested that as an aid to help them translate accurately and possibly more rapidly, they would appreciate receiving some original tapes in addition to the transcripts on a trial basis. Then when parts of the transcripts are not understandable to the translater he would have readily available reference for replay.

3. With the next transmittal of the next QUDOZE material, we would appreciate receiving both the transcripts prepared by the station and the actual tapes covering the same period of time. The complete package can then be forwarded to the AMEDITS for their use as mentioned above.

They had told him that someone was waiting to see him, and now a girl comes in: RUIZ was expecting her. He greets her. She is a correspondent of Siempre, the Mexican magazine, and Ruiz has arranged an interview for her with Mrs. [illegible] or TALMES(ph). This girl asks if she told him that she was going to Cuba. No, replies Ruiz, all she did was to send her "background". He asks her if she is carrying her magazine credentials. She always does, she says.

Ruiz tells her what she must talk about at the interview, about politics in Spain and its relations with the United States.- She must have her questions prepared before-hand, and even the possible replies. She must order them carefully as if they were unimportant, but with a socialist sense.

Ruiz explains to this girl that what is of interest is Spain, the superstructure, the railroads, the banks, the national organizations, but not the fundamental things, yet well tied up, all the way to the bone. He says that people here are soccer fans, but later you can ask, "What do you think about a socialist regime in Spain?" The thing is to stop people in the street, one at a time.

You must take into account that Paco is considered one of the most brilliant politicians of all times. He is sagacious, intelligent. If communism had triumphed here it would have been the first communist country in the world, and yet neither communism nor socialism has anything to do here while Franco is in.

The girl came from Czechoslovakia, and she talks about that country and of Poland, where she has not been, but they have told her a lot about it. She depicts life in Czechoslovakia as extremely sad. She had been there in 1963. She comments that what they did last year in Czechoslovakia was to set the country back tremendously, because that was the first time that people had taken an interest in national affairs. Society was so rotten that people rebelled, but the invasion caused such a great shock that people sunk into a state of apathy from which they are not coming out. They are heading for a crisis that not even the Soviets will be able to stand. People have no interest in their work. Machinery is far behind. The scale of wages is disastrous. The only people that make money are the physicians and the nurses, who charge for a visit the equivalent of a worker's monthly salary. Besides there is tremendous corruption. And so the wage scale, the old machinery, and the corruption make life unbearable. It must be taken into account that they crushed 200,000 persons and that 35,000 Party members are in jail under suspicion. Before, people stood in line to join the Party; now they tear up their Party cards in the street. Disillusionment is enormous. Marxism as conceived by Lenin or Marx is no longer applicable: it must be brought up to date and placed in the current scale of technological evolution and world production. No one in Czechoslovakia wants to go to the USSR. Everybody, especially the students, wants to leave for Austria or Germany. The black market is up to date. The definition is very sad.

Fidel's latest speech, published by Prensa Latina, was distributed through the Embassy, but they got hold of the copies and destroyed them. They say that leftist publications praise whatever they want or whatever interests them, and Fidel's speech was of no interest to them, since they did not analyze it thoroughly.

She says that there is a latent revolutionary sentiment throughout Europe. At the Sorbonne there are some powerful centers where they compare the performance of the Chinese and Asiatic outbreaks more than they do the Soviet ones.

This correspondent says that when she gets to Cuba she is going to visit FIDEL, because there is a trend of distrust of Cubans throughout Europe, because they think that they receive information only through one channel.

Upon hearing these somewhat anti-Soviet remarks on the part of the correspondent, Ruiz interrupts her and says they have to be on the side of the Soviets for two reasons: first from the military and economic point of view, and also because right or wrong they are on the same side of the fence and must fight against those on the other side. Cuba has had, and still has, great discrepancies with Russia, China, and the United States. In the face of all these discrepancies we are on the side of communism because we are against capitalism.

Ruiz says that in order to find out if you are a communist you must ask yourself if you agree with distribution of wealth and land, equitable distribution of production, respect for man, nationalization of industry. This is what counts.

At the end this girl says that the only truth is that unfortunately we Cubans cannot live in peace in any socialist country. Men like FIDEL and CHE, in a country of seven million people, going against the whole world all by themselves. You should see the treatment Fidel gets from the intellectual magazines in the USSR, Czechoslovakia, and Poland.

Ruiz calls NILDA and tells her that this woman comrade is going to interview Mrs. TAMAMES or TAMAYO (ph) and asks Nilda what her personal opinion is about [the lady]. She says she has only seen her three or four times, and [asks] in what sense he means. Ruiz says that this woman comrade is from the Mexican magazine, Siempre. Nilda tells him that this lady is very superficial and fickle. She is from Havana. The correspondent wants to know what opinion [they have] of her husband. They say he is "un poco mosca" [somewhat of a fly].

Then this correspondent wants to know the address of either a Mexican or the Mexican consulate. Ruiz says that if it is to exchange her Madrid-Mexico ticket for a Madrid-Cuba one, go by Fuencarral 45, and ANCOSO, a Spaniard, or PACHECO, a Cuban, will make the change for her. It seems she wants to leave on Monday. She wants them to take care of her Mexican visa because she says that if she goes it will not be timely, after what happened with Humberto CARRILLO. She says that OLIVARES is now in charge. She is going to Cuba now and will go to Mexico in 15 days.

Nilda comes in and gives her the home telephone number of the lady she is going to interview: 226-86-96.

ACTION : See paragraph 5, below

1. Headquarters maintains its high interest in AMAUTO-1 as a long-range, in-place recruitment target. Much of this interest is kept alive by the excellent operational reporting done by Station Madrid over the past year, of which references C and D hereto are good examples.

2. Subject's position and total personality recommend him to us as a high-potential target. He is strongly intellectual and emotionally committed to an ideal. At the same time, he exhibts certain vulnerabilities which could be exploited. We believe, however, that AMAUTO-1 could be approached only in a classic sense: a rationally developed, long-range recruitment culminating in what would be essentially an intellectual and even ideological pitch. This course of action would take time and assets, but we think he would be eminently worth it.

3. First, his access not only is good now but seems destined to improve. Secondly, if he were our agent, he has the wit and the acuity to know what we want and submit information accurately based on requirements. Lastly, he is a strong personality who could be counted on to move flexibly but effectively within the target milieu.

4. As a recruitment target, however, AMAUTO-1 seems to present serious difficulties. He is strong-minded, opinionated, idealistic, and apparently committed to the revolution. On the other hand, there are certain things about him which could be converted into recruitment vulnerabilities. First among these is his apparent belief that the regime (read: the Revolution) is not making the best use of his talents. One cannot tell precisely whether this is the cause or result of his apparent basic emotional instability. During public appearances he displays polished manners and a pro-regime attitude; in private he frequently complains to his subordiantes that he did not ask for a diplomatic position, that he would prefer an industrial job, and that he believes his position to be more a handicap than a promotion. Secondly, he obviously desires personal prestige and luxurious living. While these traits do not mean so much in the case of a Cuban as compared to a Soviet or Chinese, hardships and economic mismanagement in Cuba do in fact create a contrast with his basic impulses. Thirdly, his spinal ailment has been diagonsed as incurable. While this may be true, he should realize that further examination by other medical men (while on a training mission in WOLADY, perhaps) could help him considerably. There may even be other vulnerabilities which further target study could expose.

5. We present these thoughts at the same time that we are fully aware of other operational pressures on Madrid's time and assets. Nevertheless, we would appreciate the Station's comments on further development of AMAUTO-1 as an in-place recruitment target. The first need would be the proper access agent, someone with a Jesuit-like intellectual training who can deal with him in the realm of concepts and philosophy as required. In any case, we would like continued target reporting on AMAUTO-1, as your time permits.

1. On 23 September 1969 AMAUTO-1 called an unidentified Spanish woman who resided in Cuba for many years before returning to Spain. AMAUTO-1 noted that he visited the Spanish woman's cousin, identified as Esther CORRIPIO, while he vacationed in PBRUMEN and found everyone in good health. The unidentified Spanish woman asked AMAUTO-1 if there was much food available and the following dialogue began:

AMAUTO-1: Yes, everything is being resolved. But imagine to be free, one must pay a high price and the price must be paid. There is no other way.

WOMAN: What one wants, one must pay.

AMAUTO-1: It is very logical, but look, when one is a servant to the rich, the servant usually lives relatively well, but the servant continues as a servant. However, when one no longer wants to be a servant to the rich, one has to begin saving and the only way there is for the poor to save is to reduce (the intake) of essential foods, change the essential and begin to buy machines and to buy a series of things (cuestiones) and one day, we will become rich together. We can say we are rich when we have resolved all the problems, not only material problems, but spiritual, cultural, that is, when everyone can do and believe as he likes.

WOMAN: Oh! I don't do anything but talk of Cuba and I adore the country. I have a brother there who is a nurse and he says he is fine.

AMAUTO-1: Cuba gets into your blood. When I saw Esther she was a little thin, but was in good health.

2. We think the above is another good example of AMAUTO-1's passion for the good life. While he appears patriotic and openly supports the regime, we continue to believe that he would prefer a return to the relative freedoms enjoyed by his countrymen before the start of the revolution.

SUBJECT PROTESTS BY CUBAN EMBASSY IN SPAIN OVER ALLEGED ATTACKS ON CUBAN OFFICIALS

SOURCE AN OFFICIAL SPANISH SERVICE; FROM A SOURCE DESCRIBED AS SENSITIVE AND USUALLY RELIABLE.

1. IN EARLY MAY 1970, THE CUBAN EMBASSY IN MADRID PREPARED A PROTEST NOTE TO THE SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTRY OVER AN INCIDENT WHICH OCCURRED AT THE BARAJAS AIRPORT IN MADRID BETWEEN CUBAN REFUGEES AND CUBAN OFFICIALS, IN WHICH BLOWS WERE EXCHANGED. ACCORDING TO MINISTER GUILLERMO RUIZ, CUBAN CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, THE EMBASSY WILL CHARGE THAT SIX FUNCTIONARIES AND FOUR DIPLOMATIC COURIERS FROM HAVANA WERE PHYSICALLY ATTACKED ON 4 MAY AT THE AIRPORT BY DISAFFECTED CUBANS, ALL RESIDENTS OF SPAIN. THE NOTE STATED THAT "THIS COWARDLY AND UNJUSTIFIABLE AGGRESSION" ENDANGERED DIPLOMATIC

2. (FIELD COMMENT: ACCORDING TO ANOTHER UNTESTED SOURCE WHO WAS AN EYEWITNESS TO THE 4 MAY INCIDENT, THE CROWD INCLUDED 23 MEMBERS OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY AND A NUMBER OF CUBAN EXPATRIATES MEETING AN IBERIA FLIGHT FROM HAVANA WHICH WAS CARRYING 75 CUBAN OFFICIALS AND 30 CUBAN REFUGEES. MAXIMO TORRES, FORMER MAYOR OF SANTIAGO DE CUBA AND A MAN OF OVER 60 YEARS OF AGE, ADDRESSED ONE OF THE ARRIVING CUBAN OFFICIALS, MISTAKING HIM FOR A REFUGEE. THE OFFICIAL REBUFFED HIM RUDELY AND A GENERAL ARGUMENT ENSUED AND BLOWS WERE EXCHANGED. HORACIO FUENTES MARTINEZ, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY, JUMPED FROM A NEARBY CAR AND PISTOL-WHIPPED ONE OF THE REFUGEES. AFTER THE POLICE ARRIVED, TORRES AND HIS WIFE NEEDED MEDICAL ATTENTION.)

3. ON 6 MAY, ROBERTO FRANCO OLIVA, CUBAN CONSUL IN MADRID, COMPLAINED TO A SPANISH POLICE INSPECTOR CONCERNING THE INCIDENT AT THE AIRPORT AS FOLLOWS:

A. THE SCENE AT THE AIRPORT HAD BEEN PREPARED BY THE U.S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) AND "COUNTERREVOLUTIONARIES." THE INSPECTOR REPLIED TO THIS THAT SPANISH AUTHORITIES WERE

INVESTIGATING AND WOULD GIVE CUBAN OFFICIALS THE PROTECTION IN SPAIN WHICH THEY SHOULD HAVE. HE SAID THAT THREE CUBAN REFUGEES HAD BEEN ARRESTED AND WOULD BE DEPORTED TO FRANCE. FOR THEIR PART, THE REFUGEES HAD SAID THAT HORACIO FUENTES HAD PULLED OUT A GUN DURING THE FIGHT, A CHARGE WHICH FRANCO DENIED AT LENGTH.

B. MANY OTHER ATTACKS HAVE BEEN SUFFERED BY CUBAN OFFICIALS AT THE AIRPORT AND DAMAGE DONE TO THEIR PARKED CARS.

C. WHEN CUBAN SEAMEN ARE ARRESTED BY THE SPANISH POLICE IN THE CANARY ISLANDS THEY ARE INTERROGATED SEPARATELY IN THE POLICE STATION BY AN AGENT OF THE CIA WHO IS A CUBAN "GUSANO" (TURNCOAT).

D. ALTHOUGH THERE ARE SPANISH REPUBLICANS AND SPANISH COMMUNISTS IN CUBA, THE SPANISH EMBASSY IN HAVANA IS NEVER MOLESTED.

E. FRANCO IS PREPARED TO ADVISE CUBAN PASSENGERS COMING TO SPAIN TO CARRY RAZORS FOR SELF DEFENSE. CUBAN OFFICIALS, PARTICULARLY THOSE WHO GO TO THE AIRPORT, SHOULD APPLY FOR LICENSES TO CARRY PISTOLS.

4. (FIELD COMMENT: ACCORDING TO AN OFFICIAL SPANISH SERVICE, CUBAN DIPLOMATS MAY APPLY FOR GUN PERMITS TO THE SPANISH FOREIGN MINISTRY AND WOULD PROBABLY RECEIVE PERMISSION. NON-DIPLOMATIC CUBANS MUST APPLY TO THE DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF

INTERNAL SECURITY (DGS) BUT WOULD PROBABLY NOT RECEIVE PERMISSION. TDCSDB-315/01741-70 REPORTED THAT AS OF 8 APRIL ALL CUBAN COMMERCIAL REPRESENTATIVES WERE CARRYING PISTOLS, AND THAT SOURCES OF KNOWN RELIABILITY HAVE NOTED THAT CUBAN DIPLOMATS ABROAD HAVE BEEN AUTHORIZED BY THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT TO CARRY A SMALL HAND WEAPON.)

1. VIEW REF B, HQS SANGUINE ABOUT POSSIBILITIES OF "CHANCE" APPROACH BY SAMKO TO AMAUTO-1. AS REASONABLY WELL OFF RETIRED PERSON, SAMKO COULD NATURALLY GO TO MADRID AS TOURIST. HQS WONDERS WHETHER THIS WOULD HOLD WATER UNLESS WIFE ACCOMPANIED HIM. REQUEST MIAMI INVESTIGATE THIS POINT.

2. APPROACH BY SAMKO WOULD ALMOST CERTAINLY NOT LEAD TO RECRUITMENT, BUT WOULD OFFER PERSONAL READING OF AMAUTO-1 BASED ON WHAT APPEARS TO BE WARM ENTREE PROVIDED BY FONDLY-REMEMBERED PAST ASSOCIATION. IF APPROPRIATE, SAMKO COULD PROVIDE LINK TO "OTHER WORLD" IN CASE AMAUTO-1 EVER NEEDED HELP. LATTER SCHEDULED TRAVEL HAVANA IN JUNE 70 AND RETURN MADRID PRIOR POSTING CUBA. JUDGING FROM AMBEDEW-1 AND AMDELAY-1 CASES, BRIEF RETURN TO CUBA MIGHT PROVE TURNING POINT IN ANY DECISION TO DEFECT. THEREFORE, ANY MEETING WITH SAMKO SHOULD BE PRIOR JUNE DEPARTURE.

On 29 October QUTIMID reported a conversation between Guillermo RUIZ Perez, the Cuban Minister to Spain, and Manuel TELLO Troncoso, identified in the Diplomatic List as Counsellor of the Chilean Embassy, regarding the postponement until 31 October of a meeting they were to have on 29 October. We have no information on the purpose of the meeting. We note that TELLO arrived in Spain in January 1969.

1. The following information about Subject's trip to Spain and her activities while here was obtained from QUTIMID and QUDOZE.

2. Subject arrived in Madrid on 10 February 1970. She traveled to Barcelona during the week of 23 February and returned to Madrid 6 March whereupon she then left for Portugal. She returned to Madrid on 17 March and waited for Guillermo RUIZ Perez' return from the Spanish/Cuban Commercial negotiations in Cuba. Sonia departed Madrid for Cuba on 27 March 1970. It appears that she intended to travel to Vienna, Austria next, since several cables were sent to Vienna from Madrid advising Sonia's travel status. During her stay in Spain, Sonia was in frequent contact with one Jose Agustin GOYTISOLO, Spanish writer in Barcelona, telephone 228-4063 (Station traces are OSBA 02385, 17 February 1965; OSBA 02718, 11 August 1967; and OSBA 02795, 1 March 1968). She was not known to have been in contact with any other locals and what little time she had for diversion she spent with the mission officers and their wives.

3. The purpose of Sonia's trip to Madrid was to discuss the 1970 work plan for the Embassy with the Charge, Guillermo RUIZ Perez. She also talked with the various Embassy officials, most probably to familiarize herself with their duties and to see if they had any problems. She pitched in and helped with the backlogged work of Orestes BARREDA and Horacio FUENTES and also helped with the cultural activities. For instance, she sent two cables to MINREX - one regarding the forwarding of movie posters for a March exhibit and another regarding the forwarding of a Cuban stamp exhibition by end March.

4. In their discussion of the 1970 work plan Sonia told RUIZ that they were going to plan the February, March, and April quarter. She showed him "an agenda for the control of planned and unplanned activities" and the general directives of the plan which included scientific information and political information, with specific directives (requirements) for Spain. RUIZ has to prepare for Havana a monthly report, then a quarterly summary, of the activities accomplished. Based on these reports the activities of the following quarter will be planned.

a. In line with the plan of scientific information, Sonia and RUIZ discussed the pros and cons of a Comite Cientifico-Tecnico which is to be set up in Madrid. RUIZ was of the opinion that the local (Spanish) Communist Party would try to infiltrate it and this would bring problems to the Embassy. Sonia pointed out the successes encountered in Switzerland and Sweden with such a committee even though at first there were problems which were later overcome.

b. Sonia showed RUIZ a commercial project which she planned to take to Portugal and asked him to read it because it was also of interest to the Cuban mission in Spain.

c. Sonia mentioned that the Plan of Information was still to be completed especially in the priority categories of livestock and economy.

d. They turned next to the topic of the budget. Sonia said that the budget for each mission had to be submitted before the end of April (every year) and no additional expenditures could be submitted for approval during the course of the year. Spain, Canada, and France, however, would be treated individually. Their special needs, such as acquisition of more office space, raises in cost of living allowances, etc., would be taken into consideration at any time.

5. During their various discussions RUIZ aired his complaint about the Visa Department in Havana saying that the department was practically worthless and that last year 76 cables regarding visas remained unanswered. Sonia defended the Ministry saying that it had a lot of work to do, but RUIZ replied that they wanted to work only 8 hours a day. They also discussed the scholarship situation. It seems that during an interview between PRIETO (Probably Jose PRIETO Benitez, Director of Foreign Relations of the DAP) and the Minister of Public Works, PRIETO was asked to provide a list of scholarship candidates to be considered and he had none. Sonia mentioned that in Belgium they also lost four scholarships because of this same reason.

6. According to QUTIMID Sonia GOMEZ Aragon is married to one Miguel (LNU) and has a daughter named Iliana. Sonia's mother is still living although appeared to be very ill at the time Sonia left for her trip to Madrid because Sonia cabled at least twice to Havana inquiring about the status of her mother's health. (TYLOTE reported that Sonia's home phone number in Havana is 7-4263.) Perhaps Headquarters can determine the full name of her husband by checking the reverse telephone listings. Sonia is attractive, intelligent, sertious-minded and reserved. The last time she visited Spain she stayed with Vera BORODOWSKI and was on the same type of mission as the present one - to discuss the Madrid Embassy's work plan. She also visited the Barcelona Consulate and the Cuban Embassy in Lisbon.

Helen B. NOTHDURFT

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez (201-735296) file

Since Headquarters has recently prepared an extensive analysis on RUIS for the information of addressees, an additional review has been omitted. However, the attached biographic study should be useful.

30 April 1970

NAME:	Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez (201-735296) (NOTE: A comprehensive study/analysis on RUIZ was prepared in February 1970, see OSMW-11726.)
ALIAS:	Also uses Guillermo RUIZ Perez
DPOB:	10 February 1930, Havana
PRESENT POSITION:	Minister, Charge d'Affaires, Cuban Embassy, Madrid, since December 1967.
WIFE:	Nilda VECIANA Lopez (DPOB: 26 December 1934, Havana)
CHILDREN:	Five sons, and a sixth child due to be born April/May 1970, Guillermo, the oldest, in school in Cuba. Alejandro, Julio, Juan Carlos and Ivan with their parents in Madrid.
PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:	White, variously described as 5'5" - 5'7" tall, and 170-190 pounds, stout build; round face, fair complexion, blond slightly wavy hair, light-colored eyes (also reported as blue and green), wears glasses. No visible identifying marks. Well dressed.
PERSONALITY:	Perhaps a relative's description of RUIZ sums up his personality - "a man of many moods." He has variously been described as intelligent, mentally alert, competent, hardworking, and respected by his subordinates. Pleasant, easy going, nervous, quick-tempered, brusque but sincere, opinionated, strong-minded idealistic, self-confident. Has basic emotional instability, gives impression of being insecure in his position. At times sarcastic, indifferent, egotistical, cynical, serious, ungrateful and cold, who, paradoxically, appears friendly to some people. Outspoken, compulsive talker, articulate, limited vocabulary, swears a good deal.

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

He can turn on considerable charm, where motivated. In contrast to his pleasant public image and acceptable language, private conversation is vulgar, swears continually and flies into rages.

Likes good living and spends money where it shows. Avid reader, keeps abreast of world events, shows willingness to accept whatever he deems to be good or useful from the outside world. Concerned with the image and prestige of Cuba in Spain. Emotionally committed to an ideal. An AMEDIT study summed RUIZ up as a realist. He speaks English and French. His wife, a teacher, always worked before going to Spain, and there works as a secretary and bookkeeper at the Embassy on an informal basis. Appears intelligent, competent, outspoken but solicitious and affectionate with her husband; interested in, and encourages him in his work. Appears to support the regime, but not a fanatic. RUIZ is the dominant personality of the two.

EDUCATION:

One reference states that he went to work at age 14, which suggests lack of formal education.
In 1960 as an employee of the Ministry of the Treasury, selected to attend a statistics course offered by CEPAL, which lasted two years.

One relative reported he completed elementary education at "Hermanos Maristas" school in Havana; did not know whether he attended high school, but said in early days of the Castro regime attended the University of

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

Havana.

Another relative said his primary and secondary education was received in private institutions, and that he has a degree in "political economics" from the University of Havana.

He is well versed in world affairs and has an understanding of international trade.

PREVIOUS POSITIONS: Vice Minister, MINCEX, 1964-1967.

Commercial Counselor, Cuban Embassy, Mexico City. Although he was accredited to that position in December 1963, travel indicates he was in Mexico from August 1963 to May 1964. Other references indicate he was in that position in September 1963.

Ministry of the Treasury. In April 1962 he was Chief of the Department of Construction Expenses Studies, Office of Financial Statistics of that ministry. He was with the ministry as early as 1960, when he was selected to attend the statistics course.

During the Batista regime he was in exile. Came to the U.S. sometime in the 1950's and apparently remained for some time before he left in February 1957, when, according to some reports, he entered Cuba clandestinely. Also reported to have been in exile in Mexico.

LNYUMA records show he came to U.S. on 8 November 1956 to see his brother, left 17 November for the Dominican Republic where he received five months military training. Returned to the U.S. 5 April 1957, overstayed his time, and on 11 February 1958 was ordered deported; claimed he would be killed if he returned to Cuba and did not show for deportation. Subsequent investigation showed he was in Cuba as of 2 March.

POLITICAL ATTITUDE:

A member of the Cuban Communist Party, admitted on the recommendation of Armando HART Davalos, Secretary of Organization. Although he has been described as a militant Communist, a convinced supporter of the Castro regime and a fanatic Fidelista, there is evidence to dispute this image. An analysis of available information indicates that he is not a convinced Marxist, he cannot accept Party discipline, and that his character is basically incompatible with the system he serves.

His father is reported to be an old-guard Communist and a leader of the barber's union. A brother reported to be a member of DSE in 1946.

He expressed dissatisfaction with his position as a diplomat, feels his talents are wasted and would like a position in commerce or industry, where he considers he could better serve the revolution. Has criticized the bureaucracy and inefficiency in the government in Havana.

He has said that many Cuban diplomats want to stay out of Cuba, but it seemed to him that the Cuban government wanted to keep him (RUIZ) out of the way (i.e., outside Cuba). That LEON had appointed him, supported him, and they are good friends, but that he (RUIZ) does not like to work with a man who one does not get to know, nor to know what he is thinking. He said he felt as if he were in Miami.

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

INTELLIGENCE CONNECTIONS: In May 1964 AMMUG-1 reported RUIZ was a DGI case officer in Mexico for operations targetted against "some nearby area," and later identified his photograph as DGI member in Mexico.

In 1961 an emigre said RUIZ, with the Finance Ministry, was a Communist and G-2.

AMTIKI-1 said a letter from a friend in Cuba stated that RUIZ, then in Mexico, was a member of G-2, sent to try to infiltrate counterrevolutionary groups (1963).

In April 1968, RUIZ advised Aristides DIAZ Rovirosa on the use of disguises, the need to "live secretly" and commented on DIAZ' being "already clandestine."

The Cuban Ambassador to Geneva, in 1968, commented on RUIZ' refusal to accept DGI dominance of the Cuban Embassy, Madrid. (AMDELAY-1). In July 1969, AMBEDEW-1 said RUIZ was very dictatorial in his dealings with DGI officers.

CONTACTS: Not much is known of his contacts in Madrid, other than official. Is in touch with Ahmed LAIDI, Algerian Ambassador; Manuel TELLO Troncoso, Counselor of Chilean Embassy, Madrid; Alexandru PETRESCU, Romanian Minister to Spain and Carlos CARRASCO Munoz de Vera, a lawyer and personal friend.

ASSESSMENT: It appears that RUIZ might well be responsive to an approach, with consideration given to the manner in which it is undertaken, the timing and the person involved.

Orestes Guillermo RUIZ Perez

ACCESS:

MISCELLANEOUS:

Although RUIZ' health has been described as generally good, he suffers from a back ailment which resulted from a fall in 1955 and which has been diagnosed as incurable. Also he suffers from a liver ailment for which he takes medicine.

RUIZ is scheduled to return to Cuba in mid-1970, where he expects to be with MININT, rather than MINREX or MINCEX.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Possible DRE Animus Towards President Kennedy

1. This memorandum makes record of a recollection which has been brought to mind in recent weeks since my return from Yugoslavia in late November 1966.

2. In Spring 1961, upon returning from Berlin I was assigned to JMWAVE. One of the cases on which I worked from then until shortly before my reassignment to Headquarters in late summer 1963 concerned funding of overseas elements of the DRE (Student Revolutionary Directorate) which had its main office in Miami (the case officer for this group during this period was Mr. Ross CROZIER, since resigned).

3. I believe that it is this group, the DRE, which has been referred to in investigations into the President's assassination as the Cuban Student Directorate, whose New Orleans representative is said to have had contacts with OSWALD.

4. I have assumed that, since the time I was transferred from Miami and scheduled for my next assignment as COB, 27 10 Zagreb, officers better and more recently informed than myself have probably examined in detail all aspects of the DRE involvement with OSWALD, in order to rule out any slight possibility that compromise of the CIA sponsorship of this organization might in any way embarrass the Agency. Recent news reports of investigations centering in New Orleans on the assassination have once again brought to mind the concern I felt in November 1963, by which time, however, I was far removed from current knowledge of the operation.

5. I do retain a distinct recollection that the DRE leadership, specifically Luis FERNANDEZ Rocha, whom I met several times, did hold sentiments of chagrin and embitterment that President Kennedy had not more forcefully pursued a "liberation" of Cuba. Whether or not this animus, which could be discerned as occasional signs of anger or of contempt or of discouragement, might have been translated into a wish for revenge, may be better known to other officers who dealt with this group after the summer of 1963.

(([illegible])) ((QUESTION)) [illegible] CHAIRMAN, WHAT IS THE REACTION
[illegible]
OF THE U.S. PUBLIC AND OF YOUR PARTY TO THE RECENT EVENTS

K

((ANSWER)) THE ATTITUDE OF THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES IS ONE OF HORROR AT THE GENOCIDAL POLICY BEING CONDUCTED BY THE NIXON ADMINISTRATION IN INDOCHINA. THE PEACE MOVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES NOW IS A MOVEMENT OF THE MAJORITY. IT COMPRISES SEVENTYSIX 76 PERCENT OF ALL THE PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES. IT UNITES PEOPLE OF VARYING POLITICAL VIEWS; BLACK, WHITE, BROWN, YELLOW, RED, AND IT IS A PROGRAM FOR THEIR UNITY. IT LEADS THEM TO UNITY AROUND THE PROGRAM FOR ENDING THE WAR NOW IN VIETNAM, FOR THE COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL OF THE TROOPS, AND A PROGRAM WHICH GIVES AND CREATES THE CONDITIONS FOR THE VIETNAMESE PEOPLE TO HAVE THE RIGHT TO DETERMINE THEIR OWN DESTINY FREE FROM U.S. IMPERIALISM, BOMBS FROM THE AIR OR SHIPS AT SEA. IT WAS FOR THAT REASON THAT GUS HALL, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES, WHO IS NOW OUR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE AND (CHARLES TYNER), CHAIRMAN OF THE LEAGUE FOR THE LIBERATION OF YOUNG WORKERS, WHO IS OUR VICE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE, WENT TO HANOI AND SAW WITH THEIR OWN EYES THE CRIMINALITY OF THE WASHINGTON PIRATES, WHO DROPPED BOMBS FROM THEIR [illegible] PLANES AND USED ALL KINDS OF GENOCIDAL CHEMICAL WEAPONS

OF [illegible] CHILDREN. THE SAME [illegible]

THREE THOUSAND 3,000 VILLAGES DESTROYED BY BOMBS DROPPED BY THE PLANES OF U.S. MONOPOLISTS, BY B-57 AND B-52 PLANES. THREE THOUSAND VILLAGES MEANS THREE THOUSAND 3,000 LIDICES. THESE BOMBS ARE BEING DROPPED BY THE U.S. MONOPOLY BOURGEOISIE, WHICH DIRECTS NIXON AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF VIETNAM.

((QUESTION)) WOULD YOU TELL ME IN THIS CONTEXT WHAT IS THE RESPONSE TO THE SOVIET PEACE OFFENSIVE IN THE UNITED STATES?

((ANSWER)) THE PEACE MAJORITY ABOUT THIS--I SPOKE IN THE UNITED STATES REFLECTS ITSELF IN GREETING THE POSITIONS TAKEN BY THE PEOPLE IN EUROPE IN GENERAL ON THE BASIS OF THE SOVIET INITIATIVE AND IT IS HOPING TO CREATE A ZONE WHERE WORLD HUMANITY WILL NOTT AGAIN BE FACED WITH THE DANGER OF NUCLEAR WAR. THAT IS WHY YOU FIND SUCH STRONG SUPPORT FOR THIS INITIATIVE TAKING PLACE IN A THOUSAND DIFFERENT FORMS AND DEVELOPING FURTHER. THE AGREEMENT ON EUROPEAN SECURITY HOLDS A PROMINENT POSITION ON WHICH THE PEOPLES OF EUROPE AS SUCH CAN UNITE AGAINST THE REVANCHISTS AND WARMONGERS AND ONCE AND FOR ALL PREVENT A WAR, WHICH COULD ONLY PRODUCE HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF LIVES DESTROYED AND BURNED BY THERMONUCLEAR WEAPONS.

((QUESTION)) THE CRISIS OF U.S. SOCIETY ALSO INVOLVES THE [illegible] EXAMPLE IS [illegible]

DAVIS. IT IS GENERALLY KNOWN THAT CZECHOSLOVAKIA, LIKE THE ENTIRE PROGRESSIVE PUBLIC, FULLY SUPPORTS THIS WELL-KNOWN U.S. COMMUNIST. IN YOUR OPINION WHAT WILL BE THE FURTHER COURSE OF THE TRIAL?

((ANSWER)) FIRST OF ALL I BRING GREETINGS FROM THE U.S. COMMUNIST PARTY, FROM THE COMMITTEE FOR THE DEFENSE OF ANGELA DAVIS AND FROM ANGELA DAVIS PERSONALLY. MOST CORDIAL GREETINGS AND THANKS TO THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE WHO SO COURAGEOUSLY AND SELFLESSLY STRUGGLE FOR THE FULL FREEDOM OF THE POLITICAL PRISONERS, PERSECUTED BY THE MONOPOLISTS AND RACISTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

((QUESTION)) THANK YOU VERY MUCH.

((ANSWER)) ANGELA DAVIS' CASE IS A REFLECTION OF THE REACTIONARY PROFASCIST POLICY WHICH IS [illegible] IN THE COUNTRY, AND IT IS PART AND PARCEL OF THE CAMPAIGN OF EXTERMINATION AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF VIETNAM, AND IT IS PART AND A STRIKING EXAMPLE OF THE POLICY THROUGH WHICH THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTS ALL POSSIBLE SORTS OF MILITARISTS AND REVANCHISTS IN WEST GERMANY AND THE APARTHEID GOVERNMENT IN SOUTH AFRICA. U.S. IMPERIALISM DOES NOTT SUPPORT ANY PROGRESSIVE REGIME ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD, BUT IT SUPPORTS ALL REACTIONARY REGIMES EVERYWHERE --THAT IS WHAT IN TERMS OF DOMESTIC POLICY LEADS TO THE STAGED

TRIAL OF ANGELA DAVIS, WHICH REFLECTS THE ATTACK OF THE [illegible] [illegible] FORCES ON DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES.

IT BEGAN WITH AN ATTACK ON ALL BLACK PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES. THAT IS WHY THE NIXON ADMINISTRATION IS NOW TAKING STEPS TO PACK THE SUPREME COURT IN SUCH A WAY THAT IS BECOMES A NIXON COURT, WHOSE RULINGS WILL BE TO RIP OUT ALL THE PROGRESSIVE PEACEFUL LEGISLATION OF THE CONGRESS AND EVERY PROGRESSIVE DECISION OF THAT COURT. AND THAT IS WHY EFFORTS ARE BEING MADE TO PREPARE THE APPROVAL OF NEW LAWS AND REGULATIONS WHICH ARE AIMED AT CURBING DEMOCRACY AND AT MAKING IT POSSIBLE NOTT ONLY TO WAGE THE WAR BEYOND THE SEA BUT ALSO TO SUPPORT FORCES INSIDE THE UNITED STATES WHICH WOULD CRUSH THE BLACK LIBERATION MOVEMENT AND CRACK THE UNITY OF THE WORKING PEOPLE. 071530 CG/BROWN/HA

POLITBURO MEMBER AXEN RECEIVES CPUSA LEADER WINSTON

East Berlin NEUES DEUTSCHLAND in German 5 May 72 p 2 A [Text] Berlin (ND)--On Thursday, Hermann Axen, Politburo member and SED Central Committee secretary, received Henry Winston, chairman of the CPUSA, who is currently in the GDR for a friendship visit, in the headquarters of the Central Committee. During the meeting, which was marked by a spirit of friendship and the close fraternal friendship between the two parties, the chairman of the fraternal U.S. party reported on the results of the 20th CPUSA Congress, the party's successes in the struggle for exercising its election rights in the presidential elections in November 1972, on problems of the struggle against the U.S. imperialist aggression in Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia and on the movement for the defense of Angela Davis.

Hermann Axen conveyed the greetings of Erich Honecker, First Secretary of the SED Central Committee, to Gus Hall, secretary general of the CPUSA, and to all U.S. communists, reassuring them of the continued fraternal solidarity of the SED and the GDR working people in their struggle for peace, democracy and social progress, for the defense of civil rights and the liberation of Comrade Angela Davis.

Hermann Axen extensively informed the U.S. workers leader about the implementation of the decisions of the Eighth SED Congress and the GDR's struggle for peace and security in Europe.

The talk once again confirmed the full agreement of the SED and the CPUSA on all basic questions of the struggle of the world communist movement and served the further deepening of the fraternal relations between the two parties.

At a very cordial meeting with representatives of the GDR Committee for Human Rights, Henry Winston, chairman of the CPUSA, movingly outlined the efforts of thousands of U.S. citizens in defense of Angela Davis.

HENRY WINSTON

I. Personal History

A. Birth and Family Background

Henry Winston, a Negro, was born April 11, 1914, at Hattiesburg, Mississippi, to Joseph and Lucille Bingham Winston, both of whom were born in Mississippi. The family moved to Kansas City, Missouri, about 1927. Joseph Winston died there on October 28, 1958. He and his wife had been separated for many years.

Winston had several sisters and a brother, namely, Dora Humphrey, Lillie Belle Black, Roberta Smith, and Otis D. Winston. Another sister, Anna Lee McConico, is dead. Apparently none of Winston's family ever became affiliated with the CPUSA.

B. Marital Status

On May 2, 1941, Henry Winston and Edna Lerner, a white native-born New Yorker, were married in Brooklyn, New York. Edna was born April 23, 1918. Her father was born in Russia, and her mother in Austria. Henry and Edna have two children, Larry Douglas, born February 14, 1947, and Judith Anne, born September 25, 1950, both in New York City.

HENRY WINSTON

Guy Owens, a Negro, was born March 5, 1934, in New York City, the illegitimate son of [illegible] Owens, although Henry Winston is often referred to as his father. He has been active in communist affairs since the late 1940s. At one time, he suffered a mental breakdown and spent some time in the Soviet Union, where he was hospitalized. He also attended school there. For a time, he lived with his mother and Winston, although he is currently living in Apartment 3-C, 150 [illegible] Street, New York City, and is unemployed.

C. Education

Winston attended Lincoln High School in Kansas City, Missouri, from 1928 to about 1930.

D. Employment

While in Kansas City, he worked at miscellaneous jobs from 1930 to 1932 before going to New York City. Since then, he has given his full time to CPUSA activities.

F. Foreign Travel

In November, 1933, Winston was sent to the Soviet Union by the CPUSA to attend the Lenin School, and remained at this school until May, 1935. In March, 1937, he revisited the Soviet Union.

Winston, accompanied by his wife, Edna, and their two children, went to the Soviet Union in the Fall of 1961. His wife and children returned to the United States in November, 1961, but Winston remained abroad for two and a half years. During this period, he underwent examination and treatment by Soviet doctors for his virtual blindness. On his return, he stated he had been to East Germany twice and had attended Congresses of the Communist Parties in Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Bulgaria, in addition to having traveled extensively in the Soviet Union.

Winston has indicated that he has traveled to many socialist countries throughout the world, including Red China as well as Korea, Indonesia, and other places, where he had discussed the international communist movement and the problems connected therewith.

Winston with his wife, Fern, went to Santiago, Chile, in October, 1965, to attend the 13th Congress of the Chilean Communist Party as a delegate-observer.

In March, 1966, they traveled to the Soviet Union to attend the 23rd Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. They revisited that country in the Fall of 1967, as part of the official delegation of the CPUSA, to attend the 50th Anniversary of the October Revolution [illegible] November of 1968, they returned to the Soviet Union [illegible] visited East Berlin.

Winston together with Gus Hall headed the CPUSA delegation to the World Conference of Communist and Workers' Parties in Moscow beginning June 5, 1969.

F. Military Service

Winston was inducted into the United States Army on February 17, 1942, and honorably discharged on October 31, 1945, with the rank of Technician, Fifth Class. During much of his service he acted as a "public relations reporter" and was attached to the London Public Relations Office of the Negro Interest Section.

G. Health

On January 12, 1960, authorities at the United States Penitentiary at Terre Haute, Indiana, where Winston was incarcerated, stated that he was ill and appeared to be losing his equilibrium. Later that month, Winston was examined by a neuropsychiatrist from Indianapolis whose findings showed that he had intercranial pressure which could be caused by a brain tumor or a brain hemorrhage resulting from high blood pressure. As a consequence, Winston was operated on February 2, 1960, for a benign tumor in the brain. A marked degree of incoordination of his gait was noted, and he was considered to be legally blind. On June 30, 1961, he was released from prison following commutation of his sentence by President Kennedy.

In August, 1961, there were indications that Winston very likely still had a brain tumor but had refused to undergo another operation because he was given only a fifty-fifty chance for survival. Soviet medical reports in early 1962 allegedly revealed that Winston's condition was much improved, that his vision was six per cent in his right eye and one per cent in his left, and that the tumor in his head had not spread. On March 12, 1963, Soviet doctors, after a complete physical examination, stated that the symptoms indicating a recurrence of Winston's brain tumor had completely disappeared.

In January, 1966, Fern Winston advised that doctors in the Soviet Union told Winston that he must return to that country for hospitalization and treatment twice a year for periods of four to six weeks. This treatment, consisting of injections, exercises, medicine, and diet, is supposed to reduce the blood pressure and enable Winston to see, at least, some contrast between dark and light.

Winston has claimed on numerous occasions that, while he was in prison, the Government doctors made a wrong diagnosis of his ailment and, as a result, he is now blind. On November 7, 1960, while in prison, Winston brought suit against the U.S. Government for one million dollars under the Federal Torts Claims Act, alleging that the failure of prison authorities to properly diagnose his condition and to treat him for a brain tumor had resulted in his becoming totally blind. On January 18, 1965, however, Winston's attorney, John Abt, said he was dropping this suit because of the difficulty of extracting the necessary information from prison authorities and because the time required would detract from Winston's public activities.

Winston reportedly suffers from some imbalance of his metabolism which causes him to have attacks of hiccups persisting for several days.

E. Current Address

Winston resides at 354 East 108th Street, New York, New York.

II. Communist Party Affiliations

A. History

Winston joined the YCL in January, 1931, and became a member of the CPUSA in the Summer of 1931. In December, 1932, he left Kansas City, Missouri, as a YCL delegate to the National Hunger March in Washington, D. C., and then proceeded to New York City, where he worked for the "Young Worker," official organ of the YCL.

In 1933, he was Chairman of the Harlem Youth Section of the Unemployed Councils and was later named Chairman of the Youth Section of the Unemployed Council for the New York City metropolitan area. From April through November, 1933, he was Section Organizer of the YCL in Brooklyn.

From November, 1933, to May, 1935, he was in the Soviet Union, where he attended the Lenin School. Upon his return to the United States, he became Organizational Secretary of the YCL in Cleveland and was named to the Ohio District Committee of the YCL. In March, 1936, Winston was named YCL National Organizational Secretary, and in May, 1937, was elected YCL National Administrative Secretary.

Winston was active in the YCL as editor of the "Young Communist Review," official magazine of the YCL, and as Director of the YCL Training School held at Camp Beacon, New York, during 1937 and 1938. He was reelected YCL National Administrative Secretary in May, 1939, and held this office until his induction into the Army in February, 1942.

Winston became a member of the CPUSA National Committee in June, 1940; was elected a member of the Communist Political Association National Committee while serving in the Armed Forces in 1944; and was renamed to the CPUSA National Committee in July, 1945. From October, 1945, to July, 1946, he served as Secretary of the Party's National Negro Commission. He was named a member of the editorial staff of "Political Affairs" in 1946. In July, 1946, he was elected a member of the Party's National Board and appointed CPUSA National Organizational Secretary. He held the latter position until his disappearance into the Party's underground apparatus in July, 1951.

Winston was a fugitive from July 2, 1951, following his failure to appear after being convicted of a violation of the Smith Act, until his surrender to authorities on March 5, 1956.

In August, 1961, Winston was elected to the CPUSA's National Executive Committee and was made CPUSA Vice Chairman.

On his return to the United States in February, 1964, after two and a half years abroad, Winston was elected a member of the Secretariat and the National Executive Board. At the 18th National Convention of the CPUSA in June, 1966, he was elected CPUSA National Chairman.

B. Current Activity

Winston is currently CPUSA National Chairman and a member of the Secretariat, the National Executive Board, and the National Committee.

C. Congressional Testimony

Winston testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee on April 2, 1948, on behalf of the CPUSA in opposition to universal military training and the draft.

D. Indictments and Arrests

Winston was indicted on July 20, 1948, under conspiracy provisions of the Smith Act of 1940. He was tried, convicted, sentenced to five years imprisonment, and fined $10,000 but failed to appear in Federal Court for commitment to prison on July 2, 1951. He remained a fugitive until his surrender on March 5, 1956, as a result of which he received an additional three-year sentence for contempt of court. Winston remained in prison until his sentence was commuted by President Kennedy on June 30, 1961, for reason of health.

On August 3, 1961, the Department of Justice, in view of Winston's physical condition, dismissed the detainer against Winston which had been placed because of his indictment under the Smith Act. Winston's indictment under the Smith Act was dismissed on May 29, 1963.

III. Characterization

A. Physical Appearance

Winston is six feet tall. He is stockily built, weighing around 200 pounds. He has black hair, brown eyes, and a pockmarked face. He dresses neatly, wears a suit and tie, and appears to be well groomed at all times.

B. Habits and Idiosyncrasies

Because of his near-total blindness, Winston has to be led or driven around, except when he is at home or at CPUSA headquarters. His associates read to him, and in this way he is able to keep informed about national and world events and Party affairs.

Winston relishes his position as CPUSA National Chairman and the emoluments accruing from it. He does not lack for personal or material comforts. He can travel anywhere in the world anytime he desires. When he goes to the Soviet Union he is paid homage, catered to, and afforded all the medical attention he wishes.

Winston's wife, Fern, is said to have complained that she has no easy life because she frequently has to act as his nurse, secretary, and chauffeur and gets nothing in return from him except abuse. Gus Hall is reported to have helped patch up their marital difficulties and persuaded them to stay together.

C. Effectiveness as Party Leader

Winston occupies his top post in the CPUSA by virtue of the fact that Hall, when he became General Secretary, needed a prominent Negro Party leader to give him support because of his own lack of following among Party Negroes. Since Winston is now an important figure in the national leadership, Hall and other Negro functionaries are obliged to be attentive to and respectful of him.

Hall is apparently resentful that Winston is essential to his continuing Negro support in the Party and that he must necessarily treat Winston with deference. Hall reportedly would like nothing better than to have Soviet doctors keep Winston in the USSR for an indefinite period of time when he visits that country for a medical check-up, thereby preventing Winston from participating in CPUSA affairs. Hall is said to believe that Winston is mentally ill as a result of his brain tumor.

From Winston's earliest days in the communist movement until his release from prison, he--unlike many other Negro Party leaders--was not known to be arrogant or to press for special recognition or advantage because of his race. But on ascending to the highest level of national leadership, a change came over him. The old, affable Winston became imperious and demanding in inner Party circles and let it be known to all his associates in the National Office that he was an important figure. He made it obvious that he was to be consulted, with his opinion sought, and his approval obtained on all matters. To the office workers in the national headquarters, Winston is a terror; to associates and co-workers, he is arrogant and domineering.

Nevertheless, Winston is considered to be an effective and popular Party leader among the membership, white as well as black. He has an engaging personality and is always smiling or laughing. Because of his pleasant, cooperative demeanor, his rough humor and wisecracking, and his lack of temper, he enjoys an easy relationship with people. He seems to like everyone, and his friendly manner has ingratiated him with the rank and file.

In his rise to the top leadership, Winston was extremely careful to faithfully follow the Soviet and the prevailing CPUSA line at all times and to be in tune with the thinking of his superiors. While forceful and decisive in debate, he rarely displayed any independence or initiative, but hewed to the Party line. He avoided becoming angrily contentious in debate or discussion because he wanted to be on the side of those who counted most in terms of authority and leadership. He worked well with people on committees, but became firm when issues of moment were at stake and he knew the desires of higher officials. He never tangled with a person in higher authority or standing but went along as a "good guy."

Winston stays clear of personal intrigue and maneuvering. In the Party's Negro cadre, which is perpetually divided and rife with unending rivalry and backbiting, he strives to play the role of the middleman or the pacifier.

As a speaker, Winston is of the rough-and-tumble type who is a good agitator. He makes an effort to assume a dignified stance on the platform and seldom resorts to exaggerated oratorical antics.

He gives every indication--in speech and in vocabulary--of having had minimal schooling. His extempore language is choppy, disorganized, colloquial, and full of mispronunciation of even simple words. He has virtually no writing skill and is not known to have authored any type of document during his long career in the Party. Speeches, reports, and articles issued under his name are the work of ghost writers.

Winston, who was reelected National Chairman of the CPUSA at its recent 19th National Convention, is, along with Gus Hall, the type of loyal leader the Soviets want in the CPUSA at the present time.

HENRY WINSTON DENOUNCES U.S. POLICY IN INDOCHINA

Moscow TASS International Service in English 1916 GMT 2 Mar 71 L

[Text] New York March 2 TASS--The National Chairman of the U.S. Communist Party Henry Winston sharply denounced Washington's policy of escalating the war in Indochina and stepping up racialism and anti-communism in the United States. Speaking in the past few days at youth meetings over the radio and television in Connecticut he emphasized that if the United States had unilaterally intervened in the war it can and must withdraw from Vietnam in the same way.

This is pure demagogy when the administration talks of cutting military spending and of saving the lives of U.S. servicemen. The communists believe that not a cent should be spent on the aggressive war waged thousands of miles away from the shores of our country.

Henry Winston condemned the campaign of political persecution conducted by the U.S. authorites. I am quite sure, he emphasized, that the forthcoming trial of Angela Davis in California is a political conspiracy. I met Angela Davis a few days ago. After my talk with her I became even more convinced of the political character of this trial. The case of Angela Davis has been framed up by the racialist and anti-communist forces of the State of California.

The Washington DAILY NEWS points out that the 'Peace Corps' program, which costs taxpayers 100 million dollars annually, does not work, and recommends that the administration find better ways to use these funds.

Official Washington has in fact acknowledged the failure of the 'Peace Corps' activity. This is evidenced by the White House's decision to merge the Peace Corps with VISTA, so-called corps of teachers.

The activity of such centralized 'volunteer service', in the opinion of the White House, may bring greater returns for the invested dollars.

But the U.S. press casts serious doubt on the effectiveness of the administration's plans, and not without reason.

The fameless ten-year activity of the 'Peace Corps' made many in America convinced that no one, except for ideological saboteurs, needs this 'volunteer' organization.

HENRY WINSTON DESCRIBES U.S. RACIST POLICIES

Moscow TASS International Service in English 0903 GMT 27 Feb 71 L

[Text] New York Feb 27 TASS--Speaking at the law faculty of the Yale University in New Haven on Friday, National Chairman of the Communist Party of the United States Henry Winston has said that Nixon's policy, aimed at expansion of the war in Cambodia, Laos and other areas of Indo-China, is actually the racialist policy of American imperialism.

Henry Winston has emphasized that the policy of the present-day government of the United States becomes increasingly menacing. Henry Winston said this policy leads to intensification of racism and anticommunism as component parts of the programme, aimed at elimination of the resistance to the governments line.

Current reprisals against civil right fighters are only the beginning of a campaign which was launched with the aim of breaking the resistance of the Negro people. This campaign is now spearheaded against Angela Davis, a symbol of struggle against racism and anticommunism. These reprisals, if they are not duly rebuffed, will tomorrow spread to the whole of the American people, blacks and whites. The struggle in defence of Angela Davis and other political prisoners is, therefore, the matter of honour for all Americans, who cherish freedom and peace.

U.S. COMMUNIST PARTY ISSUES STATEMENT ON ANGELA DAVIS

Moscow TASS International Service in English 0810 GMT 28 Feb 71 L

[Text] New York, Feb 28, TASS--The National Womens Commission of the Communist Party of the USA issued the following statement for International Womens Day:

The vicious frameup persecution of Angela Davis by the Nixon-Agnew-Reagan axis is an attack upon the rights of all who struggle for peace, democratic rights and freedom from capitalist exploitation. In addition, Angela Davis shares the plight of all who would escape the yoke of racist oppression.

Blockade of Cuba hits U.S. consumer: Winston

By TOM FOLEY

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 — American consumers pay more for sugar and steel because the United States does not have normal relations with Cuba, Henry Winston, national chairman of the Communist Party, said today.

Brazil junta gives in RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 5 (UPI) — The Brazilian government bowed today to the demands of a band of "very, very determined" men who kidnapped U.S. Ambassador C. Burke Elbrick and threatened to execute him.

The Foreign Ministry announced it would free 15 political prisoners as demanded. The announcement came barely an hour and 20 minutes before expiration of an ultimatum that presumably would have meant death for the 61-year-old envoy.

The ambassador was seized by a band of four men on a Rio de Janeiro street Thursday and the kidnappers set a deadline of 48 hours for their demands to be met. They repeated the ultimatum this morning but moved up the deadline for acceptance of their demands 2:50 p.m. (1:50 p.m. EDT) today.

The government announcement came at 12:30 p.m. (11:30 a.m. EDT) after it received a handwritten note from the ambassador to his wife saying that he was alive and well but asking the government to accede to what he called "very, very determined" men.

There had been two original demands—release of the unnamed prisoners and publication of the kidnappers' note, which denounced the government as a "dictatorship." The note was pub[illegible]

"This way the responsibility will be completely upon the head of the kidnappers for the safety of Ambassador D. Burke Elbrick," the statement said.

The kidnappers were believed to be members of "MR8," guerrilla group made up mostly of Brazilian university students. The initials stand for Movimiento Revolucionaria and the "8" refers to the date of the death of Ernesto Che Guevara, the Cuban revolutionary killed in Bolivia Oct. 8, 1967.

Swiss protest Westmoreland planned visit

GENEVA — General Westmoreland, U.S. Chief of Staff, will make an official four-day visit to Switzerland beginning Sept. 11.

Westmoreland, formerly commander-in-chief of U.S. armed forces in South Vietnam, will familiarize himself with the state of combat readiness of the Swiss armed forces, and will also inspect a number of Swiss military training centers.

The economic blockade of Cuba not only affects that island but hurts the ordinary American by boosting monopoly prices on a number of items, including the steel and nickel that goes into his car and refrigerator, Winston pointed out. Cuba has 50 percent of the world's nickel deposits, he noted.

Winston gave his views to a press conference at Communist Party headquarters here a few days after his return from Cuba. He led a Communist Party delegation that visited every province in Cuba in August.

See editorial Page 7

The blockade of Cuba affects economic and political relations between U.S. and Latin America, he went on.

U.S. consumers hit

"It's not only a matter of sugar, but also steel, in terms of the U.S. Steel monopoly and trust," he said.

"It's not only sugar prices — Cuba is the world's second largest sugar producer — but even the price of lobsters."

Instead of receiving Cuban lobsters U.S. consumers get lobsters from the racist-fascist and apartheid regime of South Africa," Winston said. "This trade between U.S. and South Africa actually upholds a regime which opposes everything decent in the world."

He emphasized that reversal of the policy of the Nixon Administration towards Cuba is the only effective answer to achieving new relationships towards Latin America as a whole.

Scientific exchange affected

He said he was very happy to receive the [illegible] to Cuba by the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba.

"There I was able to observe the crimes that U.S. imperialism has inflicted on the country and also the courageous manner in which the Socialist government of Cuba has undertaken to erase the effect of these crimes," he said.

The economic blockade of Cuba not only affects normal trade (sugar, steel, lobsters), but also scientific exchange, for example, Winston pointed out.

Doctors are prevented from going to Cuba, exchanging information, from helping to train technicians and other doctors, and from using textbooks, he added.

Life span rode

"Despite all this, some most inspiring developments in science are taking place in Cuba today," he said. "Despite this lack of scientific exchange, the life span in Cuba has [illegible]. Also in Cuba today there is not a single case of malaria, even though Cuba used to be known as the source of malaria fever. Cuba has combated malaria by using the Salk vaccine variety developed and produced by the Soviet Union.

"Now Cuba's main concern today is the battle for industrialization of the country," Winston said, stressing that the fight to produce 10 million tons of sugar is an important one in Cuba and will help it to meet international commitments and improve the mechanization of agriculture.

"Cuba is showing how a country can develop under socialism," he concluded. "This, in turn, is having a very dramatic effect on the rest of Latin America. This is why normalizing relations with Cuba is a prerequisite for developing normal relations with Latin America."

Black GIs anti-war action reported in South Vietnam

HANOI (LNS) — More than 100 black GIs staged an anti-war protest July 30 in the port base of Qui Nhon, in Kinh Hoa province, according to a report by the Liberation Press Agency of South Vietnam.

The report, as transmitted by Prensa Latina, said that the men marched from one end of the base to the other and also marched on the local airport. They reportedly "shouted slogans demanding peace, the end of the U.S. aggression in Vietnam and the immediate withdrawal of the U.S. troops."

At the airport, the black GIs battled with cops who tried to stop the demonstration.

Episcopalians vote $200,000 'reparations'

By RICHARD GREENLEAF

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 — Church leaders in the U.S. are still striving to evade the principles set forth in the Black Manifesto, even though some churches are making payments on the reparations account which the Manifesto holds they owe black Americans.

Such is the situation following this week's action by a convention of the Episcopal Church, which after two days of heated debate in South Bend, Ind., allocated $200,000 to the Black Economic Development Conference, the group which promulgated the Manifesto and has been seeking to collect payments on the $500 million it says the churches owe the Negro people for centuries of oppression.

The resolution adopted by the Episcopalians included a passage rejecting the "ideology" of the Manifesto.

The Rev. George M. Murray, Bishop of Alabama, said in the course of the debate: "I cannot vote for a group whose only record is this manifesto, a violent Marxist document."

But the resolution did recognize the Black Economic Development Conference as a movement for "organizing the self-determination" of the black community.

Evasion charged

The action followed by less than two weeks an address by the Rev. Lucius Walker, Jr., executive director of the Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization, in which he charged that many churches and synagogues were seeking to avoid doing anything about the Black Manifesto.

Walker was addressing the National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice, meeting in Los Angeles. IFCO is the group which financed the meeting in Detroit earlier this year at which the BEDC was founded and the Manifesto formulated.

"After all the churches' rhetoric about love, brotherhood and justice," Walker said, "at many points it is flipping-out when the real proposition is put, acting like a young lady who knows what to do to get a young man's attention, then falling back on her virtue when the question's popped."

He suggested that recourse might be had to the UN or an international court of law.

The 1945 Paris Conference, he argued, established the validity of reparations being given to individuals rather than to nations.

One of the most fervent pleas made at the Episcopalians' meeting was that of the Rev. Junius F. Carter, Negro rector of Holy Cross Episcopal Church in Pittsburgh.

"I am sick of you," he cried. "You don't trust me, you don't trust black priests; and you don't trust black people."

Special to the Daily World

HAVANA, Aug. 28 — Henry Winston, national chairman of the Communist Party of the U.S.A. who is heading an American Communist delegation visiting here, issued the following statement:

U.S. imperialism, before the revolution, accounted for 75 percent of Cuba's imports and 66 and two thirds percent of all her exports.

How to strangle in infancy the greatest event of our time in this hemisphere was the main concern of the U.S. monopolists. They broke off diplomatic and trade relations.

The mass release of revolutionary energy, the unity and creativity established among the people of Cuba, demonstrated what a free people can accomplish.

They found reliable friends in the Soviet Union, other socialist states, and many other countries.

'Blockade will fail'

Socialism in Cuba continues developing.

The anti-Cuba policy of U.S. imperialism now includes the blockade. This policy, too, will fail.

HENRY WINSTON

Our delegation saw with their own eyes how an entire people is geared to the accomplishment of the main task of realizing within one year 10 million tons of sugar.

Simply put, this means the achievement of 20 billion pounds of sugar in 12 months. That kind of production could give more than 6 pounds of sugar to each of the 3 billion humans on this earth.

The enthusiastic fight for this goal grips the people. What this means in terms of Cuba is helping to lay the foundation for the most rapid development of industry and agriculture, which will be based on the latest scientific techniques, mass building of housing, schools; in short, an advance on every front.

The story of Camaguey shows concretely the boldness in the planning of construction and the mass undertaking in cadre-training to be able to manage this undertaking.

Hails Cuba's racial equality

Just imagine a plan which begins with the daily output of 11,000 liters of milk, to be increased to one million per day. And what then? The creation of a milk-processing plant in which all kinds of dairy products will be developed.

Such is the approach in every field.

Of great beauty is that racist practices ended with imperialism and among the many great lessons of this revolution is the equality established between black, white and mulatto.

The cause of Cuba must become the cause not only of Communists but of all democrats, anti-imperialists and radicals.

The story of Cuba must become known to the millions of our land. The economic blockade must go. This barbarity is the essence of U.S. imperialist policy. The people can and must compel the Nixon administration to put an end to this criminality.

Special to the Daily World

HAVANA, Aug. 28 — A U.S. Communist Party delegation, headed by national chairman Henry Winston has returned here from the interior of the country where it witnessed a tremendous mobilization in the drive to harvest 10 million tons of sugar in a year.

The delegates returned last week from Camaguey, one of the main centers of the sugar industry.

Greeted by Cuban leaders

The 10-million-ton goal is the main economic task set by the Cuban Communist Party and the Revolutionary Government for achievement by the year ending July 26, 1970.

Earlier, after their arrival in Havana on Sunday, Aug. 10, the delegation visited other projects in the Isle of Pines and the provinces of Las Villas and Camaguey.

Receiving the U.S. delegation on their arrival were Commander Ramiro Valdes, 37, member of the Political Bureau of the Cuban C.P.; Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, member of the secretariat of the Central Committee and Commander Jesus Montane, Delegation of CP visiting Cuba

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 — An official, six-person delegation of the Communist Party, U.S.A., headed by national chairman Henry Winston, is now in Cuba at the invitation of the Cuban Communist Party. It is first such delegation since 1960.

"We are enthusiastic about the delegation and feel great pride in it and the reinforcement of warm, cordial cooperation between the Cuban Communist Party and ours," James Jackson, chairman of the International Department of the Communist Party, told the Daily World.

He recalled that Cuban President Fidel Castro himself had invited Winston to Cuba to recuperate after the eye operation Winston underwent in prison that resulted in loss of his eyesight. Castro offered to exchange 100 "gusanos" ("worms," a term applied to Cubans who turned against their own country in the service of imperialism) for Winston while in prison.

There have long been warm bonds between the Cuban people and the people of the U.S. Jackson said. The opportunity exists for a change in official relations between the United States and Cuba.

COMMUNIST STATEMENT

The Communist Party issued a statement today over the signature of James Jackson, chairman:

"The Communist Party delegation of American Communists headed by Henry Winston our national chairman, was officially elected by the national committee and brings to Cuba the warm, comradely greetings of our party and of the American people, who seek normal diplomatic, economic and cultural relations between our country and the first country of socialism in the Western hemisphere.

"Comradely relations between our party and the Cuban Communists under the leadership of Fidel Castro will be strengthened by this series of discussions which will contribute to a necessary campaign to end the boycott and reverse the present antagonistic policy of the United States toward Cuba.

"This delegation will have an opportunity to see socialism in process in Cuba and will exchange opinions in the two week period. They will report back to our party and to the American people."

tempt to outflank the Democratic Republic of Vietnam and get into position along its western border. The Pathet Lao counterattacked and captured the important air base of Muong Soui.

Fifteen miles south of Muong Soui lie the two secret CIA bases of Sam Thong and Long Thien held by the CIA, an estimated 1,150 U.S. Special Forces troops, and several Thai artillery units. Theoretically, the two bases are under the control of the Royal Lao General Vang Pao. Actually, they are controlled from the Special Forces headquarters in Udorn, Thailand.

Long Thien, in the mountains on the western edge of the strategic Plain of Jars, is Special Forces headquarters for Laos, containing the "Green Beret" supply and command center.

General Vang Pao, like the units under Special Forces command, is of Meo nationality.

The charges by Laos Premier Souvanna Phouma that "40,000 North Vietnamese" have invaded Laos in violation of the 1962 agreement on the neutralization of the country, are directly related to the fact that Sam Thong and Long Thien are threatened by Pathet Lao attack. It may be predicted that the closer the Pathet Lao get to the CIA "Green Beret" center, the louder Souvanna Phouma's cries will become.

Souvanna Phouma's charges of violations of Laos "neutrality" come from a man who approved the U.S. bombing of more than 70 percent of his own country over the last several years. The U.S. policy behind this bombing was once stated by an American diplomat in Vientiane: "To make progress in this country, it is necessary to level everything."

Romanian CP congress ends with call for socialist unity

BUCHAREST, Aug. 12 (UPI) — President Nicolae Ceausescu today ended Romania's 10th Communist party congress with a resounding cry for unity among socialist nations and in the world.

"Our unanimity is living proof party and of socialism," he told the more than 3,000 delegates.

Ceausescu was re-elected to another four years as party secretary-general.

His closing speech brought the hall to its feet chanting "Ceau-

SUBJECT: WIROGUE

DATE: 30 September 1964

TIME: 1030 - 1400 hours

PLACE: Automobile in the Vicinity of Kuhwaldstr.

ARTHUR A. LIFALL, Case Officer

COMMENTS:

WIROGUE called at approximately 0945 hours on the Stage I Ops phone and asked for Mr. Murmann. C.O. took the call and was advised that the caller was "Dave" and that he desired to speak to a colleague of Mr. Murmann at the earliest possible time. C.O. made arrangements to meet him in front of the safe house at 51 Kuhwaldstr which WIROGUE occupied during his 1 1/2 year association with HARVARD (this is no longer a HARVARD safe house). C.O. did not tell "Dave" his name over the telephone and indicated that he would be able to recognize "Dave". C.O. picked "Dave" up on the corner of Volta and Kuhwaldstr and drove a couple of blocks to a parking place where the conversation took place.

C.O. learned that WIROGUE was no longer employed by the Boehler Company in Munich. He apparently has had a couple of factory jobs since that job and is currently unemployed. According to "Dave" he is without work, without friends, without money and" only contacted Murmann's old office because he is at the end of his rope". Subject stated that he had tried hard to find suitable employment in Germany, but that there was absolutely nothing available which he could do. It was obvious that WIROGUE wished to renew his association with the AIS and that "intelligence work" was the only kind of employment for which he felt himself really qualified. When C.O. indicated to him that the employment possibilities had not changed since WIROGUE was told there was no possibility of future employment with the Agency, Subject said that the purpose of his telephone call was to advise us of his plans to go to Paris and attempt to contact the French Intelligence Service to which he would offer his services. He wished to find out if we would have any objections to his seeking employment from the French or possibly the British since we are apparently unable to utilize him further. C.O. said that obviously WIROGUE would do what he would do and that while we had no control over his actions it would seem a bit surprising that he would delibertely place himself in the hands of the French authorities where he was known to have a criminal record. WIROGUE implied that he would obviously tell all to the French and indicated that he was not concerned about any actions that they would take against him. He appeared sure in an extremely vague and confused way that the French Intelligence Service could use him.

In the course of the lengthy discussions WIROGUE let it be known that he was not very happy about the treatment he had received from the Americans--that he felt he had been dropped, and it appeared obvious to C.O. that if we had no further work for him he was threating to tell his story to the French authorities--a story which he presumably feels we would not like the French to know about. It should be stressed that at no time was the "blackmail threat" bluntly presented. It was merely that he wished to advise us of his plan to leave for Paris this date with this intention in mind and that he wished to determine if we had any "objections".

C.O. ~~xafxxxd~~ reviewed with WIROGUE the considerable efforts which had been made to assist him in establishing a new life here in the FEDREP-- a new life story, legal documentation, the ~~hopaxin~~ ~~kaak~~ opportunity to look for employment for a period of more than a year while receiving subsistence from us, etc. C.O. told Subject that he obviously had a good mind and was in good health and that--if he was unable to find some type of employment in the thriving West German economy that appealed to him ~~thexx~~ and satisfied him--he would probably be unhappy wherever he goes. C.O. discounted Subject's belief~~s~~ that "intelligence work" was the only thing for which he was suited. C.O. ~~sp~~ expressed the view that he should get his head out of the clouds and his feet on the ground--that he should find a job, however menial, and throw himself into it. At this point WIROGUE said that ~~xx~~ at one time he had told Mr. Murmann of his desire to become a driver or chauffeur but that Mr. Murmann told him he could find much more suitable employment. With a certain amount of disbelief C.O. pursued this topic with him telling WIROGUE that--if he ~~wasx~~ was really serious ~~thatxhe~~ in believing that this kind of employment would be satisfying to him, that it was the first sensible thought he had expressed in the course of the discussions and that C.O. would determine whether it would be possible to assist Subject in obtaining a West German drivers' license (Subject indicated that he had a Congo drivers' license when he arrived in Frankfurt although it was issued in another name). While Subject pretended to have a genuine interest in obtaining such employment-- and used this to refute C.O.'s accusation that he only wanted to start at the top and considered most kinds of honest employment as being beneath him--C.O. is highly skeptical of Subject's motives. WIROGUE was told to call ~~Mrkxxxxthixx~~ Mac (this is the only name which C.O. gave to WIROGUE) on the following day (Thursday, 1 October) and C.O. would ~~xx~~ let him know whether he could help him obtain a West German license. WIROGUE was quick to point out that

COMMENTS:

C. O. met Subject who had invited him to meet for lunch. They had a drink together and then went to a Chineese restaurant.

At first C. O. was afraid that Subject was getting ready to ask a favor or present a problem but it turned out that he merely wanted to visit with C.O. whom he considers to be his only friend, at least in Frankfurt. He said that his work with the Munich firm is going very well and is coming along fine. He received his first month's salary and expects to go to Munich on the first part of May for consultations and would then, around 30 May, move to Munich permanently. C. O. told Subject that he would be leaving for the U.S. probably the first week in June and Subject asked if they could have dinner together at least one more time before he left.

Subject said he had signed the contract, details of which he had previously given C.O., but was sorry that he had not brought the contract with him and promised to show it to C.O. the next time they met. Subject thanked C. O. for all the help he had given him to enable him to make a new start and wanted the lunch to be a small token of his appreciation. He also paid C.O. 20 DM which had been loaned him a year and a half earlier and gave C.O. a small French cigarette lighter as a rememberance. C. O. dropped Subject off downtown and suggested they have lunch, perhaps the first or second week in May.

COMMENTS:

C. O. met Subject in response to a telephone call in which Subject invited C. O. to lunch to help him celebrate a new stroke of fortune. WIROGUE told C. O. that the director of the firm in Munich (reported in previous contact reports) and his European sales representative had met with Subject and discussed the possibility of his association with the Munich firm. Subject said the following had been agreed on:

> Subject would receive 1500 DM a month salary, free living quarters in Munich, the cost of maintaining his apartment in Frankfurt, expense account, percentage of the profits realized from any of Subject's inventions patented by the firm, a work shop in Munich plus absolute personal freedom of movement regarding working hours, etc. etc.

C. O. told him that the above was very hard to believe, that he should have this in writing. Subject said that it was to be drawn-up and sent to him for his signature.

C. O., of course, expressed his delight with Subject's perspicacity and perspicuity and ~~least~~ last but not ~~last~~ least boundless gall. C. O. asked if this would mean he would be moving to the Munich area. Subject said that this was doubtful unless he could find a mechanic in the Munich area who would work as cheaply as Nagely with whom he is now associated. He intends to spend most of his time in Munich, however, and will come to Frankfurt once a month to oversee Nagely's work on the production models of his projects. Subject intends to do the research and development work in Munich with Nagely in Frankfurt making the finished model.

C. O. told Subject that he should not forget he would be required to establish a Zweiter Wohnsitz. Subject said he would look into this as soon as the work shop in Munich was completed and ready for him.

Subject stated that C. O. was his only friend and that he would like to call him again soon and have lunch with him. C. O. told him he would be delighted to meet him whenever he has time. C. O. dropped Subject off downtown after congratulating him once again on his good fortune.

NOTE: C. O. is aware that Subject is basically a lonely man and does enjoy his company. He is also aware that Subject is staying in frequent touch because he feels he is operating in a society to which he really does not belong and associates himself more with things American.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: WIROGUE

On 25 February 1964 the undersigned met with Clarence Schmidt and Art Stimpson of OCA Bonn to apprise them of the status of the WIROGUE case. Since Clarence S. was preparing to depart PCS, C.O.'s discussion was primarily with Art S., Clarence's replacement.

C. O. briefed Art on WIROGUE's background prior to recruitment and his activities while associated with KUBARK. C. O. reviewed HARVARD's attempt to prepare Subject for resettlement and said that we are now in a position to quit claim him and close the case and that we wanted to bring OCA up-to-date on the status of Subject's case and to find out if there are any loose ends from Bonn's point of view or HARVARD's which should be tightened up prior to cutting Subject loose.

C. O. explained that since December 12, 1962 when OCA received a query from the BFV regarding Subject, HARVARD had been trying to reach the point where Subject could be on his own. C. O. explained that we had realized that after the original political recognition interview fiasco had brought Subject to the attention of the BFV, that to enable Subject to emigrate from Germany or to stay here without continuing problems in the future would require preparing a complete life history for Subject with a new political recognition interview story. Both the Lebenslauf and a new interview story were prepared and copies of the old story were removed from the various files and replaced by the new. C. O. said that HARVARD had two questions for Bonn ~~and that~~ (1) at the time of the original BFV interest in Subject had OCA promised Subject would be resettled outside Germany? and (2) would OCA know if the BFV in Cologne had a copy of Subject's political recognition interview story?. Art brought out OCA's file on the case and said to answer the second question first it would appear from the detailed information contained in the BFV query that they were indeed in possession of a copy of the story. He went on to state that in answer to question (1) OCA's reply to the BFV was that Subject was of operational interest to AIS and would they please suspend their investigation until Subject is no longer of interest at which time OCA would automatically provide the BFV with the details of Subject's case.

C. O. said that John Wilms of the 513th MI Group at Camp King was reasonably certain that the BFV man in Zirndorf had only sent excerpts of the Sanders political recognition interview story to the BFV in Cologne, since so many cases of interest to the BFV are processed each month that only the bare outlines of a particular case would be sent on from Zirndorf. Art and Al W. said that if the original story had not gone to Cologne then a very detailed summary had gone.

We all agreed that unless Subject got into serious trouble in the future no problems would arise. In any event we could only wait and see what might come up.

OCA appreciated being brought up-to-date on the case and provided HARVARD C. O. with copies of the BFV 's original query and OCA's reply. C. O. promised to send OCA a copy of Subject's original and of his latest political recognition interview story and a copy of the Lebenslauf.

C. O. met Subject as a result of a telephone call requesting C. O.'s assistance. Subject told C. O. that he had gone to the local police revier and had tried to register but that since he had neglected to take along a filled-out Anmeldebestätigung signed by the landlord he had been told to go get the form, fill it out properly and then return. The police had looked at his deregistration slip with the 2 March date indicated and had told him to waste no time since an individual is required to deregister and re-register within a period of 8 days and it was now the 10th of March. Subject said that since his rental contract dates from January 1 and that date is indicated on the registration slip, the police will question why he waited so long to register. C. O. told him that the answer was simple and that he wished Subject would not bother him with such small problems. C. O. told Subject to get an Anmelda form and fill it out and have his landlord sign that he moved into the apartment on 1 March ~~and explain to the landlord that~~ he had been deregistered as of 2 March. Subject said that he had already figured this out but that he wanted an excuse to meet C. O. and talk to him.

He showed C. O. a Munich Konto check for 4,000 DM which he had received for developing a device reported in previous contact reports and went on to say that his business trip to Munich had been reasonably successful. He had discussed the development of several new devices with the director of the Munich firm and was now in the process of working on another device for the firm. He had made arrangements whereby he would receive no payment for the new device but that the firm would use its sales outlet ~~[illegible]~~ to market ~~[illegible]~~ another invention of his for him. The firm had also asked Subject if he would be willing to come to Munich to live and work. Subject has agreed if the offer turns out to be worth his while. C. COMMENTS:

C. O. met Subject and gave him his new Reiseausweis expiring in 1966 and pointed out there was a restriction against going into business for himself. He was given his Lohnsteurkarten for '62, '63 and '64 plus his Abmeldebestatigung indicating his deregistration from 145 Hohemarkstr to 51 Kuhwaldstr on 2 March 1964. He was told to go to the local Police Revier and register.

Subject was given a copy of his new political recognition interview story and was asked if he had any questions regarding his legend. Subject replied that the story was so long he could not possibly memorize it completely. C. O. told him that the intent was to provide in detail any and all facts which in the future might be of importance to him in the conduct of his affairs.

Subject was asked about his plans for the future. His answer was that the Director of the firm (reported in contact report 17 February 1964) had invited him to come to Munich on 3 March 1964 to discuss, among other things, the possibility of employing Subject in the engineering department. This plus the fact that Subject has signed an agreement with BOHLER & CO. OPTICAL FACTORY, FF/M to act as an engineering consultant might enable him to realize his ambition, i.e. to have a position rather than an ordinary job.

C. O. quitclaimed Subject and wished him luck.

Subject asked that C. O. be sure to let the higher echelon know he appreciates all that has been done for him.

Subject said that although official contact is at an end he hoped that C. O. would not reject an invitation for a friendly get together from time to time. C. O. replied that if business matters permitted he would be glad to meet Subject.

Subject jovially announced that they would probably meet some day in the U.S. C. O. reminded him that any action on his part which would involve the taking of fingerprints could have dire consequence for him. C. O. went on to report what he had told Subject months earlier and that is:

[illegible]

Any attempt to immigrate to the U.S., Canada, Australia, etc. would bring him to the attention of INTERPOL.* On the other hand, he could immigrate to South America but it would be imperative that he first learn Russian if he is to pass himself off as a recent refugee from the Soviet Union. C. O. said he could see no reason to prevent Subject from visiting any country or even entering as a technical representative. C. O. told him that he is soundly, if not perfectly, documented and that we can do no better and that he should never forget that his fingerprints are the weakest links.

C. O. said good-by and parted company. Case closed.

NOTE: Normally HARVARD would provide a statement on one of our cover unit stationary letterheads covering the period of time Subject was in our custody and indicating that he was more or less professionally associated with the U.S. Army. Chief/HARVARD and C. O. felt that unless Subject requests such a letter it would be adviseable not to expose him to any more of our M.O. We can be sure that if Subject needs such a letter he will contact HARVARD.

* This of course is not true but does enable us to exercise some control.

COMMENTS:

C. O. dropped in to see Subject and paid him DM 800 final subsistence for March. C. O. emphasized that this would be the last time Subject would receive any money and that he must now arrange for a new source of income. Subject laughed and said he had the impression C. O. was anxious to get rid of him and also seemed to have doubts as to his ability to take care of his financial problems. C. O. laughed in turn and said he would indeed be glad to see Subject on his own and added that he had no doubts re: Subject's ability to get money but that he is only hoping Subject would use methods acceptable to society (chuckle).

Since Subject had both English and German versions of his legend, C. O. took the English copy with the explanation that if Subject should submit a Lebenslauf, in connection with a job application, the German version would be more appropriate.

C. O. picked up Subject's Reiseausweis and told him it would be returned to the authorities and a new one would be issued. This would eliminate the need for a renewal until 1966.

C. O. took Subject to lunch and dropped him off in the city after promising to see him on the 2nd of March.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: WIROGUE

1. C. O. and Sam Markowtiz met with John Wilms, Special Liaison Advisor to the 513th MI Group at Camp King, to discuss certain problems connected with the WIROGUE case. C. O. told John that we are going to attempt to make a clean ~~brake~~ break with Subject this coming Friday but there were a few loose ends which had to be cleared up before we could take this final step. C. O. said that in reviewing the new political recognition interview story, we had noted that the new story did not incorporate the name change of Subject's father from Simon Sanders to Frank Simon Sanders. C. O. asked if the new copy would have to be changed or replaced. John made a note of what the change of name should really be and told C. O. ~~we~~ he'd have all the new copies changed to read Frank Simon Sanders. John said that this sort of thing happens from time to time; that it is just a simple error and will raise no eyebrows.

2. C. O. then brought up the point that Subject's Reiseausweis will expire in October 1964 and we and Subject were wondering if ~~Subject~~ would run into any problem when he went to the Polizei Presidum to get a Reiseausweis renewal. John said that there would be no problems that he could see: but to make sure that there is no slip-up, we should pick up Subject's current Reiseausweis and if Sam prepares the necessary Antrag, John will get us a new Reiseausweis within one or two days, dated with a current date. C. O. said he would pick up Subject's Reiseausweis and give it to Sam this week and Sam will prepare the necessary papers for a new Reiseausweis, plus a 1964 Lohnsteurkarte and a deregistration slip. If this works out, our plans to ~~brake~~ break with Subject will be accomplished this coming Friday.

3. C. O. then ~~pointed out~~ brought up the BFV's interest in Subject in late 1962 and mentioned to John we had received a query from Bonn indicating the BFV's interest in Subject, and contained what looked like excerpts from Subject's political recognition interview story. C. O. went on to say that we were wondering if a copy of the story might have gone to the BFV in Bonn, and that Wilms had missed one of the old copies when he recalled all copies recently and replaced them with the new story. John said that Camp Zirndorf processes 50 to 100 cases a month, one half of which are interest in one way or another to the BFV. He said that what had gone to Bonn was very likely an excerpt, that the entire story would not have been sent to Bonn. John went on to say that with the new copy in the file, if this excerpt should come to light in the future, a check would merely indicate that someone had made a mistake and the matter would be dropped. John added that he knows we are concerned about this case, but that he sees no reason why there should be any trouble of any kind. He said that the only problem will be if Subject himself comes to the attention of the authorities because of some shenanigans on his part.

C. O. met Subject in what is now his apartment and which has been completely painted and wallpapered. C. O. gave Subject a copy of his Lebenslauf in German and a copy in English. He was told to read the story thoroughly and then to call C. O. later in the week when he was ready to discuss any points in the story not clear to him or to resolve any questions which he might have. C. O. said he would bring a Soviet realities expert with him who could answer any questions he might have. Subject gave C. O. his copy of the old political recognition interview story plus receipts which indicated he had paid 300 DM "Caution" and a rent receipt for 300 DM for the month of February. He also showed C. O. his rental contract for the 6 month period starting February 1, 1964. Subject gave C. O. a bill for 410 DM, cost of repairing his lower plate. C. O. gave Subject the money and told him to pay the bill and get the receipt stamped paid and return it to C. O. Subject was told that C. O. would pay him for the month of March, deregister him probably the latter part of the week, and give him the deregistration slip. He was also told C. O. would deliver his new political recognition interview story to him probably this week. Subject was not too pleased to hear that he would be deregistered because his Reiseausweis expires in October 1964 and Subject feels that it might not be renewed unless he is under the protection of the U.S. Army. C. O. said he feels there is no reason to worry unless Subject is not working and, thereby proving that he is not an industrious law-abiding citizen. Subject said that he has been trying to sell his inventions and told C. O. the following story:

Subject, in his wanderings about the city, had by accident met the Frankfurt representative of a Munich firm which manufactures a device called the "Starlettograph" which is used in the printing industry. Subject told the sales representative how his product could be improved and, as a result of their discussions, WIROGUE met the director of the firm. The director became interested in an advertising device which Subject has developed and asked him to prepare a good working model in time for the Hanover Fair in April. The director also asked Subject, if the company supplied him with one of their devices, would he be able to incorporate his ideas for improving the machine in time for the Hanover Fair. Subject claims that he told the director he would modify the machine by the end of March and if the device works properly he would expect payment of 20,000 DM. According to Subject, before the director returned to Munich he promised to send a device to Frankfurt immediately upon arrival. The name and address of the firm is:

C. O. and Subject met at the American Consulate since Subject's apartment (DRC's former safe apartment) is being painted. Subject told C. O. he had been staying at the Balmoral Hotel and would move back into the apartment on Friday evening, 31 January 1964. C. O. and Subject went to the apartment which is indeed being painted and ~~is being~~ repapered.

C. O. paid Subject DM 1,000, DM 800 of which is for subsistence and rent for February and the remaining DM 200 to be applied to the one month's rent in advance required by the landlord.

C. O. told Subject that all copies but one of his original political recognition interview story had been recalled and the German language version of his Lebenslauf was now being used to provide the basis for a new story. C. O. told Subject that as soon as the new story was prepared, copies placed in the various files and the one remaining copy of the old story removed from its file, Subject would be, for all practical purposes, his own boss.

C. O. told him that we have decided to help him get a new start by (1) paying the cost of having his dentures repaired, (2) by paying DM 200 on the DM 300 one month's rent in advance Subject must pay, (3) by providing DM 800 per month for subsistence and housing until he can be legally on his own, (4) by giving him at least one month's notice prior to termination and (5) by making him a present of all the household items now in the apartment including the iron, the vacuum cleaner, and the radio. Subject's rather perfunctory thank you was somewhat less than what C. O. had expected and when C. O. expressed surprise at Subject's lack of enthusiasm, Subject stated that he was most appreciative but was not very demonstrative.

Subject said he had returned to Doctor Filner who said he could not work on Subject's dentures until approval was granted. Subject asked if we knew Doctor Feilner's estimate had been DM 750. C. O. said we knew and that he should go to the dentist who had given him the DM 400 estimate.

C. O. told Subject to obtain receipts for the one month's rental payment and for the February rental payment. He was also to call C. O. the week of February 2nd to arrange a meeting so that C. O. can pick up the receipts and Subject's copy of his old political recognition interview story.

SUBJECT : WIROGUE

Don, I suggest that we reduce the quantity of some of the items listed on the attached and make WIROGUE a present of the remainder as part of his resettlement.

I have been emphasizing to Subject over the past weeks that President Johnson's economy drive has affected all agencies and departments. Subject, therefore, has been conditioned not to expect money for BKZ or for furniture or a termination sum. Any or all of these would normally be provided in a case of this kind.

I feel that if we pay to have his lower denture repaired, approximate cost DM 400, make Subject a present of the household items listed, and continue to pay him subsistence for a month or two after we notify him he is on his own, we will, I believe, get rid of him as cheaply as possible and without serious complaints.

COMMENTS:

C. O. met Subject and paid him subsistence for the week ending 31 January 1964. He was told that we have received permission to increase his subsistence from DM 600 to DM 800 per month until his final resettlement. The extra DM 200 is to be applied to his rent. C. O. said that Subject would be paid DM 1000 on 31 January - DM 200 to be applied to one month's rent in advance, and the DM 800 to be rent (DM 200) and subsistence (DM600) for February.

C. O. said we were disappointed that he had decided to stay in his present apartment and take over the DM 300 rent. We had hoped he would be sensible enough to use this opportunity to save a little money. Subject's answer was that he feels that he should be able to afford the rent when he is turned loose and that if he can't afford that much rent he might as well be dead. Subject said he could not understand why C. O. was harping on the subject, that all he was asking for was one month's advance notice prior to being turned loose on his own. C. O. said he was willing to drop the matter as long as Subject did not come crying the blues to us later about needing money. Subject said that if things got really bad he would get a job. C. O. applauded and offered his congratulations but said he assumed this would only be a desperation measure. Subject did not like the joke.

WIROGUE proudly announced that he has made intensive efforts the last few weeks to sell 4 of his inventions. C. O., somewhat exasperated, told him he would never understand how such an obviously clever man could, for so many years, refuse to face up to his responsibilities to himself and society and live in a dream world of get rich quick schemes. Subject put on what is now a familiar act in which he acts terribly hurt because C. O. (his one true friend) does not have faith in him. C. O. told Subject that he is a great actor and added that he (C. O.) would think much more highly of him if he would think about going to work like any normal person and fiddle with his inventions at night. C. O. reminded him that if he had not been able to come up with a successful invention after 1 1/2 years of our patronage he should get his head out of the clouds and join the rest of us. By this time Subject was beginning to sulk so C. O. took him out to lunch. Later while taking a stroll, Subject stated that if the cold weather continued he was going to return to the Congo. C. O. hustled him into Woolworths and bought him some long underwear.

Subject asked if C. O. had been able to get permission to have his lower plate repaired. C. O. told him he was to go to Dr. FEILNER between 1130 - 1230 Wednesday the 23rd of January for an examination. FEILNER would supply us with an estimate. C. O. would then get a decision on whether or not we could help Subject with this problem.

C. O. dropped Subject off downtown.

He was advised to get economy housing and try to save money since the President's economy drive was affecting our budget and C. O. had told Subject that upon his final termination we would see what help could be given him towards apartment rental, dishes, furniture, etc. C. MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

1100 hours

On this date Grady Elms, John Spiegler, Don McLaughlin, Bill Murray and John Wilms (Camp King) met to discuss the WIROGUE case. It was explained to Wilms that we have prepared a Lebenslauf for Subject and we are ready to take the next steps necessary for Subject's resettlement and that we wished to establish if, as Wilms told us some months ago, it would be possible to prepare a new political recognition interview story and replace the old copies with the new story. Wilms said it ~~was~~ would be necessary to recover ~~four~~ seven copies of the old story, ~~Camp King copy, the Criminal Police copy, Nuernberg copy and the copy in the hands of the BFV~~, but he felt that this could be done. It was decided that months ago when the BND became interested in this case that copies had probably not been made of the story, only extracts to include Subject's name, his birth date, probably the names of his parents and an extract of the reference ~~of~~ to Subject's activities with ~~the~~ a Georgian Resistence Group. It was decided, therefore, that this same information should definitely appear in the new Lebenslauf. This was to be taken care of by having Subject's father's name be Frank Simon Sanders (since Subject's name is Georg Frank Sanders and on the original story Subject's father's name is given as Simon Sanders the new story will indicate that Subject's father's full name is Frank Simon Sanders which will explain Subject's middle name as Frank). In the paragraph refering to Subject's detention by the militia ~~to~~ it was decided to make some reference to Subject's alleged activities in a resistence group. It is felt that if Subject's new story ever comes to light in the future, what was once reported as Subject's activity in a resistence group will be ~~taken~~ found to have been misread and ~~will only be~~ was only alleged activity in a Georgian resistence group. We all realize that if a [illegible] copy has been made of the old story there is nothing we can do about it anyway.

C. O. dropped by, paid Subject two weeks subsistence and thanked him for his note of sympathy regarding the death of President Kennedy.

Subject was told that his background story is complete and that we hoped we would soon be in a position to take positive steps toward his resettlement. Subject went into a long-winded explanation of why he thought it was wrong for a man to pay all his life for a crime when technically he had paid by serving his prison term. C. O. told him that unfair or not Subject's misdeeds have placed certain restrictions on his activities and nothing could be done to change that. He was reminded that with a new identity he will be in a position to establish himself and be a contributing member of society. Subject's answer was to the effect that he was not too happy to be contributing in Germany.

C. O. knows that the above is Subject's way of letting C. O. know he would like to be clean as a whistle, be able to use his true name and go back to France.

C. O. told him that all things considered he could be a lot worse off and should think about building his future.

Subject then stated that he would repay all the money we had spent on him. C. O. told him that we did not want the money repayed that he would only foul-up our books. He was told that the best way for him to repay the debt would be to work hard and lead a decent life.

C. O. left after promising to have lunch with Subject soon.

C. O. dropped in to see Subject, paid him two weeks subsistence and provided cigaretts and coffee. O., would find out if any help could be given Subject in this area.

Subject backed down and then stated that his wish had been to go to South America and that C. O. had promised him this would be arranged. C. O. told him that our intention had been to arrange this for Subject but that it is impossible to accomplish and the matter would have to be dropped. C. O. dropped in to see Subject, gave him cigaretts and 300 marks subsistence for the next two weeks. He was told that his legend is just about completed, that it is now being proof read and that our next step would be to have it accepted by the German authorities. When this has been accomplished all obstacles to his final resettlement will have been removed.

Subject said that he had been thinking a great deal lately about being turned loose on his own in the near future. He said that he hopes to have his latest invention perfected to the point where he will be receiving a substantial income at the time he leaves us. C. O. told him that it seemed liked he still is trying everything he can to keep from going to work, that he still is placing too much emphazis on "get rich quick" schemes. Subject denied that this was the case but C. O. does not believe him.

C. O. wished him luck in his plans but advised him that when it was time for him to be on his own he would not be given a long transition period. Subject said that up to now he has been working for the work shop owner without receiving pay of any kind but that sooner or later he would be receiving a check and asked what he should do when this happened. C. O. told him that he could see no problem in that if he cannot be paid in cash there is no reason why he couldn't take a check in the name of Sanders and cash it since he is registered at Camp King. Subject said that it might be in a kind of a check that is paid directly to ones bank account. C. O. told him that the answer to that was simple, that he should say that he has no bank account.

C. O. doesn't know what Subject was trying to get at but is sure that he has something in mind. He then asked C. O. to find out what the rent would be on the Kuhwaldstr apartment,

C. O. met Subject and paid him two weeks subsistence. Subject was in extremely good spirits and seemed quite pleased to see C. O. He stated that things are going better and better for him that the mechaniker with whom he is working had given him a new electric razor for having solved a difficult mechanical problem which had plagued the shop for some weeks. Subject said that he has managed to complete two of his inventions and, another device which he had been working on for the mechaniker had been completed and worked so well it had been sent to a display in France. Subject said that he is making more and more contacts among the technical people here in Frankfurt and that his worry now is that he might be offered a good job and won't be able to accept it since he will require a Lohnsteurkarte and a Versicherungskarte. He then asked C.O.'s advice as to what could be done regarding this problem. C. O. said that he is hoping to have an acceptable Labenslauf completed in the near future and as soon as that story is substituted for the old he will receive the necessary documents. At that point he will be free to do anything he wishes as far as work and housing is concerned.

NOTE: C. O. has the necessary tax and insurance cards in his possession but will not give them to Subject until his Lebenslauf and legal position in Germany is satisfactory. If C. O. gives Subject the documents now he would probably go to work and besides earning money would accept our subsistence without notifying C.O. Subject said he wanted C. O. to understand that he was not complaining, that he was indeed most grateful for the ~~training~~ support he has received over the past months, but he is just as eager as we are to be on his own making his way in life. MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Stage I

FROM : Chief, Resettlement Branch

SUBJECT : LEGEND MATERIAL REQUIRED FOR WIROGUE'S RESETTLEMENT

1. Since May 1962 HARVARD has been attempting to work out a sound resettlement for WIROGUE. Headquarters had authorized HARVARD to assist Subject in his desire to immigrate to South America. As the first step in this program, Subject was interviewed at Camp King and a story adequate to insure West German political recognition was presented to the German interviewer. Certain details of this story aroused the interest of the German government and it was necessary for steps to be taken to kill this unwanted interest. This development would not in itself have been too much of a problem, but in subsequent investigation of the procedure to be followed for immigration to South America, HARVARD learned that applicants are screened very thoroughly, given aptitude tests, etc. etc. This screening is performed by ICEM who is charged by the South American countries with the responsibility for insuring that any immigrant is thoroughly desirable. It became obvious to HARVARD that Subject would require a legend sufficient to withstand detailed interviews and sufficient to qualify him in some profession on the basis of his actual ability - - the existing political recognition story does not provide this.

2. In discussions with Wilms and Wagner of the 513th, it was decided that a detailed life story should be prepared by CABEZONE and on the basis of this story a new political recognition interview should be written which would replace those copies of the old interview now in the various files. A reasonably complete legend previously prepared by Alex Lembersky is attached and with additional information can be used almost as is. Since this life story will be notional, it will have to be written up in sufficient detail and plausible enough to provide Subject with the information needed for the filling out of various future job applications, to stand-up under detailed interviews to which he may in the future be subjected and, if immigration ever takes place, to satisfy those requirements. HARVARD feels that this can only properly be prepared by a native born Russian. HARVARD, therefore, requests Chief, Stage I to assign a Stage I interrogator knowledgeable on the Soviet Union to prepare a life story to include a detailed escape from Georgia to Turkey.

3. We realize that this request could involve considerable work but due to the peculiar problems inherent in the WIROGUE case, it is vital that we prepare Subject for a new life as a completely different person. Only by doing the job properly now will we be able to place ourselves in a position to satisfactorily sever subject's dependence upon KUBARK and reduce to a minimum the need for future contacts.

Case Officer dropped in to see Subject and paid him two weeks subsistence. Subject was very excited due to his success in applying for a patent, for a new type soup dish. Case Officer took great pains to praise Subject highly because he is aware that this has been a tremendous psychological boost for WIROGUE who was beginning to doubt his ability.

Subject for a long time has been attempting to get a patent but could not come by the necessary funds, approximately 200 DM. Case Officer asked him how he was able to swing this and was told the following story, some of which Case Officer already knew:

> During the months that Subject has been in HARVARD's hands, he has kept himself busy by inventing various gadgets and devices. Some months ago he made contact with a mechaniker, Alfred Naegele, who has a work shop on 25 Glauburgstr. Subject has had this individual make certain small parts which Subject was not able to make, due to a lack of tools. Over the past months, Subject has won the confidence of Naegele and has been exchanging his labor for permission to use the work shop facilities. Subject has also solved job problems for the work shop owner who has now begun to take on specialized jobs only because he has Subject's talent and ability available to him. Subject continues to help Herr Naegele gratuitously since he feels that in time he will make the contacts which will be of help to him when he is finally on his own. Subject told Case Officer that one of Naegele's contacts had prepared the technical description and application for Subject's soup dish invention without cost to Subject. Subject will pay off the cost by helping Herr Naegele. Subject feels he can use this same procedure to patent other ideas which he has.

Case Officer noticed that on the patent application, Subject was listed as an engineer living at Kuhwaldstr 51. When Case Officer questioned him regarding the use of this Kuhwaldstr address Subject said that he felt it was necessary for the following reasons:

1. While riding with Naegele to the Taunus one day and passing Camp King, Herr Naegele had remarked that the Camp was the place where Americans trained commandos and others for work of a secret nature.

2. Since Case Officer had told Subject many months ago that we intended to give up the Kuhwaldstr apartment and he Subject wanted to do everything he could to make arrangements to establish himself on his own he had decided it would be best to use the Kuhwaldstr address because he would be receiving mail and did not want to inconvenience Case Officer by having him be a delivery boy.

3. Subject felt that the use of this address would not break security since he would not use that address for any official reason, e.g., police matters, etc., etc.

Case Officer still reamed Subject out thoroughly and told him that even though our attempts to maintain maximum security were probably 50% successful we should at least try. Case Officer finally realized he was fighting a losing battle and would succeed in antagonizing Subject and if nothing else make more difficulties for himself and told Subject they might as well drop the subject. Subject kept insisting that he would do nothing to jeopardize what Case Officer's organization was trying to do for him and assured Case Officer he thinks out very carefully what the results of any particular course of action might be.

Case Officer told Subject that he is trying to complete his legend and once everything is in order with the German government Subject would be in a position to establish himself. Case Officer told him that it is obvious his hopes for immigration to South America should be shelved for a good long time, that it would appear obvious Subject should establish himself here in Germany building up a work background and then if he so desired, immigrate. This would be without our help.

Case Officer said that his legend should be sufficient to satisfy any further inquiries he might run into. Subject asked what Case Officer's plans were for going to work and finding a place to live and asked what Case Officer's help would consist of. Case Officer told him that he would find his own employment and that since he would not know whether Subject should or would want to commit himself to a long term lease on an apartment, that Case Officer would probably recommend that Subject be given a couple of thousands of marks as a resettlement sum. This could be used by Subject at any time and in any way he sees fit but would eliminate the need for him to return to Case Officer for help towards an apartment, etc. Case Officer said his goal was to legalize Subject's case so that there would be no need for him in the future to come to us for help.

Subject asked just how good the legalization would be, would he be able to go to other countries and if not, then the exercise is a waste of time. Case Officer feels that the reason for Subject's question is that he would probably attempt to immigrate to the U.S. sometime in the future. Also he claimed that he brought up the question only to find out if he could go to other countries on a visitors visa if he makes contact with a firm that would require him to do so in the course of his duties. Case Officer told him that he would investigate these problems in due course but felt that Subject could probably get visitors or tourist permits to all the countries without any difficulty but if he applied for immigration to some country whose investigations require fingerprints and a check of Interpol, Subject would then be in trouble up to his ears (HARVARD has ascertained that Subject is not on file with Interpol but has not told Subject this since we may want to use the threat of being listed with Interpol as a future control.)

Case Officer dropped in to see Subject and paid him two weeks subsistance. Subject was not in the best of spirits. He said he has lots of ideas but no one will talk to him unless he has a patent and since patents cost money he is becoming more and more frustrated.

Case Officer suggested that he try to locate individuals who put up capital for development and patent expenses for a percentage of the future earnings. Subject said he has been investigating this possibility but so far has had no success.

Case Officer told him to try to be patient that Case Officer hopes to have his legend finished in the near future and take steps for his complete legalization in West Germany.

1. Case Officer dropped in to see Subject, gave him coffee, cigaretts, etc., and paid him two weeks subsistance. Subject said that he had run into difficulty with his invention and has been busy redesigning certain parts. Some time ago Subject made contact with a man who has a work shop and does specialized developmental work for various factories in the area. Subject has from time-to-time had certain parts made in this work shop. Subject says that he no longer can afford to pay the price this man asks and has made a deal with him whereby he helps the man out in his work shop and receives the time as credit toward any job Subject wants done. Subject told Case Officer that if he needed to contact him at any time and did not find him at home he could be reached at 558925 by calling and asking for Mr. Sanders.

2. Case Officer told Subject that his Legend is coming along pretty well and Case Officer feels that with a little luck we will be able to take definite steps toward his more or less permanent resettlement. Case Officer promised to spend more time with Subject when they meet again two weeks from today.

Case Officer dropped in to see Subject; paid him SUBSISTANCE ~~some assistance~~ for the next two weeks and gave him cigaretts, coffee, booze, etc. Subject is still working dilligently on his invention (Electric Dictionary) which is making slow, but as he says, steady progress. He says it could go much faster but he is limited by a lack of money and therefore must be content with doing a little at a time. Case Officer asked him if he had heard from Braun. Subject answered no but was not surprised since the Chief of RESEARCH ~~Resettlment~~ and Development told him it could be several weeks before they contacted him. Case Officer said that he hoped that he could COMPLETE A WORKING MODEL of his invention because very likely no firm would really become interested unless he had a good working instrument to demonstrate. Case Officer told Subject that we had worked out a pretty good legend for him but there were a few necessary details to be added. Subject asked for an estimate as to how long his status quo would remain as is, because he would hate to be thrown out on the street without a chance to prepare for it. Case Officer told him that he had nothing to fear in this respect until his ~~that [illegible] the~~ story was ready and Camp King take ~~do~~ the necessary action Case Officer would then inform Headquarters that his recommendation is to resettle Subject on the local economy with a reasonable amount of BKZ and help toward the purchase of furniture. Subject asked if this entire processing would take six months. Case Officer said it was possible that in any event Subject would be given adequate time to establish himself; i.e. finding a job, etc. Case Officer promised to see him definitely within two weeks.

He remarked that he was bgginning to feel like a charity case and asked how long he would be on our hands. CO told him that there were three possibilities:

1. Subject could stay right here in Germany, find himself a job and CO would find out what help Headquarters would provide in the way of help toward an apartment and furniture.
2. Subject would have to study Russian for six months, since it is impossible for anyone to have been raised and worked in the Soviet Union without knowing some Russian. At the end of that time he would try to process him for S.A. (Subject was not told this but it is obvious that if he does not know Russian, once he gets to S.A., the first Russian he comes in contact with will realize he is not a bona fide refugee which would lead to trouble for Subject.)
3. There is a possibility he could be gotten to Chile. (John Wilms has suggested that through his contacts he might be able to get Subject to Chile, since the Chilean Ambassador owes him a favor.)

CO told Subject to think about the three possibilities and make and give CO his thoughts on the problem the next time they meet.

John W. suggested that the story be rewritten to satisfy our purposes. The story would then be prepared at Camp King for Rudy's signatures. The old story would then be removed from the KRIPO's and ZIRNDORF'S files and replaced by the new story.

CO met Subject and found him to be in a blue funk. Subject said that he was somewhat less than pleased with his German documentation that as long as he stayed Germany and was under the protection of the German Government he had nothing to worry about. He feels that as long as the US Forces are here he has no problems but that as soon as we leave Germany will probably take a long look at the number of refugees here and take steps to encourage certain types to depart. Subject said that he could end up in all kinds of trouble. CO told him that in the first place the US Forces would be in Germany for a long time at least during his lifetime. In the second place Subject would be long gone before the Government changed it's attitude toward refugees.

Subject then said he was worried that when he got to S.A. the Columbian Government would probably check with the Soviet Gov't to find out if he was indeed an ex Soviet citizen. This would result in his being put in prison for entering the country under false pretenses. CO said there was no reason for the Columbian Government to check with the Sovs. Subject would arrive a bone fido immigrant fully checked out by the organization responsible ~~for~~ to the Columbian Govt. CO pointed out that the Columbian Govt would be crazy to alert the Sovs that one of their ex citizens was there with the possibility of having him recruited to work for the Sovs. Subject was still dubious but stated that he would go anyway since that is what we wanted. CO pointed out that he had requestd help in going to SA and that we had found it necessary to get him a Reiseausweis to accomplish this. March 13th, 1963

A discussion held in Bad Godesberg on March 12th, 1963, between Mr. H. Heegard, Chief of ICEM Mission in Germany and Mr. J. Riley of AFRF revealed the following procedure taken by ICEM on refugee applicants for migration to South America under the ICEM Special Program:

1. Applicant, if a refugee, must be recognized under UN High Commissioner's Mandate as a bona fide political refugee. (Note: All refugees holding a Reiseausweis automatically fall under the Mandate.)

2. A detailed curriculum vitae of the applicant must be sent by AFRF to Mr. Heegard. ICEM emphasizes that all time be accounted for since "gaps" are not accepted.

3. Applicant must supply documentary proof of profession or skill. In lieu of such documents, a letter of testimony from a current employer describing job skills and qualifications of applicant will be considered.

4. ICEM will arrange to interview the applicant and to give tests to determine applicant's qualifications. ICEM will not accept tests which are made by other sources. The interview and test can be given in FF/M.

5. ICEM conducts its own security clearance on each applicant whether USEP or non-USEP case.

6. If applicant is found acceptable by ICEM, a work contract must be signed by the applicant prior to departure from Germany. ICEM has a placement service which arranges the job placement and obtains the work contract. This is a standard ICEM procedure. ICEM will not sponsor the applicant who does not sign a work contract.

7. The total procedure requires at least three months from the date the applicant's curriculum vitae is received by ICEM, Bad Godesberg.

8. ICEM does not accept payment of passage by applicants nor is there an ICEM loan grant. ICEM charges DM 210.-- for men between 18-51 for transportation including luggage. The charges for women's transportation amount to DM 165.-- (16-51 years old), DM 80.-- for children between 5 and 16 years old. Transportation of children under five is free of charge. The total transportation cost per family will not exceed DM 588.--.

9. ICEM Placement Service in South American countries will meet the migrant on arrival, introduce him to the employer, and ascertain that all is in order. In the event that an applicant leaves this work, ICEM placement service will assist him to find another job. The placement service does not give assistance after the second job is found.

10. Mr. Heegard stressed that each applicant is processed thoroughly to avoid sending an unqualified person to South America.

11. Basic Spanish, according to Mr. Heegard, can be learned by an applicant over a period of three months - at least three hours of instruction per week. This should be done prior to departure from Germany.

12. During the processing the applicant receives a pamphlet explaining the economic, social, political, etc. conditions of the country of his choice.

13. Mr. Heegard said that, in general, promotional opportunities are excellent in certain fields due to the lack of a qualified personnel.

14. The Special Program is the only one under which ICEM operates for foreign refugees desiring to emigrate from Europe to South America.

15. Professions and skills required in South America are: (COLUMBIA)
Electrical machine construction (Elektromaschinenbau): engineer, technician (drafting and operating), draftsman, master, cutting-tool maker (Schneidwerkzeugmacher), matrix maker for plastic material.
Metallurgy: Skilled foundry worker; moulder (metall foundry); rolling-mill worker and technician, casting mould matrix maker (Metallguss-form-Schablonenmacher).
Miscellaneous professions: Repair mechanic, photo-engraver, offset-retoucher, technician for plastic material, papermaker.

16. Professions and skills not required in South America:
Lawyers, office worker, specialist for commerce and sale, construction engineer, construction technician and construction worker, carpenter, leather manufacturer, waiter, servant, unskilled laborer.

17. HOUSING - ICEM does not find housing for the migrant but may give advice if needed.

18. ICEM BAD GODESBERG coordinates with ICEM GENEVA on the processing of an applicant.

19. S.A. job openings may be found at the ZENTRALSTELLE FÜR ARBEITSVERMITTLUNG, ESCHERSHEIMERLANDSTR. 1-7 FF/M. (ICEM GENEVA sends the job lists to the above organization).

COMMENTS: CO dropped in to see Subject and paid him two weeks subsistance. CO told Subject that there were two major hurdles to his immigration to Columbia. 1. ICEM would require that he be thoroughly interviewed and tested to establish just what his technical qualifications are. It would, therefore, be necessary that we be careful to build his work history around work which he not only could have been doing in the Soviet Union, but in which he could pass a practical examination and which the South American country needs and desires. Subject said that if his legend included schooling in electro-mechanical fields with the major portion of his work experience in development and improvement of devices and processes he could in fact pass any practical test and subsequent interview.

2. We must assume that he is listed with INTERPOL since the French would almost automatically inform other European countries of Subject's disappearance from France. Subject agreed that this was a major problem but one that he could not help with.

Subject has resigned himself to being processed as a regular immigrant and has said that he will do whatever we require.

Blake will also find out the name of the person who conducts the investigation and the office he is in. He will also check to find out if R.M. Gray is still there.

This date Don McL. ~~and~~ and Bill K. discussed with Gus E. and Jack R. of AFRP the content of our conversation with Earl Blake Cox 27 Feb. Gus agreed with Blake's thinking and suggested that instead of writing for immigration information, either he or Jack would go to ICEM and personally discuss the immigration questions with the proper people.

Memo for the record WIROGUE 27 Feb. '63

On this date Bill M. and Don McL. discussed the Wirogue case with Earl Blake Cox(Chief, RMS, AMCONGEN Munich).

Blake was told that we have a case which we wish to help immigrate to South America. Blake was told that we had hoped to send Subject directly to ICEM(Subject cannot immigrate directly to South America but must have all arrangements handled through I CEM) but that in exploratory talks with Gus Elmendorf'(Chief, AFRP) Gus had been of the opinion that our case would be thoroughly investigated, interviewed, tested, etc.; procedures which we wished to avoid since they might bring to light the fact that our case was not the person he claimed to be.

Blake agreed that Gus was correct in his thinking that if Subject went to ICEM on his own he would be interviewed and trade tested for a special program set up by ICEM to supply SA with certain higher types of skilled specialists, e.g. ~~foreman~~ foremen, shop managers, etc.

Blake suggested that we make our case USEP eligible through AFRP and then refer him to ICEM. This procedure would probably give Subject more status in ICEM's eyes and eliminate some of the background investigation. Subject would also be referred as a self-payer meaning he would have the funds to pay his own transportation.

Blake asked if Subject would have a job waiting for him and was told that he would habe no job but would have a letter attesting to the fact that there was $3,000.00 being held for him insalary and bonuses which he had received while working for the Army. Blake thought this arrangement would be satisfactory.

Blake feels that coming to ICEM as a USEP case through AFRP Subject would probably be accepted without question since he would have been thoroughly checked out by Camp King and AFRF thus eliminating the need for investigatory action by ICEM.

Blake was on his way to Bad Godesberg and said he would try to find out without arousing suspicion whether or not a refugee is fingerprinted and with what authorities the fingerprints are checked. He would also find out if a security investigation is made and how

Memo for the record --- WIROGUE

European
11 Feb.'63 the undersigned asked Chief, CAMANTILLA why a refugee who applied for immigration to a South American Country would be referred by that Consulate to ICEM.

The answer was that ICEM handles the immigration processing for refugees in Europe going to countries overseas. This saves the individual country the expense entailed in maintaining immigration and welfare offices and staffs. If a refugee goes to ICEM on his own he would probably be referred to a welfare Agency or be processed by ICEM itself. This would mean forms to be filled out in detail and time consuming background checks.

If the Refugee is a Camantilla - USEP case most of the work would have been done by CAMANTILLA and would probably eliminate the need for the refugee to appear at I CEM in Bad Godesburg until the final stages of the processing.

GEHEIM!

Translation of German report from the BFV to the American Embassy, OCA, z.H. Mr. C. W. SCHMITZ in Mehlem.

Concerning Georg SANDERS, ~~gebxx25x~~ born 25 July 1919 in Tiflis/USSR. Present residence in Oberursel/Ts, Hohemarkstr. 145.

Cross reference, none.

As of the 14th July 1962 SANDERS is in the custody of an U.S. organization in Oberursel. It was alleged that he had arrived on the same date as a tourist from East- to West-Berlin and defected there.

On the 28th of August 1962 he filed application for recognition as a foreign refugee.

On 29 August 62 he was interviewed, in the presence of a member of a U.S. organization, by the criminal investigation. During the interview SANDERS made untransparent statements concerning his defection.

Among other SANDERS said that he had been a leading member of a resistance group in the Soviet Union. Moreover he claimed that he evaded arrests by joining a Soviet tourist group with the assistance of friends.

The tourist group went on a guided tour of the Soviet occupied East zone of Germany. The group left Tiflis on the 10th of July 1962 arriving in East Berlin on the 14th of July 1962. Subject claimed that upon arrival to East Berlin he escaped immediately. However, SANDERS refused to make more detailed statements about his escape to West Berlin. Allegedly it was unknown to him how his friends had managed to place him into the tourist group.

We would be grateful if any communications or information concerning SANDERS inclusive a possible interview report would be forwarded to us.

SANDERS befindet sich seit dem 14.7.1962 in Obhut einer US-Dienststelle in Oberursel, nachdem er angeblich am gleichen Tage als sowj. Tourist von Ost- nach Westberlin geflüchtet war. Am 28.8.1962 stellte er Antrag auf Anerkennung als ausländischer Flüchtling. Am 29.8.1962 wurde er in Anwesenheit eines Angehörigen einer US-Dienststelle durch die Kriminalpolizei vernommen. Bei der Vernehmung machte SANDERS undurchsichtige Angaben über seine Flucht.

SANDERS führte u.a. an, in der UdSSR einer Widerstandsgruppe als führendes Mitglied angehört zu haben. Einer beabsichtigten Festnahme will er sich dadurch entzogen haben, in dem er sich von Freunden in eine sowj. Touristengruppe einschleusen ließ, mit der er zu einer Besichtigungsfahrt in die SBZ am 10.7.1962 aus Tiflis abgereist und am 14.7.1962 in Ostberlin eingetroffen sei. Er flüchtete angeblich unmittelbar nach seiner Ankunft in Ostberlin.

SANDERS weigerte sich, nähere Angaben über seine Flucht nach Berlin-West zu machen. Angeblich ist ihm auch unbekannt, auf welche Weise ihn seine Freunde in die Reisegruppe einzuschleusen vermochten.

Für eine Mitteilung aller dort über SANDERS vorliegenden Erkenntnisse und die Überlassung einer möglicherweise vorliegenden Befragungsniederschrift wären wir dankbar.

COMMENTS: CO dropped by to see Subject and informed him that we had been informed that if Subject was still interested and could swing an immigration visa to South America we had authority to pay his way to SA and provide monetary support up to 125.00 per month until he is able to establish himself. Subject was quite surprised and pleased and wanted to know long he would receive the montkly payment. CO told him that this had been left up to CO's discretion who assureddSubject/~~h~~ that as long ~~he~~ as he diligently applied himself to finding work and was not too choosy he would continue to receive financial support.

CO and Subject agreed that Columbia seems to be the best choice. CO told Subject to go to the Columbian Consulate, Am Hauptbahnhof 10 and get as mach information as possible regarding immigration. He will attempt to find out if his processing can be done herein FF/M or if it will be necessary to go to Hamburg.

Subject was told that after he gets to SA, CO will maintain contact through the mail or someone in SA will maintain contact with him by letter drop.

Memo to the File

WIROGUE

On 5 Feb 63 CO went to Bonn to talk with OCA re the WIROGUE case and the BfV request for information on him.

CO discussed the case with KUBARK Staffer Clarence Schmidt (true name) and explained that it is true that a Georg Sanders processed through Camp King for his political recognition, but that his name, story submitted for his recognition, etc., were complete fabrications concocted by Camp King to ensure that WIROGUE receives his political recognition and Reiseausweis. Moreover since it ~~xx~~ is a fabrication that means that there are no reports of any kind which can be passed to the BfV. Finally it was explained by CO that since Subj is an agent (or rather was) and not a normal defector he of course did not go through Stage 1 and 2 processing at Cabezone and therefore there are no routine reports here that could be passed to the BfV.

Schmidt answered that the reason the BfV made an inquiry is that because subjs statement for his recognition indicated that he defected from the Soviet Union and read like a report of someone who ~~was being~~ debriefed by Cabezone. Moreover the story submitted for his recognition seemed so weak that it immediately drew the attention of the BfV , the German organization responsible for the security of West Germany.

Mr Schmidt then went into a long explanation of the function of OCA and its relationship to the rest of the Intelligence (US) Community and the BfV. He stated that as the sole coordinating body for the entire ~~IX~~ AIS community OCA is the sole office for liaising with the BfV and that any matter of interest of any component of the AIS community must be handled by OCA, whether it be written or oral. It is therefore shown in the present case that ~~that~~ since the BfV requested info on a Georg Sanders it sent the request to OCA with the realization that OCA would coordinate the matter with all the AIS components and moreover the answer passed to BfV would not be a KUBARK one (even though the BfV liaison people know OCA is primarily KUBARK) but a coordinated AIS one. It is for the above reason that OCA is very disturbed by the activity of Mr John Willms of Camp King who throughout the years has repeatedly refused to clear with OCA and handled any business he had with the BfV directly with the BfV and usually with the Chief of the BfV. CO had explained that even before he brought up the BfV inquiry on Sanders with Willms, Willms mentioned that he had already made an appointment tto talk with the Chief of the BfV and thus would take up the matter as a service to us. Schmidt answered that Willms uses these ruses as excuses to go to Bonn and butter up the Chief of the BfV.

In any event Schmidt stated that since he received the inquiry from the BfV he is obligated to answer it and in order to keep the BfV out of the case will inform it that Subj is of continuing operational interest to AIS. He requested that CO send him a cable stating that Subj is of ops interest and that it is contemplated that he will be resettled outside of Germany. This cable was sent to Bonn on 6 Feb 1963.

CO, upon return from Bonn, reported the above with Mr Lyack, Chief, Cabezone, who stated that though there is an agreement between the services and OCA, the Generals in Heidelberg back Mr Willms in his personal relations with the German services and thus this battle which has been going on for years will probably continue for several more years. In any event if the matter of Willms versus OCA comes up again it is strongly urged that Chief, Cabezone be queried as soon as possible.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

29 January 1963

SUBJECT: WIROGUE

On this date George List and the undersigned discussed CO's plans and thinking regarding WIROGUE's immigration to South America. Case Officer explained that since Subject is an exceptional case and not a bona fide refugee, we will not be able to take advantage of the normal immigration channels without taking the chance of being involved in fraud. Case Officer further explained that since WIROGUE's contact with the Consulate of his choice will not in any way be controlled by us, this immigration attempt will be a one shot operation and if it fails, we will not have a second chance because if he is turned down for immigration, any subsequent attempts he makes to immigrate will bring to light the fact that he had previously applied for immigration to another country. It is essential therefore that we plan for every contingency. Case Officer feels, based on HARVARD's experience, that when WIROGUE applies for immigration he will be required to give

(1) the name and address of his present employer and probably the name of his supervisor and telephone number.

(2) what type of work he has been doing;

(3) proof that he will be able to support himself for a minimum of two years at the rate of $125 a month.

(4) proof of his professional qualifications.

(5) birth certificate.

(6) detailed information regarding his employment and residence addresses in the Georgian SSR

(7) details of the war-time military service.

Police good conduct certificate

Case Officer said that early next week he will meet with Wagner and Willms of the 513th and explain the above. If it is possible he will get them to agree to provide the details of (1) above in the event the Consulate should call as part of the routine immigration processing. (2) above will be taken care of in the same manner. Regarding (3), Headquarters has given us authority to expend up to $3,000 and Case Officer will inform ~~appraise~~ 513th of this. They will be asked to provide a letter if required, stating that Subject has been associated with them (whatever cover organization they wish to use) since his defection in July '62 and has roughly $3,000 in salary and bonuses being held for him. Regarding (4) whether or not is is adviseable to provide Subject with proof of his professional qualifications will be discussed with the 513th. (5) above, a birth certificate will probably not be necessary since so many defectors do not have these documents with them. Information on employment and residences will be worked up by the Case Officer from past defector's BARs and with material available to SR 6. (6) above - this information may also be acquired through facilities of SR 6.

After discussions with the 513th, Case Officer will tell WIROGUE that we have been informed by Headquarters that if Subject still desires to immigrate to South America and is successful in immigrating, we have authority to provide financial assistance during the transistion period up to $125 a month. Since Case Officer knows WIROGUE, the next question will be, "How long will I receive this $125 a month?" Case Officer will reply, "Until you become satisfactorily established or we have reason to believe that you are not sincerely trying to establish yourself." Case Officer will tell him, ~~but only if absolutely necessary,~~ that ~~Subject~~ he could count upon a year's support, if it were necessary.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: WIROGUE

Case Officer received a letter from Chuck Pettit, addressed to WIROGUE (George Sanders), Hohemarkstr. 145. Case Officer opened the letter and found it to be from a Lt. Zircle of the Transportation Corps. The Lt. mentioned that he and his friend had enjoyed their conversation with Subject at the Bahnhof a short time ago and had found him very interesting. The Lt. said he received a great deal of pleasure from meeting people such as Subject with such interesting backgrounds.

He suggested that he and Subject meet for dinner in the near future.

Case Officer took the letter to Bob Bullock, told him a little bit about Subject's past and suggested that something be done to prevent the Lt. from continuing his friendship with Subject, since Case Officer felt that WIROGUE would probably use the Lt. for whatever he could get out of him. Bullock said he would have CID contact the Lt. and tell him to lay off for his own good. Bullock promised to find out if the Lt. had given Subject his address and to advise him that if he should run into Subject, he should not mention having written a letter.

Dear Mr. Sanders:

Just wanted to drop you this line to tell you again how much I enjoyed our conversation the other evening at the Bahnhof. My greatest experiences in Germany are the different people I meet, and it is always very pleasant to talk with someone such as yourself who has such an interesting background.

My friend felt rather silly at his attempted joke. The next time he either will have less to drink or will think more before clowning!

It would be a pleasure to see you again during my tour of duty in Frankfurt. Maybe if you have a free hour or so in the future you would want to have another supper in the Bahnhof!

COMMENTS:

Case Officer dropped in to deliver some Christmas cheer to Subject and gave him his Reiseausweis and Anmeldebestatigung. His HARVARD identity document was picked up.

Subject told Case Officer he had the feeling that Headquarters would advise us to turn him loose without any additional help from us and he was worrying because it would be difficult for him to get a job and apartment on very short notice. Case Officer told him that we are aware of this and that if it is recommended that he be resettled on the economy we are not in the habit of throwing people out in the street and that we would do everything we could to help him become integrated.

Subject was paid subsistence for two weeks. Case Officer promised to try to drop by the end of next week.

From time to time Subject tries to find out if Case Officer knows the details concerning Subject's past work for us and the reasons for our insistance that he was blown in the Congo. (A fact which he does not believe and therefore feels that the relationship was discontinued for other reasons.) Case Officer told Subject that he did not know and did not wish to know the details since in our job we are only told what is necessary for us to resettle the people for whom we are responsible.

Case Officer picked up Subject and took him downtown, bought him lunch and then bought him several items of clothing which he badly needed. Subject was greatly pleased ~~and~~ although he cannot understand why we are doing so much for him. Case Officer explained that he is receiving nothing more than any other case what we are asked to help. Case Officer said that we were told originally by Headquarters to help Subject in any way that we reasonably could and that we with the cooperation of Headquarters are doing just that. Case Officer said that as far as he knows now, Subject will be helped to immigrate to South America and that we hope to send a dispatch to Headquarters explaining Subject's case as it now stands and we hope to receive soonest Headquarter's advice as to the future course of action we will take regarding Subject. Case Officer said that he hopes to be in a position within a week or two to advise Subject as to what we can and hope to do for him.

Case Officer said that in the final analysis if we do not help Subject to immigrate and he is turned loose on the economy, we would not throw him into the street, that he would be given a period of time in which to find a job and an apartment and that it is usually our procedure to help financially, at least the first month's rent and an additional subsistence payment until he receives his first paycheck. Subject was greatly relieved to hear this.

COMMENTS:

Case Officer dropped by to see Subject and pay him subsistence for the week. He was advised that our legal department would possibly recommend a patent attorney if and when he needed one. He replied that he already had had an attorney recommended to him by a contact he had made during the course of developing his invention. Case Officer asked him for the names of the contacts which he had made and he gave Case Officer the following information.

He said he has made the acquaintance of a salesman representative for several factories specializing in small electrical devices. The mans name is Wilhelm Salzmann, whose address is Frankfurt/Main, am Tiergarten 52, telephone 492251. Subject said that this person had recommended a patent attorney by the name of Wilhelm Reichel, a Dr. Ing. Patentanwalt, Frankfurt/Main, Parkstr. 13, telephone 559165.

Subject told Case Officer that if he is lucky and his invention is successful prior to any definite arrangements we make for his immigration to South America, he will leave our custody and probably stay right here in Frankfurt. He said that he is aware he has commited himself to go to South America and will do so but all that he wishes to do if immediate success of his invention is not forthcoming, is to get a patent on his invention so he can negotiate at a later date from South America.

Case Officer feels that this is about the best we can expect from Subject. Case Officer has discussed this situation regarding the patent with John Morrison of the legal staff, who says that he will at least try to find out if this patent attorney is qualified and successful.

NOTE: Case Officer has learned that the patent laws in Germany are somewhat peculiar in that a patent attorney is a technical qualified man who can obtain patents on subjects in which he has specialized and for which he has received a specialized education but he is not an attorney in the sense that he can deal with any legal questions which arise in the course of patent procedures or litigation in patent matters. Normally, an individual who intends to get a patent will hire an attorney who will contact a patent attorney. Between the two of them they can handle all problems and procedures involving a patent. This also can be worked in reverse.

We will further advise them that unless they have objections, we will start his processing for South America possibly with the sponsorship of one of the refugge organizations.

Subject agreed to this approach although Case Officer believes that he is hoping he will succeed in making himself financially independent by selling one of his inventions. He was reminded that that is what we are striving to do but that we at this point are not sure how the immigration will take place. He was told that Hdqtrs may require that he immigrate on his own with us supplying the plane ticket and nothing more or he may possibly be helped by a refugee organization. CO dropped in to see Subject and found him all hopped up about his latest invention. He prefeerred not to discuss it with CO but says that he is so sure that it is a money maker that he intends to apply for a German patent as soon as he works out all the details. CO told him that he should hold off as long as possible but in any event he should remember that his name is Georg Sanders and that any business he conducts should be done using his Hohemarkstr. address. 145.

CO may be wrong but he feels that Subject is agreeing to immigrate to S.A. only in the hope that we will provide him with a stake of some kind.

COMMENTS:

CO dropped by to see Subject and found him working on his latest invention. He has given up working on the device originally proposed by CO since he does not have sufficient tools and because some ~~///~~ of the parts ~~are~~ must be ordered from the US. CO encourages him as long as it keeps him busy and helps to pass the time.

Subject has an extremely inventive mind and has explained several of his ideas to CO. They would appear to have commercial value. Unfortunately Sugject has neither the money to develop them nor is he in a position to get involved with patents or manufacturers at the present time.

He seems reasonably happy with his present status but CO anticipates a hairy situation if upon applying for immigration to a SA country, Subject finds that the processing period takes a long time.

Memo for the Record

28 August 1962

CO and Al Ph. met with Geo. L to discuss the Wirogue situation and to inform him what was being done or planned re Wirogue's resettlement.

Al reviewed the situation as it now stood and explained that Hdqrtrs proposal that Subject be issued a backstopped Fremdenpass was completely unsatisfactory since it would not stand up under anything but the most casual investigation. It was explained that Camp King had been ~~appraised~~ informed of only the necesaary details of Wirogues problem and had agreed that the approach should be cover story making Rogue a recent defector, an interview and political recognition. Geo. L agreed that this seemed to be the proper step and gave us the go ahead.

CO suggested that we have AFRF make official inquiry at the various SA Embassyesand Consulates for detailed material giving immigration requirements. This is deemed necessary because the information is not normally given out over the phone and Rogue can be trusted to give CO only that information which will serve his purpose. He is not above telling us that an immigrant musthave $ 5000.00 to be considered, etc. It is very important that Rogue have the right answers when he applies and is interviewed for Immigration. Geo. L agreed to CO's suggestions and proposed that CO have AFRF get started on this project soonest.

Wirogue was taken to Camp King where he was 1st briefed on his story and then successfully interviewed. It is possible that Rogue will be completely documented within 2 or 3 weeks.

30 August

CO met with Gus E and Jack R and told them we were in need of detailed SA immigration requirements.

They agreed to get out an official inquiry to all the consulates and Embassys and attempt to find out the followings:

What documents are needed
What professions are indemand
How long is required for immigration processing
Does the immigrant need a certain amount of funds
Is a sponsor necessary or helpfull
What is the residence requirement for citizenship
What are the quota restrictions
Are there SA government agencies or private agencies who will help the Immigrant get started etc.

Note: Rogue has already told CO that he cannot go to Argentina because he has "friends" there who would gladly turn him in to the authorities or make trouble for him in any way they could. Rogue prefers Vuenesuela if he has a choice.

COMMENTS: CO picked up Subject and took him to lunch in the country ~~near Neu~~ Isenburg. Subject has been extremely edgy lately and it was felt by CO that a relaxing meal and 2 or 3 hours conversation might have a salubrious effect.

CO mentioned to Subject that if he were interested we might be able to find a radio or something along that line for him to build. Subject was very enthusiastic suggested that we get started soonest.

Subject was dropped off at his apartment and CO promised to come by as soon as he could find something to occupy Subject's time.

Subject was told that Hdqtrs had suggested Argentine for resettlement because they had no quota restrictions and were in need of technicians. Subject said that Argentine was out of the question since he had acquaintences there who would be happy to stir up any kind of trouble they possible could.

Subject suggests that he go to SA on a tourist visa. According to him it would be much easier after his arrival to apply for immigration since he already would be there. This reason is quite valid and sensible but CO knows that Subject has 2 quite different reasons for making this suggestion. 1. With a tourist visa he has visions of having us finance him from country to country until he finds exactly what pleases him and,2. He figures that with a tourist visa he can return to Europe without having committed himself irrevocably to immigration statuswith all it's attendant responsibilities for settling down, etc.

It is also obvious to CO that we cannot trust Subject to make inquiries himself at the various SA Consulates because he will tell us only those details which he wants us to know and unfortunately we hav eno way of checking since the Consulates will not give out information re immigration over the phone.

When the time comes CO feels that we may be able to get the information we need by working through AFRF.

Subject prefers Venezuela.

COMMENTS: Harvard CO and Al P. from TSS went to see Subject and informed him that Hdqtrs wishes his resettlement to be accomplished on the basis of documents as legalas possible. He was told that we will start the action necessary to get him a Fremdenpass and we hope a Reiseausweis. We explained that we must work very carefully and thoroughly that when he applies for a visa he must be prepared to give all the right answers since the SA consulates and Embassies do not give out immigration material without discussing the matter with the interested individual.

Subject is a bit sceptical that ~~all~~ everything can be backstopped but is willing to play ball. Al took some preliminary informationfrom Subject and will discuss our problem with Camp King. CK has indicated that they might be able to help us get Subject resettled, particularly in Chile.

Subject is becoming extremely edgy and Harvard CO is hoping that that this case will start moving soon.

COMMENTS:

1 August 1962 – Subsistance paid.

CO visited Subj at his apt and found him getting very restless over the delay in his South America processing. He stated he does not want to continue to receive support from us but wants to get someplace where he can start working and be on his own.

Subj stated that he called the German firm which expressed an interest in his going to the Congo and was told to have Geduld. He stated in very clear terms that he is tired of having Geduld and hopes that something will soon happen.

He mentioned again that he does not want to have the name dePaneshkhet. CO told him that when we get the go ahead on a SAmerican country we will discuss the whole document picture and related matters.

COMMENTS:

CO visited Subj at his apt and paid him DM 100 subsistence for the period 29 July through 4 Aug.

Subj was told that a cable was received from Hqs indicating that the people are definitely thinking about his resettlement in South America and wanted to make sure whether or not he had a preference. That was why, it was explained to Subj, that CO called on 24 July and inquired whether or not he had this preference.

Subj mentioned that he had thought seriously about his name on his phony Austrian passport and concluded that if at all possible he would like to retain the name Rainer. CO mentioned that under no circumstances would it be Rainer and was glad when Subj didnot push the point. Subj mentioned however that when it is certain where he is going he will bring up the matter again.

To the list of documents he has previously claimed he needs (under his new identity) Subj added the International Drivers License.

Subj was most concerned about his future and asked all kind of questions to ascertain that everything will be laid on when he goes to South America. He brought up the matter of the officials in the S. American country sometime or another checking with the Austrians. CO replied that if anything ever comes up, the officials will not check with the Austrians but with the pertinent South American officials who will have been informed by us to make his entry and life in the new country a possibility. Subj seemed to buy this but expressed the fact that something could go wrong.

Before CO left Subj Subj informed him that he will go around to the Venezuelan, Chilean and Colombian Consulates and request tourist information.

WIROGUE, former REDSOX Agent Candidate and AF Division Agent, has been quitclaimed and resettled on the local economy. This dispatch covers the WIROGUE case from May 1962 to March 1964.

Subject arrived in FRANKFURT/MAIN on 22 May 1962 and immediately made telephone contact with CABEZONE. He had been guaranteed a meeting with a Fran KUBARK representative who, he had been told, would explore KUBARK employment possibilities for him. He in the meantime would be attempting to market a telephone answering device which he had invented, and conduct an investigation into the disappearance of 30 million francs which had been misappropriated by members of the Congolese Defense Ministry. KUBARK's reasons for establishing contact were dictated, however, by the need to relieve Subject of his KUBARK supplied false Austrian passport in the name of Reiner, the need to institute or suggest a course of action which would encourage him to establish himself as a contributing member of society and, above all, prevent his return to the Congo.

Subject was met by Stephen R. LACKLEN and Roscoe MOSIEN and put up in a safehouse. He was relieved of his documents under the pretext that they were to be photographed and he would not need them for the time being since he would be given an identity document for use during the period of time he would be in KUBARK custody. LACKLEN explained that as an administrative officer he was interested only in taking care of his immediate needs but soon however he would be introduced to one who's business would be to work with him in an attempt to resolve his problems.

Since it had been decided that Subject was primarily a resettlement problem, Orme K. DARONNAT of HARVARD was introduced to Subject. DARONNAT told Subject that he would be working with him during his stay in Frankfurt while we were awaiting word on whether or not his services were needed by the Government. Subject stated that his greatestwish was to work for the "Company". If this was not to be, he hoped he would be helped to legalize and immigrate to South America. He emphasized his obligation to complete his mission for the C.D.F. and claimed also he had to return to the Congo to conclude his contract even if we decided to employ him. C. O. told him our first order of business was to establish the need for his services and in the meantime he could attempt to market his invention.

HARVARD needed time to establish Headquarters interest in the amount and type of assistance Subject should be given. Also he was still an unknown quantity, restless, and from early cable traffic a potential troublemaker. In view of these considerations we were anxious to make his stay in Frankfurt reasonably pleasant and reduce his desire to return to the Congo; therefore, he was provided with subsistence and confortable quarters.

DARONNAT introduced David E. COULLIARD (MKTOPAZ) explaining to Subject that we would be wise to discuss documentation for him since a long time might elapse before we had the answer to Subject's possible employment with us and if the answer was negative, we should be prepared to take steps to legalize him. COULLIARD explained the merits of a Fremdenpass and a Reiseausweis; i.e., a Fremdenpass could be obtained without much difficulty but control and security would be limited to the time Subject remained registered at the place from which the Fremdenpass was issued. Therefore, the Fremdenpass might well be a short range solution unless Subject could get an immigration visa to desired country of resettlement in a short time. On the other hand the issuance of a Reiseausweis could completely legalize Subject, but would have to be issued on the basis of a false defection story and should not be done unless absolutely necessary. Subject stated that he hated Germans and no matter what happened would not stay in Germany. He suggested that he be helped to immigrate to the U.S., Canada, England, Australia, etc. C. O. told him that with his criminal record of arrest and imprisonment in France immigration to other than S.A. was out of the question and even this was in doubt. He stated if KUBARK employment was not possible he would hope to get legal documentation in the name of de Panaskhet (his brother's name) and take up legal residence somewhere.

By this time (June) HARVARD C.O. had an inkling that Subject was not eager to return to the Congo but surmised that his nuisance value might be such that he could parlay his position into something better. HARVARD C.O. felt that Subject's dislike for the Germans was real but was emphasized by him in order to benefit as much as possible from a prolongation of his new association with KUBARK. He also stated that he was willing to discharge any responsibility to the Congolese by mail, thereby confirming C.O.'s suspicion that he did not in fact want to return to the Congo and was only interested in prolonging his stay in FF/M and benefiting therefrom.

In July 1962 Headquarters advised HARVARD to provide Subject with resettlement assistance including help in immigrating to South America. Consequently, he was told that although we appreciated his past service the economy drive in Washington precluded employing him in any capacity. He was told that we were authorized to help him realize his stated desire to immigrate to S.A. but that we would not be able to "wave a magic wand" and have him settled there with a job and a rosy future. He was told we would help him in whatever areas we could but he would be expected to apply himself to the problem and drop all plans to return to the Congo.

Subject at this point was so discouraged by his inability to sell his invention, the realization that his services were not needed by KUBARK and weeks of inactivity that he willingly agreed to forego returning to the Congo and give up all documentation in the name of Reiner if something could be done to give him hope for the future.

Headquarters had recommended that Subject be resettled on the basis of a backstopped Fremdenpass; however, Clarance W. LEIBROCK (MKTOPAZ) and DARONNAT after much discussion of the relative merits of the types of documentation available, decided that only a Reiseausweis would stand up under the investigation of immigration authorities and in addition, it was felt that there was no guarantee Subject would be going to South America. Therefore, if he were required to stay in Germany for a prolonged period of time, it would be best to provide him with complete FEDREP recognition processing resulting in a Reiseausweis. A subsequent discussion with ODIBEX Camp King reps confirmed this reasoning and, with the concurrence of Acting Chief AD/FI, Subject was briefed by Camp King representatives and then interviewed for political recognition. He received political recognition on the basis of a fabricated story in which he purported to be a Georgian who defected from East Berlin while with a tourist group.

HARVARD felt that progress was now being made but a temporary setback resulted from a query initiated in December 1962 by CAVATA to OCA Liaison Officer Bonn requesting full traces, interrogation reports and all information available on Subject. David R. REINBOLD of HARVARD informed OCA by cable and in a subsequent visit to Bonn that Subject's name, George SANDERS, story submitted for recognition, etc. were complete fabrications to insure that WIROGUE received political recognition and a Reiseausweis. It was explained that WIROGUE was strictly a HARVARD agent resettlement case of no AIS ops interest and not a routine CABEZONE case. OCA stated that the political recognition interview story had naturally drawn the interest and attention of CAVATA.

OCA advised REINBOLD that CAVATA would be kept out of the case by being told Subject was of continuing AIS ops interest and HARVARD could go about its resettlement efforts.

Subject by this time had agreed to immigrate to any South American country with the exception of Argentina, where he claimed he had acquaintances who were not kindly disposed toward him. At first Subject suggested that he go on a tourist visa and apply for immigration status after his arrival. Although this suggestion was quite sensible and valid DARONNAT knew that his reasons were: 1) with a tourist visa, he had visions of having KUBARK finance him from country to country until he found exactly what would please him, and 2) he knew that with a tourist visa he could return to Europe without having committed himself irrevocably to immigration status with all its attendant responsibilities.

Available South American immigration data indicated that a prospective immigrant would have to have personal qualifications sufficient to make him an attractive prospect plus proof of financial solvency sufficient to provide self-support at the rate of $125 per month for two years. Headquarters approved the expenditure of $3,000 for this purpose and discussions with MKTOPAZ and Camp King resolved the necessary documentation problems.

Fully documented and armed with the assurance that there would be financial assistance available during his first months in South America, Subject applied at the local Colombian Consulate for permission to immigrate. HARVARD had hoped that letters of solvency and letters of recommendation would be sufficient to enable Subject to process with a minimum of red tape. This was not to be and Subject was informed he could only immigrate by processing through the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration (ICEM).

This problem was discussed with a cleared official from Refugee Migration Section AMCONGEN, Munich, and the Chief of CAMANTILLA. HARVARD was informed that European refugees immigrating to South America are processed through ICEM thereby eliminating the need for individual countries to maintain immigration offices and welfare staffs. Unfortunately, since ICEM is responsible for the immigration processing, it is determined to pass only high level types and, therefore, conducts stiff security investigations and gives detailed interviews and job testing to all prospective immigrants.

By now it was apparant that if the disappointments and frustrations connected with this case were ever to end a reappraisel must be made to decide whether or not to go ahead and subject WIROGUE to several possibly very searching interviews. There was also the possibility he would be interviewed in Russian (practically non-existant) and Georgian (less than fluent). With these language deficiencies we knew he would be immediately suspect if interviewed by any recent refugee from the Soviet Union. We were hampered by not being able to insure Subject's smooth processing through ICEM, and by the fact that if we did help him to process we would be making USEP, ICEM and CAMANTILLA a party to fraud with the danger of any slip-up causing embarrassment to KUBARK, ODIBEX and to the Federal Republic. We were not sure that the aforementioned risks were worth taking and the problems worth trying to resolve when it was obvious to HARVARD C.O. that if Subject did get to South America and became disenchanted, his first stop would be the local U.S. Consulate or Embassy where he would ask to see the KUBARK representative and once again force KUBARK to become directly involved in his personal problems.

In spite of the hundreds of hours of Case Officer time, the many discussions necessary to pull together adequate information regarding immigration, etc., HARVARD was faced with the realization that to prepare Subject for South American immigration could take many more months. We were faced with the fact that until Subject was provided with a detailed life history containing the information required by prospective employers and/or immigration authorities he was not in a position to be resettled anywhere, let alone South America. We knew a new approach would have to be tried if HARVARD was ever to be in a position to satisfactorily sever Subject's dependence upon KUBARK and reduce to a minimum the need for future contacts. HARVARD C.O. felt that Subject should be told outright that immigration to South America was not practicable under the present circumstances and what would be done would be to provide him with a detailed life history with enough factual information needed for the filling out of any future job applications, to stand up under detailed interviews, and, if immigration ever took place, to satisfy immigration requirements.

DARONNAT told Subject that any South American immigration thoughts should be shelved, that he should work and establish himself in Germany and if he intended to immigrate in the future he would have to do it on his own. It was pointed out that he would have to study and learn Russian, that any professed Soviet refugee arriving in South America without Russian would be immediately suspect by the emigres there.

ODIBEX authorities at Camp King had readily agreed that Subject's original political recognition interview story did not provide the proper framework around which a decent legend could be built. It was agreed that given a detailed legend prepared to HARVARD's satisfaction ODIBEX could prepare a new political recognition interview story and would remove copies of the old story from the various FEDREP files and replace them with the new.

HARVARD's problem was explained to Chief, Stage I, CABEZONE who assigned Gerald H. BESDINS to prepare a life story to include a detailed escape from the Georgian S.S.R. to Turkey.

By ____________________ 1964, an excellent legend had been written, a new political recognition interview story prepared and substituted for the old and to HARVARD's satisfaction for the first time since Subject had arrived in HARVARD's custody, the way was clear for a final resettlement. DARONNAT informed Subject that the time had come to part company, that he was completely legalized and documented and was now in a position to take his place in society. Subject was given his legend in German, complete legal documentation, one month's final subsistence and, since he had taken over a dropped CABEZONE safehouse, was given dishes and various items to set up housekeeping. He was quitclaimed and warned that he should always keep in mind the consequences of any action on his part which would result in having his fingerprints taken. (Subject has often expressed the wish to immigrate to the U.S. or even Canada or Australia and with his new identity could probably do so. He has been told that these countries do thorough security investigations and a check with Interpol would disclose his true identity. HARVARD has established that Interpol has no interest in Subject but we feel his ignorance of that fact provides us with some control over any steps he might take to emigrate from Germany.) Subject has been told however that there is nothing to prevent him from visiting other countries or even entering as a technical representative.

HARVARD as the final step in the WIROGUE case has arranged through to be listed in for Subject so that any attempt to immigrate to any country will bring him to the attention of KUBARK and appropriate action can be taken.

In summary, everything has been done to insure Subject a successful future free from problems resulting from his "black" association with KUBARK. On the other hand, there is no reason for KUBARK to fear any future attempts by WIROGUE to return to the fold under veiled threats to reveal all. With his criminal background he is aware that he can be brought to the attention of French authorities. He also believes that KUBARK's position in the FEDREP is such that we have nothing to fear from any action on his part.

At the time of this writing Subject has a position as research and development engineer with a Munich firm. He allegedly receives DM 1500 per month, has an expense account and is to receive a percentage of all profits realized from the sale of any devices he develops. He expects to move to Munich permanently about the end of May 1964.

1. IDENTITY:

   A. FULL NAME: Georg Frank SANDERS

   B. NAME AT BIRTH: Georg SANDERS, as featured in my birth certificate and all other Soviet documents. However, upon arrival in the West, I added to my first name the name of my father, Frank. While in the USSR when the patronymic was required, I was referred to as Georg Frankovich SANDERS.

   C. OTHER NAMES USED: I never used any other names but I was called by my mother by a Georgian diminutive 'Zhori', and by my Russian friends 'Zhora' or 'Zhorzh'.

2. BIRTH:

   A. DATE OF BIRTH: 25 July 1919

   B. PLACE OF BIRTH: Tiflis, Georgia, USSR. Tiflis is the old Russian name. The Georgian as well as the present official name is Tbilisi.

   C. NATIONAL ORIGIN: Georgian

3. CITIZENSHIP:

   A. AT BIRTH: Soviet. From 1917 (October Revolution in Russia) until 1921, Georgia was governed, from the downfall of Czarist regime, by Menshevists and partially occupied by Turk, German and British troops. Only in 1921 did the Soviet government in Georgia officially come to power. However, all persons born during this transition period were classified later as Soviet citizens.

   B. PRESENT CITIZENSHIP: Stateless

4. RELIGION: Orthodox (pravoslavnyy). Being raised in a godless society, I practiced my religion to a very limited extent in my youth, and, due to existing conditions in USSR stopped going to the Church in my adult life.

5. SOCIAL ORIGIN: Intelligentia (sluzhashchiy); my father was an engineer, and my mother - a white collar worker.

6. PROFESSION: Electro-technician, an equivalent of German 'Ingeneur without diploma' (no college graduate)

   A. LAST OCCUPATION: Chief electrician (starshiy elekto-tekhnik) with MIKHA-TSKHAKAYA RTS.

7. LAST RESIDENCE: Shota Rustaveli Street (ulitsa), #25 (private home of my common-law wife, Nina GANDELI) in MIKHA-TSKHAKAYA, Kutaisi Oblast, Georgian SSR.

8. MARITAL STATUS: Single. From 1946 to the time of my escape I lived in a common-law marriage with Nina GANDELI, nee TAKTASHVILI, born 1920. When I first got to know her, she was married to a post-office employee but her marriage was an unhappy one. Her husband was much older and the marriage had been arranged by her parents, old fashioned farmers from a distant village who were happy to marry their daughter off to a relatively educated and well-to-do man. By the time I was drafted into the service Nina and I were lovers. When I returned from the war, I moved in with her for her husband had been killed in action during World War II and she lived, with her daughter born during this time, in a small home inherited from her husband. Her parents were dead, and she worked as a mail carrier for she had very little education. During the later years of our life together, I discovered that Nina was having affairs with other men. This caused frequent quarrels at home, and made my life unbearable. Finally, the woman became pregnant, and since I was positive that it was not my child, I decided to end our relationship. This was one of the reasons for my defection. I have no children of my own.

9. PARENTS:

   Smi

   A. FATHER: Frank SANDERS, born circa 1885 in the Baltic area, came to Russia proper circa 1910 and worked as a civil engineer in the Baku, Batumi, and Tbilisi areas. In 1918, he married my mother in Tbilisi. He died in 1924 of an accident at his place of work. I do not remember my father at all, but knew from my mother that he was a very good and kind man, and was well liked.

   B. MOTHER: Maria SANDERS, nee KANTCHELI, born circa 1885 in a small village near the Azerbaydzhanian border in Tbilisi Oblast. She was an only child, and when her parents died of old age, within a few years of each other, she moved to Tbilisi and worked as a clerk in various private enterprises until she married my father. After her husband died, she went back to work. She changed her place of employment several times and the only job I can remember was her last employment as a cashier with the shoe-repair shop (artel) on Sovetskaya Ulitsa in Tbilisi. She died in 1934 of a heart attack.

10. BROTHERS AND SISTERS: None at present. I had a brother Leon born 1923 who died some six months after his birth.

11. OTHER RELATIVES: I knew that my father had relatives in the Baltic area but our family had no contact with them and I did not know any of them. I had no close maternal relatives, and the distant relatives in my mother's home village had no contacts with my family disapproving my mother's marriage to a 'foreigner' of another faith. I never visited the home village of my mother.

12. CLOSE FRIENDS AND ASSOCIATES: I never had any real close friends, but I was somewhat closer to the following persons in town:

(1) Director of RTS, who was transfered in 1959 to Rustavi, Georgian SSR.

(2) Rayon veterinarian who had his office in the rayon veterinary clinic and travelled extensively in the rayon area visiting collective farms.

(3) Club librarian (a girl friend)

13. SPECIAL SKILLS: I like to invent gadgets and built up a relatively good home work shop

14. LANGUAGES: Georgian - native

Russian - from school and contacts with population in Russian speaking area and in the service.

German - from school and residence in Germany

English - from Technicum, home study and association with Americans in Germany.

15. FINANCIAL STATUS: None

16. EDUCATION HISTORY:

1927-1934 - Trudovaya Shkola #107 (10-year school, desyatiletka) located on the corner of Prospekt Mikhaylovskiy and Kirochnaya Ulitsa, in Tbilisi, (Presently PLEKHANOVA and MARDZHANISHVILI Streets, respectively.) Prior to 1927, it was the German Real Gymansium, but although converted into a srednyaya shkola at that time, the instruction was conducted in German, until 1930 when it changed to Georgian. The majority of the students were Georgians. Russian language instruction was given two hours a week and Georgian - one hour a week, until 1930. I completed seven years at this school and then due to the death of my mother, entered a technicum where I would be given board and quarters.

1934-1938 - Tbilisskiy Elektro-Tekhnicum, located on Sovetskaya Ulitsa in Tbilisi, in a two-story building with a yard where the shops and the students' hostel were located. In summer 1934, I submitted an application to this school supplemented with the seven-year school certificate and a photo. In July or August I passed the entrance examinations consisting of Mathematics, Physics, written and oral Georgian and Russian and when I saw my name posted on the school's bulletin board I knew I had been accepted. I paid no tuition and was given a small stipend just enough for a bare living. The hostel accommodations where I shared a room with three other students were free. On the first floor of the technicum building, near the school office, was located a students cafeteria where meals could be bought cheaply. The food was of poor quality. The female students of the school lived in a small annex on the same street, two or three blocks from the technicum.

For four years I studied physics, mathematics, history, English, Georgian language and literature, Russian language and literature, and from 1936 or 1937 - Constitution of the Soviet Union. The general subjects were on a high school level. Specialized subjects given at the technicum were technology of metals, theoretical mechanics, strength of materials, electrical machines, electro-techniques, electrical gears (privody), electrical measuring instruments, drafting. The students were also given military and physical training. Classes ran from September to July of each year; summer recesses I spent usually in near-by kolkhozes in a group organized by the technicum to help out farmers with their crops.

Examinations were held twice a year, prior to New Year and at the end of second semester, and were graded by the following system:

5 - Otlichno (excellent)

4 - Khorosho (good)

3 - Posredstvenno (satisfactory)

2 - Plokho (bad)

1 - Ochen plokho (very bad)

The first three were passing grades.

In the spring of 1938, I took the final examinations, oral and written, and was issued a diploma. It was a one-page certificate and indicated that I had attended the technicum for 4 years. It listed the grades I had received on the various subjects and showed that I was graduated as an electro-mekhanic.

All graduates were assigned to various places of employment where they had to stay not less than two years. This is a form of repayment for the money which the government spent on their education. I was sent to the MIKHA-TSKHAKAYA M.T.S. which in 1958 was converted into an R.T.S.

17. EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

1938 - 1941 and 1946 - until defection - - Mikha-Tskhakaya M.T.S. (Machine-Tractor Station), later converted into R.T.S. (Repair Technical Station) - Machino-Traktornaya and Remontno-Tekhnicheskaya Stantsiya, respectively. Mikha-Tskhakaya, referred to by the population simply as Tskhakaya, was the rayon center of Tskhakayskiy Rayon being renamed so after the famous Georgian Revolutionary Mikha Tskhakaya (the old name of the town was Akhal-Senaki and Akhal-Senakskiy Rayon, respectively). M. Tskhakaya was one of the organizers of the Georgian Communist Party. The town has now about 10,000 population and is located on the RR line Samtredia-Sukhumi (the main connection between Tbilisi and Moscow) with the junction to Poti, the Black Sea resort. The town is located between two large tributaries of the Rion River: Tsivi and Terakhi Rivers. On the latter, located a few kilometers from Mikha Tskhakaya, is situated a small hydro-power station where I was a part-time employee upon my return from World War II.

At the M.T.S. (which was in 1958 converted into R.T.S. after the machines and equipment were distributed to the local grain and grape producing collective farms with the sole responsibility of repair of these machines left with R.T.S.) I soon became the foreman of a small brigade of electro-mechanics responsible for the maintenance and repair of electrical parts for those agricultural and other machines. My starting salary was 400 or 500 rubles, but it was increasing rapidly and when I was drafted into the army, my salary was almost doubled by that time.

For personal reasons I returned to this town after my discharge from the service, and obtained my old job. I also got a job as electro-technician with the above described power station which supplied power for the town and the rest of the rayon. I was assigned this second job since there was a lack of qualified personnel after the end of the war. I worked in the second shift at the power station from 1947 until 1953 (when the position was filled by a young graduate of Kutaisi technicum) earning 700 rubles in addition to my basic salary with the R.T.S. Prior to my escape, my income was about 120 new rubles before deductions. I also had some additional week-end income from repairing electric household appliances, radios, etc., for the local citizens. The old currency was converted 10 to 1 in 1961.

18. MILITARY HISTORY

A. DRAFT BOARD REGISTRATION: In the summer of 1939 I received a notification from my rayon-voyenkomat (draft board) of my rayon and reported there on a specified date before the draft board, then I was sent in a group of other future conscripts to the rayon polyclinic for a medical check-up. I had lost the first joint of my left thumb and index fingers during an accident at the job, and when the findings of the medical examinations were reported to the draft board, I was rejected for active duty and deferred into the reserve. At that time my pripisnoye svidetelstvo (registration certificate) was exchanged for the military booklet.

B. INDUCTION DATE: On about 26 August 1941, I received a notice instructing me to report to the rayvoyenkomat on 27 August. I reported there and was notified to report for induction on the following day. Then I, with a group of either 80 or 100 conscripts from my rayon, was put on the train and via Tbilisi travelled to Baku, where the group was put in so called Salyanskiye Kazarmy (Salyany Barracks) located on the outskirts of Baku, on the highway to Salyany and the Iranian border.

C. BRANCH OF SERVICE AND SERIAL NUMBER: I served in the anti-aircraft artillery. I had no serial number (which is never issued in the Soviet Army).

D. BASIC TRAINING: I took basic training at Salyany barracks in Baku for a period of two months. One month I took the regular basic training, and the remaining month improved my qualifications as a car driver (I learned how to operate an automobile while working on electric detail on car repair at my M.T.S.). I can not recall the unit number where I went through the basic training. At that time the barracks were full of troops, basically infantry and artillery units which rotated quite frequently.

E. SPECIALIZED COURSES: One month's driver's training as mentioned above.

F. RESERVE STATUS:

Summer 1939	Rejected from the active duty for medical reasons and given reserve status.
Fall 1946	Discharged from the army and after submitting my travel and discharge papers to my Rayvoyenkomat was issued a new military booklet which contained an indication of my reserve status. I was never recalled for military training or duty of any kind after my final discharge from the service.

G. CHRONOLOGY OF MILITARY SERVICE:

In a group of other enlisted men, I was sent by train to the 2nd battery of the 253rd separate anti-aircraft artillery division (OZAD-ogne-zashchitnyy artilleriyskiy divizion). Commanding officer of the battery was Lt. VAKS. Commander of the vzvod upravleniya (administration platoon) of the division was Lt. ENDELADZE. Deputy divizion commander for political affairs was Capt. CHOKHA and politruk of my battery was Senior Lt. SAMARIN. Major Vlado (Vladimir) GURGENIDZE was the commanding officer of OZAD and in February 1943 he was also appointed the commander of the PVO (protivo-vozdushnaya oborona or anti-aircraft defense) in the town of Michurinsk. The headquarters of the division was located in Michurinsk, while the battery itself was stationed near the station TARASOVO near the settlement of Konskoye, 7 km. from Michurinsk and 6 km. from the six marshalling yards located at Kochetovka station. A higher HQ was in Tambov and was at first commanded by Col. CHERNYAVSKIY and later by Col. TSVETKOV, a demoted General.

When I first arrived in Michurinsk, I was assigned as a truck driver with the division's supply platoon (khoz-vzvod or khozyaystvennyy vzvod) commanded by Junior Lt. MAKAROV, but later I made the acquaintance of the above mentioned ENDELADZE, a countryman, and through latter's intervention was assigned as a personal driver to division commander GURGENIDZE, also a Georgian, who was later promoted to Lt. Col. and who kept me with him until I was discharged from the service.

H. PROMOTIONS AND DEMOTIONS: After six months in the service, I was promoted to yefreytor (corporal), and at the end of my first year to Junior Sergeant. In 1944, I was made a sergeant.

I. DECORATIONS: None

J. DATE OF DISCHARGE: I was discharged from active military duty at the end of September 1946. I received my travel orders and per diem funds at my unit in Michurinsk and turned them in at my rayvoyenkomat. In 1955, I was given another medical check-up by orders of the voyenkomat and discharged from the reserve for medical reasons (same as before) and issued a so called belyy bilet (white ticket or permanent deferment from service).

19. RESIDENCES FROM BIRTH:

1919 - 1926	Several addresses in Tbilisi
1926 - 1934	Tbilisi, Kirochnaya Ulitsa #35, an apartment in a two-story house, formerly a private house, later taken over by the State ZHAKT (housing organization) enterprise. After my mother's death, I entered the local electro-technicum and moved to the students' dormitories.
1934 - 1938	Tbilisi, Ulitsa Sovetskaya, # not recalled, student hostel of Tbilisi Electro-Technicum.
1938 - 1941	Mikha Tskhakaya, Ulitsa Tsulukidze, #14. Here I rented a room in a private one-story house of a retired RR switchman, Ilya LORDKIPANIDZE, who had to rent a room in his house to boarders to supplement his pension. Ilya's wife, Keto (Catherine), for an additional charge took care of my laundry and cooked for me. The couple had no children of their own and treated me as their own son.

1941 - 1946	Army Service
1946 - 1962 (until defection)	Mikha Tskhakaya, Ulitsa Shota Rustaveli, #25, the private home of my common-law wife, Nina GANDELI. I was in love with her and had an affair with her before I went to war. During the war, I found out that Nina's husband was killed in action and decided to return to Tskhakaya to be near her. I moved in with Nina and continued to live with her without registering our marriage at the local ZAGS (registrar office for marriage, deaths and births). Although I insisted on legalizing our union, Nina was always opposed, being unhappy in her first marriage, and wanted to feel free to end the relationship at any time. For the last several years Nina, as I found out, was meeting other men during my absence from home. A rift between us developed and grew more and more with the passing of time. Being deprived of Nina's intimacy, I reacted by dating other girls. We were on the verge of separation many times but somehow made up. I tried desperately to resolve our problems since, when I still was very close to Nina, I made anti-regime remarks on several occasions and even planned a joint escape from the USSR. I was afraid to aggravate her too much in order not to push her into possibly reporting me to the militia. However, for some reason Nina did not want to break off with me completely, and one day announced that she was expecting a child and wanted to legalize our marriage. Since, I did not consider myself the father of the child and fearing black-mail by Nina, I decided to speed up my defection which I was planning anyway.

20. TRAVEL:

None except as described previously.

21. HISTORY OF ARRESTS:

In June 1962, I was approached by the rayon militia at my place of work and was taken to the militia offices where I was accused of being a long standing member of a Georgian resistance group and of making anti-government statements. Although I had actually made such remarks on occasions and was therefore guilty of the latter charge, I noticed that the militia did not have sufficient information on this subject and I denied all accusations. I could not figure out who was behind the report. After prolonged interrogation, during which I was extensively questioned on my biography, parents, army service, contacts, etc., I was released with the warning that I was not to leave the area for the time being and that I would be contacted in the near future by the militia. Except for this case, I was never arrested or detained by militia or security organs.

22. MEMBERSHIP IN POLITICAL PARTIES OR ORGANIZATIONS:

I never belonged to the Communist Party. I was urged to join the Komsomol in 1937 while at the Tbilisi Elektro-Technicum, and was sponsored there by two of my class-mates, each of whom had more than two years of Komsomol standing. I submitted the application to the local Komsomol yacheyka (cell) and at a general meeting of the cell members my application was discussed and I told my life story and answered questions put to me by the members. After I was accepted, I received my membership card in about two months from the city rayon committee of the Komsomol in Tbilisi after which I had to attend meetings and pay very small dues. I never held any official position with the Komsomol organization. When I left Tbilisi, I had to deregister from the Tbilisi organization and register with the local organization at my new place of residence in Mikha Tskhakaya (usually referred to by the local population simply as 'Tskhakaya'). The same proceedure had to be repeated upon my departure to and discharge from the army (deregistration from the old organization and registration at the new place). Upon my return from the army to Tskhakaya, I never registered with the local organization again.

When I started to work in Tskhakaya, I was automatically enrolled in the prof-soyuz (trade unions) where I was a passive member paying my dues (something like 1% of my salary) to the trade union organizer of MTS (prof-org) and attending the obligatory meetings from time to time. I never took any advantage of trade union members privileges such as the cut-rate accommodations in rest homes (putevka v dom otdykha).

23. CONNECTIONS WITH ANY INTELLIGENCE SERVICES:

I never had any contacts with intelligence services. I was never approached to serve in any capacity for Soviet security organs.

24. DEFECTION AND ESCAPE:

A. MOTIVATION:

In spite of being born and raised in a Communist country, I, at an early age began to understand that real freedom did not exist for the individual. It was also clear to me that personal advancement did not depend on talent and integrity but on the degree of one's political activity. I analyzed the Communist lies seeing reality so different from the official propoganda. During and after the war, I met people who visited Western countries and was able to benefit from the particles of truth about a different life there from the even sometimes very carefully worded reports of those people. After I purchased a good radio of 'Mir' make in 1956, I started to listen intensively to foreign broadcasts. For a long time I cultivated the idea of eventual escape from the USSR where I had no relatives, no family, no possibilities for advancement and a decent life. My anti-government sentiments which developed as time passed became stronger and stronger, and it became more and more difficult for me to hold myself back and not to express them openly, which I did anyway on several occasions. My involvment with the militia and the unfavorable developments in my personal life accelerated my plans for defection.

B. TECHNIQUES OF ESCAPE:

On 25 June 1962, three days after my experience with the militia, I left my residence at 0700 as I normally would to go to work. I walked out of town toward Samtredia. I wore my regular clothing, had 80 rubles and a small hand bag. I did not want to take the train being afraid of militia surveillance. After I walked two or three kilometers on the highway, I got a ride on a truck from a near-by collective farm which was headed in the same direction. I got off the truck downtown in Samtredia and paid the driver one ruble, then walked toward the railroad station. Here I purchased the ticket for Batumi and boarded the train at 1150 arriving in Batumi at 1415. I found a safe place and slept until dark. I started off on foot from Batumi and followed the sea shore until I reached the old shooting range about 1 1/2 or 2 km to the south. Here I entered the water at about 2200 hours, after destroying my passport (the rest of my documents were left at home) and burying my clothing and bag. I knew from previous study of a map at home that I had to swim some 18 km. to Turkish territory. I swam all night and was not sure if I had reached Turkish soil, but being exhausted, I came ashore at about 0300 or 0400 hours. The point where I stepped out was on the gradient of a steep slope. There I saw the silhouette of a hut and went in. There was an old discarded electric motor in the hut. From the Russian description on the motor, I understood that I was still in Russia. I hid in the underbrush near-by and spent the rest of the night and the following day there. When it was getting dark, I climbed the slope to observe the area. I walked for a while hearing voices in Russian coming from the shore. I saw a dark object on the sea which resembled a submarine. I continued walking near the shore and around 2200 or 2300 hours I entered the water and started to swim 3 km off shore and then parallel to it. When I came into the range of a search light which swept the sea, I submerged. When I came to the surface the search light swept over me but nothing happened and I knew I had not been discovered. I continued to swim until I was completely exhausted, and several hours before dawn went ashore and hid in a cave opposite two big rocks in the sea near the shore. I remained there until morning. The next morning I climbed up the slope where I saw a stone structure resembling a grave. I went in and observed the land around me from a small opening. I saw a large village which I later learned was Kemal-Pasha. I thought at first that a minaret was an observation tower. I also presumed that this was the village of Sarpi, still on Soviet territory. I was very thirsty and climbed down the hill to a near-by stream to drink water. I met an 11 or 12 year old boy whom I addressed in Russian but the boy drew away from me. Being still not sure as to where I was, I walked in the stream for a while to hide my footprints. Then I hid in the underbrush until it grew dark. I came out and went around the village to its opposite end. There I entered the town and knocked on the door of a house situated on a hillside. I called out in Russian. Even though I heard voices and footsteps in the house nobody opened the door. I climbed on the roof of a sort of stable in the courtyard and spent the night there. Early next morning I was awakened by noises in the courtyard. I saw several women and two men. I approached them and tried to make them understand by sign language that I had come from Russia. Meanwhile, some persons carrying sticks and axes came into the courtyard. I again tried to explain that I came from Russia and wanted to remain in Turkey. The men took me to the military authorities in Kemal-Pasha.

When I dived into the sea in Batumi, I was wearing swimming trunks, a belt and a pair of fins. There was a clasp knife in my belt, a sack needle for stinging myself in case of a cramp, my money in a nylon bag, three bars of chocolate, a compass and two Phenamin tablets to increase my energy in a separate nylon bag. Except for the occasional search light in the sea, which I avoided by diving, I did not encounter any other obstacles on my way.

I did not inform anybody about my escape plans and did not receive any help from anybody.

From Kemal-Pasha where I was given some clothing, I was taken by car to Erzerum and from there by train to Istanbul refugee center. I was there about a week and was taken to Germany with the assistance of US authorities on Friday 6 July 1962.

25 DOCUMENTS:

A. PASSPORT:

I received my first three-year passport at #17 militia (passport desk) office of Molotovskiy rayon of Tbilisi, where I resided at that time. The passport was a single sheet of paper with my photo and biographic data on it. In 1939 I exchanged it for a new five-year passport at the Mikha Tskhakaya rayon militia. This passport was of a regular booklet form and along with my photo and bio data, had a stamp of propiska (registration with militia) which stated the date of my arrival in this town and my residence address. When I was drafted to the army, I turned in my passport and military booklet to the rayvoyenkomat, and picked it up upon discharge from the service. At that time I received a new five-year passport from the same militia office with the propiska showing my new address. In 1951, I exchanged my passport for the new one which was valid for 10 years and which was exchanged for another 10-year passport in 1961.

B. MILITARY BOOKLET (Voyennyy Bilet):

See paragraph 18. In the army I had a service booklet (sluzhebnaya knizhka) which I turned in to my rayon voyenkomat upon return from the army.

C. LABOR BOOKLET (Trudovaya Knizhka):

I never possessed one since it was issued by one employer and turned in to the new employer when an individual changed employment. I never changed jobs.

COMMENTS: CO and Mr. Minor went to see Subject in response to a telephone call from him. His Major problem was that he was broke and needed money. CO gave him DM 100.00 to eat on for a week but Subject says that it's impossible to live on that amount.

It is obvious that he is getting edgy and wants some action from Hdqtrs. He was told that if anything is to done for him in S.A. it will require correspondence between our people in S.A. and Headquarters, that this will take time and there is nothing he can do but wait. Subject thanked us for our help and said he is sorry to cause us so much trouble.

COMMENTS:

CO visited Subj at his apartment and learned that though the German firm in Dusseldorf is interested in his invention, it nevertheless has not committed itself and desires to study it awhile. Subject indicated to CO that he has no intentions to wait until the Germans make up their minds. He was obviously discouraged by his inability to sell his invention and realization he is no longer needed by [illegible].

As the result of the above he commented that he is now anxious to go to South America or to any country where we can assist him legalizing. He even stated that since he has no funds from the sale of his invention he is not anxious to return to the Congo and say goodbye to his friends. He stated several times previously that the only reason he would return would be to see his friends, that he has no business to take care of, and that he could handle the personal matters through the mail.

CO informed him that he would inform Washington that subject is now ready and anxious to go to S America. Subj then brought up the fact that the Dusseldorf firm which he visited was very interested in taking advantage of his Congo background and send him there as a business representative. At first he would go strictly as a private individual working for a business firm, but that his status would change somewhat once the German Government would sponsor part of the firm's activity in the Congo. He stated that he has no real desire to return to the Congo for a German firm since such a step would in his mind indicate that he no longer is available for us. He would therefore rather go to a place of our choosing and be available any time he was asked to serve by Uncle Sam. He commented however that in the event we delay his leaving Germany unduly (in his estimation) he may be forced to take the offer made by the German firm. He made it clear that he did not mean this as a threat, but a straight resettlement fact since by taking the job in the Congo he would at least have a job, whereas by going to South America he has no job in sight.

Memo to the File [illegible]

On 26 June 62 Subj called and said that he had gone to Düsseldorf on 22 June and is returning there for further discussions on his invention on 27 June. He stated that the people there are interested in his invention and he hoped that xxxxxxxx something could soon be worked out.

He commented further that the person he brought the letter to (letter of introduction mentioned in previous reports) is with a German firm which is interested in the Congo and in contact with Congolese officials.

Subj will call CO upon his return to Frankfurt on 27 June 62.

COMMENTS:

CO met Subj at his apt and informed him that word was received from Washington that due to President Kennedys economy drive Subjs services were no longer needed. Moreover that we were highly appreciate of his past performances and devotion to us. Subj, who was very calm throughout the entire session, took the news very well and stated that he had expected to learn his above fate.

He commented that now that he will no longer be in our employ he is virtually without means to support himself since the only funds he has xx are the amounts given him by Mr Murmann. He said further that unless he sold his invention to someone in Germany he not only would not be able to support himself but could also not pay for his fare to South America. (See below) It was xxxxxfc therefore agreed that Subj should now make every effort to sell his invention here and to this effect he was given his letter of introduction to the Dr in Dusseldorf where he hoped to go today. If this does not succeed he will attempt to contact a few of the large electrical firms (such as Siemens, Braun, AEG) in the Frankfurt area. CO informed him that we will give him sufficient time for him to discover whether or not He will or can sell his invention in Germany. During this time he was told he could remain in our apt and continue to receive his subsistence from us. Subj answered that since he will not be working for us in the future he is very anxious to make his own way and will make every effort to get his business taken care of as soon as possible.

Subj was told that in the event he is not successful in selling his invention, we would inform our people in Washington that he is without funds and request financial assistance, especially to cover plane fare wherever he is going. He emphasized that if he does sell his invention he intends to pay his own way.

CO further commented that while Subj returns to the Congo to conclude his business (and on the way stop off in Geneva and Brussels to take care of his matter for the Defence Ministerium) we would upon his return given him a new passport, probably a second Austrian passport, but in the name of de[illegible]chet. We would moreover make xxx every effort to get him into a South American country where he, with a minimum of effort and difficulty could legalize and establish citizenship. Subj stated that he is or would be very thankful for this assistance. He then mentioned that he does not really have any business to take up for the xxxxxx Defence Ministry, but that was just a ruse to get him out of the country. Moreover that in the event he does not sell his invention he has no intention to return to the Congo since he will not have sufficient funds to pay for his retur trip to Germany.

•Subj promised to call CO upon his return from Dusseldorf.

COMMENTS:

CO visited Subj at his apt and paid him DM 300 subsistence (and meals) for the period 11 June through 30 June 1962.

Subj stated that the firm in Dortmund was not interested in his invention stating that they would have to sell it so cheaply they could not make any money on it.

Subj asked if there was anything new. CO informed him that the ways of Hqs are often strange to understand but that there is evidence that something is being done since a telegram was received inquiring whether or not he had any preference as to where he may prefer to legalize in South America. He stated that he did not care where he lived, the important thing being that he would like to work for us anywhere in the world. He even mentioned Loos where he claimed he could be of some use.

CO informed Subj that for future planning he would like to know that in the event we would assist him in legalizing in S. America, but informed he that he would no longer have a job with us, whether he could get along on his own. He stated that though this would make him unhappy he would naturally have to make the best arrangements possible.

Subj though concerned about his future and indicating that he dislikes sitting around doing nothing nevertheless was not over bearing or demanding.

Case Officer and a TSB Representative dropped in to see Subject and informed him that we had notified Headquarters the results of our discussion regarding documentation and had informed them of our and his thinking concerning this problem. He was told that there was nothing else to tell, that now we could only wait to get an answer with their suggestions. He was offered his old Austrian passport and identity papers so he could go to Geneva and Brussels to finish his assignment for the Congolese Defense Ministry. Subject said he was in no hurry to do this and therefore refused the passport, stating that he was hoping to hear from Dortmund regarding his invention within the next two weeks and this assignment he had to do could be done on his way back to Leopoldville. It is obvious that Subject's primary worry or concern is to get a job with us. Subject asked if his identity card could be renewed. Case Officer took the card and had it re-validated until 24 June and returned it to Subject.

Subject was also told that the cook would be taken from him for several weeks and that Case Officer would give him 100 DM to eat on. Subject was quite surprised and pleased.

Subject suggested that we investigate the possibility of his immigrating to Australia, Canada, England, etc. Case Officer said that his chances were nil, that the entrance requirements to these countries were extremely difficult to satisfy and that his best bet is probably South America.

Case Officer promised to return as soon as he had some free time or as soon as he heard something from Headquarters.

COMMENTS:

David E. [illegible]

Case Officer and [redacted] introduced as Mr. Joseph LORTON, went to see Subject with the express purpose of discussing the various possibilities that might be available to document Subject as legally as possible.

Subject told CO that he had made contact in Dortmund under the name of de Panaskhet, whith a firm that was interested in his invention. They told him that since he did not have a patent this would pose a problem and offered him 5,000 DM for his idea. Subject told them he would give it to them outright for $10,000. Although they did not refuse his request, they told him they would think it over and discuss it with the boss and would have to make a patent search which would take up to 4 weeks. Subject told them to go ahead but not to try to pull any funny business since there were ways of proving that the idea was his and he could offer it to other firms. Subject will now wait to be contacted by this firm.

Case Officer told Subject that we had not heard anything from Headquarters regarding his re-employment by us. He asked if there was some way of finding out approximately how long it would take. CO told him this was very difficult, but we would see if we could make an educated guess.

Subject asked for a key to the mailbox since he will be receiving mail from his friends in Dortmund and possibly from the firm which he has contacted.

[redacted] then began discussing documentation with Subject along the following lines:

The type of documentation he would receive if any would depend upon the final decision from Headquarters as yet not received. We solicited suggestions from Subject as to solutions to the documentation problem. Apparently his immediate desire is to receive back his Austrian pass, finish his business in Europe and return to the Congo to clean up matters there.

The other or long range alternative would be, he would like to have especially if he is not employed by KUBARK, documentation of a legal nature in the name of David de Panaskhet with which he could surface anywhere in the world and take up legal residence. He himself suggested the possibility of our agency determining some South American country where suitable briberies are possible. He could acquire citizenship in a short period of time, if possible without his personal appearance there and acquire a passport from that country. Obviously this would mean finding some country where bribery would affect quick acqusition of citizenship and passport. He did not express any particular eagerness to accept German documentation unless he could get a Reiseausweis. We discussed the relative merits of a Fremdenpass and a Reiseausweis. We told him that if we could obtain a Fremdenpass with a minimum of change in his true life story, but the acqusition of a Reiseausweis would mean telling a big lie, which he personally took a dim view, but said he would do it if necessary. We said we thought we could get him a Fremdenpass without too much difficulty from controlled authorities but the effect of control and security of this passport would be limited to the time he remained registered at the place from which the Fremdenpass was issued. Therefore, the issuance of a Fremdenpass might well be a short range/ solution only unless he could obtain an immigration visa to the desired country of resettlement with~~out~~in a six-month period. In any event, the decision to obtain a Fremdenpass would rest on the decision made by Headquarters as to the final disposition of his case. In the event a Fremdenpass was to be obtained Subject was requested to sign all necessary forms and submit all necessary information for the completion of these forms, which he did. He was reassured again that no steps will be made to acquire a Fremdenpass without prior consultation with him.

ORME K. DARONNAT, Case Officer

COMMENTS:

LACKLEN introduced DARONNAT as Mr. Murmann and explained that he would now be working with Subject. On the way to lunch DARONNAT explained that he and Subject would be working together to resolve whatever problems Subject might have. During lunch, conversation was limited mostly to Subject's views on the Congo situation and the solutions. He also expounded at great lengths on the ~~matter~~ nature of the Congolese and the Belgians whom he would appear to dislike intensely.

Upon return to the apartment Subject was told that we would like to get him West German documentation with political recognition. He was told that if we are successful he would be documented as legally as possible under the circumstances and would be in a position to begin a new life. Subject was very pleased but a bit skeptical that we could accomplish this. He was asked to think carefully about his desire to use the name David de Panaskhet since, if he was wanted for breaking parole in France, there could be a watch list for that name and it could be assumed that since Panaskhet was his brother's name, Subject might assume that name some day. Subject stated that someone was confused about his status in France, that he was not on parol and had, therefore, not done anything wrong in leaving the country. He said that the worst that could happen if he returned there would be for the authorities to ask him why he had left the town he had been confined to. His answer would be that since they had restricted his movements he had left the country (C. O. doubts that this is true but ~~would~~ did not raise any questions).

Subject was given a DRC identity card, number 596, in the name of David de Panaskhet. Since HARVARD is awaiting Headquarters proposal regarding Subject's resettlement, C. O. suggested that he investigate the possibility of marketing his telephone answering device.

Subject stated that a woman friend of his in Dortmund knew him by his Russian name but if he visited her she would ask no questions which would pose a security or otherwise embarrassing problems for us. The man he proposed to visit in Dusseldorf to whom he had a letter of introduction, would have to be told his name is Reiner. C. O. told him to do what he thought necessary but to be careful since it would appear that his case was complicated enough without complicating it further. C. O. told Subject to call him when he returns from Dortmund and Dusseldorf.

CONTACT REPORT

SUBJECT: WIROGUE KUBARK OFFICER: Stephon R. LACKLEN

1. As requested by AD/FI, LACKLEN met WIROGUE as scheduled in the CABELONE apartment at 100 hours on 23 May 1962. Roscoe H. MOSIEN accompanied to witness the meeting and assist later if necessary, in reconstruction of needed facts.

2. LACKLEN told WIROGUE that ~~he~~ had been sent a message to Washington with the highlights of the 22 May meeting. He said that this message probably could not be acted upon prior to 23 May due to the time difference between Washington and Frankfurt. He was advised that while we hope for some word today it was more probable we would not get an answer prior to 24 May. WIROGUE said that he understood the time delays in awaiting replies from Washington and expressed his satisfaction with our efforts to assist him.

3. LACKLEN told him the documents which he had loaned us were being photographed and would be returned to him as soon as possible. WIROGUE said he was in no hurry for his documents and for us to keep them as long as we needed them. He said he hated ~~it~~ being cooped up in this apartment and hoped that we could give him an interim pass which would permit him to go out on the street in Frankfurt. LACKLEN said that he was trying to obtain this pass as soon as possible, the photo WIROGUE gave 22 May was not proper with thw sport shirt and that he would have MOSIEN take more pictures the afternoon of 23 May with coat and tie. for the pass. LACKLEN explained that the delay in issuing the pass was simply getting another operational activity to release one of their cover passes for WIROGUE. LACKLEN assured him that we were moving as rapidly as possible and would make every effort to have a pass for him by 1700 23 May. LACKLEN said if this was not possible he would phone him at 1700 and probably have the pass the following morning, the morning of 24 May. WIROGUE agreed.

4. WIROGUE said that he wanted to travel to Dortmund and Dusseldorf to talk to people there about his telephone answering device. He would like to have a pass to facilitate this trip which would take two or three days. LACKLEN suggested WIROGUE "sit tight" until we had some information from Washington before making this trip. In this exchange of conversation WIROGUE mentioned that he preferred not to use his Austrian passport in Germany. LACKLEN took this entree and asked WIROGUE why didn't he get a real passport as it was obvious WIROGUE felt the Austrian passport was reaching the end of its usefulness. WIROGUE said he wanted more than anything else to legalize himself in any country, even the Congo. He said that he knew US citizenship was impossible because of his criminal record. LACKLEN asked him if he had ever considered German citizeship. (NOTE: In the discussion of a permanent recognition document, LACKLEN deliberately confused the terms economic recognition, citizehsip, political recognition,etc.) WIROGUE was not willing to spend the required five years residency in Germany to attain citizeuship or for that matter in any other country. LACKLEN mentioned that some German documentation might be obtainable, however, he knew nothing about this. LACKLEN said that certainly with the large numbers of refugees that have come to West Germany in the past 15 years, there must be some means of getting documentation. LACKLEN said if WIROGUE would ~~xxx~~ officially ask him for German recognition that he would forward this request to Washington. LACKLEN made it very clear that we here in Germany could make no commitments, could do nothing on this matter or make another move on this case until we hear from Washington. WIROGUE said he clearly understood this and asked for German documentation in exchange for his Austrian passport, etc.

5. Later in the conversation WIROGUE mentioned he had a moral obligation to carry out his assignment for the Congolese army here in Europe and said he must give them some information by mail withing three weeks. LACKLEN asked WIROGUE how would a German recognition affect his dealings with the Congolese army. WIROGUE said he must return to the Congo for two or three days to conclude his contract with them. He would require his Austrian passport for this.

6. Throughout the conversation WIROGUE used the words, if "the service" does not have anything for me." ~~x~~ It is LACKLEN's opinion that WIROGUE believes it quite possible that KUBARK may not have an assignment for him and that if we can provide him with usable recognition documentation he might be [illegible] effectively terminated. The one problem still unclear, however, is how to obtain his agreement not to return to the Congo. The matter that we retain his Austrian passport will prevent him from returning to the Congo, but it will be very desirable to find a plausible reason by which we can make him see he must not return to the Congo.

7. LACKLEN requested and WIROGUE agreed to remain in the ~~x~~ apartment until the pass could be obtained. LACKLEN arranged for a maid to come in and cook his meals. French magazines were provided. It is believed he will be content in the apartment through 24 May.

8. Throughout the meeting WIROGUE continually ~~xxxxxxx~~ expressed his views on the Congo, documentation procedures and techniques, etc. LACKLEN suggested that he had very useful information that might be of ~~xx~~ interest to an expert in these fields and asked if he would be agreeable to talking with someone. WIROGUE said he would be very pleased to do so. LACKLEN made this pitch as a contingency by which we might tie up WIROGUE for several days in ~~x~~ "important" debriefings and delay ~~xxx~~ his pressing for an immediate solution. We might also describe delays as being caused by Washington ~~xxx xxxxxx~~ bureaucracy, something of which he claims to be very familiar with. During these debriefings it would be possible also to learn the extent fo his knowlegeability of KUBARK operations, personalities, etc. LACKLEN believes WIROGUE has quite an extensive knowledge of KUBARK. He has been handled by many people, in many places and in many ways.

9. Concerning WIROGUE's request that we ask Washington approval to explore the possibility of obtaining German recognition for him, he requested that if documentation could be obtained he would like it in the name of "David De Panaskhot". He said this was his brother's legal name in France. WIROGUE suggested also that the document include that he was also known previously as "David Teitzichvili" which is his real and true name from birth.

10. WIROGUE continued to show a complete satisfaction and contentment with our handling of his case so far. LACKLEN reiterated that we were "rolling along" as rapidly as possible and would make every effort to get an early reply from Washington. To further "substantiate" our desires to give him every assistance, LACKLEN offered to furnish him with the addresses of the Telefunken, Grundig and other electric factories in West Germany where he might sell his invention. WIROGUE said he would appreciate this, but that he also had letters of introduction to several firms in Dortmund and Dusseldorf. At the conclusion of the meeting, LACKLEN summed up the timetable for action as follow:

a. MOSIEN would return at about 1400 today to take needed pass photos and bring him some French reading material. ~~[illegible]~~ WIROGUE agreed to remain in the apartment until such a pass was available. LACKLEN would do his best to get it by 1700 today, but if not, early on 24 May.

b. When a pass was available WIROGUE could work out arrangements to go to ~~[illegible]~~ Dortmund, etc., however, it may be that his debriefing on the Congo, on documentation, etc. was of sufficient importance that he should be debriefed immediately.

c. To make his stay in the apartment as comfortable as possible he should suggest to the maid the types of foods he particularly enjoys.

d. We would continue to press Washington for authority needed to resolve his case.

11. WIROGUE understood the program and was quite satisfied. He is cooperative and LACKLEN believes will continue to be so as long as a logical and plausible program is presented. LACKLEN's next contact with WIROGUE will be by telephone at 1700 hours on 23 May when he will tell him the pass is not ready and arrange for another contact at 1030 hours on 24 May.

CONTACT REPORT 22 MAY 1962

SUBJECT: WIROGUE

1. WIROGUE phoned Mr. Schneider (HORDWIN) at FC 553001 at 1420 hours 22 May advising that he was at the Frankfurt Main Bahnhof and wished to meet Mr. Schneidor. Mr. Schneider requested WIROGUE call back in ten minutes. HORDWIN advised Acting AD/FI that WIROGUE was in Frankfurt and requested what action was desired. Acting AD/FI advised HORDWIN to arrange pick up, billet subject in CABEZONE blown apartment and await further instructions. HORDWIN advised WIROGUE when he called back that Mr. Miller (LACKLEN) would meet him at 1500 hours at Track 15, Main Bahnhof. At Acting AD/FI's request LACKLEN first reported to his office to review passport photograph of WIROGUE and get further instructions. Acting AD/FI instructed LACKLEN to take him to the apartment and if feasible, obtain the passport and with extreme caution elicit any information regarding WIROGUE's purpose for coming to Frankfurt. DCOS came through the office at this time and was advised that LACKLEN and CABEZONE were carrying out this task.

2. WIROGUE was met as planned. He advised that he had already checked into the Hotel Savoy across the street. LACKLEN believed it most feasible to obtain the passport if he were in a CABEZONE apartment. If he were in the hotel, he may be reluctant to give up the passport, etc. WIROGUE was concerned at first about burdening us by living in our apartment but agreed to do so. Stephen R. LACKLEN using alias Mr. Edward Miller and Roscoe MOSIEN using alias Mr. Dale drove subject in CABEZONE car to #1 Ostend Strasse, apartment 9. This nice one-bedroom apartment with kitchen and bath and a living room is regarded as blown and is scheduled to be dropped in Fiscal 1963. The telephone number there is 492813. Contact instructions given WIROGUE in a FRAN cable were Mr. Schneider's number FC 553001 (ops phone located in HORDWIN's office) and the Annex A Guard Post number Northern 8766 for after hours. Both of these numbers should be changed as soon as feasible.

3. As soon as WIROGUE was settled in the apartment, LACKLEN described himself as an administrative officer who was meeting him seeing that he got settled in the new apartment and attending to any of his immediate needs. LACKLEN made it very clear that he had no authority to give him any committments or resolve his case. LACKLEN said, however, that he would like to take back to his boss some general information on what WIROGUE wanted in Frankfurt. This led WIROGUE to begin a long discussion of his problems in the Congo and his desires for a new assignment with the "Service". LACKLEN was trying to build up sufficient rapport by letting him talk, to find an opening by which he could obtain the passport.

4. WIROGUE advised that he had come from Leopoldville to Brussels and was fortunate enough to catch a connecting flight 22 May to Frankfurt. He explained he was in Frankfurt to talk with some old contacts in hopes they might have a job for him. He asked if Miller (LACKLEN) knew Mike. LACKLEN told him no. He said that he had arranged with the Congolese Minister of Defense to come to Europe to attempt to trace 30,000,000 Francs (sic) - rate 65/1 US Dollar which had been given to the Ministry of Defense officials to purchase airplanes. This money had been deposited in Swiss banks and disappeared. He showed LACKLEN an Order de Mission dated 17 May 1962 signed by the Secretary General of the Congolese Foreign Ministry identifying him for travel for the Congolese Government to as many countries in Europe as necessary. WIROGUE sounded resolved to complete this mission. He claimed, however, that this mission was simply a cover for his Frankfurt contact with the "Service".

5. WIROGUE talked about himself for about an hour and a half. Some of the highlights of this are:

a. About the investigation - a Belgian citizen, who had been in the Congo before independence and who was now a colonel in the Congolese Army and close to General Mobutu had gone to the American embassy to "name-check" WIROGUE. WIROGUE said he was not worried about this investigation (NOTE: LACKLEN was not asking these questions, but simply listening to WIROGUE and attempting to lead up to the request for his passport). WIROGUE felt the only way this Belgian colonel could pin him down was by contacting the Viennese diplomat representative in Leopoldville and through him checking WIROGUE's Austrian passport number. He mentioned that his friends in the Surete and Department of Defense Ministry had asked him for a police certificate from Austria. WIROGUE saw no problem in furnishing this. He could fabricate this with no trouble and was confidant it would be accepted because the Congolese officials would have no other such document to compare it with and had a practice of throwing records away.

b. LACKLEN asked WIROGUE what he would like to do, what type of work he was interested in. WIROGUE replied in a 30 minute presentation that he liked outdoor work with military operations like commando work. He liked to work inmilitary uniform or civilian clothes. He hated desk work. LACKLEN asked him if he would like to work in Communist China, Russia, Indochina, or Germany. WIROGUE replied by saying it depended on the job. He wanted a challenge. He said just give me a mission and I'll carry it out. Don't worry about his being arrested, killed or whatever, money was not important. LACKLEN again emphasized that he had no job in mind, but simply was trying to determine what WIROGUE was interested in, what his experience had been, and what he might be qualified to do. LACKLEN said that he would take this information back to his boss, who would have to contact Wishington. We here in Frankfurt knew nothing about him and had no file of his experience.

c. LACKLEN asked WIROGUE suppose there is no assignment for you? What would you like to do then? WIROGUE continued discussing his interest in working for the "Service" and indirectly made it clear he was not interested in a normal job and life. LACKLEN asked him what country he was a citizen of. WIROGUE stated that he was stateless. LACKLEN asked him what country he would like to live in if he had his choise, if he could have anything he wanted where would he like to go what would he like to do in a normal life? WIROGUE replied he didn't know, but he hated Germans and gave the impression that he was very content with his present status. At no time was it discussed or did WIROGUE mention employment, entry, or citizenship in the U. S. He also stated he could not go back to France due to some trouble which he then described as the bank robbery.

d. LACKLEN asked him if he was actually receiving a salary from the Congolese Government. He said he was making about 15,000 Congolese Francs per month and this was not enough to live decently on. He said his job in addition to this investigation he was conducting on the embezzlement of money that he was in effect the chief of the Congolese Air Force.

e. WIROGUE described his abilities in demolitions, commando work, liquidations, air operations and navigation and a general knowledge of "spy work". He also said that he was an expert on documentation and that he liked to work making phony documentation, water marks, etc. He also mentioned his telephone answering device which he made for $8.00 and wished to go to Dortmund, West Germany to attempt to market it.

f. During the course of the above conversation WIROGUE showed LACKLEN several documents to substantiate his claims of employment by the Congolese Government, etc. LACKLEN decided that the documentation interest of the "Service" in these Congolese documents would be the best entree to obtain his passport. LACKLEN attempted to display a shallow inflated interest in the water marks and stamps on the documents as an Admin Officer who had had a one week operational course and was really trying to get the documents to impress his boss. With each document LACKLEN commented about their simplicity and easy forging possibilities and how much the documents people would love to get ~~ax~~ their hands on this. WIROGUE loaned LACKLEN the following documents:

(1) Passport (Austrian) 090058
(2) Return Sabena Air Ticket 8096473 to Leopoldville
(3) Congo D ivers Permit
(4) Carte d' Indenitite D'Etranger
(5) [illegible] Pass from MINDEF/Congo re Technician Status (Civilian)
(6) Health Certificate
(7) Laissez Passer # 71-58. Congo Pass from Leopoldville to Brazzaville
(8) Laissez Passer as Major, Congo Army
(9) UN Pass (access to Royal Hotel, Leopoldville)
(10) Congo Certificate of Vaccination
(11) Order de Mission (17 May 62) by Secretary General Foreign Ministry
(12) Order de Mission to Brazzaville to apprehend a man signed by Joseph MATUBA, 26 March 62

(13) Attestation he is Attache (Technician) Congo Army by M. Kalongo, Sec. Gen. Ministry of Defense 28 December 61

6. LACKLEN asked if he could borrow these documents so they could be photographed as he was sure they were of extreme value. LACKLEN said that inasmuch as these documents were WIROGUE's property if he insisted he would have someone photograph the documents tonight and bring them back as fast as possible, but it would be preferable to have it done on 23 May during the regular working day. WIROGUE said that he was in no rush for the documents and please go ahead, take our time, but he would like to have them back within 48 hours. He then said what would happen if I went out on the street tonight without documents? LACKLEN said that he could possibly give him a simple identity card as working with the American Army here, but requested that WIROGUE stay in the apartment tonight, there was food there and we would bring in anything he wanted, such as magazines, etc. WIROGUE said that he was tired, that he would take a bath and stay in the apartment. LACKLEN said that he would return at approximately 1000 hours 23 May and if WIROGUE had any problems call the emergency number he was given.

7. LACKLEN observed as WIROGUE was going through his wallet, attache case and pockets for various documentation which he thought we would like to photograph, an approximate 9" x 11" inch photostat black copy which identified as his birth certificate. During the course of the conversation, WIROGUE also said that he had a driver's license your people gave me with my passport and while mentioning his commission as a major in the Congolese army that he was able to obtain this rank by showing his German Army papers (sic). WIROGUE did not indicate whether these papers were given him or he obtained or made them himself. **

8. Incidentally, WIROGUE indicated he would go into Soviet Russia on his own, accomplish any mission we wished to assign him and return. All at his own risk, provided we would "help him". He also indicated exceptional interest in making phony documents, etc.

 LACKLEN did not ask him for these documents since they had apparently been provided by our "Service" and would be inconsistent with the story of the "Service's" interest in photographing Congolese documents, stamps, etc. It is believed that at the right moment WIROGUE could be taken elsewhere for lunch or some other excuse, that he would probably leave these documents in his apartment and we could take possession of them. However, when this is done and he misses them, the die is cast.

SUBJECTIVE COMMENTS BY LACKLEN

1. LACKLEN feels his approach as a personnel officer representing his boss, trying to get facts which might be helpful in finding out what could be done to help WIROGUE was effective in establishing a proper rapport with him. LACKLEN repeatedly emphasized that he lacked authority, information, etc to make any committments or be any more than an intermediary to his boss, who himself was an intermediary with Washington. LACKLEN emphasized his "sincere" interest in helping WIROGUE.

2. LACKLEN believes WIROGUE has been very satisfied with his first contact in Frankfurt and will be cooperative until we advise him his passport, etc, will not be returned.

3. WIROGUE impresses LACKLEN as being the man described and possessing the personality and other traits described in the cables. It is believed that he can be a dangerous and difficult individual when "crossed". It is suggested that a clear course of action be established prior to advising WIROGUE his documents are not being returned as it is quite likely WIROGUE has planned or will plan his own course of action.

4. LACKLEN believes that WIROGUE can be delayed for two, three, four, or even more days with the story these documents, the stamps are terrific, "our people" are really excited about them and we would like to keep them longer, we would like to send them to Washington, etc. It may be that WIROGUE could be given an identification card similar to but not identical with ~~xx~~ those provided defectors describing the individual as in Army custody as an interim measure and clearly marked with an expiration date.

5. It may be important to note that prior to meeting WIROGUE LACKLEN had only read FRAN 0404 and made a 30 second perusal of LEOP 3939 and DIR 11783. LACKLEN did really not retain any data from the two incoming messages and certifies that he did not lead WIROGUE in the conversation but simply let him talk with ~~xx~~ the purpose of establishing rapport and obtaining the passport if possible.

6. At approximately 1755 hours LACKLEN returned to the DCOS's office and briefed the DCOS and Acting AD/FI on the meeting. Acting AD/FI sent an Ops immediate cable to LEOP DIR and routine toR FROB. A meeting was scheduled in the AD/FI office at 0830 23 May. Acting AD/FI's request LACKLEN notified Deputy Chief MKTOPAZ to attend the meeting. ~~Axxix~~ Deputy Chief MKTOPAZ came to CABEZONE at 1945 hours 22 May and inspected documents. Acting Chief, CABEZONE was advised.

B. NAME BEI GEBURT: Georg SANDERS, wie ersichtlich aus meinem Geburtsschein und allen anderen sowjetischen Dokumenten. Bei Ankunft in den Westen habe ich jedoch den Namen meines Vaters, Frank, meinem Vornamen beigefügt. In den USSR, als das Führen des Vatersnamens verlangt war, wurde ich Georg Frankovich SANDERS genannt.

C. ANDERE NAMEN: Ich habe niemals irgendwelche andere Namen benützt, aber meine Mutter hat mich mit der georgischen Abkürzung meines Namens "Zhori" gerufen und meine russischen Freunde haben mich "Zhora" oder "Zhorzh" genannt.

2. GEBURT:

A. GEBURTSDATUM: 25. Juli 1919

B. GEBURTSORT: Tiflis, Georgien, USSR. Tiflis ist der alte russische Name. Der georgische Name als auch der gegenwärtige offizielle Name ist Tbilisi.

C. NATIONALITÄT: Georgier

3. STAATSBÜRGERSCHAFT:

Von 1917 (Oktober Revolution in Russland) bis 1921 war Georgien nach dem Fall des zaristischen Regimes von Menschewiken regiert und teilweise von türkischen, deutschen und britischen Truppen besetzt. Erst 1921 kam in Georgien die sowjetische Regierung offiziell an die Macht. Jedoch würden alle Personen die während dieser Übergangszeit geboren wurden später als Sowjetbürger anerkannt.

B. GEGENWÄRTIGE STAATSBÜRGERSCHAFT: Staatenlos

4. RELIGION: Orthodox (prawoslawni). Da ich in einer gottlosen Gesellschaftsordnung aufwuchs habe ich meine Religion in meiner Jugend nur sehr begrenzt ausgeübt und habe später als Erwachsener vollkommen aufgehört in eine Kirche zu gehen wegen der bestehenden Bedingungen in den USSR.

5. GESELLSCHAFTLICHER URSPRUNG: Intelligenz (slushaschtschi); Mein Vater war ein Ingenieur und meine Mutter gehörte zur Gruppe der Kopf-Arbeiter.

6. Beruf: Elektro-Techniker, das würde ungefähr in Deutschland einem Ingenieur ohne Diplom, d. h. ohne Universitätsbildung, entsprechen.

A. LETZTE STELLUNG: Chef Elektriker (starschi elektotechnik) bei MICHA- ZCHAKAJA RTS.

7. LETZTER WOHNORT: Sdota Rustaveli Strasse (ulitsa) Nr. 25 (Wohnung meiner Lebensgefährtin Nina GANDELI) in MICHA-ZCHAKAJA, Kutaisi Oblast, Georgien SSR.

8. EHESTAND: Ledig. Seit 1946 bis zu meiner Flucht lebte ich mit Nina GANDELI zusammen, geboren 1920, Mädchenname TAKTASCHWILI. Als ich sie kennenlernte war sie mit einem Postangestellten unglücklich verheiratet. Ihr Mann war viel älter als sie und die Ehe war von ihren Eltern geplant worden. Die Eltern waren altmodische Bauern von einem entlegenen Dorf die froh waren ihre Tochter mit einem verhältnismässig gebildeten und wohlhabenden Mann zu verheiraten. Zu dem Zeitpunkt da ich in die Armee einberufen wurde war Nina meine Geliebte. Als ich aus dem Krieg zurück kam zog ich zu ihr, da ihr Mann im Zweiten Weltkrieg gefallen war. Sie lebte mit einer Tochter, die währendessen geboren worden war, in einer bescheidenen Wohnung die sie von ihrem Mann geerbt hatte. Ihre Eltern waren tot und sie arbeitete als Briefträgerin da sie nur eine bescheidene Ausbildung genossen hatte. Während der letzten Jahre unseres Zusammenlebens fand ich heraus, dass Nina Beziehungen zu anderen Männern unterhielt. Das war der Anlass zu Streitigkeiten und das Zusammenleben wurde unerträglich. Dann erwartete sie ein Kind und da ich sicher war, dass es nicht mein Kind war, entschloss ich mich unsere Beziehungen zu beenden. Das war mit ein Grund für meine Flucht. Ich habe keine eigenen Kinder.

9. ELTERN:

A. VATER: Frank Simon SANDERS, geboren ungefähr 1885 im Baltikum; er kam ungefähr 1910 ins russische Gebiet. Er arbeitete als Ingenieur in Baku, Batumi und Tbilisi Gebiet. Er starb 1924 an den Folgen eines Arbeitsunfalls. Ich kann mich an meinem Vater nicht mehr erinnern, aber ich lernte von meiner Mutter, dass er ein guter und gütiger Mann war der allgemein beliebt war.

B. MUTTER: Maria SANDERS, Mädchenname KANTSCHELI, geboren ungefähr 1885 in einem kleinen Dorf in der Nähe der aserbaidshanischen Grenze im Tbilisi Oblast. Sie war das einzige Kind; als ihre Eltern im hohen Alter innerhalb weniger Jahre starben zog sie nach Tbilisi und arbeitete in Büros von verschiedenen privaten Unternehmungen, bis sie meinen Vater heiratete. Nachdem ihr Mann starb fing sie wieder an zu arbeiten. Sie wechselte ihre Arbeitsstelle verschiedene Male und die einzige Arbeitsstelle an die ich mich erinnere war die letzte Stelle die sie innehatte als Kassiererin in einem Schuhreparatur-Geschäft (artel) in der Sowetskaja Ulitsa in Tbilisi. Sie starb 1934 an einem Herzschlag.

10. GESCHWISTER: Keine Lebenden. Ich hatte einen Bruder Leon der 1923 geboren wurde und 6 Monate nach der Geburt starb.

11. ANDERE VERWANDTE: Ich weiss, dass mein Vater im Baltikum Verwandte hatte, aber unsere Familie hatte keinen Kontakt mit ihnen und ich kannte niemanden. Ich hatte keine nahen Verwandten mütterlicherseits und die entfernten Verwandten in dem Heimatdorf meiner Mutter unterhielten keinen Kontakt mit meiner Familie da sie die Ehe meiner Mutter mit einem "Ausländer" eines anderen Glaubens ablehnten. Ich habe das Heimatdorf meiner Mutter niemals besucht.

12. NAHE FREUNDE UND BEKANNTE: Ich hatte niemals nahe Freunde aber ich stand den folgenden Personen in der Stadt etwas näher:

Vor 1927 war es das deutsche Realgymnasium und obwohl es in eine srednjaja schkola umgewandelt worden war wurde der Unterricht bis 1930 in Deutsch abgehalten und erst von diesem Jahr an in der georgischen Sprache. Die Mehrzahl der Schüler waren Georgier. Bis 1930 gab es zwei Stunden in der Woche russischen Sprachunterricht und eine Stunde georgischen Sprachunterricht. Ich war sieben Jahre in dieser Schule aber wegen des Todes meiner Mutter wechselte ich auf die technische Schule über da ich dort wohnen konnte und verpflegt wurde.

1934-1938 - Tbiliskii Elektro-Technicum in der Sowetskaja Ulitsa in Tbilisi, ein zwei-stöckiges Gebäude mit Gärten wo die Werkstätten und Wohnheime untergebracht waren. Im

Sommer 1934 suchte ich um Aufnahme in dieser Schule an und überreichte das Schulzeugnis der sieben absolvierten Jahre und ein Photo. Im Juli oder August bestand ich die Aufnahmeprüfung über Mathematik, Physik und schriftliche und mündliche Prüfungen in georgischer und russischer Sprache. Als mein Name auf der Aushängetafel der Schule aufschien wusste ich, dass ich bestanden hatte. Ich musste kein Schulgeld bezahlen und bekam ein Stipendium welches gerade alles lebensnotwendige deckte. Der Aufenthalt im Schulheim, wo ich ein Zimmer mit drei anderen Studenten teilte, war frei. Im ersten Stock des Technikums, in der Nähe des Schulbüros, war ein Speisesaal wo man billig essen konnte. Das Essen war schlecht. Die weiblichen Studenten lebten in einem Nebengebäude in derselben Strasse, zwei oder drei Häuserblocks vom Technikum.

Vier Jahre studierte ich Physik, Mathematik, Geschichte, Englisch, georgische Sprache und Literatur; von 1936 oder 1937 an die Verfassung der Sowjet Union. Die Gegenstände wurden auf dem Stand einer"Höheren Schule" gelehrt. Dann gab es noch die folgenden spezialen Unterrichtsgegenstände: Technologie der Metalle, Theorie der Mechanik, Materialstärke, Elektro-Maschinen,elektrische Arbeitsverfahren, Elektro-Geräte, elektrische Messinstrumente, Zeichnen. Die Studenten wurden auch militärisch ausgebildet und körperlich ertüchtigt. Der Unterricht dauerte von September bis Juli. Die Sommerferien verbrachte ich gewöhnlich auf einem Kolchos mit einer Gruppe,die vom Technikum organisiert worden war, um den Bauern mit der Ernte zu helfen.

Die Prüfungen fanden zwei mal im Jahre statt, vor dem Jahresende und am Ende eines zweiten Semesters. Noten wurden nach dem folgenden System gegeben:

4 - Choroscho (gut)
3 - Posredstwenno (genügend)
2 - Plocho (schlecht)
1 - Otschen plocho (sehr schlecht)

Die ersten drei Noten waren notwendig um versetzt zu werden.

Im Frühling 1938 hatte ich Abschlussprüfungen, mündlich und schriftlich und ich bekam ein Diplom ausgehändigt. Das Zeugnis war eine Seite lang und brachte zum Ausdruck, dass ich das Technikum 4 Jahre lang besucht hatte. Es enthielt die Noten für alle Gegenstände und zeigte, dass ich als electromechanic ausgebildet worden war.

Allen Prüflingen wurden verschiedene Arbeitsplätze zugewiesen an denen sie mindestens zwei Jahre zu verbleiben hatten. Das ist eine Art von Rückzahlung des Geldes, das die Regierung für die Ausbildung ausgegeben hatte. Ich wurde MICHA-ZCHAKAJA M.T.S. zugewiesen; der Name wurde 1958 in R.T.S. abgewandelt.

17. BERUFLICHER WERDEGANG:

1938-1941 und 1946-bis zur Flucht MICHA ZCHAKAJA M.T.S. (Maschinen-Traktoren-Station), später abgewandelt in R.T.S. (Reparatur-Technische-Station) . (Matchino-Traktornaja und bzw. Remontno- Technitscheskaja Stanzija). MICHA-ZCHAKAJA wurde von der Bevölkerung einfach Zchakaja genannt und war Rayon-Zentrum des Zchakajskii Rayon, so genannt nach dem berühmten georgischen Revolutionär MICHA ZCHAKAJA ((der alte Name der Stadt war ACHAL -SENAKI bezw. ACHAL - SENAKSKII Rayon). M. Zchakaja war einer der Organisatoren der georgischen kommunistischen Partei.

Die Stadt hat gegenwärtig ungefähr 10.000 Einwohner und befindet sich an der Eisenbahnstrecke Samtredia-Suchumi (die Hauptstrecke zwischen Tbilisi und Moskau mit Abzweigungen nach Poti, dem Badeort am Schwarzen Meer. Die Stadt liegt zwischen zwei Zuflüssen des Rion Flusses: Tsiwi und Terachi. Am Letzteren liegt ein paar Kilometer von M. ZCHAKAJA entfernt ein kleines Elektrizitätswerk wo ich nach meiner Rückkehr aus dem II.Weltkrieg zeitweilig arbeitete. Bei M.T.S. (welche 1958 in R.T.S. umbenannt wurde nachdem die Einrichtungen und Maschinen den lokalen Getreide-und Trauben- erzeugenden Kolchosen zugeteilt worden waren und als einzige Verantwortung die Reparatur dieser Maschinen mit R.T.S. verblieb). Ich wurde bald Vorarbeiter einer Gruppe von Elektro-Mechanikern, die für die Pflege und die Reparaturen der elektrischen Teile von landwirtschaftlichen und anderen Maschinen verantwortlich waren. Mein Anfangsgehalt war 400 oder 500 Rubel, aber es stieg schnell und als ich in die Armee einberufen wurde war mein Gehalt schon fast doppelt so hoch.

Aus persönlichen Gründen kehrte ich in diese Stadt zurück, nachdem ich aus dem Militärdienst entlassen worden war und ich erhielt meine alte Stellung wieder. Ich bekam dazu noch eine Stelle als Elektro-Techniker mit dem vorher erwähnten Elektrizitätswerk, welches Elektrizität für die Stadt und dem übrigen Rayon erzeugte. Ich erhielt diese Stelle zugewiesen, da nach dem Krieg ein Mangel an qualifizierten Arbeitskräften bestand. Ich arbeitete in der zweiten Schicht im Elektrizitätswerk von 1947-1953 (dann wurde die Stelle von einem jungen Absolventen des Kutaisi Technikums gefüllt). Ich verdiente dort 700 Rubel neben meinem Grundgehalt bei R.T.S. Vor meiner Flucht war mein Einkommen ungefähr 120 neue Rubel Brutto. Ich hatte zusätzliches Einkommen von Wochenend-Arbeiten für die Reparatur von Haushalt gegenständen,Radios usw. durch Einwohner der Stadt. Das Geld war 1961 10 zu 1 abgewertet worden.

18. MILITÄRISCHER WERDEGANG

A. REGISTRIERUNG FÜR MILITÄRDIENST: Im Sommer 1939 wurde ich von meinem rayon-wojenkomat (Rekrutierungsstelle) benachrichtigt, dass ich mich an einem bestimmten Tag dort einzufinden habe; von dort ging es mit einer Gruppe anderer zukünftiger Rekruten zu der rayon polyclinic für die medizinische Untersuchung. Ich habe den linken Daumen und Zeigefinger bis zum ersten Glied durch einen Arbeitsunfall verloren und als dies dem Rekrutierungsstelle mitgeteilt wurde, wurde ich für den aktiven Dienst als ungeeignet erklärt und der Reserve zugewiesen. Zu demselben Zeitpunkt wurde mein pripisnoje swidetelstwo (Registrierungs-Dokument) für ein Soldbuch ausgetauscht.

B. EINZIEHUNGSTAG: Ungefähr am 26 August 1941 wurde ich aufgefordert mich am 27. August beim raywojenkomat zu melden. Ich tat das und wurde aufgefordert mich zum Dienst am folgenden Tag zu melden. Mit einer Gruppe von ungefähr 80 bis 100 Rekruten meines Rayons fuhren mir mit dem Zug von Tbilisi nach Baku, wo die Gruppe in der sogenannten Saljanskije Kasarmi (S. Kaserne) untergebracht wurde, die sich am Stadtrand von Baku, auf der Strasse nach Saljani und zur iranischen Grenze,befand.

C. militärische EINHEIT und ERKENNUNGSNUMMER: Ich diente bei der Luftabwehr Artillerie. Eine Erkennungsnummer hat es bei der sowjetischen Armee nicht gegeben.

D. GRUNDAUSBILDUNG: Meine erste militärische Ausbildung erhielt ich in der Saljani Kaserne in Baku und sie dauerte zwei Monate. Einen Monat reguläre Grundausbildung und im zweiten Monat verbesserte ich meine Qualifikation als Autofahrer (Ich hatte gelernt wie man einen Wagen fährt während ich in der M.T.S. die elektrischen Reparaturen an Autos durchführte. Ich weiss die Nummer der Einheit nicht mehr in der ich meine Grundausbildung erhielt. Zu diesem Zeitpunkt waren die Kasernen überfüllt, meistens Soldaten der Infantrie und Artillerie die immer wieder abgelöst wurden.

E. SPEZIALAUSBILDUNG: Einen Monat Fahrschule wie oben erwähnt.

F. RESERVE ZUGEHÖRIGKEIT :

Sommer 1939:	Aus Gesundheitsgründen untauglich für aktiven Dienst und der Reserve zugeteilt.
Herbst 1946:	Aus der Armee entlassen-nachdem ich meine Reise und Entlassungspapiere meinem Rajwojenkomat übergeben hatte erhielt ich ein neues Soldbuch welches meine Reserve Zugehörigkeit enthielt. Ich wurde nie mehr einberufen oder zu irgendeiner Übung eingezogen nachdem ich von meinem Militärdienst entlassen worden war.

G. CHRONOLOGISCHE AUFZEICHNUNG MEINES MILITÄRDIENSTES:

Mit einer Gruppe anderer Rekruten wurde ich mit dem Zug zu der 253. Separaten Luftabwehr Artillerie Division, 2. Batterie, gebracht (OSAD- ogne-saschtschitnyi artilleriski division). Der kommandierende Offizier der Batterie war Leutnant WAKS. Kommandant der wswod uprawlenje (Verwaltung, Zugsführer) der Division war Leutnant ENDELADSE. Stellvertretender Divisionskommandant für politische Belange war Hauptmann TSCHOCHA und politruk meiner Batterie war Senior Leutnant SAMARIN. Major Wlado (Wladimir) GURGENIDSE war kommandierender Offizier von OSAD und im Februar 1943 wurde er auch zum Kommandeur von PWO (protiwo- wosdischnaja oborona) (Luftschutz) für die Stadt Michurinsk ernannt. Das Hauptquartier der Division war in Michurinsk, während die Batterie in der Nähe der Station TARASOWO bei der Siedlung Konskoje, 7 km von Michurinsk und 6 km von den 6 errichteten Gehegen bei Kochetowa (Station) lag. Ein hohes Hauptquartier war in Tambow und wurde erst von Oberst TSCHERKJAWSKI und später von Oberst ZWETKOW, einem degradierten General kommandiert.

Als ich zuerst in Michurinsk eintraf wurde ich erst als Lastwagenfahrer dem Verpflegungszug der Division zugeteilt (choswswod oder chosjajstwennyi wswod), kommandiert von Junior Leutnant MAKAROW. Später wurde ich mit dem oben erwähnten ENDELADSE bekannt, ein Landsmann von mir und wurde durch seinen Einfluss dem Divisions-Kommandeur GURGENIDSE, auch ein Georgier der später zum Oberstleutnant befördert wurde, als persönlicher Fahrer zugeteilt. Er behielt mich in dieser Position bis ich vom Militärdienst entlassen wurde.

H. BEFÖRDERUNGEN UND DEGRADIERUNGEN: Nach 6 Monaten Militärzeit wurde ich zum jefrejtor (Gefreiten) befördert, am Ende des ersten Jahres zum Unterfeldwebel und 1944 wurde ich zum Feldwebel befördert

I. AUSZEICHNUNGEN: keine

J. ENTLASSUNGSTAG: Ich wurde vom aktiven Militärdienst Ende September 1946 entlassen. Ich erhielt meinen Fahrbefehl und Reisegeld von meiner Einheit in Michurinsk, die ich später dem rajwojenkomat übergab. 1955 wurde ich nochmals ärztlich untersucht, auf Befehl vom vojenkomat und offiziell aus meiner Reservestellung entlassen, aus Gesundheitsgründen (so wie zuvor) und erhielt eine sogenannte belji bilet (weisse Karte)oder dauernde Befreiung vom Militärdienst.

19. WOHNORTE SEIT GEBURT:

1919-1926	verschiedene Adressen in Tbilisi
1934-1938	Tbilisi, Ulitsa Sowjetskaja (Nummer nicht in Erinnerung), Studentenheim des Tbilisi Elektro-Technikums.
1938-1941	MICHA ZCHAKAJA, Ulitsa Tsulukidse Nr.14. Hier mietete ich ein Zimmer in einem privaten einstöckigem Haus, das einem pensionierten Eisenbahn-Weichensteller, Ilja LORDKIPANIDSE,gehörte, welcher ein Zimmer vermieten musste, um etwas zu seiner Pension dazuzuverdienen. Ilja's Frau Keto(Katherina) kümmerte sich um meine Wäsche und kochte für mich wofür ich extra etwas bezahlte. Das Ehepaar hatte keine Kinder und behandelten mich wie ihren eigenen Sohn.
1941-1946	Militärzeit

in den Krieg ging. Während des Krieges hörte ich, dass Nina's Mann im Krieg gefallen war und ich entschloss mich nach Zchakaja zurückzukehren um in ihrer Nähe zu sein. Ich zog zu Nina und lebte mit ihr zusammen ohne unsere Heirat bei SAGS (Registrierstelle von Geburten, Heiraten und Sterbefälle) zu registrieren. Obwohl ich erst darauf bestand unsere Verbindung zu legalisieren wollte Nina es nicht, da sie in ihrer ersten Ehe unglücklich war; sie wollte frei sein um die Verbindung jeder Zeit lösen zu können.

Während der letzten Jahre fand ich heraus, dass Nina sich während meiner Abwesenheit von zu Hause mit anderen Männern traf. Unstimmigkeiten entstanden, die mehr und mehr wuchsen als die Zeit verging. Nachdem das Verhältnis mit Nina sehr kühl geworden war, fing ich an mich mit anderen Frauen zu treffen. Wir waren oft daran uns endgültig zu trennen, aber wir fanden immer wieder zusammen. Ich versuchte verzweifelt unser Problem zu lösen,denn ich hatte zu einem Zeitpunkt als wir uns noch sehr nahe waren Bemerkungen gegen die Regierung gemacht und ich plante sogar eine gemeinsame Flucht aus den USSR. Ich wollte sie nicht zusehr verärgern um sie nicht womöglich dazu zu bringen, dass sie mich bei der Militia anzeigte. Aber aus irgendwelchen Gründen wollte Nina nicht gänzlich mit mir brechen und eines

20. REISEN:

Keine anderen als schon erwähnt.

21. VERHAFTUNGEN:

Im Juni 1962 kam dieMilitia zu mir und bracht mich von meinem Arbeitsplatz zu ihrer Dienststelle wo ich beschuldigt wurde ein langjähriges Mitglied einer georgischen Widerstandsgruppe zu sein und regierungsfeindliche Äusserungen gemacht zu haben. Obwohl ich solche Bemerkungen bei verschiedenen Gelegenheiten gemacht hatte und deshalb schuldig im Sinne des letzteren Teils der Anschuldigung war, konnte ich fühlen, dass die Militia nicht genügend Informationen besass und ich verneinte alle Anschuldigungen. Ich konnte mir nicht denken wer dahinter steckte. Nach langen Verhören, bei denen ich über alle Einzelheiten meines Lebens, Eltern , Militärdienst, Kontakte, u.s.w. befragt wurde, wurde ich mit einer Warnung entlassen das Gebiet nicht zu verlassen und es wurde mir gesagt ich würde wieder von der Militia hören. Mit dieser einzigen Ausnahme bin ich nie verhaftet oder verhört worden, weder bei der Militia oder anderen Sicherheitsbehörden.

22. MITGLIEDSCHAFT IN POLITISCHEN PARTEIEN ODER ORGANISATIONEN:

Ich gehörte niemals der kommunistischen Partei an. Mir wurde nahe gelegt 1937 Komsomol beizutreten während ich am Tbilisi Elektro-Technikum war. Dabei wurde von zwei Klassenkameraden die Bürgschaft übernommen, jeder von den beider war schon mehr als zwei Jahre Mitglied . Ich reichte mein Gesuch bei der lokalen Komsomol jatschejka (Zelle) ein und bei einer Zusammenkunft der Zellenmitglieder wurde mein Aufnahmegesuch besprochen, ich erzählte meine Lebensgeschichte und beantwortete Fragen. Nachdem ich aufgenommen worden war, erhielt ich meine Mitgliedskarte in ungefähr zwei Monaten vom Stadt-Rayon-Komittee des Tbilisi Komsomol; darauf hin besuchte ich Versammlungen und zahlte kleine Beiträge. Ich hatte niemals eine offizielle Position bei Komsomol. Als ich Tbilisi verliess musste ich mich von der Tbilisi Organisation streichen lassen und mich am neuen Wohnort Micha Zchakaja (bei der Bevölkerung gewöhnlich nur "Zchakaja" genannt), neu eintragen lassen. Dasselbe geschah als ich in die Armee eintrat (Ausstreichen aus der alten Organisation und Einschreiben am neuen Wohnort). Als ich nach der Entlassung von der Armee wieder nach Zchakaja zurückkehrte liess ich mich nicht wieder in die lokale Organisation eintragen.

Als ich in Zchakaja zu arbeiten begann wurde ich automatisch in die (prof.-org) Gewerkschaft eingeschrieben, in der ich ein passives Mitglied war, das seine Beiträge (etwas wie 1% meines Gehaltes) an den Organisator der Gewerkschaft von MTS bezahlte und von Zeit zu Zeit einer Pflichtversammlung beiwohnte.Ich machte nie Gebrauch von den Vorteilen der Mitgliedschaft wie ermässigte Preise in Erholungsstätten (putewka v dom otdicha) .

23. VERBINDUNGEN MIT EINEM SICHERHEITSDIENST:

Ich hatte nie einen Kontakt mit einer Sicherheitsbehörde. Ich wurde auch nie aufgefordert in irgendeiner Art für den sowjetischen Sicherheitsdienst zu arbeiten.

24. FLUCHT

A. GRÜNDE:

Trotzdem ich in einem kommunistischen Land geboren und erzogen worden war begann ich doch schon frühzeitig zu verstehen, dass für die Einzelperson keine Freiheit bestand. Es war mir auch klar, dass persönlicher Aufstieg nicht von dem Talent und der Rechtschaffenheit eines Menschen abhing, sondern von dem Ausmass der politischen Betätigung. Ich sah durch die kommunistischen Lügen, da die Wirklichkeit so verschieden von der offiziellen Propaganda war. Während und nach dem Krieg traf ich Menschen die westliche Länder besucht hatten und ich war in der Lage Bruchstücke der Wahrheit über den Unterschied in den Lebensarten aus diesen Erzählungen abzuleiten, obwohl diese Berichte sehr vorsichtig vorgebracht wurden. Nachdem ich 1956 ein gutes Radio der"Mir" Marke kaufte hörte ich sehr oft ausländischen Stationen zu. Lange Zeit trug ich mich mit der Idee aus den USSR zu fliehen wo ich keine Familie, keine Verwandten und keine Aufstiegsmöglichkeiten hatte. Meine feindliche Einstellung zur Regierung wurde stärker und stärker mit der Zeit und es wurde für mich immer schwieriger mich zu kontrollieren und diesen Gefühlen nicht offen Ausdruck zu verleihen, was ich dann doch einige Male tat. Meine Erfahrung mit der Militia und die Entwicklung meines persönlichen Lebens beschleunigte meine Fluchtpläne.

B. TECHNISCHE EINZELHEITEN DER FLUCHT:

Am 25. Juni 1962, drei Tage nach meinen Erfahrungen mit der Militia, verliess ich meine Wohnung um 7 Uhr früh wie jeden Tag um in die Arbeit zu gehen. Ich verliess die Stadt zu Fuss in Richtung Samtredia. Ich trug meine normale Kleidung, hatte 80 Rubel bei mir und eine Handtasche. Ich wagte nicht den Zug zu nehmen da ich Angst hatte von der Militia überwacht zu werden. Nachdem ich 2-3 km auf der Landstrasse gegangen war, wurde ich von einem Lastwagen eines nahe gelegenen Kolchos mitgenommen, der in der gleichen Richtung fuhr. Ich verliess den Lastwagen in der Stadtmitte von Samtredia, zahlte dem Fahrer einen Rubel und ging zur Eisenbahnstation; hier kaufte ich eine Fahrkarte nach Batumi und nahm den Zug um 11.50der um 14.15 in Batumi ankam. Ich fand einen sicheren Platz und schlief bis zur Dunkelheit. Ich verliess Batumi zu Fuss entlang des Seeufers bis ich 1 1/2 oder 2 km südlich die alte Schiess-Stätte erreichte. Hier ging ich um ungefähr 22 Uhr ins Wasser, nachdem ich meinen Pass zerstört hatte (die anderen Dokumente liess ich zu Hause) und vergrub meine Kleider und Tasche. Ich wusste durch das Studium einer Landkarte, dass ich ungefähr 18 km zu schwimmen hatte um türkisches Gebiet zu erreichen. Ich schwamm die ganze Nacht und ich war nicht sicher ob ich schon türkisches Gebiet erreicht hatte , aber ich war erschöpft und schwamm ungefähr um 3 Uhr oder 4 Uhr früh zum Ufer. An dem Punkt wo ich ankam began das Ufer steil anzusteigen. Ich sah die Silhuette einer Hütte und ging hinein. Da fand ich einen alten elektrischen Motor, russisch beschriftet, woraus ich ersah, dass ich noch in Russland war. Ich versteckte mich in der Nähe im Gebüsch und verbrachte dort die Nacht und den folgenden Tag. Als es dunkel wurde, kletterte ich den Abhang hinauf um das Gelände zu überblicken. Ich ging ein Stück und hörte russische Stimmen die vom Ufer kamen. Ich sah einen dunklen Gegenstand auf dem Wasser,welcher wie ein Unterseebot aussah. Ich ging weiter am Ufer entlang und um ungefähr 22 oder 23 Uhr ging ich ins Wasser und schwamm 3 km hinaus und dann parallel zum Ufer. Als ich in die Reichweite eines Suchlichtes kam, das über dem Wasser spielte, tauchte ich unter. Als ich nach oben kam ging das Suchlicht gerade über mich hinweg, aber nichts geschah und ich wusste, dass ich unendeckt geblieben war. Ich schwamm bis zur Erschöpfung, einige Stunden vor der Morgendämmerung schwamm ich zum Ufer und versteckte mich in einer Höhle zwischen zwei Felsen im Meer in Ufernähe. Da verblieb ich zum Morgen. Am nächsten Morgen kletterte ich den Abhang hinauf,wo ich ein steinernes Gebilde sah, das wie ein Grab aussah. Ich ging hinein und schaute mir die Umgebung durch eine kleine Öffnung an. Ich sah ein kleines Dorf, später lernte ich, dass es Kemal-Pascha war. Erst dachte ich ein Minarett wäre ein Beobachtungsturm. Ich nahm an, es wäre das Dorf Sarpi noch immer auf russischem Boden. Ich war sehr durstig und kletterte den Hügel hinunter zu einem Bach um zu trinken. Ich traf einen 11 oder 12 jährigen Buben den ich russisch ansprach, aber der Bub lief weg. Ich war noch immer nicht sicher wo ich war, ich ging ein Stück im Bach um meine Fussabdrücke zu verbergen. Dann versteckte ich mich im Gebüsch bis zur Dunkelheit. Ich ging dann um das Dorf herum zum anderen Ende. Ich betrat das Dorf und klopfte an die Tür eines Hauses, das am Abhang eines Hügels lag. Ich rief in russischer Sprache. Ich hörte Stimmen und Fusstritte im Haus, aber niemand öffnete. Ich kletterte auf das Dach eines Stalles im Hof und verbrachte dort die Nacht. Früh am nächsten Morgen wurde ich durch Geräusche im Hof geweckt. Ich sah einige Frauen und zwei Männer. Ich näherte mich ihnen und versuchte mich durch Zeichensprache zu verständigen und zu erklären, dass ich aus Russland kam. In der Zwischenzeit waren Menschen mit Stöcken und Äxten auf den Hof gekommen. Ich versuchte wieder zu erklären, dass ich aus Russland käme und in der Türkei verbleiben möchte. Die Männer nahmen mich dann zu den militärischen Behörden in Kemal-Pascha.

Als ich in Batumi ins Wasser ging,hatte ich Schwimmhosen an, einen Gürtel und ein paar Schwimmflossen. Ich hatte ein Klappmesser im Gürtel, einen Sack Nadeln um mich zu stechen im Falle eines Krampfes, mein Geld war in einem Nylonsack, 3 Tafel Schockolade, ein Kompass und zwei Phenamin Tabletten um meine Energie zu heben, in einem anderen Nylonsack. Mit Ausnahme des Suchlichtes auf dem Wasser, das ich durch Tauchen zu umgehen suchte, gab es keine anderen Hindernisse.

Ich hatte niemanden von meinen Fluchtplänen erzählt und niemand hat mir dabei geholfen.

Von Kemal-Pascha, wo ich Kleider bekam,wurde ich mit dem Wagen nach Erserum gebracht und von dort mit dem Zug nach Istanbul ins Flüchtlingslager. Dort war ich eine Woche und wurde dann mit Hilfe von US Behörden am Freitag den 6. Juli 1962 nach Deutschland gebracht.

25. DOKUMENTE:

A. PASS:

Ich erhielt meinen ersten drei Jahre gültigen Pass von der

B. MILITÄRBUCH: (Wojennii Bilet)

Siehe Para. 18. In der Armee hatte ich ein Soldbuch (slushebnaja knishka), welches ich meinem rayonwojenkomat nach meiner Entlassung aus der Armee übergab.

C. ARBEITSBUCH: (Trudowaja Knishka)

Ich besass keines, da es von dem Arbeitsgeber ausgestellt wird und wenn jemand seinen Arbeitsplatz ändert , dem neuen Arbeitsgeber übergeben wird. Ich aber habe niemals meinen Arbeitsplatz verändert.

Sehr geehrte ~~Herr~~ ~~Frau~~ Frl. American Friends of Russian Freedom

Betrifft: Ihr Schreiben vom 31/8 1962

RICHTLINIEN FÜR DIE ERTEILUNG EINES VISUMS UND DIE EINREISE VON TOURISTEN

Wir erlauben uns, Ihnen nachstehend einige grundsätzliche Erklärungen über die Erteilung von Visa und die Einreise von Touristen in Chile zu geben. Ausländer können in Chile unter verschiedenen Voraussetzungen einreisen:

1) als Tourist
2) mit einem Arbeitsvertragsvisum (VISACION DE RESIDENTE SUJETO A CONTRATO)
3) als Studierender (VISACION DE RESIDENTE ESTUDIANTE)
4) zu einem längeren befristeten Aufenthalt (VISACION DE RESIDENTE TEMPORARIO)
5) als Einwanderer (VISACION DE INMIGRACION)

I. TOURISTEN

a) Auf Grund eines besonderen Abkommens zwischen Deutschland und Chile und eines besonderen chilenischen Gesetzes kann man in Chile zu einem Aufenthalt von höchstens 90 Tagen als Tourist ohne Visum einreisen. (In besonderen Fällen besteht die Möglichkeit, die Aufenthaltsdauer ein einziges Mal um weitere 90 Tage in Chile verlängern zu lassen).

b) Als Tourist kann man in Chile mit folgenden Unterlagen einreisen: Gültiger Pass ohne Visum, oder gültiger Personalausweis, aus dem der vollständige Name, Geburtsort und -datum, Staatsangehörigkeit, Beruf, Wohnort, Ausstellungsdatum und Gültigkeitsdauer hervorgehen, und der Stempel und Unterschrift der ausstellenden Behörde sowie ein Lichtbild des Inhabers enthält.

c) Außerdem ist ein von einem Amtsarzt ausgestellter Internationaler Pockenimpfschein mitzuführen, der 2 Jahre Gültigkeit hat.

d) Bei der Einreise ist die Rückpassage in das Herkunftsland oder die Passage für ein anderes Land vorzulegen, für das der Tourist eine Genehmigung zur Einreise besitzt.

e) Bei der Einreise in Chile erhält der Tourist eine "Tarjeta de Turismo" (Touristenkarte), die in zweifacher Ausfertigung auszufüllen ist.

f) Wer in Chile als Tourist einreist, kann dort keine bezahlte Tätigkeit ausüben. In Ausnahmefällen kann das Innenministerium in Chile eine Genehmigung für die Ausübung einer solchen Tätigkeit für eine Höchstdauer von 5 Tagen erteilen.

g) Personen, die als Touristen in Chile einreisen, können dort keine "VISACION DE RESIDENTE TEMPORARIO" beantragen (siehe Art. IV)

h) Als Touristen werden Personen angesehen, die als Erholungsreisende, wegen sportlicher Interessen, in Ausübung einer geschäftlichen Tätigkeit ohne Entgelt, aus familiären Interessen, etc. nach Chile kommen, ohne die Absicht zu haben, für immer im Land zu bleiben oder dort zu arbeiten.

i) Für eine Touristenreise brauchen keine konsularischen Formalitäten erfüllt zu werden.

j) Inhaber eines "Staatenlosen-Passes" können in Chile unter den gleichen Bedingungen als Touristen einreisen, wenn außerdem folgende Voraussetzungen erfüllt werden:

1) Der Reisepass muß von einer Behörde seines Aufenthaltslandes oder von einer von Chile anerkannten internationalen Stelle ausgestellt sein und alle für die Rückreise erforderlichen Transitvisa oder ein Einreisevisum in ein anderes Land enthalten.

2) Der Passinhaber muß im Besitz einer Genehmigung zur Wiedereinreise in sein gegenwärtiges Aufenthaltsland sein.

II. VISACION DE RESIDENTE SUJETO A CONTRATO (Einreise auf Grund eines Arbeitsvertragsvisums)

a) Dieses Visum wird Personen erteilt, die zur Erfüllung eines Arbeitsvertrages nach Chile fahren.

b) Es wird für eine Dauer von höchstens zwei Jahren erteilt. Das Ende des Vertrages bedeutet jedoch stets das Ende der Gültigkeitsdauer des Visums.

c) Zur Beantragung des Visums ist der Arbeitsvertrag vorzulegen, auf dem mindestens die Unterschrift des Arbeitgebers notariell beglaubigt sein muß. Der Vertrag muß eine Klausel enthalten, daß der Arbeitgeber sich in jedem Fall verpflichtet, die Kosten für die Rückreise des Arbeitnehmers zu übernehmen. Das Konsulat behält sich das Recht vor, eventuell eine Garantie für die Bezahlung dieser Kosten zu verlangen. Außerdem werden die in unserem Circular Nr.3 bezeichneten Unterlagen benötigt.

d) Bei Vertragsende kann von den chilenischen Behörden ein neues Visum oder die "Permanencia Definitiva" (Daueraufenthaltsgenehmigung) erteilt werden.

e) Die Visumgebühren betragen DM 36,2o pro Pass.

III. VISACION DE RESIDENTE ESTUDIANTE (Visum für Studienzwecke)

b) Es ist ihm nicht gestattet, ohne besondere vorherige Genehmigung des chilenischen Innenministeriums eine bezahlte Tätigkeit im Land auszuüben.

c) Unter besonderen Umständen kann der Inhaber dieses Visums evtl. mit einem Dauervisum in Chile bleiben. Nach einem zweijährigen Aufenthalt in Chile hat er das Recht, die "Permanencia Definitiva" zu beantragen (Daueraufenthaltsgenehmigung).

d) Die Visumgebühren betragen DM 36,2o pro Pass.

IV. VISACIONES DE RESIDENTE TEMPORARIO (Visum für befristeten Aufenthalt)

a) Dieses Visum wird Ausländern erteilt, die sich länger als 9o Tage in Chile aufhalten wollen und zu einem Verwandtenbesuch oder wegen anderer Interessen nach Chile kommen, oder wenn die chilenischen Behörden der Auffassung sind, daß der Aufenthalt in Chile von besonderem Nutzen für das Land ist. Das Visum berechtigt zu einem Aufenthalt von einem Jahr. Es kann innerhalb seiner Gültigkeitsdauer, jedoch nicht nachher verlängert werden. Nach Ablauf eines Jahres muß der Inhaber des Visums, wenn er in Chile bleiben will, die "Permanencia Definitiva" (Daueraufenthaltsgenehmigung) beantragen. Auch wer dieses Visum in Chile erhalten hat, muß die "Permanencia Definitiva" ein Jahr nach der Visumerteilung bzw. nach zwei Jahren seines dortigen Aufenthaltes beantragen.

b) Die ausländische Ehefrau eines Chilenen wird als Inhaberin einer Visación de RESIDENTE TEMPORARIO betrachtet, wenn sie mit einem chilenischen Pass nach Chile kommt oder im Pass ihres Ehemannes eingetragen ist.

c) Die Visumgebühren betragen DM 36,2o pro Pass.

V. VISACION DE INMIGRACION (Einwanderungsvisum)

a) Nach dem chilenischen D.F.L. Nr.69 (Gesetz Nr.69) wird das Einwanderungsvisum solchen Personen erteilt, die mit ihrer Familie nach Chile auswandern, um dort eine selbständige Tätigkeit technischer Art oder auf einem sonstigen Spezialgebiet auszuüben. Das Visum berechtigt zu einem unbefristeten Aufenthalt und zur Berufsausübung in Chile.

b) Bei der Begutachtung der Vergünstigungen für Einwanderer wird der Faktor Arbeit vor dem Faktor Kapital bewertet.

c) Das Umzugsgut des Einwanderers ist, abgesehen von einer kleinen Gebühr, zoll- und steuerfrei und auch frei von Lagergebühren.

e) Die Visumgebühren betragen DM 9,1o pro Pass.

Bei der Anfertigung der Gepäckliste für ein Einwanderungsvisum ist folgendes zu beachten:

1) Wenn das Visum bei dem Konsulat beantragt wird, dann ist die Gepäckliste in 7 Exemplaren anzufertigen. Wird das Visum in Chile beantragt, so genügen 5 Exemplare, die bei Visumerteilung vorzulegen sind. Die vorgeschriebene Form geht aus unserem Circular Nr.8 hervor.

2) Die Gepäckliste darf nur Gegenstände zum persönlichen Bedarf und zur Berufsausübung enthalten, die vor Erteilung des Visums Eigentum des Einwanderers waren und aus seinem Herkunftsland stammen. Es muß sich um gebrauchte Gegenstände handeln. In Ausnahmefällen können sie neu sein, doch müssen sie vor der Visumerteilung erworben worden sein.

3) Unter Gegenständen zur Berufsausübung sind nur solche zu verstehen, die der Fortsetzung der Tätigkeit dienen, die der Auswanderer bisher in Deutschland ausgeübt hat.

6) In Ausnahmefällen kann der Einwanderer ein Motorfahrzeug mitnehmen. Es kann ein Lastkraftwagen, Jeep, Tempowagen oder Lieferwagen sein. Lastkraftwagen, Jeep und Tempowagen können zollfrei eingeführt werden, jedoch für einen Lieferwagen sind 1oo% des FOB-Wertes zu zahlen. Personenwagen oder andere Fahrzeuge kann der Einwanderer nicht mitnehmen. Er kann jedoch auch einen Traktor mitnehmen, wenn dieser für seine Tätigkeit erforderlich ist.

7) Das Umzugsgut darf keine Kunst- oder Luxusgegenstände, wie z.B. echte Teppiche, Gobelins, Musikschränke, etc. enthalten.

ALLGEMEINES

1) Das Konsulat läßt nur in den Fällen den Interessenten Antragsformulare zugehen, wenn genaue Anhaltspunkte bekannt sind und mit der Möglichkeit einer Genehmigung zur Visumerteilung zu rechnen ist. Sie werden jedoch nicht auf Anfragen allgemeiner Art zugesandt.

2) Zur Beantragung eines Visums bitten wir nur die Unterlagen einzureichen, die in unserem Circular Nr. 3 angekreuzt sind. Die übrigen Unterlagen sind erst zur Visumerteilung vorzulegen. Zur Antragstellung empfehlen wir die Unterlagen nach vorheriger schriftlicher Anmeldung persönlich im Konsulat vorzulegen.

3) Bei schriftlichen Anfragen bitten wir in jedem Fall einen Freiumschlag beizufügen.

4) Um persönliche Auskünfte einzuholen, bitten wir um vorherige schriftliche Anmeldung für einen Werktag außer Samstag, 9 Uhr.

5) Zur Visumerteilung ist in jedem Fall die persönliche Anwesenheit der betreffenden Personen (mit Ausnahme von Kindern unter 15 Jahren) erforderlich.

6) Obwohl die Einreisegenehmigung vom chilenischen Außenministerium erteilt wird, behält sich das Chilenische Generalkonsulat das Recht vor, die Richtigkeit der gemachten Angaben zu prüfen.

7) Für alle Visumarten wird ein internationaler Pockenimpfschein benötigt, der von einem Amtsarzt ausgestellt sein muß. Seine Gültigkeitsdauer beträgt 2 Jahre.

8) Minderjährige (unter 21 Jahren) benötigen, wenn sie nicht in Begleitung des Erziehungsberechtigten reisen, eine notariell beglaubigte Einwilligungserklärung des Vaters oder sonstigen Erziehungsberechtigten, die die Reise ins Ausland und den Aufenthalt dort gestattet.

9) Das Konsulat nimmt keine Arbeitsvermittlung für Chile vor. Es empfiehlt Interessenten unverbindlich, sich an folgende deutschsprachige Zeitung zu wenden:

Gentlemen:

We acknowledge receipt of your inquiry concerning the immigration program for refugees and are glad to answer the following questions:

1.) For immigration a special immigration permit, issued by Instituto de Reforma Agraria, Asuncion, must be obtained. Only upon receipt of such permit we will issue an immigration visa. Citizens of various countries do not need any immigration visa since July 1962.

2.) Citizenship can be obtained upon an uninterrupted stay in the country for five years.

3.) There are no limitations as to an immigration quota.

4.) Preferred professions: farmers and craftsmen, as well as wealthy persons who wish to invest funds in the country.

5.) Every immigrant must have sufficient funds in order to take care of his integration.

6.) The immigrant must be absolutely healthy and must not be handicapped in any way.

Due to a tremendous work-load we were unable to answer your letter earlier.

Dear Jerry:

Wish to thank you for your personal concern and satisfactory solution obtained in the financial settlement of my case.

I consider it a privilege to have worked with you, cooperating in a small way to preserve Democracy in the Republic of Congo.

If I can ever be of service to the United States -beloved country of my ancestors- I would consider it a high honor.

MEMORANDUM TO: Chief/KUCURL/HENGEN

FROM : Edward W. LORENTZ

SUBJECT : Eduardo Whitehouse

REFERENCE : Dir-35418

1. Edward W. LORENTZ met with Eduardo Whitehouse on 17 August 1965, relative to finalizing the Whitehouse claim for monies still due from his previous contract. LORENTZ emphasized that he was authorized to pay monies due per contract through 7 April 1965, plus a four day layover in Rome during Whitehouse's return to the U.S. This layover was due a Panam strike of which Whitehouse was inadvertently delayed through no fault of his own.

2. The aforegoing authority is based on ref and calculated as follows:

A. Base Pay for March - USD 800.

B. Base Pay 7/30 for April - USD 186.66 plus USD equivalent of USD 41.00 for actual expenses while 2½ days in Rome.

C. Total USD 1027.66.

3. Whitehouse although feeling that he should be allowed the full amounts due amounting to USD 1950.00 has accepted such adjudication of his claim. LORENTZ feels that possibly he was sufficiently satisfied that he received any funds, that probably in his sense of fair play that the case might be considered closed. For the record, what medical treatment received by Whitehouse amounted to under USD 200. To further complete the record the following attachments are enclosed:

A. Letter from Dr. Elkhoury.

B. Second letter from Whitehouse to Jack Anderson, Leop.

C. Letter from Whitehouse to LORENTZ.

D. Bills of actual charges in Rome.

E. Receipt from Whitehouse for final payment.

F. Station memo concerning newspaper inquiry.

4. Less than 24 hours after facing Whitehouse to advise him that his claim of USD 1950 had been reduced to 1027.66, Whitehouse reacted with the newspaper media in an exemplary manner when he could have ~~reacted with~~ a adverse feeling. The Subject despite difficulties encountered in the field with KUBARK advisors appears to be man of honor and certainly under controlled situations is a professional pilot and could be an asset to KUBARK interests.

Mr. Jerry Sounders
P.O Box 531

Miami, Fla.

Dear Mr. Sounders:

Three months have passed by since my return from Leopoldville and as I explained to you in our past meetings, the amounts corresponding to the basic pay of of March, April and up to the 13th of May, -when my contract expired- are still unpaid therefore leaving an outstanding balance of $1950.00 in my favor.

Although I appreciate your concern in this case, I wish to inform you about certain facts concerning my work in the Congo that will explain how every cent of the mentioned amount was earned.

When pilot Fausto Gomez was shot down near Bunia -Dec. 17th 1964- that Air Base became paralized as two of the pilots resigned and the only one remaining was ready to leave. Every one refused to take charge of the Bunia Base because of the proximity of the rebels, dangerous terrain, living conditions below standards, improper food, etc. Under these adverse circumstances I accepted the position of Chief Pilot and left the confortable quarters of Stanleyville. Arrived to Bunia Dec. 25th 1964 and next day reasumed full air operations against the rebels flying two and three missions per day as squadron leader with new unexperienced pilots. These pilots did not have shooting, combat manuvering instruction, therefore I instructed them and also in Dead Reckoning, instrument flying, etc. We hit the enemy day by day forcing them to retreat to the very border of Northeast Congo. M. Godefroid Munongo -Minister of the Interior- personally congratulated us for our accomplishements in behalf of the Congo.

When I became ill, due to improper food, parasites, etc,. I was ordered back to Leopoldville for medical treatment. Unable to recover and having lost 25 pounds, Dr. Elkhoury suggested me return to Miami for a more adequate treatment. Photostatic copy of certificate are attached. Left Leopoldville April 3 1965 with the understanding that my contract was not being cancelled. I sincerely believe that my work and dedication throughout the entire campaing in Northeast Congo deserved the full payment of the mentioned contract.

Your consideration to this matter would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

E. J. Whitehouse

1. As we both know the Whitehouse case has been kicked around sufficiently that the finalizing of the case should be effected as soon as possible. My trip with Larry Murphy to Dow Leutcher's office, in my estimation didn't produce any effective decision. Mr. Leutcher's point of view was, if the man was due the money, pay him. If he was not due the money, don't pay him. I will give you the facts as I see them and if you feel that it is prudent to seek the advice of Jack Anderson for his opinion I'm sure it will be most helpful.

5. LEOP-8117 dated 7 April, allowed Perez to depart 8 April and recommended approval to pay full salary till 25 April. (Opinion - is this a case of paying a man full salary on one hand while not paying another under the same circumstances)?

11. There is no doubt that (W) was ill and based upon medical opinion, as late as 7 May, in my personal observation that the man was incompatiated from performing a full time job that based upon the fact that no definitive or written agreement was made prior to departure, that the Subject be paid in full for the six months term of his contract. (Opinion - there is know doubt in my mind that this man firmly believes that he is entitled to the salary based strictly upon the fact that he was "evacuated" not terminated.

12. I don't feel the man is unscrupulous enough to blackmail to obtain what he feels is truthfully his, but feel positive that he will speak to anyone of influence to assist in obtaining back salaries that he feels is his. Cite the five reasonably important personnel references that he lists on his Job Application Form. We are not dealing with the common type individual using vealied threats, but someone who is an intelligent individual who at one time exerted enough influence on Jack Anderson to appoint a Chief Pilot and further influence Gen. Lewis Walsh into taking action to hire some of his buddys.

The $10.00 charge for treatment included injection, medicine and prostate massage. Ther was no extra Charge for sinus treatment.

Whitehouse required approximately twenty-five hours T-28 flight instruction Leop prior to field deployment. Functioned very marginally as Chief Pilot Bunia and continually requested transfer to multi-engine. Due to apprehension made himself physically and mentally incapable of tactical flight.

It is my opinion that he should not be considered for any future tactical operations and would not be acceptable for recontract in Congo operations.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, SOD/Air Branch

SUBJECT : WITHRUSH Contract

1. On Wednesday, 12 May 1965, I discussed with Mr. Dow Letcher, OP/CPD, the WITHRUSH contract with which you are familiar and under which Eduardo Whitehouse served in the Congo. This is the standard contract for Cuban and European WITHRUSH pilot employees. Specifically, I was interested in learning from Mr. Letcher if he believed Paragraph 7 D could be applicable to the case of Mr. Whitehouse since Mr. Whitehouse desires assistance in paying medical bills for a physical disability (which may be temporary) which may have been incurred while he was serving with us in the Congo.

2. This memorandum makes record of the fact that, judging from what Mr. Letcher had to say about the WITHRUSH contract, and also in view of Mr. Ben DeFelice's recently expressed concern regarding the benefits aspects of that contract, action should be taken to review and, if necessary, revise the contract at the earliest possible date. This stems from the strong possibility that Cuban pilots who suffer injuries or disabilities while serving with WITHRUSH may wish, as in the case of Whitehouse, to claim benefits after the termination of the contract, for conditions which originated during the term of the contract.

3. On 12 May 1965 I provided Mr. Letcher with a draft form of a proposed WITHRUSH contract pertaining to rotary wing aircraft pilots only and asked that he review it and judge its adequacy.

Dear Mr. Medell,

Mr. Whitehouse has had sinus trouble off and on for many years. This has been increased recently, probably due to pressure changes in aircraft.

It has been advised that he have a nasal operation for deviated septum. This structural defect is in no way related to his occupation.

Sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: WITHRUSH Crew Training Report

1. The object of the crew training was to test each pilot on his knowledge of the aircraft systems and emergency procedures and to check ride each pilot and give him refresher training as required.

2. The following named pilots received ground and flight training as listed below:

	Ground School and Training	Flight Hours
Iden A	10½	7+20
Iden B	10½	1+30
Iden C	10½	1+30
Iden D	6+00	4+30
Iden E	8+00	4+35
Iden F	10½	5+05
Iden G	26+00	7+20
Iden H	26+00	Obs. 10+40 - Trg. 8+05
Iden I	20+00	6+20

3. Evaluation of each pilot as follows:

a. Iden A - Had flown C-46 about 1200 hours before and was picking it up very nicely. I gave several engine out - single engine landing and go-arounds - no flap landing - emergency gear extension. Short field landings several ILS approaches.

b. Iden C - Was the pilot who cracked up the other C-46, plus he was unwilling to fly at night. I gave him 1½ hours of air time and recommended he be used only as a co-pilot on grounds of poor head work.

c. Iden B - He is an older pilot who would bounce the airplane and then sit there waiting for it to hit again, without adding power to let it down easy. He also wanted to feather the wrong engine after one was cut. Recommended he only be used as a co-pilot.

d. Iden D - He had been flying in and around Iden J for several years, however, in his training he was quite sloppy in his flying. he would not come within 20° of assigned heading turns at the begining.

Also he was very rough with the airplane in pitch control. On ILS approaches he would vary the manifold pressure from 12" to 30" to try and stay on the glide slope. On short field landing and take-off after about six of them he started approaching the procedures I was trying to show him, but I was convinced as soon as I left the area he would return to his own style of flying. I recommended that at the end of his six month contract which was about 30 days away he be terminated.

e. Iden E - This man had previous C-46 experience of about 2000 hours. He showed great interest and did a good job from the beginning. I recommended he be used as PIC in C-46's.

f. Iden F - This man was suppose to have had a good deal of experience, but his flying left very much to be desired. He had just been convalescening from amebic dysentery. He replied when asked, that he felt up to flying but his performance was very poor. He decided he still didn't feel up to flying and returned to the doctor's care.

g. Iden G - Had previous multi-engine experience and co-pilot time in the B-26's. He progressed satisfactory and with 7+20 hours was released to the field to fly in right seat to observe tactics and gain more experience before moving to left seat as PIC.

h. Iden H - Had limited experience, however, he was very interested and applied himself to the task of checking out in the B-26K. He was very helpful in reproducing power limitations and power setting for the CB-16-17 series engine and also reproduced the P&W pamphlet on the CB-16-17 series engines, which I had brought along as a training aid. This was made required reading material for all B-26 drivers. This man rode along as an observer while Iden G was being trained, which aided him when he started flying. I recommended he also be released to the field and ride the right seat to observe tactics and gain more experience before flying missions in the left seat.

i. Iden I - The Chief Pilot of the group is a very capable pilot who applies himself very well. He appears to be interested in improving the professional standards of his pilots. I had several rides with him (6+20) until I felt he would be able to instruct the rest of the pilots in the proper procedures to be used in the B-26K's.

4. The training program was quite curtailed by the restrictions to Iden K. Most of the pilots were required to remain out in the field to meet operational needs. Also only one B-26 was available in Iden K which was in check till 18 March and then was not available two other days because of maintenance.

5. I recommend that Air Operations Officers be checked out in the equipment they are supervisors for in order to keep on top of their pilots proficiency. The pilots that are sent over should be screened better so as not to require so much training in the field.

Re: WHITEHOUSE, Eduardo

Dear Mr. Medell,

Mr. Whitehouse was seen by me yeaterday for a general physical examination. He holds a current F.A.A. Class II medical certificate issued by me 10 Nov. 1964.

Mr. Whitehouse related a history as follows: He has been out of the country for five months and had bloody diarrhea off and on for 2½months. He has had sinus trouble with pain and nasal discharge and increased symptoms with pressure changes. His weight loss has been 20 pounds. His prostate became inflammed and tender.

Results of yesterdays physical exam are as follows: Chest Xray was normal and consistant with one taken at this office 10 November 1964; E.E.N. & T. all normal; Heart - normal size, rhythm, sounds; Abdomen -negative including hernia; Thyroid - normal; Blood Pressure 150/104; pulse rate at rest - 74;

Electrocardiogram was within normal limits; urinaly-s sis - sug. - neg. alb. - neg. micro. - neg.; Sed Rate 3mm/hr.; Hbg. 14 gms. RBC 4,500,000 WBC 7,700 diff. - seg. 62 lymph. 31 stab. 4 mono. 3;

This patient is at present in an acute Anxiety State, has acute and chronic sinusitis, and seems to be recovering from what is probably chronic amoebic dy sentary. I found the prostate to be normal. His sinuses were treated with drops and diathermy. I asked that he keep a temperature chart, Durabolin 1cc was given i.m. and three other medicines were given to be taken orally for treatment of his sinuses and his anxiety state.

Mr. Whitehouse is to return today for another sinus treatment, Xrays of the sinuses, and he is to bring in a specimen of feces. His treatment should continue approximately two or three times weekly until his sinuses are clear and medication relieves his anxiety state and nervousness.

Thank you for referring this airman.

I certify I have given Mr Eduardo Whitehouse Six Hours and Forty Five (6:45) minutes of dual instruction in North American AT-6D and I found him to be proficient and safe in this aircraft.

He is average in coordination and in my estimate his potential ability to fly tactics is limited.

I reccomed he should be given two more hours in this aircraft.
